Dear Lottie

I will answer your ever welcome letter which came to hand some time ago I was glad to here from you and to here that you and all was well we are all well at present hope when these few lines reaches you it may find you and all the same give my best love to the bride and groom and tell them I wish them much luck and success and may god attend their hathway and may they live to gather happy and peacefull all through life and prepair for the world to come my holiday was alone since I intended going fishing too but I got knocked out give my love to your grandma. Oh Lottie I wish so much that I could see you all and enjoy my self as I once have if I live and keep my health I want to be in ~~Dunwoody~~ Dunwoody next holiday.

I do not know but I doubt think that it will be so that I can come down this summer but Oh how glad I would be to come I do think that I would enjoy my self so much with you all I will close by saying love to all and a share for your dear self you must write soon and a long long letter letter and a lot of good news this is from your ever true friend untill death
