Quotations. I have received your letter & it is needless to say that I enter very warmly into its spirit & its objects. I have not been inactive as regards the very subject matter of your benevolent but how we have not occasions been called upon to reflect & judge finds in high quarters as to the best measures to be taken with the country after calling upon us of our Philadelphia friends around us for the pro-
-pense of Detroit & several States & will do my utmost to write you more at length
