My dear Sir. Your paper has a large circulation & very great influence among our adopted citizens. There is a disposition to see Great Britain prop. rejected by immaturity of mind with the illiberal temper of the New Hampshire State Constitution. From the truth is that he actually risks his popularity at home at a time when it is hard not to see not looking beyond the limits of his own State, for public honor, by maintaining

The principle of religious liberty in favor of the Catholics. ~~For~~ had as well charge Meagher with being an Englishman in feeling, because he failed in having the Act of Union repealed by Lord Goulburn abrogated. I trust it may be entirely agreeable to your feelings & views as it is a most accordant with propriety & qualified to use the influence the influence of your Government in the & God preserve right of the

the country.

Yours truly
Wm. Dorrance
