

Washington, Dec. 16. 1861

Capt. James Barrow Hope

Dear Sir

The undersigned, some of whom had the pleasure of hearing you deliver your eloquent Centennial Poem at York town on the 19th of October last, are desirous that you should repeat it here in Washington, and respectfully request that you will fix an occasion for that purpose, at your convenience.

M. C. Butler

Joseph E. Brown

F. P. Vance

W. W. Wood

O. R. Singleton

John S. Barbour

Amos A. Phelps

Chas. Hooker

J. B. Hooker

R. L. Gibson

Wm. McLean

Wm. McLean

Dan Rowley

H. Dawes

James W. McMill

Wm. W. Miller

E. L. Lapham

Benjamin Garrison

W. Hawley

J. M. Blair

Philetus Sawyer

S. L. McMillan

John W. Johnston

J. F. Hayward

J. G. Pugh

Wm. M. Call

A. Hammond

Members of the Church

M.C. John S. DePaulo

- W. P. Gilman

