

was craved you must give my love to your grand daddy and your mamma and to your Uncle Junie and Dibbel tell them I would be very glad to see them all I must close now you must write soon and give me all the news
no more at this time I remain as ever your loving friend

Dear Lattie

Your letter came safe to hand I was very glad to hear from you and to hear that you were well. This leaves me well except a cold I have a terrible cold.
Lattie did you try your fortune yesterday if you did you must write me ward how it was I tried mine last night and had a splendid time. I wish you had been with us we had lots of fun but that was all I haven't any faith in trying fortune so you may know I will never see any thing I am very glad to hear that Jimmie and Dizzie have the post office now for you will get your mail so much quicker. I am looking up in August and ask them to let me keep it for them and you and I can get all their letters and read them. I am very glad that Elsie has such a fine boy I want to see her ever so much give my love to her when you see her and tell her to kiss both of the children for me. Lattie you ought to come down and stay some with me we will commence our protracted meeting Sunday I do hope that it may be a success for we have not had much of a revival here in such a long time. I went to Petersburg last Sunday to hear Mr Wharton preach and went again Tuesday night the church
