GET YOUR SWEM SWAG!

Last semester W&M graduate Cory Chapman '11 won our "Design a Swem T-Shirt" contest with his design pictured here. Soon you will be able to see his design in the flesh! We have ordered the t-shirts, and they should be here by late April. The shirts will be available for sale in Swem Library at the Circulation Desk and online through the Alumni Association's website. More details to come!

Straight Outta Da 'Burg

Are you down with Swem? Think the library's da bomb? Join us on Friday, April 19 for the launch of the new William & Mary Hip Hop Collection! This collection documents Virginia's hip hop culture and history from the 1980s to the present. Scan the QR code below for the 411 on the collection.

The launch event will be held from 6-10 p.m. in Read & Relax, and will include screenings of hip hop-related films, panel discussions with the directors and local hip hop artists, entertainment by DJ Wyze and refreshments. Free and open to the public! It will be off da chain!

Follow Us for Finals Fun

Final exam week is just around the corner (Gasp! Sigh! Nooo!), and we want you to have the latest info on Finals Fun Week at Swem! Follow us on Twitter @swemlibrary and like us on Facebook at facebook.com/swemlibrary for updates. We've got a lot of great activities in store including visits from pet therapy dogs, live music, free Ben & Jerry's ice cream and more!
