Award Given GM Chairman

The guest list sounded like a "who's who" of the business world. Yet the atmosphere at Thursday night's presentation of the Business School Medallion to Thomas A. Murphy, chairman of the board of General Motors, was a low-key elegance that was appropriate for a special "initiation" into the William and Mary family.

Charles L. Quittmeyer, dean of the School of Business Administration, presented the award to Murphy at a dinner that included guests from the big business community, state government, and the School's faculty and student body.

Brooks George, chairman of the Board of Sponsors, pointed to the event as symbolic of "the importance of teamwork" to the "remarkable achievements" of the School. He said that the School's progress could be attributed to the strong support of corporate leaders, the state legislature and Gov. John Dalton, a graduate of the College.

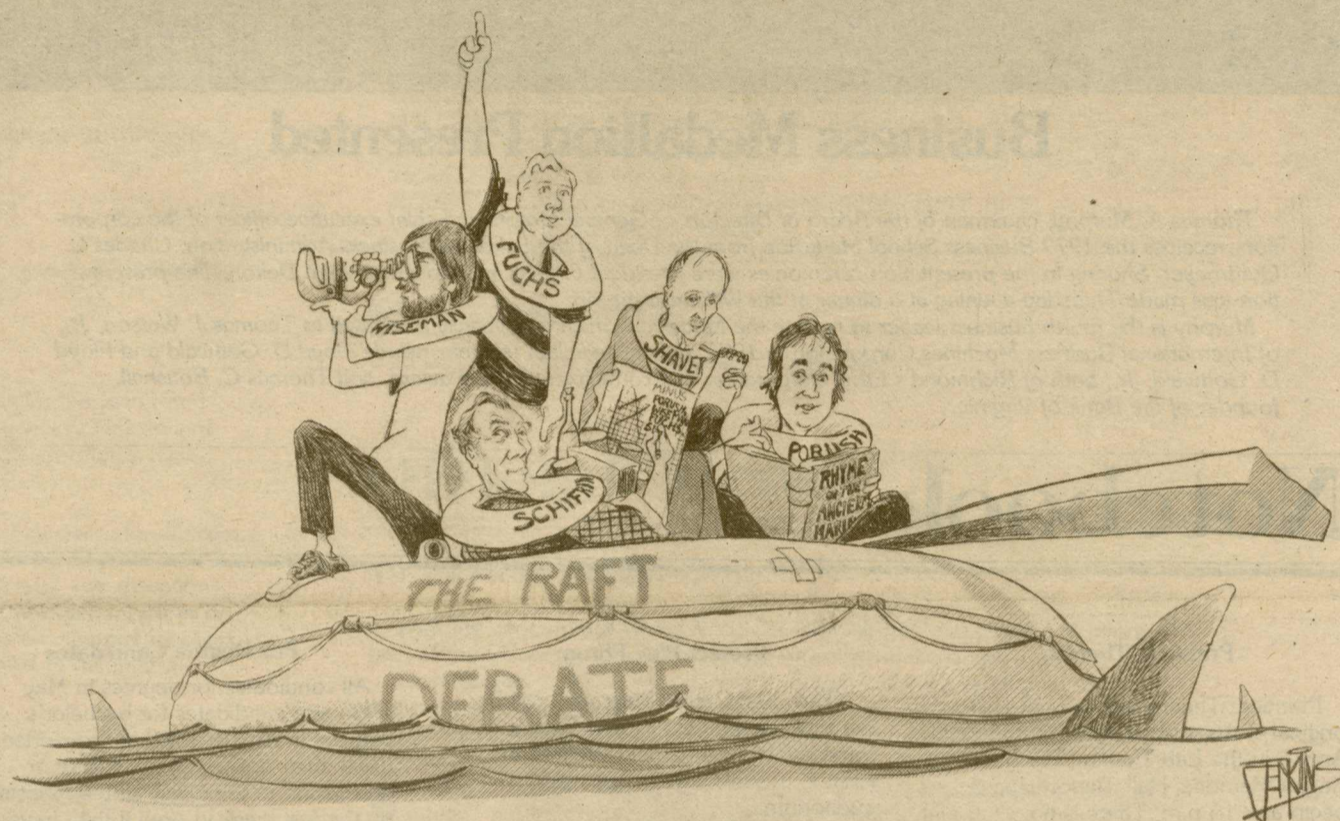

President Thomas A. Graves, Jr., echoed those remarks, pointing to the "special partnership" the school has created between business, government and education. Gov. Dalton, and Thomas C. Boushall, honorary chairman of the board for the Bank of Virginia and last year's recipient of the coveted medallion, also added their congratulations to Murphy.

Murphy was gracious in his acceptance of the award, and praised the "persistence" of Dean Quittmeyer, who worked long and hard to find a free date on the calendar of one of the nation's busiest executives. "The only 'quit' Charley Quittmeyer knows is in his name," remarked Murphy.

The GM chairman was surrounded by other chief executives, including James M. Betts, president of Continental Financial Services Co.; Charles R. Longworth, president of the Colonial Williamsburg Foundation; C. Coleman McGehee, chairman of the board of First and Merchants; William T. O'Neill, executive vice president of Newport News Shipbuilding and Dry Dock Company; David L. Peebles, president of Ferguson Enterprises; David P. Reynolds, chairman of Reynolds Metals Company; Paul H. Riley, chairman and president of Commonwealth Natural Resources, Inc.; S. Warne Robinson, chairman of G. C. Murphy Co.; and Hays T. Watkins, chairman and president of Chessie Systems, Inc.

Delegate Richard M. Bagley and T. C. Clarke, vice rector of William and Mary's Board of Visitors, were also on hand.

Debate to Decide Fate of Profs

Faculty members will engage in lively debate next Tuesday night in order to sell the importance of their particular discipline to the raft debate audience and keep from getting tossed to the sharks. The Society of Collegiate Journalists will sponsor The Raft Debate Tuesday, April 8, at 8 p.m. in the Campus Center Ballroom. The audience is the jury and will decide who stays on the one-man raft and survives the "shipwreck."

In the past the debates have sparked not only animated presentations by the scholars but also interesting interpretations of the role of the Devil's Advocate. Tuesdays' program marks a revival after an absence of several years.

This year the cast of characters for the raft debate includes Alan Fuchs, philosophy, defending Area I disciplines; Kelly Shaver, psychology, Area II; and Lawrence Wiseman, biology, Area III. David Porush, English, will be the Devil's Advocate and Leonard Schifrin, economics, will be moderator.

Tickets are 75 cents each and will be on sale at the door. Proceeds from the debate will go to the sponsoring organization.

Faculty Promotions Announced

Board of Visitors Raises Tuition, Fees

For members of the Board of Visitors meeting on campus on Friday the main order of business was the setting of tuition and general fee schedules for next year and the announcement of faculty promotions.

The tuition and general fee for in-state, full-time students was raised by $54 per semester, from $538 to $592, a total of $1.184 for both semesters of the regular session.

Tuition and general fees for out-of-state, full-time students were raised by $135 per semester, from $1,329 to $1,464, a total of $2,928 for both semesters of the regular session.

The full board rate was raised by $60 per semester, increasing the rate from $464 to $524 per semester, a total of $1,048 for both semesters of the regular session.

Room rents, which now range from $380 to $480 per semester, were raised to a range of $430 to $540 per semester, a total of $860 to $1,080 for both semesters of the regular session.

The board also approved a tuition hike for part-time students at both the graduate and undergraduate levels, effective September 1, 1980.

A rate of $40 per semester hour for Virginia students and $98 per semester hour for out-of-state students was approved. The proposed rates represent a direct proration of the full-time tuition and general fee of 1980-81 according to domiciliary status.

The percentage increase in the allocation for tuition is the same for all students both in-state and out-of-state, while the dollar increase for the general fee is the same for all students.

In 1978 the General Assembly adopted an appropriation act which included appropriations of General Fund and non-general Fund revenues that reflected the intent of moving, over several years, toward a ratio for each state college and university of 70

Census Takers Begin

Census takers are expected to begin their canvass of the campus this afternoon and will continue until the job is finished.

Business Medallion Presented

Thomas A. Murphy, chairman of the Board of Directors of General Motors and chief executive officer of the corporation, receives the 1979 Business School Medallion from the Dean of the School of Business Administration, Charles L. Quittmeyer. Sharing in the presentation ceremonies were President Graves and Governor John Dalton. The presentation was made Thursday evening at a dinner at the Williamsburg Inn.

Murphy is the fourth business leader to receive the Medallion which was initially presented to Thomas J. Watson, Jr., of International Business Machines Corporation in 1976. Other Medallion winners include Floyd D. Gottwald and Floyd D. Gottwald, Jr., both of Richmond's Ethyl Corporation and co-recipients of the award; and Thomas C. Boushall, founder of the Bank of Virginia.

Percussionist Sets Senior Recital

Susan Warr of Williamsburg, a percussionist, will present her Senior Recital on Wednesday, April 2, at 8:15 p.m. in the Great Hall of the Wren Building. Also appearing will be the percussion ensemble.

Miss Warr has been a student of John Lindberg of the Virginia Philharmonic Orchestra for four years while majoring in biology and physical education. She has been a member of the William and Mary Band and also in the orchestra for Sinfonicon's annual Gilbert and Sullivan production.

The numbers on the program encompass the three basic areas of percussion: snare drum, tympani and mallet percussion such as xylophone. The snare drum will include pieces by Pratt, Abel, and Bruce and Emmett. The highlight will be "Sonata for Tympani" by Beck, a difficult piece requiring playing the bowls of the drums and also playing with the hands.

Rounding out the program on marimba will be pieces by Tanner and Dinico-Heifetz's "Hora Staccato" and also the percussion ensemble.

This will be the only percussion concert all year.
Admission is free.

Notebook

Premiere Theatre

Premiere Theatre will present four original one-act plays April 3 through April 5 in the Lab Theatre. Phi Beta Kappa Memorial Hall. Performances begin at 8:15 p.m. There is no admission charge.

Plays to be presented include "Mama Commends My Spirit," by Kit Wilkinson; "Wild About Arnold," by Mike McLane; "In Commemoration," by Susan Burns; and "April Showers," by Gretchen Smith.

Asia House Program

Dr. Gaurang Yodh will play the sitar, accompanied by Broto Roy on the tabla, to present "The Music of India" at 7:30 p.m. Saturday, April 5, at Asia House Lobby.

Broto Roy, who will provide the tabla accompaniment, is a William and Mary student.

A reception will follow the program at 9 p.m. There is no admission charge.

Job Opportunities

The National Conference Center at the Williamsburg Hilton is advertising two job openings: Assistant Banquet Manager--must have experience in food and beverage business. Call Kay Pusey, 220-3500.

Project Plus Forum

"The Dual Career Marriage" will be the topic of the next Project Plus open forum which will be held Wednesday, April 2, at 7:30 p.m. in Millington auditorium.

Panelists will be Willard F. Emden, Jr., manager of packing and shipping, Anheuser-Busch; Karen A. Emden, assistant professor of business administration; A. Z. Freeman, professor of history; Margaret W. Freeman, associate professor of music; and Elmer J. Schaefer, associate professor of law, and Margo Schaefer, assistant professor of mathematics and computer science.

Sophomore Committee Seeks Chairperson

The Sophomore Steering Committee is currently accepting applications for the positions of chairperson and several committee members.

Applications are due April 7. Forms are available now in the office of the Dean of Students, James Blair 212.

Applicants may also call for information from Debbie Davis, Taliaferro 201.

Freshman Is Princess

Carolyn J. Scott of Arlington, a native Rhode Islander, took part in last week's Cherry Blossom Festival in Washington as the representative of the State of Rhode Island. She is a freshman at the College.

Her designation as Rhode Island's official representative was made by the Rhode Island State Society of Washington, D.C.

The week's activities included a Congressional reception honoring the various state princesses, when she was escorted by Senator Claiborne Pell of Rhode Island; tours of Washington and the White House; a Japanese luncheon; and other receptions and dinners leading up to the National Cherry Blossom Grand Ball on Saturday night.

For Degree Candidates

All candidates for degrees in May 1980 and candidates for bachelor's degrees in August 1980 are reminded to file their notices of candidacy for graduation in the Office of the Registrar by the first week in April if they have not done so already.

China Tour

Craig Canning, professor of East Asian history and literature, is planning a tour to China, July 3-24, which will visit seven cities: Peking, Tientsin, Nanking, Shanghai, Hankow, Canton, and Hong Kong. The tour is limited to five people and will cost $2792.00, which includes all transportation, accommodations and meal expenses. Tour participants may earn academic credit. For more information, contact Professor Canning at exts. 4588, 4313 or 229-3462 (home). All arrangements must be finalized by May 1.

Archaeology Speaker

The department of anthropology and the Virginia Research Center for Archaeology will sponsor an illustrated talk about "Underwater Archaeology on the Revolutionary War Vessel, Defense in Penobscot Bay, Maine" by David Switzer, Professor of History, Plymouth State College, New Hampshire, at 3 p.m. Friday, April 4, in Washington 100.

Job Opportunity

Daniel H. Wagner Associates will be opening a branch office in Hampton soon and they are interested in hiring two analysts with either a bachelor's or master's degree in mathematics or computer science. The job would begin any time after May of this year. This would require immediate action for anyone who is interested. More information may be obtained in the Office of Corporate Relations and Placement by requesting Reference M-11-1.

Revised Automobile Mileage Rate

To: The College Community

We have been advised by Mr. Edward J. Mazur, Comptroller for the Commonwealth of Virginia, that Section 4-9.08 of Chapter 850 of the Acts of Assembly of 1978, has been amended to increase the personal automobile mileage rate as follows: "---for the use of personal automobiles in the discharge of official duties within the continental limits of the United States, the reimbursement shall be at the rate of 18.5¢ per mile for the first 15,000 miles and 10¢ per mile for additional miles of such use in any fiscal year or, in the instance of a State employee, for the first fifteen thousand miles in a fiscal year at the rate charged by the Central Car Pool unless the head of the State agency concerned certifies that a State-owned vehicle was not available or that he considers use of a personal automobile to be of advantage to the State." This new 18.5¢ rate is in force from its passage date of March 20, 1980. Effective April 1, 1980, the Central Garage will charge 17¢ per mile as the new car pool rate.

Mr. Mazur notes further that mileage incurred before March 20, 1980, but reported on travel reimbursement request vouchers submitted after March 20, 1980, must be reimbursed at the old rate of 15¢ per mile.

Thank you for your cooperation in this matter.

Changes Move College Toward 70-30 Funding percent from the General Fund and 30 percent from non-general funds. (General funds are those produced by taxes, and non-general funds are those produced by student fees.) The eventual attainment of the 70-30 ratio is 1981-82.

For 1980-81 the schedule of allocation of tuition and general fee has been recommended to support continuing efforts to reach the 70-30 goal prescribed by the General Assembly. (The goal for 1980-81 is 68.8-31.2, as assigned by the State.)

In a memorandum to the College community on the fee and tuition changes, Vice President for Business

Affairs William J. Carter said, "While we regret these increases, they are nevertheless essential, and have been kept to an absolute minimum."

"The fees for 1980-81," he said, "have been established after considerable study and consultation with student representatives whose viewpoints have been taken into account carefully by the administration and the Board of Visitors."

The memorandum, said Carter, is being circulated to inform all members of the College community so that students and, where appropriate, parents and guardians may be informed directly of the changes in the fee structure for 1980-81.

Changes Explained

Tuition

These amounts are set in a continuing effort to comply with the 70-30 funding requirement of the General Assembly.

Student Activities

The increase of $3 is needed to offset small anticipated increases in the funding of the various student activities.

Intercollegiate Athletics

The $49 increase is required to fund the 1980-81 budgets for the Men's and Women's Athletic Association as recommended by the respective Directors of Athletics, and to be partially responsive to the requirements of Title IX. This increase is divided into $25 for men and $24 for women.

The anticipated response to consideration of other general increases for athletics indicates that significant modifications to these recommended budgets will result. It is recommended that, whatever increases might result, the allocation increase of $49 not be changed. Rather, we recommend that such increases be funded from the Intercollegiate Athletics Reserve Fund, as an extraordinary cost for 1980-81. (The balance in this fund currently is estimated to be approximately $300,000 as of June 30, 1980.)

Student Health and Counseling Service

The $6 increase is required to support the inflation-driven costs of operation, all normal expenses.

General Auxiliary Enterprise Services

There is no increase in this allocation of $178. Our continuing objective is to have each Auxiliary Enterprises operation be self-supporting, and, further, within current operations, to generate a repair and replacement fund. This particular allocation serves as a reserve to insure these operating objectives. The generation of such repair and replacement funds has made it possible to fund partially the recently-completed dormitory renovation program, which required appropriation of more than $1.1 million, in addition to a $3 million loan from revenue bonds.

Further, the Student Residence Complex under construction is being funded partially by $500,000 from the repair and replacement fund, with the remaining $3.5 million being provided by a loan from revenue bonds.

Another major project to be undertaken soon is renovation of the sorority court complex.

The Board of Visitors has expressed concern that the current schedule of debt should not be expanded significantly.

Bus Service

This increase of $6 is attributable primarily to increases in the costs of personnel, repair and maintenance, insurance, and gasoline. In addition, the bus route will be extended to include the new Law School building.

Debt Service

This allocation remains unchanged; the allocation is self-explanatory.

Board

The overall increase is due to the dramatic and continuing inflation-driven cost of food, the increase in minimum wages required and current replacement of equipment.

Room

Continued inflationary impact upon operational costs (personnel, utilities, maintenance and repair expense), as well as the need to continue extensive funding of furnishings and debt, dictate a large part of the increases.

Official Memo

TO: The Faculty and Administration

With the concurrence of the Rector of the College, I am pleased to inform you of the following administrative and organizational changes.

Since August 1, 1979, Mr. Stanley E. Brown has been serving, at my request, as Acting Vice President for Development, while also carrying on his regular responsibilities as Director of Placement and Director of Corporate Relations.

Starting in the 1980-81 academic year we shall be expanding the office of Placement, so that it may be fully responsive in providing service to undergraduate students, MBA students and alumni. Mr. Brown, at his request, will be returning to his placement responsibilities on a full-time basis at that time, as Director of Placement, responsible to the Vice President for Academic Affairs.

Mr. Robert P. Hunt, Dean of Admissions, will, at his request, join Mr. Brown at that time, as Associate Director of Placement, on a full-time basis.

The search for the Vice President for Development is nearing completion. We anticipate that an individual will be appointed to that position this spring, to succeed Mr. Brown at the start of the 1980-81 academic year.

We shall shortly be starting a national search for a new Dean of Admissions for the Undergraduate Program.

Theatre Readies Jean Anouilh Comedy

An aging general in love with a woman who's been waiting for him for 17 years, a hysterical invalid wife in love with her doctor, an innocent young secretary, two zany daughters and several other unusual characters make up the farcical household in Jean Anouilh's "The Waltz of the Toreadors," which will be presented by the William and Mary Theatre at 8:15 p.m. nightly, April 9-11 in Phi Beta Kappa Memorial Hall.

The ticket office in the foyer of the Phi Beta Kappa Memorial Hall will be open from 3-5:30 p.m. April 7-11 and from 7-8:15 p.m. the nights of performance. Telephone reservations may be made during box office hours by calling either 253-4272 or 253-4469. All seats are reserved. Admission price is $3.

Directed by Bruce A. McConachie, assistant professor of theatre and speech, the French comedy deals with the frustrations and complications of many interlocking triangles.

The aging general, St. Pe. is played by Spess Neblett; Julie Kelly plays his wife, Mme. St. Pe.; Karen Tolson portrays the long-suffering paramour, Ghislaine de Ste-Euverte.

Gaston, the young secretary who eventually causes major complications in the household, is played by William Schermerhorn. The General's two daughters, Sidonia and Estelle, will be played by Nan Alderson and Patricia Swanson. Brent Hamisk portrays the sophisticated physician, Dr. Bonfant.

Other cast members include Audrey Sussman as the maid; Lora Jacobsen as Mme. Dupont-Fredaine, the dressmaker; Howard Kelin as Father Ambrose; and Sarah Williams as a maid.

Christopher J. Boll, assistant professor of theatre and speech, is technical director and lighting designer for the show. Tim McGowan will be production stage manager and Tom Tickey will be his assistant. Hana Sellers will assist Boll with the lighting.
