

Dear sir,

I cannot take into my house, as a boarder and lodger, the young gentleman, whom you wish to put under my care; but I will, with pleasure, do for him any good office in my power. I am, with sincere respect,

Dear sir,

your most obedient

J. Wylke.

Dear Mother
I received your letter of the 14th and was glad to hear from you. I am well and hope these few lines will find you the same.
I have not much news to write at present.

Yours affectionately
John
