

out to Belfield and he will take you all out to Welden on a pleasure trip. The rest send love to you, Sarah and all the rest.
All of the children send their love to you and Sarah. Give my love to all and receive a portion for yourself. Answer this soon as you get it and write me all of the news.
Nothing more at present.

But remains your true and devoted sister

Dear Brother

I now seat myself to answer your letter of Nov. 18th which came to hand in due time.
And was glad to hear from you all.
This leave us all well at present, but all of the children have had the measles, but she, and have nearly gotten over it, and if I don't have it this week I don't expect to have it at all.
I have no news of any importance to write except Miss Annie Howe is married at last and I reckon you have heard of that long before this, married Mr Drumwright and he gone back in the army. I nearly and left her behind but she said she had rather die, I would than and she Mabel. I have received my ticket with your and Sarah likeness, ^{in it} I think they are very good likenesses, and some of the girls says your are just like a girl, but it has not received a single kiss yet Tell Sarah Mee say she will send this shirts down to Harvey next Sunday to carry down to him, Tell Sarah I think it time that he was answering my letter I sent him.

Miss Martha was up here Saturday and dont you wish you had been here to have seen her, she look just as sweet as ever. Your portion of love that you sent to your sweetheart I did not know who to divide it amongst, so you will have to write me word who they are before I can divide,

Tell Charles that I saw Miss Jennie last night and she look just as pretty as ever, and expect a line or two from him soon, Tell him she has heard about his visiting her name all over the walls of Fort Mearns.

Boy says he has had the measles and now he is a pretty man. Sweet thinks as much about the ladies as ever but his shoes grows very slow, but he dont mind that, he takes it a foot he walk over last night and sit until bedtime with the ladies.

Pa says tell Mr Saunders & Ting that ^{could not get} their shoes made at Lawrenceville this side if Christmas. Mee says she is going to send a box down to Harvey to carry down to you and Sarah if he will carry it next Sunday and says you and Sarah must come out to Belfield with Harvey. Sarah Pa and Sweet are going down next Sunday and Sweet says if you and Sarah want to go out to Weldon to come
