Phila: July 19th

My dear Brother

I was really delighted to recognize your handwriting
I especially so when I discovered I might soon congratulate you on the birth of a son to her of your home & stay I trust you would appreciate to your wife. I hope you will bring

See to see us
next summer.

I saw ^{Warner} Wacsee
^{Jones} near in Plinkum after the dog. He is still an old Bottler, & I know he is ashamed of himself. He was looking very well.

Remember with your brother & sister & his daughter
Lucie. ^{Soulie} I hear
she was to marry
to the man,

My dear old fellow
- I am as poor as
- ^{ever} now, but can hold
- Consider in your
- front & below. I
- hope to improve
- my fortune ^{never} know.
- The Post is much
- my friend.

I have nothing to send except the leading editorial
of the Pennsylvania which I published yesterday.

My family are all well. Pericles
would be delighted

62nd year.

The people for them are a dozen men waiting for your seed.
