

My Dear Daughter, Bedford 19th June 1807

Your letter of the 2^d Inst, we had the Pleasure to receive, It will ever add much to our happiness to hear of your health and well fare, The articles you express a wish for should be furnished with pleasure, but the difficulties of sending them deturs us from the attempt. You will therefore receive 20^g for the purpose of supplying your present wants, should you be at a loss when you are about to purchase them, Mrs Anderson or some other lady of your acquaintance will assist you in making a choice, I expect to be in Williamsburg about the beginning of August for you as we are unwilling for you to remain the sickly season there, at least that is our present intention

Your Mother and the children are well as well as your ant-Watts's family. I am much hurried and can only add myself Your affectionate Father — John Watts
