

Sir

As Executor of my father, it becomes my duty, <sup>since the death of my mother</sup> to effect a sale of the land adjoining Mr. John Deelin's, which has been called the Dover lot. He left this land to be sold but my mother <sup>Mr. Elizabeth Carter</sup> claiming her dower, it was laid off & consists I believe of about 175 acres - I write to request you to be good enough to inform me by letter, addressed as below, whether there is any probability of finding a purchaser & at what price a sale might be effected. I saw Mr. Alfred Deuling today & he expressed a willingness to buy if the terms suited. He pleased to give me any information in your power respecting the subject of this letter & in case there be a chance of selling, I will return to London in November -

Very respectfully yours
