

Richmond V^a. 24 Oct/79

Dear James.

Having just read in the Dispatch of this morning, your really resplendent speech at York-Town yesterday, I write to express to you my gratification and admiration. It is all excellent, and some of the passages are superbly eloquent
- worthy of Burke or Sheridan.

Hastily

Truly yr friend
Richard Keble

Jackman's, Esq }
Norfolk }
V^a }