

The Historical Society
OF PENNSYLVANIA.

The Yorktown Ode,

By Captain JAMES BARRON HOPE,

At ACADEMY OF MUSIC,

Wednesday, Dec. 14, '81, 8 P. M.

STAGE TICKET.

Admit

Mr. James Parson Hape

To

Steamer George Leary,

as guest of

Yorktown Centennial Commission.

Retain this. Not Transferable.

Admit

Miss J. B. Kopf

To

Steamer George Leary,

as guest of

Yorktown Centennial Commission.

Retain this. Not Transferable.

Admit
Capt James Barron Hope
To
Steamer George Leary,
as guest of
Yorktown Centennial Commission.

Retain this. Not Transferable.

Headquarters in Camp at Yorktown, Va.,

ADMISSION

TO THE

REVIEWING STAND,

OCTOBER, 20th, 1881.

Roofs Yorktown Centennial Commission,

Washington, Sept. 19, 1881.

Mr. James Pope
Virginia

By direction of the Yorktown Congressional Commission, I have the honor to enclose you invitation to become the guest of the United States during the Centennial Ceremonies to be held at Yorktown October 18-21, 1881.

The Steamer George Leary will leave Washington for Yorktown from foot of 7th Street, on Monday, October 17, at 4 P. M., with the Commission and invited guests.

You are requested to inform me before October 1st whether you can accept the invitation, in order that proper arrangements may be made for the guests who will be present. Unless this is done suitable accommodations cannot be guaranteed.

Very respectfully,

John S. Tucker,

Secretary.

Rooms Yorktown Centennial Commission,

Capt Washington, Sept. 19, 1881.

James Mann Kofe
Virginia

By direction of the Yorktown Congressional Commission, I have the honor to enclose you invitation to become the guest of the United States during the Centennial Ceremonies to be held at Yorktown October 18-21, 1881.

The Steamer George Leary will leave Washington for Yorktown from foot of 7th Street, on Monday, October 17, at 4 P. M., with the Commission and invited guests.

You are requested to inform me before October 1st whether you can accept the invitation, in order that proper arrangements may be made for the guests who will be present. Unless this is done suitable accommodations cannot be guaranteed.

Very respectfully,

John S. Tucker,

Secretary.