

Virginia, to wit: Whereas we have been nominated and appointed by the honourable the General Court to examine into the Capacity, Ability and Fitness of such persons as shall apply to practise as Attorneys in the County, or inferior Courts of this Colony, And whereas S^t George Tucker hath applied to us for a License to practise as an Attorney, and produced to us a Certificate from the Court of Hustings in this City of his Honesty, Probity and good Character, and also paid down to us the sum of twenty shillings, and we having examined him touching his Capacity, Ability and Fitness to practise as an Attorney pursuant to an Act of Assembly in that Case made and provided, and finding him duly qualified, These are therefore to permit the said S^t George Tucker to practise as an Attorney in the County, or other inferior Courts in this Colony. Given, under our Hands and Seals at Williamsburg the fourth Day of April, in the fourth Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord George the Third, King of Great Britain &c. Annoq Domini one thousand seven hundred and seventy four.

John Randolph

C. Wythe

