Indians To Meet Spiders Tomorrow In Richmond

All indications point to a close game when the Indians meet the Spiders in Richmond Saturday night.

The Spiders got off with a slow start this season, losing to Bridge-water while the Indians were being nosed out by Wake Forest, and winning from the Blues by a slightly larger margin than the Indians could pile up against the soldiers. While the Richmond five were idle last weekend, Coach Driver's charges were winning from the Yellow Jackets and losing to the University.

With the experience of the Virginia game supplemented by a week of hard training, the Williamburgers should furnish plenty of fun for the Dobsonites tomorrow evening, even with Hicks out of the line-up. A large number of students are expected to accompany the Indians to the Capital City.

W. & M. Has Fifteen Social Fraternities

William and Mary now has a total of fifteen social fraternities and five honorary fraternities for undergraduates and the Phi Beta Kappa for graduates. Of this number, the men have nine social and four honorary; the women have six social and one honorary. The Phi Beta Kappa does not discriminate. There are seven national social fraternities, one national in the process of installation, and one local among the men. The women have two national social fraternities and three others either petitioning nationals or being installed as nationals at the present time.

The entire fraternity system in America is the outgrowth of the formation at William and Mary on December the fifth, 1776, of the first of the Greek letter fraternities—the Phi Beta Kappa. Membership in the Phi Beta Kappa soon became a coveted honor; and in the course of time, its members were limited to those who had obtained an academic degree. Today, Phi Beta Kappa is the greatest of honorary fraternities.

CLASS IN MODERN LITERATURE HELD MONDAY AND TUESDAY NIGHTS

The class conducted by Mr. Robert Blanton for those interested in modern literature meets every Monday and Tuesday nights in the Phoenix Literary Hall at 7:30.

A brief survey of Irish literature was made by the class before Christmas. They are now studying the English poets, playwrights, and novelists.

Anyone interested in this is cordially invited to attend the meetings.

W. & M. Five Trims Yellow Jackets

Indians Display Best Form of Season

Exhibiting faster form than shown before, the William and Mary basketball team defeated the Randolph-Macon Jackets 29 to 11 in a well played game Friday night. The Indians displayed their best form so far this season. The guarding showed a marked improvement.

Cofer, Hicks and Young played an unusually brilliant game. Young rang up a spectacular shot three-quarters the length of the floor.

Randolph-Macon presented a small but unusually fast team, and succeeded in holding the Indians the second half.

The game was marred by the number of personal fouls called, Cofer, of William and Mary, Rhoane and Vinet, of Randolph-Macon, being put out of the game.

The line-up and summary follows:

W. & M.	Position	R-M
Cofer	R. F.	Gill
Hicks	L. F.	Butterworth
Sexton	C.	Rhoane
Pierce	R. G.	Vinet
Young(C)	L. G.	Clark(C)

Goals from floor—Hicks, 5; Cofer, 3; Sexton, 3; Young, 1; Clark, 2; Butterworth, 1; Gill, 1. Goals from foul—Hicks, 5; Clark, 3. Substitutions—William and Mary, Chandler for Cofer, Todd for Young. Randolph-Macon—Croton for Gill, Croton for Butterworth, Kent for Rhoane and Letifinger for Vinet.

INDIANS WIN FROM BLUES

Showing marked improvement in guarding and floor work over the Wake Forest game, the local quint won from the Richmond Blues here Wednesday night. The score was 24 to 10.

The Indians were minus the services of "Tack" Cooke, their star forward, who will be lost to the team for the rest of the season on account of the renewal of a wound suffered in France. Cofer was started at Cooke's old berth and, while he lacked poise and confidence, his passing and guarding was of a very commendable sort.

The Blues took the lead after the first few minutes of the game and held it until near the close of the half, when the Indian five opened up with a bewildering assortment of passing and regained the lead, not to be headed for the rest of the contest. The Blues, though they lacked consistent team work, by flashes of brilliant passing, brought the ball under their goal repeatedly and it was only through the excellent guardian of Captain Young and Piggy Pierce that the soldiers were held to such a small score. Pierce played the best game

Col. Le Roy Hodges Delivers Lecture On Budget System

Speaking under the auspices of the Business Club of the Department of Economics and Business Administration, Colonel Le Roy Hodges, Director of the Budget, delivered an interesting and instructive lecture on the Virginia Budget to a large body of students in Chapel on Thursday night, January 18. Colonel Hodges was Dr. Chandler's guest while he was in Williamsburg.

Dr. Chandler introduced Colonel Hodges, who made a very clear, concise exposition of budgets in general, and in particular of the Virginia plan. Virginia is fortunate in having a very advanced type of executive budget, he stated, which in its greater elasticity and freedom from detail is clearly superior to the Maryland system, the other plan now in general use among other States.

Contrasting the Virginia budget with the Federal budget, Colonel Hodges stated that the chief fault with the national plan is that the President cannot accept or reject the appropriation bill item by item, as can the Governor under the Virginia plan, but must accept or reject the bill in its entirety. Colonel Hodges was of the opinion that this weakness in the Federal budget should be remedied by constitutional amendment.

Stressing the fact that the budget is a system of expending revenue, Colonel Hodges denied that the Virginia budget is breaking down, as is asserted by some of its critics who insist on confounding it with the revenue act.

Prof. George Pierce Baker To Lecture In Chapel February 1

Professor George Pierce Baker, of Harvard University, will be the guest of the College of William and Mary on Thursday, February 1. At noon of that day he will speak in the chapel on Producing Plays in Small Towns and in Rural Communities. The public is cordially invited to hear him.

As the director of Work Shop 47 in Harvard, Professor Baker has done as much as any man in America toward arousing interest in the writing and the producing of artistic drama. Many of the most distinguished playwrights in New York are proud to acknowledge themselves as former members of his classes. In addition, Professor Baker has unusual charm as a lecturer. This year he has been selected to deliver before the students of Richmond University the three lectures given each winter under the Thomas Foundation. The College of William and Mary is more than fortunate in having him spend in Williamsburg one of the three days he is to be in Virginia.

Omicron Delta Kappa Holds Annual Initiation

Dr. James Lewis Howe Delivers Address To Society

Eight Initiated Into Circle

The Omicron Delta Kappa Society held its annual initiation Monday evening, January 22. Dr. James Lewis Howe, Dean of School of Applied Science of Washington and Lee University, delivered an address to the members of the local circle. He is a member of the Society at Washington and Lee. His address to the circle was both interesting and instructive, which included the greetings from his circle at the institution where the Society was founded. After the initiation of the eight candidates, a banquet was given in honor of the new initiates.

In the course of his address, Dr. Howe declared that the present day was in crying need of leadership, and the nearer the college campus came to be more like the world at large, the sooner we would have effective leaders who could set the world on the right path to peace, and the earlier the people would have more effective leaders. He reminded the members of the local circle that not only was a college the place for an education, but there were many ways by which college students could obtain such an education. "The student who fails to get as much as fifty per cent of his college education outside of the classroom and his books, fails that much in getting a broad college education," Dr. Howe declared. "All the training that a college education affords which is beneficial to the students is not found by studying the text-books, but is secured through the association with the different students of the institution," he further asserted. "This," he said, "was one of the shortcomings of a strict denominational

Kappa Kappa Gamma Grants Charter to Upsilon Delta Beta Local

Congratulations are very much in order for Upsilon Delta Beta. At a tea which they held for Mrs. Herbert Chandler last Wednesday, Miss Taylor announced that Kappa Kappa Gamma had granted their petition for a charter, and will install a chapter here. Kappa is one of the "Big Four" women's fraternities and their presence will add considerably to the prestige of all the other groups on the campus. Installation is expected next month.

The tea was held at the Upsilon Delta Beta rooms. There were present, besides the members of the fraternity and the guest of honor, Mrs. Chandler, Miss Taylor, Dorothy Wilkinson, Elise Eades, Louise Sale, Dorothy Darden, Muriel Valentine, Etta Henderson and Virginia Isley.

Y. M. C. A. Recreation Room Open At All Times

The Y. M. C. A. has endeavored to serve the students more this year than has been done for many years, and it has succeeded in its project in large measure. After a long time the "Y" has succeeded in securing a room for the use of the students. It has placed a Victrola and a large collection of records in the room for entertainment. It subscribes to the leading newspapers of the country, and it buys every month a large number of current publications. No restriction whatever has been placed upon the use of the "Y" room, except that, of course, you are asked to be careful with the furniture and other articles.

The "Y" has held meetings that have been a pleasure and an inspiration to those who attend. It has in every way tried to anticipate and to supply the religious and recreational needs of the students.

In large measure the students have supported the "Y" in its efforts; but we must call attention to the fact that the magazines in the "Y" room are not to be removed. The periodicals are stamped with the "Y's" name and it is only fair that they should be left in the "Y" room where they may be used by all of the students. The Y. M. C. A. paper, which is kept in the room for the free use of the students, should not be taken from the room. You are welcome to use the "Y" Room, to use the "Y" stationery, and to read the magazines. The "Y" wants to serve the students. Cooperate with the "Y."

Mid Winter Dances February 2 and 3

The Cotillion Club held a meeting in chapel Monday evening, at which the midwinter dances were considered, and it was definitely decided to hold the dances on Friday and Saturday, February 2 and 3, with possibly a dansant on Saturday afternoon. The music will be furnished by an orchestra led by Mr. Gurran, who comes highly recommended by Jan Garber. This orchestra comes from Miami, Florida.

Both dances will begin promptly at 8 o'clock, and if the dansant is held it will be at 4 Saturday afternoon. Whether or not the dansant can be held depends upon what arrangement can be made with the orchestra.

A few other matters of interest to the Club were discussed at this meeting.

Watkins and Gay Elected

"Nat" Watkins and Stanley Gay were elected basketball and football managers, respectively, at the election held in chapel last Saturday morning. Watkins, the "dark horse" nominee, ran true to form and had little trouble disposing of his opponents. The football election was more closely contested, finally swinging to Stanley Gay, who will be the incumbent for the next season.

Extension Course In Literature

An extension course in the History of American Literature will be given in Richmond this spring by Professor W. A. Montgomery, of the College of William and Mary.

The course will treat of the salient American authors and their representative works from the beginning of Colonial literature down to the present time. Continuous emphasis will be laid upon the historical and sectional background of each author and upon the social and political significance of each department of literature. The effect of the newspaper, the current periodical and the book publishing house, upon formal literary expression, will be continuously traced. The effect of the War Between the States, as worked out in each of the forms of literature, will constitute a prominent feature of the course.

Approximately a third of the time available will be devoted to American literature since the opening of the twentieth century. Under this head will be treated the final work of Mark Twain, Howell's and James' and the most recent developments in lyric and free verse, in the drama of all shades of realism, in the short story and the novel, in biographical and epistolary fields, and in the new American criticism.

The course will be of cultural value to mature students of comparative literature who may desire a comprehensive survey of the main currents of American literature.

Gov. Trinkle Writes To Virginia Government Classes

To the Classes in Virginia Government and Citizenship, College of William and Mary, Williamsburg, Va.

Gentlemen:

I take this occasion to express to you, as a body, the deep sense of gratification which I feel in the knowledge that you are directing your attention and bending your efforts to the acquisition of greater familiarity and more intimate and detailed information as regards the operation of civil government and the duties of citizenship. These subjects offer broad fields for intensive study, and will repay many fold any and all application you may devote to them.

No man can be a worthy citizen who is not, to some extent, familiar with the fundamental principles of governmental laws, nor can any man fully measure up to the larger responsibilities of life who is ignorant of those duties which come with citizenship. To inform yourselves as to your responsibilities to the civil laws and your duties to the State will prove a pleasure and will become a profit.

The membership of your class has my very best wishes, as I recognize that you constitute a body of men desirous of ascertaining your full duty of citizenship, that you may the better perform it. And duty, said General Robert E. Lee, is the noblest word in the English language.

It is my conviction that you will become better citizens because of your studies, and that the State will become a better Commonwealth because of your efforts. You have my very sincere best wishes for your success.

Very truly yours,
(Signed) E. LEE TRINKLE,
Governor of Virginia.

Thursday Night Meetings of Y. M. C. A. Becoming More Popular

The Thursday night meetings of the Y. M. C. A. are becoming more popular with the students if the attendance may be taken as any indication of interest.

At the meeting last week, the Reverend Mr. Cromer, of the Methodist Church, spoke to the students. His brief remarks, which centered around Sincerity as an ideal life, were thoroughly interesting and inspiring. Mr. Cromer is a talented young speaker who is interested in William and Mary students, hence his presence adds to the attractiveness of the meetings.

The services are held every Thursday night in the chapel from 7 to 7:30 p. m., for those who wish to spend a few minutes in holy worship. Every man in College is invited to attend. If you do not like the short talk, perhaps you will enjoy the special music. You will feel refreshed, encouraged and strengthened, after attending the "Y" meetings.

Class In Pipe Organ Open To All Students

A course in pipe organ is again being given under the College curriculum. The instructor, Mr. M. B. Reynolds, has had experience as a teacher of piano and has had considerable experience as an organist. Mr. Reynolds has been the organist at the Baptist Church since September, and those who have heard him play feel sure that he will be a successful teacher. The course carries college credit and should therefore be of more interest to students who wish to take pipe organ. Few colleges of our size offer pipe organ instruction.

Star Indian Player Lost by War Wound

Old Injury Causes Cooke to Retire From William and Mary Quint

"Tack" Cooke, star forward and three-year letter man, cannot play basketball this season on account of the renewal of a wound which he received while in France. This loss places the Indians in a bad hole. Coach Driver has only two of last year's regulars to work with.

Watkins and Cofer are the best bets for Cooke's position, but neither of these men can be expected to fill the gap of the flashy little "Tack," who is reckoned by many experts to be one of the best forwards in the State.

At the pivot position, Driver has, in the person of Sexton, a freshman, and brother of the former University of Virginia star, a man, who, in the opinion of Tucker Jones, assistant basketball coach, is one of the best prospects in college. In the game with the Richmond Blues Wednesday night, Sexton scored six field goals for half of W. & M.'s points. He is a good guard and passer as well as an accurate shot. Although Captain Young, Todd and Pierce, guards, are well above the average, and Joe Chandler is a good relief man, Coach Driver's ingenuity will be taxed to build up a winning team out of his material.

Virginia Shows Great Form To Beat Indians

Displaying great form Virginia's speedy five defeated William and Mary Saturday at Charlottesville, 35 to 19. The Orange and Blue got off to a good start, registering a total of fifteen points before the Indians could secure their first field goal. In the second half the teams appeared more evenly matched and Virginia had difficulty in holding her lead.

The feature of the second half was a shot from near midfloor by Walp. Stanley lead his teammates in scoring with eight field goals.

The Indians were unable to penetrate the Virginia defense until late in the second half. Hicks accounted for fifteen of his team's points.

The line-up and summary follow:

Virginia	Position	W. & M.
Lewis	R. F.	Cofer
Stanley	L. F.	Hicks
Miller	C.	Sexton
Walp	R. G.	Pierce
Brown	L. G.	Young

Field Goals—Stanley, 8; Miller, 3; Lewis, 2; Brown, Walp, Hicks, 4; Cofer, Sexton. Goal from fouls—Brown, 5; Hicks, 7. Substitution—McCoy for Lewis; Hall for Walp; Laird for Brown; Robertson for Stanley. Referee—Sanbown (Dartmouth).

Jefferson Wins From Tyler

The basketball clash between Tyler and Jefferson Saturday afternoon resulted in a victory for Jefferson, the score being 37 to 19.

Marjorie Lacey captained the Tyler team, and Alice Moss the Jefferson team. The remarkable shots of Margaret McCall throughout the game made the victory for Jefferson a certainty. Marjorie Lacey was the Star for Tyler.

Line-up:

Jefferson	Tyler
McCall	Lacey
Gibbons	Hunt
Shipp	Hubbard
French	Tuck
Hardy	Johnston
Moss	Volk

Substitutions: Moody for Tuck, Gibbs for Hubbard, Frannaugh for Volk, Hillman for Hardy, Bradford for Shipp.

Referee: First half, Love, second half, Ball.

Umpire: First half, Ball; second half, Love.

Indian Scrubs Win From Petersburgers

William and Mary Scrubs won from Petersburg High School in a clean and hard-fought game here Saturday night. The score was 13 to 12. The contest was close throughout. At no time did either team have more than a two-point lead. Andrews and Captain Bellinger did some excellent floor work and caging for Petersburg. The guarding and foul shooting of Haskill and Denton's long shots from the center of the floor were the features for the Scrubs:

The line-ups

W. & M.	Position	Petersburg
Pollard	R. F.	Andrews
Denton	L. F.	Bellinger (C)
Lash (C)	C.	Perkinson
Wilshin	R. G.	Cook
Haskill	L. G.	Edwards

Substitutions: Scrubs—Wilkinson and Creigler. Petersburg—Walthall. Field Goals—Denton, 3; Creigler, 1; Andrews, 2; Bellinger, 2. Foul goals—Haskill, 5; Andrews, 4.

Bob Martin Awarded Decision Over Jack Sullivan

Many College Students Attend

Bob Martin, champion heavy weight of the army, and near the head of the list of those eligible to meet Jack Dempsey for the heavy weight honors of the world, was awarded a technical decision over Jack Sullivan in the fourth round of a scheduled fifteen round bout at the Liberty Theatre, Camp Eustis, Monday night.

More than two thousand fans, including a large number of W. & M. students, witnessed the scrap which is the first of any importance ever staged on the Peninsula.

Andy Gunn won a decisive bout over Buck Kansas, of Langley Field, in the semi-final. From the spectator's point of view, this was the best exhibition of the evening, so well did these light weights mix it.

The college students who hold a fancy for the "manly art of self defense" will have a chance to pick up some points soon, as Tucker Jones is planning a boxing carnival to determine the champion of the different weights on the campus.

HERE AND THERE

Troubles "come not single spies, but in battalions." Before we have time to recover from the shock of "Cookie's" loss, we hear that Horace Hicks will probably not wear another basketball uniform this season. Coach Ingram's losses were small as compared with Coach Driver's. Buck Young is the only regular from last year's varsity available to the team. We will be fortunate if we break even in the remaining games. One consoling feature of the basketball situation is the large number of recruits that are out for the team. With Driver and Jones giving special attention to the new men, some good cagers will be developed for next season and thereby lessening the chance of a recurrence of the unfortunate situation in which we find ourselves today.

* * * * *

Hicks hit his stride at the University game and accounted for fifteen of the Indians' points. It seems too hard to lose him.

* * * * *

"Every day, in every way," Cofer gets better and better. He played an excellent game against the Yellow Jackets.

* * * * *

We hail Captain Young's return to his old form with mixed feelings of joy and relief.

* * * * *

The students should lend Coach Driver and his team their fullest cooperation and support for the remainder of the basketball year. And above all do not expect too much of your team which is largely inexperienced.

* * * * *

What the Scrubs lacked in team work Saturday night, they more than compensated by the unusual amount of fight they showed. Denton brought the large crowd of spectators to their feet by his spectacular shots from the center of the floor. Haskill's close guarding saved the game for the Scrubs.

* * * * *

As a basketball referee, Decker is the best we have ever seen at William and Mary. We have yet to hear the first kick against a decision of his.

* * * * *

All disgruntled baseball athletes who are not satisfied with the inducements made them by the different colleges, now have the opportunity to finish their education at an institution established to train baseball students.

NEED OF WOMAN'S INTER-COLLEGIATE DEBATING TEAMS

With the increasing number of women students at the College, the need for their maintaining an inter-collegiate debating team is manifesting itself.

Heretofore the literary societies have had debates as part of their program, a good thing as far as it goes, but these hastily prepared Saturday night performances have shown a woefully lack of organization and knowledge of the fundamentals of debating. The societies could well give some time to the technique of effective discussions, rather than to the usual smattering of poet's lives.

Next year, the English faculty might consider devoting a month or two weeks of the course in freshman English to the fundamentals of debating. Even though much time could not be spared toward this, at least interest could be aroused which could later find expression in various directions.

A new course in English is being offered now—Public Speaking. Debates could play a large part in this.

If sufficient interest can be aroused, and if the debaters will work, William and Mary has enough material among the women students to compose a creditable debating team.

WALLACE REID

"Wally" Reid, cinema idol, died last Thursday after an heroic fight to "come back" from the grip of the drug habit. It seems fitting that the most popular hero of the Silver Sheet should make this exit from the stage of life as the hero of his own tragedy.

"Wally" Reid made and held countless thousands of friends by his pleasing personality felt through the communicable silence of the screen. He valued above large monetary returns the praise and good will of the multitude.

The strain of his professional labors caused Reid to fall into the habit of taking narcotic stimulants to enable him to work at top speed. When he found that drugs were getting the upper hand, he fought gallantly against the enemy. The battle brought him the esteem of many who had not followed his presence in the moving pictures with that peculiar loyalty which "film fans" bestow on their favorites.

That he always made good pictures, even during the period in which "off color" pictures were at a premium, is a tribute that can be paid Wallace Reid. The popularity he won was well deserved. Personal charm rather than ingenious exploitation was the reason for it. He gave his best to the public and strove always to maintain a high standard. He was rewarded because he kept faith with the public which mourns his departure.

Iota Mu Pi Organized

A new fraternity for women has just made its bow to the campus. The Iota Mu Pi's were recognized during the past week, by the faculty committee on fraternities, consisting of Miss Taylor, Dr. Hall, Coach Driver and a member of the Board of Visitors, and will now apply to the local Panhellenic Association for admission. It has not yet been decided which national fraternity they will petition, but several of very high rank are under consideration. Iota Mu Pi has seven members: Helen Lannigan, Matilda Crawford and Elizabeth Robinson remain from the group which organized last spring for social purposes, and Mary Custis Foster, Margaret McClure, Margaret Gordon and Frances Meacham are the pledges for this year. Mrs. J. E. Rowe is sponsor.

TAU KAPPA ALPHA PERFECTS STATE ORGANIZATION

Tau Kappa Alpha fraternity convened last Saturday at the University of Richmond with representatives from practically every chapter in the State present. A State organization of the fraternity was completed and George Stelljes, of Roanoke College, was elected the first president of the State organization. H. Hillis Miller, of the University of Richmond, was elected secretary. The next State meeting will be held at Roanoke College. Tau Kappa Alpha is a debating and forensic fraternity organized at Indianapolis in 1908. The William and Mary chapter was established in 1920.

Y. W. CABINET TO GIVE ONE-ACT PLAY SOON

Members of the Y. W. C. A. Cabinet, under the direction of Mr. Robert Blanton, are working on Lord Dunsany's "Tents of the Arabs," a one-act play, which will be given at a Y. W. meeting in about a month.

PHOENIX SOCIETY INSTALLS OFFICERS FOR THIS QUARTER

The Phoenix Literary Society has installed the following officers for the second quarter of the 1923 session:
 President—A. J. Winder.
 Vice-President—W. H. Gravely.

 Treasurer—David George.
 Critic—W. P. Hall.
 Chaplain—H. J. Lewis.
 Sergeant-at-Arms—J. O. Strickler.

SIGMA UPSILON TO PREPARE HISTORY OF LOCAL CHAPTER

Sigma Upsilon held its first meeting since Christmas on Wednesday night, January 17, immediately after the basketball game with the Blues. Messrs. Moffitt and S. C. Hall presented papers on literary subjects, which receive criticism from the members at large, in accordance with the custom of the club.

The Secretary announced the preparation of a history of the local chapter to be published in due course in the fraternity news-letter, and secured from some of the old members additional information as to the origin and early days of the club which was later incorporated into the national literary fraternity.

A committee was appointed to prepare a program for Thursday, the 25th, which was designated as the time for the next meeting.

ALUMNAE VISIT COLLEGE

Among the old girls who visited the College last week-end were: Sally Mapp Jacob, Janet Coleman, Margaret Bridges, Cecil Norfleet, Julia Waters, Myree Hutchings, Mary Nash Tatem and Mary Ayres.

The American Society of Mechanical Engineers is planning to establish a national engineering museum, the first of its kind in the United States.

"The Tempest"
Selected As Commencement Play

Seven scenes from Shakespeare's play, "The Tempest," has been selected for the regular commencement play to be given on Tuesday, June 12, by the members of the College Classical Player's Club. Parts have been assigned and work has already begun on them.

The musical program for this occasion is to be a distinctive one. Professor G. H. Gelsing, who has the matter in charge, is planning to have some old English music, combined with musical interludes between the scenes.

The performance will probably be held on the platform, at the rear of the main building, which lends itself excellently as a stage setting for such a play as "The Tempest."

Summer Quarter
Bulletins Issued Outlining Summer Work

Plans for the 1923 Session of the Summer School of the College of William and Mary, though not yet complete, are well under way, according to statement of Dean K. J. Hoke, Director of the Summer Session. Approximately fifty students have already engaged rooms for the quarter.

The Summer Quarter Bulletin recently issued, gives in detail the courses offered. These include work leading to the B. A., B. S., and M. A. degrees. Special attention is given to courses of interest to those desiring elementary and high school teachers' certificates, and to students interested in Business Administration and Home Economics.

The faculty for the session, though not yet complete, is being rounded into shape as rapidly as possible. A complete catalog of the Summer Session will be issued some time in February.

Indians Meet Harvard, Navy,
Quantico, Holy Cross, University of Virginia,
Amherst

The William and Mary College baseball schedule, as far as completed, consists of a total of fifteen games, five to be played in Williamsburg and ten in foreign territory. The feature of the schedule is a five-day Northern jaunt, when the Indians will meet such teams as the Naval Academy, Harvard and St. Johns. Richmond University will be played twice, once in Richmond and once in Williamsburg. It is probable that a few more home games will be scheduled.

The schedule, as far as completed, is as follows:

- March 28—Holy Cross at Williamsburg.
- March 30—New York University at Norfolk.
- April 2—Amherst College at Newport News.
- April 11—Randolph-Macon at Williamsburg.
- April 17—Harvard at Washington.
- April 18—Quantico Marines at Quantico.
- April 19—Quantico Marines at Quantico.
- April 20—St. Johns College at Annapolis.
- April 21—Naval Academy at Annapolis.
- April 23—Roanoke College (pending) at Williamsburg.
- April 24—Lynchburg College (pending) at Williamsburg.
- April 30—Richmond University at Richmond.
- May 1—Randolph-Macon at Ashland.
- May 9—Richmond University at Williamsburg.
- May 12—University of Virginia at Charlottesville.

THE AMERICAN LEGION,
PENINSULA POST No. 39,
ENDORSES "CITIZEN-SHIP CREED"

Believing it to be vital to our country to perpetuate in present and rising generations the true principles of American citizenship, and the duties pertaining thereto, and believing that the "Citizens Creed," formulated by the Marshall-Wythe School of Government at William and Mary College contains the essence of practical instruction in the duties of American Citizenship; therefore, be it

Resolved: That Peninsula Post No. 39, The American Legion, endorses most heartily the fourteen points of "My Duties as a Citizen," formulated and published by the Marshall-Wythe Classes of William and Mary College, under the direction of Professor John Garland Pollard, and called the "William and Mary Creed" and urge that this creed be adopted by the State Board of Education as regular instruction in all public schools of the State of Virginia.

Be it further resolved that this resolution be spread on the minutes of this meeting, and that copies be sent to Professor John Garland Pollard, William and Mary College, and Harris Hart, Superintendent of Public Instruction, Richmond, Va.

President Chandler Addresses
Richmond Alumni Chapter of Kappa Alpha

Dr. J. A. C. Chandler was the principal speaker at the annual Lee's Birthday Banquet held by the Richmond Alumni Chapter of the Kappa Alpha Fraternity in the Rose Room of the Richmond Hotel last Friday evening. Messrs. LeGrand Tennis, Waller Robertson and George Seay of the Kappa Alpha Chapter here attended the banquet.

Dr. Chandler states that at least a fourth of those present at the party were alumni and former students of William and Mary.

SAM CRAWFORD FIRST PRESIDENT OF NEW
BASEBALL COLLEGE

The National College of Baseball has been established at Burbank, Calif., with Sam Crawford, the best place hitter the American League ever saw, as President.

Crawford will be assisted in his position as president of the new institution by a number of former pitching experts, such as Orvie Overall, Mordecai Brown and Otis Crandall.

The school will open in the spring time.

The University of Maryland will have a very portentous lacrosse schedule this year. Included in the formidable array of teams the Black and Gold is scheduled to meet are Lehigh, Navy, Hopkins, Penn. State, Stephens, New York University, Army, Swarthmore and Colgate University.

SIGMA UPSILON ELECTS FIVE NEW MEMBERS

Membership of Literary Fraternity Increased to Fourteen At Richmond University

At a recent meeting of the Sigma Upsilon honorary literary fraternity, five new men were elected to membership. These men were "Chick" Evans, Judson Evans, Wm. N. Beehler, Wm. Ellyson and R. L. Barrett. This election of new members increases the membership of the local chapter to fourteen.

Sigma Upsilon stands for the best in student literary activities, with especial emphasis upon the desire and practice of writing, as a prerequisite for membership. The local chapter is making an especial effort to accomplish something worth while along the literary line and plans for definite work for each individual member are now being worked out by Warren G. Keith, President of the chapter here.

ALUMNI NEWS

It is interesting to note that among the officers of the 8th Infantry Regiment, which was scheduled to move out of the Occupied Area of Germany on last Tuesday, and which was, incidentally, the last of the American troops to leave the Zone of Occupation, is Captain Richard Brownley Gayle, a student here before the war. Dick, while in College, was a member of the 'varsity football team.

Walter C. Merritt, who was a student at the College in 1899 and 1900, is now Manager of the Pittsburg Office of the International News Service, with offices at 202 Post Building, Pittsburg, Pa.

Professor W. T. Hodges, Alumni Secretary of the College, has recently received letters and contributions to the Mace Fund from the following: Jesse Lockaby, who is a student in the Theological Seminary at Sewanee, Tenn. Lockaby also has charge of a church in Asheville, N. C.

C. A. Lowman, who is principal of a high school at Montebello, in Nelson County, Virginia.

W. W. Douglass, who is a clerk in Philadelphia. His address is 1320 Spring Garden Street.

Walter C. Schenck, known to everyone as "Piggy," is a student of the Law School at Washington and Lee. He is President of the Freshman Law Class, and has been elected to the Mink Staff.

J. Malcolm Bridges, who resigned from College early in the first quarter, is employed in a bank in Roanoke.

Aubrey A. Aaron was recently re-elected Secretary and Treasurer of the Richmond Real Estate Exchange. Aubrey spent the past week-end visiting friends at the College.

INDIAN SPASMS

EVERYBODY WRITE

'Tis English Three I take you see,
Downstairs in number four;
But Doctor Hall, in his glee,
Had locked the classroom door.

While standing there a voice I heard,
As clear as a shot in the night;
As shrill as a mocking bird,
And yelling "Everybody write,"

You may study, you may whine,
You may bone the livelong night,
But a shiver runs up my spine,
From that "Everybody write."

It makes no difference if you're good,
Or whether you're awfully bright,
When Doctor Hall in fiery mood
Announces "Everybody write."

You've got to know your English stuff,
And strut it hard and right;
You can't get by with any bluff,
When you hear "Everybody write."

For when the reports are tallied up,
And you think you're going strong,
Somehow I think I've drained that cup,
And everybody's wrong.

—H. T. M.

QUITE SO, AGNES!

Scene: At Movies (Palace, of course).

Picture: "Forever."

Sub-title: ". . . And they have commuted your sentence to life imprisonment."

Voice in Audience: "And they ought to knock off the time he has already served."

Riding a "Pony"
Made him flunk.

All praises be
To Harold Sinjin,
For he can run
A donkey-engine.

Soph Cook, going to light his cigar after biting off the end, asks the crowd, "which end do you put in your mouth?"

The Crowd: "The end you bit off."

Dr. Hall: "Oh, Brother! In what part of the Bible is Aesop's Fables?"
Atheistic Soph.: "In 'Genesis,' Doctor."

Flapper: "Gee! I'm getting cold."
Dumbell: "That's all right; the sun will be up presently."

Prof. Shewmake, suddenly stopping in the midst of a lecture, walked over to the door, opened it, and peered out. "Spirits!" he exclaimed.
Faison: "What kind, Doc.?"

SCENE: AT BANQUET

"Zulu" Mawson: "Here comes the demi-tasse."

"Dick" Dickinson (having partaken too heavily of punch): "Bring on the critter; I'm not afraid of anything now."

"Bart" Williams (passing Roquefort cheese): "Here, J. D., have some fudge."

J. D. Carter (after sampling): "It may be candy, but it smacks of goat."

A starving Soph viewed a flock of Co-eds about an empty table.

Soph: "Look at those girls."

Waiter: "Don't you like them?"

Soph: "Yes, but I can't eat them."

of his basketball career. His guarding and floor work was superb.

Sexton, the Indian pivot man, was easily the star of the game and did everything expected of a star, leading in passing, guarding and caging. He accounted for six of the Indians' field goals and half the local points.

Klise and Harner played well for the Blues, looping two baskets apiece and contributing some clever floor work.

The line-up and summary follow:

W. & M.	Position	R. B.
Cofer	R. F.	Smith
Hicks	L. F.	Klise
Sexton	C.	Harner
Pierce	R. G.	Markham
Young	L. G.	Owens

Substitutions—W. & M., Chandler and Todd. Blues, Hopkins, Creath and Eaton.

Field Goals—Sexton, 6; Hicks, 3; Cofer, 1; Smith, 1; Klise, 2; Harner, 2.

Foul Goals—Hicks, 4.

Referee—Decker.

college, such institution following too strict paths of education and forgetting that narrowness in training is the wages of such sin." He concluded his address by saying that the purpose of the Omicron Delta Kappa Society was to recognize the leaders of the different branches of college activities, and to bring such leaders into one group or organization.

Eight Students Initiated

The local circle initiated eight new members into the Society. They were as follows: John Todd, A. J. Winder, T. R. Dalton, L. M. Dickerson, J. C. Chandler, B. L. Tucker, G. E. Flanders and G. A. Downing. These students were selected from among the leaders of the campus in the different branches of college activities.

Todd is a two-letter man in football, a member of the basketball team and a member of the Athletic Council; Winder is President of the Phoenix Literary Society and a member of the Inter-Collegiate Debating Team; Dalton is Manager of Track; Dickerson is an excellent student and has done important research work in biology under Dr. D. W. Davis; J. C. Chandler is Manager of Football, President of the Honor Council, and a two-letter man in baseball; Tucker is an "A" student and a laboratory instructor in Accountancy; Flanders is a renowned football player, having also been elected to captain the 1923 football team; Downing is an excellent student and a member of the Flat Hat Staff.

Banquet In Honor of Initiates

A delightful banquet was given in the College dining hall in honor of the new initiates. Judge C. N. Feidelson, of the faculty, was present at the banquet as a guest of the local circle. He delivered a very interesting address to the members of the Society.

Dr. Howe, as this was his first visit to William and Mary, remained for a day visiting the historical places of interest in Williamsburg and at Jamestown.

Pictures At Palace Theatre This Week

4:00, 7:30 and 9:00 O'clock

MONDAY

Eugene O'Brien, the well-known Selznick star, plays the leading role in the picture, "Chivalrous Charley," coming to the Palace on Monday. This picture is well up to the level set in his former triumphs, thus insuring the continued homage of his many admirers. Fox News, the one form of motion picture entertainment incapable of proving dull, is the extra feature.

TUESDAY

Mia May in "Above All Law," heads the Palace program for Tuesday. Lyda de Putti, the brilliant European screen player, is also seen in a splendid dramatic role in this Paramount production, which is a gorgeous drama of passion and a revenge that knew no law, filmed against a background of radiant splendor. The program also includes a Snub Pollard Comedy.

WEDNESDAY

For Wednesday the Palace presents "Kindred Dust," a First National Special. This absorbing drama is quite up to the usual high standard of First National attractions and will afford an evening of entertainment and diversion. A comedy, "The Drifters," is also included on the program as the additional attraction.

THURSDAY

To begin the month, the Palace presents Thomas Meighan, the popular star of Paramount pictures, in the picture, "The Bachelor Daddy," from the novel by Edward Peple, author of "The Prince Chap." If you are looking for entertainment that sparkles with happiness, and has some red-blooded thrills besides, this is your picture. Tom Meighan is aided by pretty Leatrice Joy and the screen's five cutest kiddies, in promising an hour of pure joy.

FRIDAY

"Pink Gods" is the feature attraction at the Palace for Friday, with Bebe Daniels, James Kirkwood, Anna Q. Nilsson and Raymond Hatton in the cast. The scene is laid in the great diamond mines of South Africa, and centers about a woman who made diamonds her god—"pink god," which exert such an influence over so many women. A real entertainment treat is assured.

SATURDAY

If you like breezy action, appealing romance, a smiling, daring-hero, a bewitching heroine, thrilling adventure, you should by all means see Ed (Hoot) Gibson in the "Lone Hand," which will appear at the Palace on Saturday. Marjorie Daw, the leading woman, radiates charm and adds weight to the role with her appealing semi-serious mien. Helen Holmes, famous railroad serial queen, is also in the cast.
