Dear Lollie

I will not wait as long to answer your letter as you did to answer mine I was truly glad to here from you and to here that you was having such a good time what have you done with Sam I expect you have sent him up I went to church yesterday we had a splendid sermon

we have had a splendid meeting at Drakes Branch held by Mr Schorfield Oh & tell you he is a wonderfull preacher I could listen at him all day long and not get tired He had 90 conversions and he had one of the best singers I most ever heard & do want to see you all so bad it looks as if time well never come for me to meet
you all again & will see you all some time this fall if I live and nothing happens tell your uncle Dibble that I have a word for him

if i ever see him
again & send him
a track tell him he must not get mad & only think it may do him some good
if he is a christian
it will not do him
any harm and if not & hope it will help him to be one ~~of~~

I give my love to and your grand ma
and your mama and all inquiring friends
and a good share for
