N.Y. Lawyer 7th Recipient of Law Medallion

The Marshall-Wythe School of Law honored Whitney North Seymour of New York, a past president of the American Bar Association, at its annual law review banquet Saturday at the Williamsburg Lodge.

Mr. Seymour received the Marshall-Wythe Medallion which was commissioned in 1966 for presentation by the School of Law to leaders of the legal profession in the United States and abroad.

Mr. Seymour, senior partner of the New York law firm of Simpson, Thatcher and Bartlett, was president of the American Bar Foundation from 1960-64; president of the American College of Trial Lawyers, 1963-64; president of the Institute of Judicial Administration, 1968-69; and president and chairman of the American Arbitration Association, 1953-55 and again from 1955-57. He was president of the American Bar Association from 1960-61.

Whitney Seymour

Mr. Seymour serves as chairman of the Board of Trustees of the Carnegie Endowment for International Peace, and during his half century of practice in New York City has had more than 50 cases before the Supreme Court.

He has received many awards during his career in law and in 1971 received the highest award given an attorney, the American Bar Association Medal. He is an honorary bencher of Lincoln's Inn, London, and a member of the Order of the Coif.

Mr. Seymour is the seventh to receive the Marshall-Wythe Medallion.

Recipients to date include Norris Darrell (1967), president, American Law Institute; Roger J. Traynor (1968), chief justice of California; A. James Casner (1969), Weld Professor of Law, Harvard University; Arthur L. Goodhart (1970), editor, Law Quarterly Review and master of University College, Oxford; Bernard G. Segal (1971), past president, American Bar Association; and Lewis F. Powell, Jr. (1972), Associate Justice of the United States.

Earth Day is Planned Saturday

Six students from Project PLUS are planning a program for Earth Day, Saturday, April 14. Gerald Johnson of the Geology Department is serving as faculty advisor.

Three major projects have been designated by planners at Crim Dell, College Woods and William and Mary Hall.

At Crim Dell work will include construction of a foot bridge across the lower part of north branch, readjusting rip-rap on north branch, cleaning of the bottom and digging out shallow areas on both branches, as well as a clean-up of the area.

At College woods, workers will be primarily concerned with cleaning up paths and adjacent areas, installing road blocks for motorcycles and installing refuse containers.

At William and Mary Hall work will be directed toward erosion abatement on fills behind the hall.

Work parties will assemble between 9:30 and 10 a.m., at the Crim Dell bridge, the south entrance to William and Mary Hall and at Project PLUS.

The Earth Day planning committee composed of Alan Finder, Elizabeth "Bee" Cumby, Patricia Kaericher, Stephen Libera, Douglas Pilley and Cary White hope they will get support for Earth Day from students, faculty and staff.

Black Culture Week Begins Monday

"The Black Arts," emphasizing the accomplishments of the Black man in America, will be the theme of Black Culture Week on campus, April 16 - 20, sponsored by the BSO.

Program for the week includes a BSO Talent Show, April 16 at 8 p.m. in the Campus Center Little Theatre; a performance by the Norfolk State College Dance Group, April 19 at 8 p.m. in the Campus Center Little Theatre; a concert by the choir from Virginia State College, April 18, 8 p.m., Blow Gym; a performance by the Alonzo Players, a New York theatrical group, April 19 at 8 p.m. in Blow gymnasium and a dance, April 20 at 8 p.m. in William and Mary Hall featuring the 21st Century Band of Norfolk.

Tickets for the Alonzo Players are $2 for students, $2.50 for adults. All other events are open to the public without charge.

"Black Culture Week should be beneficial to the entire College community as well as the surrounding community," said Eric Revis, president of the Black Students Organization.

'Oldies but Goodies'

Theme of

Mermettes Show

The Mermettes will take the theme of vintage movies for their spring aquatic art show entitled "Oldies but Goodies."

The show will be presented three nights, April 11, 12 and 13 at Adair Pool at 8:15 p.m. There is no admission charge.

Such old movie greats as Charles Chaplin, Rudolph Valentino, Mae West and W. C. Fields will be included in the water show which has been choreographed by the Mermettes and will be swum by members of the organization.

The program includes aquatic interpretations of scenes from "The Wizard of Oz," "Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs," "Gone with the Wind," "West Side Story," and "Peter Pan."

The Mermettes have added a good share of humor to their nostalgic look at the old flicks. They will leave their audiences with a real cliff hanger ending in "A Saturday Serial, Buck Rogers, Part I." "Tom and Jerry," taken from the cat and mouse cartoon show, presents some unusual problems for the prop designers who have had to come up with a large piece of cheese that floats.

Libby Frazier and Kathy Koczyk are co-directors of the Mermettes. Jeanie Dunman is secretary-treasurer. Historian is Jeanie Lucas. Miss Jan Tomlinson is faculty adviser.

Backdrop for the show has been designed and executed by Megan Philpotts and Chris McKechnie. Miss Philpotts also designed the program for the show. Susan Early and Kaye Cox are handling publicity; Lyn Kroeger, lighting; Pat Hand and Leslie Scent, costumes.

Narration in the various numbers, by Linda Musser, will be read by Kim Strong.

English

Assistant professor James Marlow's essay, "American: In the Brown-bag," was awarded second prize in the 55th annual Irene Leache Memorial contest last month.

Philosophy

Professor David H. Jones' paper, "Freud's Theory of Moral Conscience," has been reprinted in an anthology, Conscience, just published by Alba House, N.Y.

Government

Richard E. Damon, assistant professor, has been awarded a Fulbright junior lectureship for the academic year 1973-74. He will teach contemporary American politics at the University of Clermont, in Clermont-Ferrand, France. As part of his interest in comparative institutional forms of government, he hopes to undertake research on the French legislature. Mr. Damon will be accompanied by his wife, Debby, and daughter, Andrea, age two.

Physics

Norman F. Ramsey, Higgins Professor of Physics at Harvard University, will visit the Physics Department, Friday, April 13.

He will speak at a physics colloquium at 4:30 p.m. in S-109 on the topic "Beams of Molecules, Atoms and Nucleons."

Coffee will be served at 4 p.m. in S-126.

Mr. Ramsey has made major contributions in several areas of physics. He has been especially active in the determination of the electric and magnetic moments of fundamental particles and nuclei; this work will be the subject of his talk.

B. Davis (l), D. Cunningham, P. DiCola

There is an adage "a workman is no better than his tools." By the same token, an office or department is no stronger than those who comprise its staff.

And so it is with the Personnel Office, commented director Irving H. Robitshek, referring to his staff: Debbie Cunningham, secretary; Barbara A. Davis, clerk; and Phyllis E. DiCola, placement interviewer.

"We try to put the personal in personnel," Mr. Robitshek stated. "Every piece of paper is treated like a person."

Longest term employee on the Personnel Office team is Debbie, who came to William and Mary in January, 1970, as secretary to the Assistant to the Vice-President for Business Affairs.

A 1967 graduate of Warwick High School, Debbie was employed in both the Civilian and Military Personnel departments at Fort Eustis, 1968-69. She enjoys experimental cooking and being a housewife in her spare time. Her husband, Fred, is a Civil Service employee at the Naval Weapons Station, and both are natives of the peninsula.

Phyllis, who joined the Personnel staff in December, 1971, received the B.A. degree in anthropology from The Ohio State University.

Hiking is a favorite pastime for Phyllis and hubby Lt. James DiCola of Fort Eustis. The DiColas are natives of Columbus, Ohio.

The latest arrival in Personnel is Barbara, a member of the staff since January of this year. A 1967 graduate of Middleton High School in Tampa, Florida, she was formerly employed as a clerk typist with the Jim Walters Corporations in that city. She also attended Hillsborough Community College.

Barbara is in Williamsburg with husband Hiawatha, a tour coordinator at Anheuser-Busch. The Davises have one daughter, Antoinette, age five.

Official Memoranda

To: College Community Date: April 6, 1973
Subject: Revised Salaries for Classified Employees

I am delighted to report that substantial salary increases will be possible later this Spring for members of our classified service at William and Mary. The Governor has approved revised pay ranges for these permanent employees, some of which will be effective June 1 and others July 1, 1973. These salary revisions will be made according to individual job classification title. Selected classifications are being increased one step, and others two steps or more. These increases are contingent upon satisfactory job performance as evidenced by previous service ratings, and current job performance.

Deans of Faculties and Schools, and Department Heads will receive written notification in the near future of those employees under their jurisdiction that are eligible for a salary increase. This information will be forthcoming from the Director of Personnel. They will also be advised of the effective date and the number of salary steps that the employee may be advanced. Recommendations for approval or disapproval of such advancement must be furnished to the College Personnel Office on the notification form.

Every effort will be made by the College Personnel Office and the Division of Personnel in Richmond to expeditiously process the approved salary increases for eligible employees on the earliest pay day possible after the effective date. Employees are advised that questions pertaining to them as individuals must be directed to their supervisors. Employees selected for an increase are advised that any administrative delay in their receiving approved increases will be retroactive and will not result in any net loss of pay.

The action of the Governor and the recent session of the General Assembly in making these revisions possible recognizes the efforts of William and Mary and other institutions and agencies, to bring the salaries of loyal and efficient public employees to levels more in keeping with the value of their services. The increases also take into account continuing inflationary factors.

We are grateful for the assistance of the State government in dealing with this urgent need and know that the action is welcome news to many of our William and Mary families.

Thomas A. Graves, Jr.
President

Date: April 5, 1973

To: All Deans of Schools, Department Heads, and Other Administrative Personnel

Subject: Processing of travel vouchers, invoices, and interdepartmental transfers

Effective this date, all travel vouchers, invoices, and interdepartmental transfers should be forwarded to the Treasurer-Auditor's Office for processing. Necessary inquiries regarding the procedures involved should be directed either to Mrs. Chandler or to Mrs. Miller at Ext. 210 or 221.

It should be noted that such forms and/or inquiries should NOT be addressed to the Purchasing Office, since the entire procedure involving these specific forms has been transferred to the Treasurer-Auditor's Office.

Thank you for your cooperation in this matter.

Floyd E. Whitaker
Treasurer-Auditor

TO: All Faculty

SUBJECT: Religion as a Concentration

Religion will be offered next year as a possible concentration for students.

Since it was erroneously omitted from the schedule of departmental meetings for prospective concentrators, April 4, 1973, there will be a special meeting for students who might be interested in religion as a concentration. The meeting will be held Thursday, April 12, 1973, 4:30 p.m. in Jones 202.

Please announce this meeting in all of your classes.

Robert A. Johnson
Associate Dean of the Faculty of Arts and Sciences

Virginia Public Administrators Here Thursday

State Senators Frederick Gray of Chesterfield County and Russell Townsend of Chesapeake and Julian Hurst, executive director of the Virginia Municipal League, will participate in a panel discussion on "The 1973 Legislative Session: Implications for Virginia Public Administrators," Thursday, April 12.

The public is invited to attend.

The panel discussion will be part of a dinner program sponsored by the Virginia Chapter of the American Society for Public Administration to be held in Rooms A and B of the Campus Center at 7 p.m. The Government Department of the College will serve as host for the Chapter.

Dinner will be served at 6 p.m. A social hour will be held in the Sit 'N Bull Room of the Campus Center beginning at 5 p.m.

Reservations should be made with Joseph Miri, Department of Government, by today.

Bloodmobile Tomorrow

The Scabbard and Blade Military Honor Society on campus and the Williamsburg Kiwanis Club will co-sponsor the April Red Cross Bloodmobile tomorrow, April 11, at the United Methodist Church on Jamestown Road from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.

Quota for the Bloodmobile visit is 100 pints.

Moot Court Tournament April 14

Retired Supreme Court Justice Tom C. Clark will head a distinguished panel of state and federal jurists who will hear arguments in the second annual Invitational Moot Court Tournament Saturday, April 14.

Teams of student lawyers from the University of Virginia, Maryland, North Carolina, Georgetown and Duke will compete with the host law school in a tournament which was inaugurated last year by the moot court board of the Marshall-Wythe Student Bar Association.

Justice Clark will be joined by a panel which will include John D. Butzner, Jr., J. Braxton Craven, Jr., Donald Russell and Harrison L. Winter from the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Fourth Circuit; and Judges Richard B. Kellam, John H. MacKenzie and Robert R. Merhige, Jr., from the U.S. District Court, Eastern District of Virginia.

Oral arguments will be conducted at 9:45 a.m., 11:30 a.m., and 2:30 p.m. in the Moot Courtroom of the Law School and in the Great Hall and Blue Room of the Wren Building. All sessions are open to the public.

Project PLUS to Host Visitors

John Portz, director of honors programs at the University of Maryland, and several students will visit Project PLUS, Saturday, April 14.

Project PLUS will also host members of the executive committee of the National Collegiate Honors Council Saturday. Plans will be made for the National Convention of National Collegiate Honors Councils which will be held in Williamsburg, Oct. 25-27. The College will be the host school.

This year's case problem concerns the Allen charge or "bomb-shell instruction" and the constitutional issues which may arise when a jury reports that it is deadlocked and unable to reach a decision and receives pressure from the bench to return a verdict.

Awards to the winning team and the best oralist will be presented Saturday evening at a banquet in Williamsburg. Last year's team trophy went to William and Mary.

Yale Professor

Sigma Xi Speaker

Leon Rosenberg, chairman of the Department of Human Genetics, Yale University, will deliver two lectures April 16.

Mr. Rosenberg will deliver a Sigma Xi talk intended for general audiences at 8 p.m. in Room 113 of the William Small Physical Laboratory. His topic will be "Problems and Progress in Medical Genetics."

At noon on Monday he will give a more technical talk entitled "Inherited Disorders of Vitamin B<sub>12</sub> Metabolism," in Room 300 of Rogers Hall. This lecture will be part of the current Applied Chemistry seminar being held on campus.
