

William and Mary NEWS

Volume IX, Number 4
Tuesday, September 16, 1980

A WEEKLY NEWSPAPER
PUBLISHED for and about the FACULTY, STUDENTS and STAFF of the COLLEGE of WILLIAM and MARY

Non-Profit Organization
U.S. Postage PAID at Williamsburg, Va.
Permit No. 26

CBS Commentator

Speakers Forum Books Eric Sevareid For Oct. 11

Eric Sevareid, an internationally recognized Dean of American Broadcasters, will speak here October 11, as part of the William and Mary Speakers Forum, at 8 p.m. in William and Mary Hall.

Columnist Jack Anderson is scheduled to speak on the Forum program Nov. 24, and actor Vincent Price, Feb. 25. There will be five speakers in all on this year's program.

The Speakers Forum is presented annually by a committee comprised of members of the Student Association, Black Students Organization, Student Legal Forum and at-large graduate and undergraduate students. Season tickets for the entire series are $3.50 for students, staff and faculty and $6 for the general public. Individual admission tickets are $1.50 for members of the College community; $2 for the general public. Tickets may be obtained at the Campus Center desk.

Sevareid, who is well known for his commentaries on national and international affairs on the CBS evening news, became a European correspondent for the Columbia Broadcasting System in August of 1939 and covered most of the major events of World War II. He broadcast the capitulation of France from Tours and Bordeaux. He has also broadcast from Africa, Asia, England, Brazil and later became a national correspondent for CBS until 1977. Since then he has served as a consultant.

Sevareid has received many honors for his work in broadcasting including the George Foster Peabody Award which he won in 1949, 1964 and 1968. He is a member and past president of the Radio-TV Correspondents Association and Sigma Delta Chi.

As well as many articles for newspapers and magazines, Sevareid is the author of several books including "Not

So Wild a Dream," 1946; "In One Ear," 1952; "Small Sounds in the Night," 1956; and "This is Eric Sevareid," 1964. He is also the author of a childrens book, "Canoeing with the Cree."

Sevareid was born in Vela, N.D. and began his career in communications as a copy boy for the Minneapolis Journal. Later he was a reporter for the Minneapolis Star and in 1938 he went to Europe as reporter and then city editor of the Paris edition of the New York Herald Tribune. He was also night editor for United Press in Paris before joining CBS.

Eric Sevareid

College Asked to Conserve Water

Dan Clayton, director of public utilities for Williamsburg has issued an urgent plea to members of the College community to conserve water.

As one of the big water users along with Eastern State Hospital, Colonial Williamsburg and some of the larger hotels, the College is being asked to help conserve the city's dwindling water supply.

Mandatory water conservation measures went into effect late this summer, while students were on vacation, so the city is trying to get the word to everyone on campus that conservation is important.

July, August, and September were the three high consumption months last year and if the same pattern evolves this year without rain, Clayton estimates the reservoir level may be down by two feet by Oct. 1 when mandatory controls expire.

One of the current problems Clayton has is that so far neither voluntary nor mandatory conservation measures have worked. "We are trying to figure out why consumption is not dropping," Clayton said in a recent newspaper interview.

Clayton suggests students in residence halls conserve water by not brushing teeth or shaving under running water and not flushing the comode to dispose of waste paper and items that should go in a trash can.

Under the present restrictions, individuals may not wash their cars and commercial car washes may operate only two days a week.

Music 'Sampler' Brings Symphony To Williamsburg

The College and the Richmond Symphony are sponsoring a special three-concert "Symphony Sampler."

Drawn from the Symphony's dynamic 24th season, these three concerts on October 21, February 8 and March 1, have been especially selected for the "Sampler" and represent the best of the orchestra's Pops, Classical and Serenade series.

Jacques Houtmann will conduct the full orchestra in the first concert on October 21 which has been entitled "Orchestral Showcase." Mitch Miller will conduct the Symphony Pops orchestra on Feb. 8. A program of Beethoven, Ravel and featuring works by Ravel and Beethoven as well as other composers, will be presented by the Sinfonia on March 1.

All concerts will be held in Phi Beta Kappa Memorial Hall beginning at 8:15 p.m.

Continued on P. 6

To Recognize a Fine Track Record

Governor and Mrs. John Dalton wrap up in a special William and Mary blanket, presented to them at the Burgesses Day luncheon in William and Mary Hall on Saturday prior to the VMI football game.

Newsmakers

Armand Galfo, professor of education, currently on a semester research assignment from the College, has been named visiting associate with the National Center for State Courts. He will take part in a study of "Education Equity Litigation in State and Federal Courts." The study will be conducted over the next eighteen months with a $125,000 grant from the National Institute of Education.

Louis P. Messier, associate professor of education, this month begins a two-year program of study in child and adolescent psychotherapy conducted by the Washington School of Psychiatry.

The program which includes study in the diagnosis of childhood disorders, child psychotherapy and parent counseling will be undertaken in conjunction with weekly supervised case supervision in an area psychiatric center.

Deborah Hartley Ventis, associate professor of psychology was selected to participate in the National Science Foundation's Faculty Development Conference on "Teaching Undergraduate Courses in Psychology of Aging" August 2-15 in St. Louis. She also recently published an article entitled "A Laboratory Course in Lifespan Developmental Psychology" in the journal Teaching of Psychology.

Robert B. Bloom, associate professor of education, had the following papers accepted for publication this summer: with Linda Bourdon, graduate assistant in Education, Types and Frequencies of Teachers' Written Instructional Feedback in the Journal of Educational Research; with Arthur Friedman, professor of Business at John Tyler Community College, Community College Faculty Attitudes Toward Correctional Inmates and Toward Teaching Off Campus Courses at Correctional Institutions in the Community/Junior College Research Quarterly; and, the satirical attack on sensory modality approaches to teaching, A New Modality in the Journal of Learning Disabilities.

An article by Gary Smith, associate professor of modern languages, entitled "Presenting Culture Through the German House" has been published in the most recent issue of Die Unterrichtspraxis, a journal for the teaching of German.

Carl Dolmetsch's annual critique of the Virginia Opera season (1979-80) appears in the August issue of Opera magazine, published in London. Opera, for which Dolmetsch is a staff contributor, is the leading international journal in the field of lyric theatre.

Alan E. Fuchs, department of physics, recently attended the third Workshop-Conference of the American Association of Philosophy Teachers in Toledo, Ohio. He led a workshop on multi-disciplinary teaching and gave a paper on the teaching of a multi-disciplinary course in Ethics and the Law. The course was first given by Prof. Fuchs and Prof. Elmer Schaefer of the Marshall-Wythe Law School in the Fall of 1979 under a grant from the National Endowment for the Humanities.

R. Merritt Cox, professor of Spanish, has a review of Gene Torbert's book, Cervantes' Place-Names: A Lexicon, which appears in the Pembroke Magazine (1980).

Richard Sigwalt, visiting assistant professor of history, has an article entitled "The Kings Left Lwinda; The Clans Divided at Luhunda," an analysis of the origin tradition of the Bashi people of eastern Zaire, in The African Past Speaks, recently published by Dawson in Great Britain and soon to appear in the United States as an Archon/Shoestring Press book. Sigwalt's review of Dorothy Shipley White's Black Africa and deGaulle (Penn State Press 1979) appears in the July issue of the Annals of the American Academy of Political and Social Science.

Frederick Schauer, associate professor of law, spent the summer on a National Endowment for the Humanities fellowship studying the application of the philosophy of language to the problem of language in written constitutions. Much of his work was done at Cambridge University in England, and was followed in August by a lecture on "Coherence Theory in Moral and Legal Philosophy" given at an NEH seminar at Harvard Law School.

Schauer is also the author of an article, "'Private' Speech and the 'Private' Forum," in the current issue of the University of Chicago Supreme Court Review, another article, "Social Foundations of the Law of Defamation: A Comparative Analysis," in the British Journal of Media Law and Practice, and a review of Joseph Tussman's Government and the Mind, in a recent issue of Philosophical Books.

William F. Swindler, John Marshall professor of law emeritus, participated this summer in a conference on state constitution making sponsored by the Center for the Study of Federalism at Temple University. He has also been commissioned to prepare sketches of all the Justices of the Supreme Court of the United States to be included in a new biographical directory of federal judges being prepared for the bicentennial committee of the Judicial Conference of the United States.

Joseph Galano, assistant professor of psychology, and Ms. Robin Pinkley, a master's candidate, were recently awarded a grant by the Virginia Department of Mental Health and Mental Retardation. Their study is entitled "An Analysis of the Relationship between patient expectations of a treatment environment, the social milieu, and treatment outcome and is being conducted at the Alcoholic Unit of Eastern State Hospital.

Maurice P. Lynch, assistant director and professor of marine science at VIMS, attended a meeting of the Mid-Atlantic Fisheries Development Foundation in Philadelphia, Sept. 12. Lynch represented the National Sea Grant Office on the Board of Directors and serves as head of the Scientific and Technical Advisory Committee.

Earlier Lynch attended a meeting sponsored by the Undersea Research Program of the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration at the University of California, September 9-11. He has been named Scientific Coordinator for the Southeastern Undersea Research Facility operated for the Southeastern Consortium for Undersea Research (SECURE) by the University of North Carolina, Wilmington. VIMS is a charter member of SECURE.

Robert Bloom, associate professor of business administration, presented a paper entitled "Foundations of the Trueblood Objectives Report in Historical Accounting Literature," at the Third International Congress of Accounting Historians. The convention was held at the University of London's Graduate School of Business Studies, August 15-18.

Mario D. Zamora, professor of anthropology, recently gave two talks in the Tidewater area: He was principal speaker of the United Ilocane Associates of Tidewater at Norfolk Scope where he discussed "The Ilocane in America; Challenge and Response," and at the Cultural Show and Awards Night of the Philippine-American community in Virginia Beach where he talked about "Philippine Identity and Ethnicity." Prof. Zamora's paper entitled "Themes and Trends in American Anthropology: Reflections and Observations" (translated into Portuguese by Raquel German and co-author) has been accepted for publication in REVISTA BRASILEIRA DE SOCIOLOGIA, journal of the Sociological Association of Brazil, Sae Paule, Brazil.

John F. Kottas, Zollinger Professor of Business Administration, co-authored with Hon Shiang Lau of Washington State University an article entitled "The Use of Versatile Distribution Families in Some Inventory Calculations" which appears in the summer issue of The Journal of the Operational Research Society. Late last spring Lau and Kottas made a presentation entitled "Evaluating Audience Visibility" at the Joint National Meeting of the Institute of Management Sciences and the Operations Research Society of America in Washington, D.C.

Robert Dutro Named to Post With University Advancement

Robert S. Dutro, a Williamsburg attorney, has been named director for estate planning in the Office of University Advancement at the College of William and Mary.

Following the resignation of Michael Schoenenberger resigned from the post last year to become associate dean for placement and alumni affairs at the Marshall-Wythe School of Law, Dutro has been serving as acting Director for Estate Planning on a part-time basis since Jan. 1, while continuing his private practice of law.

In August, after Duane A. Dittman was appointed Vice President for University Advancement, the position of director for estate planning was advertised as a full-time position.

A native of Marysville, Ohio, Dutro has been practicing law in Williamsburg since 1975. From 1972-75 he was a partner in the law firm of Holloway, Smiley, Brendel & Dutro of Grafton, Va. For three years prior to that, he was an associate with the firm of Smiley and Brendel, also in Grafton.

A graduate of Miami University in Oxford, Ohio as well as the Marshall-Wythe School of Law, Dutro was admitted to the Virginia Bar in 1969. He served in the United States Navy from 1952-56, was associated with the State Farm Mutual Automobile Insurance Company both in Charlotte, N.C., and Charlottesville.

He is a member of the Virginia State Bar Disciplinary Board, and past chairman of the First Congressional District Ethics Committee of the Virginia State Bar Association. He served as a substitute judge for the General District Court from 1972-74.

Dutro is also active in civic affairs. He serves as chairman of the Colonial District Boy Scouts of America, a post he has held since 1977. He is past president of the Williamsburg Chapter of the American Cancer Society, and the Williamsburg Kiwanis Club. He is a former vestryman of Bruton Parish Church. He was secretary-treasurer of the William and Mary Law School Association from 1970-75.

Dutro and his wife Nancy have two children, ages 19 and 15. Mrs. Dutro also attended William and Mary and holds both a master's degree in education and a certificate of advanced study in education from the College.

Wilson to Join New Firm

Wesley C. Wilson, Assistant to the President for Affirmative Action and Equal Employment Opportunity Programs, is leaving the College to enter private business.

Wilson has submitted his resignation and will leave at the end of the year to become vice president of a Newport News consulting firm.

Wilson will join Carolyn Hines, director of Counseling at Thomas Nelson Community College, as vice president of C&W Associated Associates, Inc., a management productivity consulting firm. Mrs. Hines will leave Thomas Nelson, Oct. 1.

A veteran of 20 years service in the U.S. Army, Wilson joined the William and Mary staff in 1974 as affirmative action officer and a grants researcher. In 1975 he became head of affirmative action and equal employment opportunity programs.

In announcing his resignation, Wilson said he is leaving the College with "mixed emotions."

"I am very excited over the possibilities of developing my own venture in a more extensive way but my time with the College has been very exciting, informative and productive for both the College and me."

President Graves, in accepting with regret Wilson's resignation, noted his years of service to the College and to the Commonwealth of Virginia, not only as the College's Equal Opportunity officer in a formative period, but also his service as chairman of the governor's advisory committee on equal employment opportunity under Governors Dalton and Godwin. In April Wilson stepped down as chairman of the Newport News school board, a position he has held for three years. He is still a member of the school board.

Notebook

Bloodmobile Today

The American Red Cross is holding a bloodmobile today in the Campus Center Ballroom and will be open for donors until 6 p.m.

Assertiveness Training

The Center for Psychological Services is now accepting registration for an assertiveness training course. The course is taught by Miriam Cardi and is held each Wednesday from 3 to 5, September 17 through November 19. The course is limited to 12 persons. To register, call 253-4231 or visit the Center at 125 Richmond Road.

Interpersonal Awareness Group

Miriam Cardi and Neill Watson of the Center for Psychological Services will lead weekly group meetings for developing communication skills, capacity for awareness, empathy and expressiveness Tuesday afternoons from 2 to 3:30, beginning September 16. Call the Center for Psychological Services at ext. 4231/4388 or visit the Center at 125 Richmond Road for further information or to sign up.

Auditions Set

Auditions for "God's Favorite," to be produced by the Covenant Players, will be held Wednesday and Thursday, September 17 and 18 from 5 - 7 p.m. in rooms A and B of the Campus Center.

The Neil Simon comedy calls for five men and three women. It will be presented in the Campus Center Little Theatre, Oct. 23, 24, 25, 26, 30, 31, and Nov. 1, 2. This will be the first time a Neil Simon play has been presented on campus.

The story of the play is the tale of Job, represented in the play by Joe Benjamin. Joe lives in a fashionable section of Long Island and is visited by an angel named Sidney Lipton. The trials of Job are told in Neil Simon one liners.

The Covenant Players is a shared activity of the Catholic Student Association and the Canterbury Association which evolved from a covenant signed between the Catholic and Episcopal students in 1977.

"Beer 'N' Bluegrass"

"Beer 'N' Bluegrass," is the title given to an Alumni get-together at the Hillcrest Riding Academy, Virginia Beach, Saturday, from 3 - 6 p.m.

Sponsored by the Norfolk-Virginia Beach Chapter of the Society of the Alumni, the program includes live music by "Nothin' Doin'."

ZOLLINGER MUSEUM

Swem Library

Now through Sept. 19

Watercolors by Robert Keyser.

Recent gift to the College Art Collection by Fred Olsen.

ANDREWS HALL OF FINE ARTS

GALLERY (10-4)

Through September 19

James Chalkley, Ceramics

FOYER (9-5)

Through September 26

Soteris Sam Roussi, Paintings

Baptists Plan Program

The Baptist Student Union is sponsoring a day-long program entitled "The Painter's Art and the Biblical Message," Saturday, September 20 to which all students are invited.

The program will consist of three illustrated lectures and discussion presented by Dr. John Durham, Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary, Wake Forest, N.C.

The program will begin at 10 a.m. and run until 10 p.m. in the Sit 'n Bull Room of the Campus Center. There

From 10 a.m. to 12 noon, Dr. Durham will present "Painting as Proclamation." After a break from noon to 2 p.m. for lunch he will present "The Painting and the Leap Into Transcendence," in an afternoon program from 2-5 p.m.

Supper will be served from 5 - 7 p.m. The cost is $2.

The evening program from 7 - 10 p.m. will be entitled: "The Painter and the Confession of Faith."

Further information may be obtained from Sharon Schnell, 229-1496.

Especially for Freshmen

The Office of Career Planning is holding an open house Tuesday, Oct. 7 at 3 p.m., especially for freshmen. This is the last in the series of open houses which the office has held for members of each undergraduate class.

The Career Planning office has moved to new facilities at Morton 140B and wants students to become familiar with the resource library and interview scheduling.

Summer Jobs

The Office of Extramural Programs wants to know if you had an internship, research grant, or other valuable job experience this summer. Please stop by The Brafferton, 3rd floor, or call ext. 4354.

Internships

"Shared Experience" internships are now available with Metro Magazine, Peninsula Nature and Science Center, Virginia Museum of Fine Arts, Colonial Williamsburg and other area agencies and organizations. Included are several positions with James City County, working in different aspects of local government. Stop by the Office of Extramural Programs, The Brafferton, 3rd floor for more information. Application deadline is September 18.

Laycock to be Feted

The Roanoke Chapter of the Society of the Alumni will hold a night-before-the game-reception Friday, at the Holiday Inn, Roanoke, for head football coach Jimmie Laycock.

The program will include an opportunity for William and Mary alumni and friends in the Roanoke area to meet Coach Laycock. Game films will be shown by Bob Sheeran, sports information director.

William and Mary will play Virginia Tech at 1:30 p.m. Saturday, in Blacksburg.

Study Skills Workshop

Memory Reading Strategies and Note Taking Skills - Wednesday, September 17, 7:30-8:30 p.m., Swem Library, Botetourt Theater, Ground Floor. All students welcome!

Ayisi Lecture

Eric Ayisi, visiting associate professor of anthropology will lecture on "American and African Education: A Cross-Cultural Comparison," at 8 p.m., Thursday, September 18 in Washington Hall 100.

Ayisi, who received his undergraduate and doctorate degrees from the University of London, is the author of several publications including a book entitled "An Introduction to African Culture."

Ayisi was a lecturer at Christopher Newport College last year and spent the summer of 1979 at the University of Florida in Gainesville as a Fellow of the National Endowment for the Humanities

Pre-Law Club to Meet

John Pagan of the Marshall Wythe School of Law faculty, will talk on "Should I Go To Law School and What Curriculum Best Prepares Me for Law School?" at an organizational meeting of the Pre-Law Club, Wednesday, September 17 at 7 p.m. in room 124 of the new law school building.

For those needing transportation to the new quarters of the law school, next to the National Center for State Courts, the JBT Law School bus is available.

Easler to Speak

Hugh B. Easler of the department of mathematics and computer science, will speak on some results in number theory and give a brief history of the prime number theorem as part of the mathematics and computer science colloquium series, Friday, September 19 at 3:30 p.m. in Jones Hall 102. Coffee will be served at 3 p.m.

At the Pub

At the Hoi Polloi Wednesday, Sept. 17 will be Southern Rock with "The Roadducks," 9:30 - 1:30 a.m., cover, $1.

"The Dime Slots" (formerly Williams, Shields and Lull) will be at the Pub Thursday, Sept. 18 from 9 - 12 midnight, 25 cents cover.

Music Friday, Sept. 19 will be provided by Prime Time with "Havana Tunes," 4 - 7 p.m., 25 cents cover, 30 cents draft.

The Pub will present the Robbin Thompson Band in a special concert on Wednesday, Sept. 24. The doors will open at 9:30 p.m. and students are encouraged to come early. Admission is $3 with a William and Mary I.D.

Physics Colloquium

William M. Rosenblum of the University of Alabama at Birmingham, will talk on "Modeling the Human Visual System," at a physics colloquium at 4 p.m., Friday, September 19 in Small 109. Coffee will be served in the conference room at 3:30 p.m.

Various methods, including caustic analysis, optical ray tracing and ultrasonic scanning are used to examine and model human and animal eyes. The design of artificial elements to replace the human crystalline lens will be discussed by Rosenblum.

Careers in Energy

Keith Hendrich '79 (economics), who is now employed by Conoco, Inc., Continental Pipelines, Houston, Texas, will present a seminar on "Business Careers in Energy," at 7:30 p.m., Thursday, September 18 in Morton Hall 220.

All interested students and faculty are invited to attend. Candidates for MBA and BBA degrees and economics majors, are particularly encouraged to attend.

VELA Deadline Draws Near

Students who plan to apply for Virginia Educational Loan Authority (VELA) money, must have their applications in by September 22.

In a letter from Eugene G. Cattie, VELA executive director, to E. Leon Looney, financial aid officer, Cattie explains the urgency of the newly imposed deadline:

"As you are probably aware, the Higher Education Act of 1980 failed to pass the Senate on September 4, 1980. Although this legislation had the support of the higher education community, it became entangled in the budget conscious Congress fever on Capital Hill. This legislation has a direct bearing on the future lending of the Virginia Education Loan Authority and the State Guaranteed Loan Program in general. Although VELA had anticipated immediate adjustments to first time borrowers, we had expected to continue lending to previous borrowers, however, this new turn of events allows us only one alternative.

"Due to the unprecedented lending volume by VELA, so far, we are unable to accept additional applications for student loans after September 22nd for the academic year, 1980-81. Should VELA at a later date determine it can finance additional loans, a memorandum will be forwarded to your school. The VELA regrets being forced to curtail lending, but due to the lending limitations of the Authority, plus the rejection of the Higher Education Act, we feel it is the only reasonable alternative to our operation."

Applications postmarked after September 22 will not be considered.

Sunday Concert

The Botetourt Chamber Singers at the College of William and Mary will give a concert Sunday, September 21 at Prestwood plantation near Clarksville, Va., on the occasion of the annual picnic of the Board of Trustees of the plantation.

The plantation has ties to the College through the gift of a rare broadwood pianoforte by Mrs. John W. Price, Jr., of Prestwood, in 1946.

The instrument is a twin to the one used by Ludwig von Beethoven and is one of only two now in existence.

In 1976 the rare piano was extensively refurbished by Peter Redstone, an Englishman residing in Surry.

The piano is being housed in the Botetourt Gallery of Swem Library where constant temperature and humidity controls can be maintained. During the Bicentennial celebration, the piano was placed in Wren 100 which was used as a College information room for visitors.

The Broadwood, thought to have been constructed in 1816, was part of the lavish furnishings of Prestwood during the 19th century when it was owned by Sir Peyton Skipwith.

There was a large audience for the dedication program which was held Saturday afternoon, capping Burgesses Day Celebrations at the College. The response was equally enthusiastic Sunday for the community Open House.

Large Crowds Turn Out For Weekend Festivities

Law School Dedication - A Dream Fulfilled

On behalf of the students and faculty of the Marshall-Wythe School of Law, this building is accepted with profound thanks that the dreams of many are today fulfilled. It is accepted as a gift from the people of Virginia. Our gratitude is accompanied by resolve to use this splendid facility for the benefit of many in addition to those who study here.

The long history of legal education at William and Mary, replete with instances of survival despite adversity, is on a plateau. A struggle for adequate facilities is ended. Today is a beginning. A higher plateau of excellence and service is reachable.

We are proud of the greatness of those associated with the inception of legal instruction here and mindful of the efforts of those who revived and kept alive an oft-flickering flame. But the eyes of our faculty and students are understandably to the future. How this building is used will determine if we are worthy of our rich heritage, worthy of the long struggle for survival and worthy of the faith of the people of this commonwealth.

Having looked to the future, it is perhaps contradictory to turn to Thomas Jefferson. I do so in the context of criticism presently leveled at the legal profession, particularly at legal education, and I do so mindful that there is much the law schools should do to sharpen oral and written skills and to examine more carefully the moral and mental fitness of students for the practice of law. As you know, it was Governor Jefferson who advocated university related legal education resulting in the appointment of George Wythe in 1779 to the first chair of law in America.

Jefferson's hopes and thoughts are matters of record: In 1780, he wrote James Madison that the new studies at William and Mary, "by throwing from time to time new hands, well-principled and well-informed, into the legislature" . . . would have beneficial results for the new commonwealth. Later, in 1787, he wrote: "carry on the study of law with that of politics and history. Every political measure will, forever, have an intimate connection with the law of the land; and he, who knows nothing of these, will always be perplexed and often foiled by adversaries having the advantage of that knowledge."

What would Thomas Jefferson think today? Unquestionably, he would be surprised to hear his wisdom on a variety of subjects quoted and hailed by persons of every philosophy. He would recognize the intellectual laziness presently abroad in the land. This would be familiar but there are new manifestations. For instance, the belief that serious national problems can be solved by a sixty second television commercial. Jefferson would be fascinated by the technological wonders of television and the telephone, but saddened that such wonders seem to have relieved much of the need to read and write, and that, despite general acceptance of his pleas for universal education, aptitudes scores are declining and illiteracy levels remain appallingly high. Can you hear Jefferson wondering aloud if his friend Madison, and the other constitutional fathers, foresaw the likes of Walter Cronkite? But Jefferson would be pleased to find the better law schools eschewing calls for predominately artisan education, and determined to encourage students to think, to make decisions, to reason and to lead. He would understand the importance of young men and women being taught to exercise dispassionate analysis.

This building will enable William and Mary to serve the bench and bar of Virginia. The library, moot court facilities and proximity to the National Center for State Courts offer opportunities for contribution to our nation's system of justice. These facilities provide a forum in which bright students and teachers may flower and grow. From here will go forth young men and women to be servants of the law. Some, as Thomas Jefferson believed, will enter public service, offering leadership as well as counsel.

We are grateful to many on this platform and in this audience, and others with us in spirit, who have made this occasion possible. Today, we dedicate this building to service, to the preservation of the rule of law in a free society, and to the enlightenment of young men and women.

Thank you.
Dean William B. Spong, Jr.
Marshall-Wythe School of Law
September 13, 1980

Professorships Named for Godwin, Bryan

Two new professorships at the Law School were announced at the dedication ceremonies.

Three of the state's most influential businessmen have pledged to contribute over $100,000 to establish the professorship honoring the two-time governor. Contributions have been committed by Lawrence Lewis, Jr., a Richmond financier; the Noland Company Foundation under the leadership of Lloyd U. Noland, Jr., of Newport News, chairman of the board of Noland Company; and R. R. Smith, chairman of the board of Smith's Transfer Corporation of Stanton.

Income from the endowment created by Lewis, Noland and Smith will be eligible for matching funds from the State's Eminent Scholars Program to attract and to retain respected legal scholars to occupy the Godwin Professorship.

The professorship honors one of Virginia's most respected and popular political leaders in the 20th century. Godwin attended William and Mary during the thirties and has demonstrated a keen interest and dedication to the growth and the success of his alma mater.

During Godwin's first term as Governor from 1966-1970, he helped to oversee a period of careful growth at the College, including much of the construction of what is now known as the "new campus." Soon after he left the Governor's Mansion after his second term from 1974-1978, Godwin donated his extensive collection of papers and documents to William and Mary's archives.

Godwin's business and public service career has been centered in Virginia, encompassing private law practice, farming, and public service—first as a legislator and then as the state's 66th and 68th Governor. He is the only person twice elected to serve in Virginia's top office.

Godwin served in Virginia's legislature for 12 years; first as a member of the House of Delegates from 1948 to 1952, and then as a state senator from 1952 to 1961. He was elected Lieutenant Governor in 1961, and to his first term as Governor in 1965. He was re-elected Governor of Virginia in 1973.

His business affiliations are extensive. He currently serves on the Boards of Directors of Union Camp Corporation;

Standard Brands, Inc.; Royster Co., Inc.; Virginia National Bankshares; and Dan River, Inc.

He also has been active in civic and educational affairs. He is a past president of Ruritan National. The Godwin Professorship has been created "to memorialize the sterling leadership which he gave the Commonwealth of Virginia in his two terms as Governor; to recognize his stance for honest, fiscally responsible and efficient government; and, in general, to salute the faithful, valuable service that he, throughout his long and distinguished public career, rendered the Commonwealth and all its citizens."

The family of former William and Mary President John Stewart Bryan has pledged $100,000 to the College to establish a new professorship of Law.

D. Tennant Bryant of Richmond, chairman of the board of Media General, Mrs. Amanda B. Kane of Charlottesville, and Mrs. Elizabeth G. Henry of New York City, have provided endowment funds to support the new John Stewart Bryan Professorship of Jurisprudence.

After serving on the College's Board of Visitors, John Stewart Bryan became president of the College from 1934 to 1942. As a newspaper publisher in Richmond, he achieved a national reputation for sound and creative journalism. He was one of Richmond's most respected civic leaders and an avid supporter of the study of colonial history.

When Bryan became president of William and Mary in 1934 the economy of the nation was beginning to move upward from the depths of the Great Depression. Bryan's first objective as President was to increase the size and to improve the quality of the faculty. His appointments fulfilled his objectives, and the impact of the "new faculty" was felt for years beyond his presidency. He strengthened existing departments and virtually created the department of fine arts with its divisions of music, theatre, and painting, architecture and sculpture.

The most evident influence of President Bryan in the faculty and students of the College was in the area of morale and spirit. His presidency was truly an "era of good feeling." For many it was a "golden age" of the College.

One of the points of interest visitors toured following the dedication ceremony was the Moot Court Room of the new building, one of the finest facilities of its kind in the country. Visitors above include (l-r) President Graves, former Virginia Governors J. Lindsay Almond, Mills E. Godwin and Albertis S. Harrison, and Dean Spong.

Warden F. P. Neill, Q.C. of All Souls College, Oxford University, (l) was a special guest at the dedication. Neill is pictured with John Pagan, a member of the law faculty who attended Oxford University, by one of two stained glass windows presented by All Souls to Marshall-Wythe. The Wren and Blackstone windows have been installed as a focal point of the foyer in the new building and lead into the moot courtroom area.

Bicentennial, Dedication Gifts

On behalf of the students and faculty of the Law School, special expressions of appreciation for the many gifts and donations made as part of the bicentennial celebration of the establishment of the first chair of law in America at William and Mary and the dedication of the new law building were Saturday to the following:

- Warden F. P. Neill, Q.C., the faculty and fellows of All Souls College, Oxford University, for the Blackstone and Wythe stained glass windows at the north end of the foyer.
- Robert Friend Boyd, Class of 1952, and Sara Miller Boyd, Class of 1955, for the David Silvette portrait of George Wythe, now hanging in the north part of the foyer.
- Judge Robert T. Armistead, Class of 1937, and Laetitia Armistead Hanson, Class of 1938, for the collection of books to be designated as the Armistead Collection and displayed in memory of Robert Henry Armistead, Class of 1832.
- Lena Stratton Baran, Class of 1936, and Daniel W. Baran of San Mateo, Ca., for a contribution that enables the law school to replicate the law library of Thomas Jefferson. This donation was made in honor of Mrs. Baran's sons, Ralph Alexander Elmore, III, Class of 1970, and Donald Stratton Elmore, Class of 1976.
- To the Cabell Foundation of Richmond, the Kresge Foundation and the Law Enforcement Assistance Administration, for contributions and grants that have made it possible to enlarge and equip the Moot Courtroom and adjacent court facilities.
- To the Trustees of the Jessie Ball duPont Religious, Charitable and Educational Fund of Jacksonville, Fla., for a gift establishing the Ball Professor of Law in Taxation.
- To David Tennant Bryan of Richmond, Amanda Bryan Kane of Charlottesville, and Elizabeth G. Henry of New York City, for contributions enabling the College of William and Mary to establish the John Stewart Bryan Professorship of Jurisprudence in honor of the twentieth President of the College of William and Mary.
- To Lloyd U. Noland, Jr., of Newport News, R. R. Smith of Staunton, and Lawrence Lewis, Jr., of Richmond, for contributions enabling the College of William and Mary to establish the Mills E. Godwin, Jr., Professorship of Law in honor of the distinguished former Governor of Virginia.
- To the Virginia Lawyers Wives, for contributions to purchase the judge's bench in the Moot Courtroom.

- Louis Ellenson, Class of 1950, and Goldye Ellenson, for their gift of early American legal documents on display in the conference room.
- Dr. William F. Swindler, John Marshall Professor of Law, Emeritus, for the print of Thomas Jefferson, hanging in the Rare Book Room.
- Mr. Jules Horlick of Coral Gables, Fla., for the painting of the John Marshall Court by Betty Wells of Baltimore, now hanging in the corridor of the administrative offices.
- Mrs. Hilda D. Gantt of Towson, Maryland, and the estate of Paul H. Gantt, for contributions for the purchase of books for the library of the Marshall-Wythe School of Law, in memory of the late Paul H. Gantt, Class of 1942.
- Mr. and Mrs. Steve Sacalis of Williamsburg, for contributions to purchase books for the library of the Marshall-Wythe School of Law.
- The William and Mary Law School Association, the Marshall-Wythe faculty and Fieldcrest Mills, Eden, N.C., for the rugs in the foyer of the law building.
- Richard C. Marshall, Jr., of Norfolk, and members of the Marshall Family for loan of the John Wesley Jarvis portrait of John Marshall, hanging in the Rare Book Room.

Dean Spong holds the key to the new law school building which he received at dedication ceremonies Saturday.

Fires at Frat Complex

Police are still investigating 15 separate fires set early Friday morning which caused heavy damage to the living area of Sigma Pi fraternity and smoke damage in Phi Kappa Tau. Quick action by the Williamsburg Fire Department limited the damage to other floors of the fraternity building. Chief Cumbee said a description of someone suspected of setting the fires has been passed out to those living in the area and added that he will be arrested if he come back on campus. The male suspect is not a student nor member of the College staff. Shown above is the living area of Sigma Pi where heaviest damage was sustained.

Junior Year Abroad Program Offers Study at Silliman

Applications for the Junior Year Abroad program in the Phillipines must be submitted by Oct. 3.

Applicants must be students in good academic standing who have completed the requirements for the junior-year standing by May, 1981.

The basic costs, excluding books, supplies and personal expenses is $3,000 with transportation, or $1,500 without transportation. Upon acceptance into the program a deposit of $500 is due. The deposit is non-refundable except in case of illness.

The program is conducted in association with Silliman University, located in Dumaguete City on the island of Negros. Up to five students from William and Mary as well as several students from other four-year accredited colleges will be accepted into the program. Students in all disciplines, humanities, social sciences, and natural sciences, are encouraged to apply.

Students are expected to take a minimum of 15 credit hours per semester, for which 15 hours of credit will be awarded by William and Mary.

Students may concentrate in all of the major disciplines, and courses offer a variety of choices in the arts and sciences. The university provides an excellent program for students interested in Southeast Asia. In addition, Silliman grants the M.A. in ten fields and doctorates in three.

Information and application forms are available from Vinson Sutlive, anthropology department, Washington Hall 120, or Dean Joseph Healey, The Brafferton, third floor.

Concert Tickets

Continued from P. 1

Subscription to the series is $12.50. Single admission tickets will be $5; $4.50 for students, faculty and staff of the College. Season tickets may be reserved now and checks should be made payable to Concerts - Symphony Sampler, College of William and Mary, Williamsburg, 23185. General admission tickets will be available two weeks prior to each concert at the Campus Center and at the door the evening of the concert.

The "Symphony Sampler," is a new feature on the William and Mary concert schedule this year and is being presented in addition to the regular Concert Series for which season tickets are still available.

Hargis Returns to Teaching

President Graves, announced Friday that William J. Hargis, Jr., Director of the Virginia Institute of Marine Science, and Dean of the School of Marine Science, has requested that he return to full-time teaching and research as Professor of Marine Science at the end of this academic year, or sooner if his successor can be appointed at an earlier date.

Hargis joined the Department of Biology at the College of William and Mary as Associate Professor of Marine Science in 1955. In 1959 he was promoted to Professor and Chairman of the College's new Department of Marine Science.

Since 1959 Hargis has been Director of the Virginia Institute of Marine Science, and he has been Dean of the School of Marine Science since 1961.

In accepting the resignation of Hargis from his administrative responsibilities, President Graves praised him for the creative, tireless and energetic leadership and direction he has provided to VIMS and the School of Marine Science over the past two decades:

"Dr. Hargis has brought VIMS to a preeminent position in the state and nation. The research and scientific programs and advisory services that have been developed at Gloucester Point and Wachapreague are outstanding, and we are equally proud of the high quality of graduate instruction offered there.

"Dr. Hargis is a great credit to his profession and to the College. We can all be very grateful to him for the leadership he has provided over the past twenty-five years, and for the manifold contributions he has made to the Commonwealth. Bill Hargis has my personal thanks and best wishes as he returns to full-time teaching and research."

Hargis is currently serving as Chairman of the US/USSR Working Group on Biological Productivity and Biochemistry of the World Oceans; President, Marine Technology Society; member of the Board of Directors, American Oceanic Organization; Chairman, Coastal States Organization.

President Graves announced that he would be establishing a committee to conduct a national search for Dr. Hargis' successor.

NEH Offers Youthgrants

The Youthgrants program of the National Endowment for the Humanities will offer over 100 cash awards across the nation this fall to young people in their teens and early twenties, including many college and university students, to pursue non-credit, out-of-the-classroom projects in the humanities. The deadline for submission of completed applications is November 15.

The grants, which offer up to $2,500 to individuals and up to $10,000 for groups ($15,000 for certain high-cost media projects) are intended primarily for those between the ages of 15 to 25 who have a ways to go before completing academic or professional training.

Guidelines for the program may be obtained from the Washington office by writing to: Youthgrants Guidelines, Mail Stop 103C, National Endowment for the Humanities, Washington, D.C. 20506.

'Discover Your Design'

The Office of Career Planning and the Women in Business Program will co-sponsor a career planning workshop entitled "Discover Your Design" Friday and Saturday, October 24-25. Registration is now open for the workshop which will begin at 9 a.m. on Friday and conclude at noon on Saturday. Fee for the program is $100 which includes all workshop materials, refreshments and luncheon on Friday. Details may be obtained by calling Julie Leverenz, director, Women in Business Program, at 253-4286.

"Discover Your Design," is geared to helping people discover their specific talents and motivations. Through a combination of individual exercises and group discussions, the workshop will show participants the abilities they have to offer the world. The premise given by the workshop designers is that each individual has the potential to achieve which can only be satisfactorily fulfilled when a specific personal skills pattern is followed, regardless of where on the ladder of success people are.

"Discover Your Design," was created by Arthur Miller and Ralph Mattson, founders of People Management, Inc., in Connecticut. Miller has chaired seminars for the American Management Association and is also a consultant to a large number of Fortune 100 companies. Mattson, with degrees from Pratt Institute and Harvard University, is an educational adviser in the application of motivated abilities patterns. They are co-authors of "The Truth About You," and will use this text, provided in advance to participants, in conducting the workshop.

Seminars by Zang

Three seminars by Thomas Zang, department of mathematics and computer science, on the dynamics of "Disk Galaxies," will be given on successive Fridays at 2 p.m. in the conference room (104) at Small Hall.

"Stellar Dynamics: Linear Theory," will be the topic of the seminar September 19. On September 26, Zang will discuss "The Swing Amplifier," and the final seminar on Oct. 3 will deal with "Nonlinear Calculations: N-Body Simulations."

A process termed "swing amplification" now seems to provide a convincing and tidy explanation for the observed properties of spiral galaxies. The basic physical mechanism can be understood in very simple terms by means of local analysis. A recent series of numerical calculations has verified that swing amplification does indeed dominate the large-scale behavior of galaxies. Moreover, many of the puzzling aspects of the numerous N-body computer experiments conducted in the past decade can be explained by this local analysis.

The seminar series opened Sept. 12 with a background session.

Plans Announced for '81 Elderhostels

Back by popular demand - that's the story of Elderhosteling at William and Mary. Last year's session was booked up almost as soon as it was announced. This summer there will be four Elderhostel sessions held on campus.

There will also be an international twist to this summer's program. While four "domestic" programs are underway, the campus will simultaneously play host to four "international" Elderhostel groups. SAGA, the British branch of Elderhosteling which arranges programs for a quarter of a million people each year, will send four groups of British pensioners to Virginia.

The Britishers will spend the first two days of their visit at Marymont College then come to Williamsburg and visit Charlottesville before returning to Mary-mont and home. The SAGA groups are used to a less structured program than is offered by Elderhostel in this country and so will not be on the same schedule as their American counterparts. However, there will be plenty of opportunity for the two groups to enjoy a shared program while they are here.

Wayne Kernodle will be coordinator again this year, assisted by David Aday. Notices have been sent to department chairman soliciting faculty for the summer programs and the form below may be used by those who wish to participate. Last year's stipend for faculty was $200 per course.

Catalogues from last year's program have also been sent to department chairman and are available from Kernodle's office, Morton 215.

and law which can be adapted to the undergraduate level may also be included.

During these same weeks we will also have four groups of British Pensioners on Campus on an Elderhostel exchange program. We will provide these four groups with two lectures each day on early American society, cultural life, history, literature, arts, politics, economy, science, etc.

Faculty members who are interested in offering Elderhostel courses in the William and Mary Program next May-June should return the information requested below to: Wayne Kernodle, Coordinator

ELDERHOSTEL

Last May, William and Mary joined the not-for-profit Elderhostel network of over 300 colleges and universities which offer special low-cost, one week summer residential academic programs for persons over 60 years of age. The focus of our first Elderhostel was on Eighteenth Century Intellectual and Scientific Thought; and on Life in Colonial Williamsburg. Our program was the first one in the nation to pre-register its full quota of 40 persons. The success of our Elderhostel has resulted in the National and State Elderhostel offices requesting that we provide additional weeks this spring and early summer; and we have agreed to do so. There will be four sessions of one week each: May 24-30; May 31-June 6; June 7-13; June 14-20. Each one-week session will offer three non credit courses which will meet each day Monday-Friday.

Courses are scheduled to last one hour each. Participants may take all three courses if they wish or only one. Extra curricula activities are also arranged. A wide range of liberal arts and sciences courses that explore all aspects of the human experience is offered in Elderhostels. Courses in education, business

Personnel Notices

Graded Salary Plan

On July 1, 1980, the Graded Salary Plan became effective for all state classified employees. With the paycheck on July 16, 1980, each individual received a white card detailing his/her new grade and the present salary step. On September 25, 1980, Charla Cordle from the College Personnel Office will give a presentation on this new salary plan to all interested employees. If available, each individual should bring his white card to this meeting. Two sessions have been planned at 10 a.m. and again at 2 p.m. to be located in the Little Theatre of the Campus Center.

Employee Recognition Program

The College of William and Mary initiated a program April 30, 1973, which included the recognition of permanent classified employees who demonstrate outstanding performance and initiative as indicated below:

Members of the College staff who continually perform their duties beyond the normal job requirement as shown by their annual service ratings and other supporting evidence will be recognized. Employees may also be recognized for outstanding performance of a special task beyond normal job expectations. Recommendations should be submitted in writing to the appropriate Dean or Department Head for comments and endorsement. If approval is recommended by all supervisors concerned, the primary recommendation and the endorsements should then be forwarded to the College Personnel Office. Two classified employees were recognized during calendar year 1976, one employee in 1977, one in 1978, and five in 1979, in this manner for their performance.

Employees are also encouraged to recommend ways to save money, improve efficiency and promote safety at the College. Recommendations should be submitted in writing by the employee directly to the College Personnel Office, and should include an outline of current and proposed methods of operation, and how changing them will benefit College operating effectiveness. Recommendations will not be considered for award if a similar suggestion has been accepted or rejected within the past twenty-four months; if it is a matter of routine attention, obvious repair or maintenance; if it is a personal grievance or request; or if it is a matter not completely controlled by the College of William and Mary. The Personnel Office will provide assistance in preparing such recommendations.

Winners of citations for performance or accepted suggestions will receive a $50 U.S. Savings Bond. Each employee who receives three or more such citations during the calendar year will receive an additional $50 Savings Bond and will be named Employee of the Year. However, a maximum of only three persons may be selected annually for this award.

Supervisors at all levels are encouraged to promote this program within their areas of responsibility.

I. H. Robitshek
Director of Personnel

NAME _____

ADDRESS _____

PHONE EXT. _____

Proposed Course Title _____

Course Description (Catalogue) 50 words or less (include on accompanying sheet)

Week(s) Preferred _____

(Please provide fuller description of course on separate page)

*Final copy of course description and schedules must be in the hands of the Elderhostel State Coordinator by November 1, so we will have to make final decisions on our courses by October 15.

Employment

Continued from P. 8

an equivalent time basis. Computer Center, deadline 9/23.

COMPUTER PROGRAMMER B--$16,040 per year (#393) - College graduate with degree in computer science, mathematics, engineering or accounting, and one year of experience in administrative computing applications with proficiency in COBOL. Experience as a programmer may be substituted for college on the basis of one year of experience for two years of education. Graduate study in computer science may substitute for all but one year of the required experience on an equivalent time basis. Computer Center, deadline 9/23.

INFORMATION OFFICER B--$14,670 per year (#289) College graduate and three years of experience in journalism or public relations. Graduate study which includes courses in public relations or journalism may be substituted for up to two years of experience, or additional experience in one of these fields may be substituted for education on an equal time basis. VIMS, Advisory Service Department, deadline 10/1.

MARINE SCIENTIST B--$17,540 per year (#7) Masters degree in Marine Science, education or related field and one year of experience in area of specialization. A Ph.D. is preferred. Previous experience in education, in curriculum development and program management is desirable. Related experience may be substituted for graduate study on an equal time basis or additional graduate study may be substituted for experience on the basis of two years of experience for one year of study. Incumbent will be responsible for the following: planning and directing a comprehensive marine education (K-12) program for the Commonwealth; serving as liaison to the Commonwealth's Department of Education and other national, state and local organizations; developing and supervising the development of new educational services and materials; and preparing papers for publication, writing proposals and seeking funds to support such work.

VIMS (Advisory Services Department, deadline 10/1

CLERK TYPIST C--Starting salary $8600 per year. (#401) High school graduate plus 2 years clerical experience or college. This is a restricted position with full benefits. Position is located in the William and Mary Personnel Office. VIMS/William and Mary Personnel Office, deadline, 9/16.

GROUNDSMAN--Starting salary $7860 per year. (#247) One year of experience in grounds keeping or related work. Buildings and Grounds Department, deadline 9/17.

CLERK B--Unclassified Part Time - $3.46 per hour. (Approximately 30 hours per week) High school graduate plus 1 year of clerical experience. Education may substitute for experience or related experience may be substituted for education on an equal time basis. Flexible schedule can be arranged. Main duty is to assist in maintenance of records for certifying completion of undergraduate degree requirements. General clerical work. Typing not necessary. Neat printing essential. Office of the Registrar, deadline 9/17

COMPUTER OPERATOR A--Starting salary $10,270 per year. (#389) High school graduate plus 1 year of experience as a Computer Operator or Trainee. Education in data processing may substitute for experience on an equal time basis. Experience with an IBM 360/370 is desired. Computer Center, deadline 9/18.

LABORATORY MECHANIC A--Unclassified Part Time - $4.13 per hour. (20 hours per week during regular school year, other times as required) High school graduate, preferably in vocational or manual training and at least 2 years of experience or its equivalent in training, which provided a working knowledge or related mechanical equipment and maintenance methods. Educational Media Services, deadline 9/18.

RESEARCH SPECIALIST--Unclassified Part Time - $5.40 per hour. (20 hours per week) College graduate with degree in natural, physical or social science. Prefer applicant with Automated Data Processing background. Center for Psychological Services, deadline 9/18.

Calendar

COLONIAL ECHO yearbook pictures will be taken all day, M-F, in the Gold Room and the W&M Review office at the Campus Center, now until September 26. Make appointment in advance.

TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 16

Colonial Echo pictures, Gold Room and W&M Review, CC, all day.
Student Affairs Staff, Room C, CC, 10:30 a.m.
Bloodmobile, Ballroom, CC, 12 noon.
Sponsored by Alpha Phi Omega.
Accounting Club, Dodge Room, PBK, 5:30 p.m.
Alpha Phi Omega, Rooms A & B, CC, 6 p.m.
Health Careers Club, Millington Aud., 6:30 p.m.
Backdrop Rehearsal, theatre, CC, 6:30 p.m.
Panhellenic, Room C, CC, 7 p.m.
CSA, Wren Chapel, 7:15 p.m.
Collegiate Civitans, Room D, CC, 7:30 p.m.

WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 17

Military Science Scholarship Applicants, testing, Adair Gym, 8 a.m.
Colonial Echo, pictures, Gold Room and W&M Review, CC, all day.
Residence Hall Life Staff Meeting, Room C, CC, 12 noon.
Covenant Players, auditions, Rooms A & B, CC, 5 p.m.
Backdrop Rehearsal, Theatre, CC, 6:30 p.m.
Women's Forum, meeting and refreshments, Room D, CC, 7:30 p.m.
Study Skills, Botetourt Theatre, Swem, 7:30 p.m.
Lambda Alliance, Sit 'n Bull, CC, 8 p.m.
Sophomore Steering Committee, G-2, Swem, 9 p.m.

THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 18

WMCF, Room D, 7 a.m.
CSA, Room C, CC, 8:15 a.m.
Colonial Echo pictures, Gold Room and W&M Review, CC, all day.
CSA, Wren Chapel, 12:45 p.m.
Psych Club, picnic, Lake Matoaka Shelter, 4:30 p.m.
WMCF, G-1, Swem, 5 p.m.
Covenant Players, auditions, Rooms A & B, CC, 5 p.m.
CSO, Room D, CC, 5 p.m.
Canterbury, Wren Chapel, 5:30 p.m.
Backdrop Rehearsal, ballroom, CC, 6:30 p.m.
BSO, Rooms A&B, CC, 7 p.m.
Placement Seminar, Morton 202, 7:30 p.m.
Parachute Club, Room C, CC, 7:30 p.m.
Writing Anxiety Workshop, Room D, CC, 7:30 p.m.
FCA, Sit 'n Bull, CC, 7:30 p.m.
College Republicans, Little Theatre, CC, 7:30 p.m.
LDSSA, Morton 202, 8 p.m.
Students for John Anderson, Mill, Aud., 8 p.m.

FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 19

Colonial Echo, pictures, Gold Room and W&M Review, CC, all day.
Reception, music majors, Wren Great Hall, 4 p.m.
Government Dept, picnic, Lake Matoaka Shelter, 4 p.m.
Navigators, Sit 'n Bull, CC, 5:45 p.m.
WMCF, Millington Auditorium, 6 p.m.
Backdrop Rehearsal, Theatre, CC, 6:30 p.m.
SA Dance, W&M Hall, 9 p.m.

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 20

Flea Market & Antique Show, W&M Hall, all day.
Panhellenic Rush, Morton 1, 38, 39, 40, 101, 141, 201, 202, 203, 238, 239, 240, 301, 343; Jones 102, 103, 105, 107; Adair 201, 203, all day.
BSU, Sit 'n Bull, CC, 9 a.m.
Backdrop Rehearsal, Theatre, CC, 9 a.m.
Ecclesia, Wren Chapel, 9 a.m.
WMCF, Dodge Room, PBK, 9 a.m.
Swimming Classes, College Women's Club, Adair pool, 9:30 a.m.
Organ Recital, Wren Chapel, 11 a.m.
SA Movies, W&M Hall, 7 p.m., "Camelot" 9:48 p.m., "1776."
Ecclesia, Wren Chapel, 7 p.m.
Foreign Film Festival, Andrews Aud., 8 p.m., "El Espiritu de la Colmena" (Spirit of the Beehive) - Spain, Victor Erice, 1974.

SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 21

Panhellenic, Ballroom, CC, 7:30 a.m.
Flea Market & Antique Show, W&M Hall, all day.
Panhellenic Rush, Morton, Jones & Adair, all day.
Backdrop Rehearsal, Rooms A & B, Theatre, CC, 2 p.m.
Lacrosse Tournament, Frat Field, 11 a.m.
BSU, Wren Chapel, 4 p.m.
Cinema Classics Society - Film: "The Third Man," Millington Aud., 7 p.m.
Panhellenic, Room C, CC, 7 p.m.
NTSA, Sit 'n Bull, CC, 7 p.m.
Women's Forum, Graduate Student Center, 7:30 p.m.

MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 22

Colonial Echo, yearbook pictures, Gold Room and William and Mary Review, Campus Center, all day.
Panhellenic Rush, Ballroom, CC, 1:30 p.m.

Backdrop Rehearsal, Ballroom, CC, 6:30 p.m.
VaPirg, Room C, CC, 7 p.m.
Chess Club, Sit 'n Bull, CC, 7 p.m.
Office of Career Planning informational meeting (no reservation necessary), Morton 140 B, 7 p.m.
French Film Festival, Botetourt Theatre, Swem, 2 p.m. & 8 p.m., "Les Enfants du Paradis" (Children of Paradise) - Marcel Carne, 1944-45.

TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 23

Colonial Echo pictures, Gold Room and W&M Review, CC, all day.
Student Affairs Staff, Room C, CC, 10:30 a.m.
BSA, Room C, CC, 3:30 p.m.
SAC, Theatre, CC, 4 p.m.
Alpha Phi Omega, Rooms A & B, CC, 6 p.m.
Backdrop Rehearsal, Ballroom, CC, 6:30 p.m.
Ebony Expressions, Theatre, CC, 6:30 p.m.
Panhellenic, Room C, CC, 7 p.m.

CSA, Wren Chapel, 7:15 p.m.
Collegiate Civitans, Room D, CC, 7:30 p.m.
International Relations Club, Room C, CC, 8 p.m.
French House Film Series, French House, 8 p.m., "Boudu Sauve Des Eaux" (Boudu Saved From Drowning) - Jean Renoir, 1932.

WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 24

Colonial Echo pictures, Gold Room and W&M Review, CC, all day.
Residence Hall Life, Staff Meeting, Room C, CC, 12 noon.
Backdrop Rehearsal, Ballroom, CC, 6:30 p.m.
College Republicans, Theatre, CC, 7:30 p.m.
Study Skills, Botetourt Theatre, Swem, 7:30 p.m.
Project Plus Forum, Millington Auditorium, 7:30 p.m.
Women's Forum, Room D, CC, 7:30 p.m.
Lambda Alliance, Sit 'n Bull, CC, 8 p.m.

Employment

The following positions are open to all qualified individuals; however, current faculty and classified employees will receive first consideration. Except where noted, inquiries and applications should be made at the Personnel Office, 201 James Blair Hall, and not at the department where the opening exists. Call 229-JOBS (229-5627) for an updated listing and 24-hour service. An EEO/AA employer.

CLERK D--$10,270 per year (#400)
High school graduate plus three years clerical or college, one year of which must be at a responsible level equivalent to a Clerk C. Typing test is required. Office of the Registrar, deadline, 9/22.

LIBRARY ASSISTANT--$11,230 per year (#193) College graduate or completion of at least one year of college and three years of library experience. Swem Library, deadline, 9/22.

COMPUTER PROGRAMMER B--unclassified, part time, $7.71 per hour (24-30 hours per week). College graduate with degree in computer science, mathematics, engineering or accounting, and one year of experience in administrative computing applications with proficiency in COBOL. Experience as a programmer may be substituted for college on the basis of one year of experience for two years of education. Graduate study in computer science may substitute for all but one year of the required experience on

Classified

FOR SALE

SMITH-CORONA PORTABLE TYPE-WRITER. Excellent condition. Locking carrying case included. $50. Call Judy, ext. 4534. (9/30)

20" SCHWINN Sting Ray child's bicycle, coaster brakes. $40.00. Wooden baby crib and mattress in good condition. $20. Simmons 2 sitter hide-a-bed sofa, makes into a single bed, needs reupholstering. $75.00. Phone after 5 p.m. 229-4347. (9/30)

COLONIAL SOFA AND LOVE SEAT in a rich brown and white plaid Herculon. Like new and less than 1/2 orig. price. $300.00. Call Joe Galano at 229-4862. (9/30)
SOFA, 80", wing-back, gold naugahide, worn. $25.00; Bed frame, full-size, refinished in mahogany, repaired leg. $25.00; old typewriter table, $8.00. Phone 229-3592. (9/30)

1974 VEGA, A.C. AM/FM radio, radials, reasonable condition. $500. Call 229-8873 after 6 p.m. (9/30)

1970 SUZUKI 125 cc. Good condition, partly rebuilt engine (new points, plugs, pistons, rings, gaskets). Needs some electrical work. $225.00. Call day 229-1100 or night - 229-8947. (9/23)

CONTEMPORARY LOVE SEAT and matching chair - beige and orange soft plaid; small dining room table $35; small book case $8; chair $13; red area rug, mirrors and other household items. call 229-8507 after 5 p.m.

2 cubic feet Romex refrigerator. Very good condition. $75. Call Susan at 220-0747 after 5 p.m. (9/23)

SOLID TEAK 4-drawer desk, 42 inches wide, 24 inches deep - $75. Call 877-1040. (9/16)

Whirlpool 3-cycle, 2 1/2 year old, portable dryer - $125; Gibson 30" green electric range, 5 years old with new heating element - $100; Call 229-5783 after 5:30 p.m. (9/16).

CANNONDALE 2 person tent; waterproof w/built in fly; used only a few times. Also sealed-cell and foam pads. $135.00 for the package. Phone 229-5071 - a.m. and after 5 p.m. (9/16)

FOR RENT

Large bedroom in two bedroom apartment approx. three miles from campus. Full kitchen, bath, etc. Call Steve after 8 p.m. most nights; 229-7307. (9/23)

WANTED

MEN'S 10-SPEED BICYCLE. Will pay up to $75. Call Bill at 229-7981. (9/30)

COLLEGE PROFESSOR, young single male desires bright, airy suite with bath from October. Walking distance only. Will consider shared accommodation. 253-4694 10 a.m. - 9 p.m. or P.O. Box 132, Williamsburg. (9/23)

FEMALE ROOMMATE wanted. Upper classman or grad student preferred. Spring Road Apts. Call Lynn at 229-0758. (9/23)

INSTRUCTOR NEEDS RIDE. Portsmouth to Williamsburg by 8 a.m. Williamsburg to Norfolk by 12 noon, Monday, Wednesday and Friday. Call collect (804) 483-4568. (9/16)

HOUSECLEANING wanted. $4 per hour. Must have own transportation. Call 565-1312. (9/16)

URGENTLY NEEDED - furnished apartment or room in home near W&M campus for English speaking woman researcher from Netherland Antilles for 8 months beginning Oct. 1. Call 253-4369. (9/23)

BEHAVIORAL SCIENCES RESEARCH ASSOCIATE--full-time or part-time--12 mos. with possible renewal. Duties--planning and carrying research to completion including use of statistics, data analysis; report and publication writing; and staff supervision. M.S. in psychology or related background preferred in human learning, memory or cognition. Salary--competitive depending upon qualifications. Send vita and names of three references to: Dr. S.D. Sagaria, Dept. of Psychology, Hampton Institute, Hampton, VA 23668. (9/23)

MISC.

GARAGE SALE: Saturday, Sept. 20, 9:30 a.m. - 4 p.m. at location of former "Grandfather Clock" business at 1441 Richmond Road. Clothes, household items, furniture, books, toys. Sponsored by Women's Center. (9/30)

FOUND

WHITE FRISBEE found in Sunken Gardens. Stop by Old Dominion, Room 215 to identify. (9/30)

LOST

GREEN SWEAT PANTS & YELLOW SWEATER. Lost probably in PBK's parking lot on Wednesday, Sept. 10, around 6 p.m. If found please call Catherine at 229-2538 or leave a message at ext. 4360. (9/30)

LOST DIP, missing since spring; black, male lab, 6 yrs. broad head and shoulders, frequents campus, sits on roof of cars. $50 reward for return or correct info. 220-1433 or 253-4385. (9/23)

EMPLOYMENT

COLONIAL WILLIAMSBURG RESEARCH DEPARTMENT. Records Abstracter. Regular full time position for 1 year (federal grant). Accuracy and attention to detail required; touch typing skills required; experience reading 17th- and 18th-century handwriting preferred; college-level history courses preferred. $3.85/hr. Call Linda Rowe (229-1000, extension 2740) or Kevin Kelly (229-1000, extension 2279). (9/23)