DE COLLEGIO

Haec libelli pars, quae ad res Collegii ipsius atque eius curatores praeceptoresque pertinet, summo honorum cursus discrimine servato, multo tamen plus quam seriem graduum munerumque academicorum indicat. Proponit enim eos qui res maximas gesserunt litterarias et qui nunciam iuvenes instituunt in doctrinas plurimas, quarum quidem ratio deliberandi libera fecundaque non est minima.

VIEWS

OF THE COLLEGE OF WILLIAM AND MARY

It is always difficult to obtain views of the college that are new and different from those that have been used before. But in this section of the book, an attempt has been made to choose the pictures in the interests of good scenic representation, and best possible composition, though restricted to so few of the buildings for subject matter.

The President's house was built in 1732 and has been the home of the successive presidents of the college. This house is a fine example of eighteenth century Virginian Architecture, and was restored in 1931 by John D. Rockefeller, Jr.

THE WREN COURTYARD

The Wren Courtyard is one of the most attractive spots in the college, and gives a pronounced Old World impression. In it each June are held the Commencement Exercises, as well as other important functions of the college.

BLOW GYMNASIUM

The George Preston Blow Memorial Gymnasium was given to the college by Mrs. George Preston Blow and her children in 1924, and houses the Athletic Department of the college, as well as all facilities for indoor sports.

WREN BUILDING

One of the most delightful vistas of the Wren Building is seen from the south side of the Sunken Garden. From this point the Georgian Architecture blends admirably with old trees, box-wood, and picket fences, which make a perfect setting for a beautiful building.

THE SUNKEN GARDEN

The completion of the Sunken Garden in 1934 has given the college one of the finest campuses in the country. It occupies an area of 128,000 square feet, and its sweeping expanse and geometrical simplicity provide a beautiful setting for the buildings that surround it.

THE WREN BUILDING

The Sir Christopher Wren Building is the oldest on the campus, and dates from 1695. Although it has suffered from three disastrous fires, it now stands restored and complete in its original beauty, exactly as it appeared in 1732, when its reconstruction was finished after the fire of 1705.

ADMINISTRATION AND FACULTY

John Stewart Bryan

PRESIDENT

A P R E F A C E

Within this book are gathered together the pictures, background, and records of the Two Hundred and Forty-fourth year of the College of William and Mary. Like all highly organized associations, colleges seek to preserve their memorials in the hope that pictures and names, when looked at in future years, may re-create the carefree joys of undergraduate days. This desire is deeply founded and wisely conceived, for each student knows instinctively that no matter what the future may hold of success or failure, of joy or sorrow, there will be abundant need and ready place for strength from the shining triumphs and the well-shared joys of college life. • It is true that the past can never be re-captured, and the unknown future dissolves before the magic touch of certainty; but even so, there remain immutable, fortifying, enlarging and radiant the memories and the influence of the old associations and the new horizons of the golden years spent at William and Mary.

THE MEN'S FRATERNITIES
THE WOMEN'S SORORITIES

LES "FRATERNITÉS"

L'idée des organisations aux noms grecs appelées "Fraternités" est dans le sens le plus large du mot, de représenter les efforts concertés de divers groupes d'individus dans le but de développer les capacités des personnes qui les composent. Ceci à fin de former des hommes et des femmes bien éduqués plutôt que d'avoir un système de castes se jalousant et prétendant à une aristocratie maladroite, et c'est principalement à cette fin que les "Fraternités" se doivent de justifier leur existence.

F R A T E R N I T I E S

The College of William and Mary enjoys the distinction of having the oldest undergraduate fraternal organization in the United States among its campus organizations, the F. H. C. Society, founded 1750.

THETA DELTA CHI

Theta Delta Chi was founded at Union College in 1847. The Epsilon Charge was established at the College of William and Mary in 1853, the first social fraternity on the campus. Theta Delta Chi was the first fraternity to use a pledge pin, have an official flag, issue a regular publication, and to adopt official flower and colors.

After changing locations several times, the fraternity has moved into its new location on Richmond road.

SIGMA ALPHA EPSILON

Sigma Alpha Epsilon Fraternity was founded March 9, 1856, at the University of Alabama, at Tuscaloosa. Later in the same year, by secret communications, another chapter of Sigma Alpha Epsilon was established at the University of North Carolina.

In 1857, Thaddeus Farnuss entered William and Mary College. He petitioned the grand chapter at Tuscaloosa, and a chapter was started here December 12, 1857. This organization was disbanded during the Civil War, but on February 7, 1925, the Virginia Kappa Chapter of Sigma Alpha Epsilon was reborn, with its original charter still intact.

LAMBDA CHI ALPHA

Lambda Chi Alpha was founded at Boston University in 1909. The fraternity, an outgrowth of the Cosmopolitan Law Club of that institution, now has eighty-six zetas.

Epsilon Alpha Zeta of Lambda Chi Alpha was originally a local social fraternity by the name of Alpha Phi Epsilon. This name was changed to Alpha Tau Epsilon when, in 1927, the society became the seventy-third zeta of Lambda Chi Alpha.

In the summer of 1934 Epsilon Alpha Zeta moved to its new location at 607 Richmond Road.

PHI ALPHA

In 1925, Zeta Theta Pi was established as a local Jewish fraternity at the College of William and Mary. Within two years, this organization had reached the point where affiliation with a national fraternity seemed desirable. Accordingly, on February 22, 1927, Zeta Theta Pi was installed as Tau Chapter of Phi Alpha Fraternity. Phi Alpha, founded in 1914 at George Washington University, today numbers twenty-one active undergraduate chapters.

SIGMA PI

Sigma Pi Fraternity was founded in Vincennes University, Vincennes, Indiana, in the year 1897. Alpha Eta Chapter was established at the College of William and Mary, June 6, 1931, from the local fraternity, Alpha Psi.

The first Sigma Pi house on this campus was situated on Scotland Street, established by three men. At the beginning of the 1932-33 session, the fraternity moved to 321 Richmond Road, where they remained until June, 1935. Sigma Pi was again moved at the start of the 1935-36 session, when quarters were taken in the special dormitory adjacent to Tyler Hall.

Omicron Beta Chapter of Chi Omega, established on May 30, 1921, was the first national sorority installed on the William and Mary campus. In fourteen years Omicron Beta has initiated 159 members. It is a custom to give annually a sociology prize to the woman student who has done the most outstanding work in that field. In 1935, at the Chi Omega national convention, Omicron Beta was awarded the silver loving cup for being the most outstanding chapter of that organization.

PI BETA PHI

Pi Beta Phi, the pioneer among national fraternities for women, was founded under the name of I. C. Sorosis, on April 28, 1867, at Monmouth College, Monmouth, Illinois. The fraternity was the result of serious discussion and planning and a realization of the needs and demands of the rising generations of women for higher and broader spiritual development and unity. Today Pi Beta Phi has 79 chapters and a membership of 23,000.

The local chapter of Pi Beta Phi was established in 1925, when the members of Delta Phi Kappa, a campus organization established in 1920, were granted a charter.

Alpha Mu of Delta Delta Delta was installed at the College of William and Mary on December 1, 1928. The present chapter was formed from a local sorority, Delta Chi Delta, which had been organized on the campus by Alice Claibourne, a Tri Delta pledge from Sewanee, with the intention of petitioning to the national organization for a charter.

In the winter of 1931 the chapter house on Richmond Road burned with a loss of all chapter and personal belongings. In September, 1931, Tri Delta moved into the house it now occupies in Sorority Court.

MEN'S ATHLETICS

WOMEN'S ATHLETICS

DIE ATHLETIK

Der Spruch: "ein gesunder Geist in einem gesunden Körper", ist nicht weniger eine Mahnung an diejenigen, welche vor allem Athleten sind als an diejenigen, welche hauptsächlich Studenten sind, weil das Endergebnis—sei es das Ziel einer körperlichen oder einer geistigen Bestrebung—die Anwendbarkeit dieser von selbst einleuchtenden Wahrheit bezeugt.

A T H L E T I C S

William S. Gooch, Jr.

DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

FOR the past ten years the guiding hand on the reins of William and Mary athletics has been that of genial William S. (Billy) Gooch, Jr. He succeeded Wilder Tasker back in the dim ages of the 1920's and has successfully steered the course of the Tri-Color standard bearers through depression years and administrative changes in the college.

Known to the old-timers as one of the Old Dominion's most outstanding athletes, "Smiling Billy" has been in constant touch with the problems of the athletic situation in the South and has made a great name for himself in the sports annals of the state. His famous catch-phrase, "Not for publication," has become a by-word whenever he appears and he is a welcome member when the "boys" convene for a session on sports.

The past year has seen a new set-up in the athletic department of the college with Branch Bocock the Head Coach and Athletic Director and Billy Gooch taking over the new position of Business Manager of Athletics. Under the new system students of the college may expect a New Deal in sports with Billy still at the helm.

CAPTAIN MARINO

THE William and Mary eleven, making its debut in the Southern Conference under the famed Graham Plan, finished its season with a record of one victory and eight defeats. With Branch Bocock as new head coach, the Indians had a new system and style of play to learn which slowed them down at the start, and a series of serious injuries handicapped them all during the season. With these obstacles to hurdle the Tribe was hard put to show the brand of football which is usually seen when an Indian team takes the field. The spirit and snap which came out in the games toward the close of the season, however, are indicative of what may be expected of the Bocockmen when the pigskin begins to fly next year.

COACH BOCOCK

The Football Season

THE 1936 edition of the Indian football squad, with Coach Bocock at the helm, opened its season against a strong Middy aggregation at Annapolis on September 26. For the first three periods the Midshipmen held only a slight edge and the Indians went into the last stanza trailing by six points, but the Navy team weighed another and piled on two more tallies before the Tribe could get going. "Jumping Joe" Flickinger brought the crowd to its feet in the closing minutes of play when he distinguished himself in his first varsity game by snaring a pass from Pete Bunch and racing fifty yards for a touchdown. The Middies were again too strong for a fighting Indian team.

 Guilford 0

The Bocockmen, playing their first home game of the season on October 17, opposed a weak Guilford team. The game was scheduled to ease the strain on the team, but the Quakers proved a much harder fight than had been expected. For the first half the second team went in but they did not make very great headway and Coach Bocock was forced to throw his varsity squad into the breach. Once in the game the Indian Chiefs had little trouble in subduing the invaders and all the backs received a chance to show their wares. Pete Bunch, Dozier, Flickenger, and Woodward piled up the score for the Braves. Zable was a standout at his end position and again played the brand of ball which brought him to an All-State berth.

 Roanoke 13

The Roanoke team, invading Williamsburg on the 24th of October, broke a thirteen-year jinx and came out on the top end of the score over an Indian football eleven. The visitors from the western part of the state uncorked a whirlwind offensive and took the Braves into camp with two scoring bursts in the first half. To complete a bad day the services of Pete Bunch were lost to the Indians until Thanksgiving when he sustained an injured shoulder. In the last stanza the Tri-color bearers took to the air in a last-minute attempt to tally but they did not click enough to cross the last marker.

William and Mary 0
 Hampden-Sydney 19

For their next opponent the Braves faced the fighting Tigers from Hampden-Sydney in the William and Mary stadium on October 31. Unable to work together, and showing no scoring punch, the Indians dropped their fifth decision of the season. The Tigers took possession of the game from the start and rammed home a score within a few minutes of the start of the game. The remainder of the first half resolved into a kicking duel with neither team gaining much advantage. In the second half the Tigers capitalized on a fumble and a penalty for interference and marked up two more touchdowns and a conversion to complete their scoring for the day.

The presence of the Alumni on Homecoming Day seemed to give the team an added incentive. The V. M. I. Keydets came down on November 7 expecting an easy game but they were disappointed, despite the appearance of the score. The soldiers' aerial attack was very well made but it was only a slight edge over the Indians' running attack which they had a tough time stopping. DeGutis and Trueheart provided thrills with long returns of intercepted passes which almost went for scores. Della Torre also deserved mention for his work in backing up the line.

The Indians traveled to Norfolk a second time on November 14 to surprise a highly-rated Generals team at Foreman Field. Although the team from Lexington was given a great margin on paper, it narrowly averted a tie by a last-minute score which followed a blocked kick. The Braves' tally was made by Kyle on a pass from Dozier which caught the W.-L. secondary asleep on their feet.

 Richmond 6

The closing game of the season was the traditional Turkey Day battle with the Richmond Spiders, ancient enemies of the tribe. However, the Braves' run of bad luck was still with them and they again found themselves on the short end of the score. The teams were almost evenly matched and the game was a battle of punts until the William and Mary offensive began to click. The Indians sustained a drive down to the ten-yard marker but the Spiders blocked an attempt at a field goal and converted it into a score, breaking the deadlock. This took the heart out of the Indian attack and they lost their scoring punch.

William and Mary 0
U. of Virginia 7

The Bockmen made their first bid for the attention of the Southern Conference when they journeyed to Norfolk on October 3 to meet the Cavaliers in the new Foreman Stadium. The old Virginia jinx again reared its ugly head and the breaks and the game turned against the Indians.

The Charlottesville eleven uncovered a weak but organized onslaught and sustained a march down the field to chalk up seven points, a small margin, but enough to down the Tribe. The famous combination of Bunch and Zable again starred for the Braves but their efforts were not enough to turn the game.

William and Mary 0
V. P. I. 14

The team journeyed to Richmond for its annual tilt with the V. P. I. Gobblers and again came out on the short end of the score. For the first two periods the game see-sawed back and forth with not much advantage on either side, but the second half put the game on ice for Tech. In the third stanza a blocked kick and an intercepted pass gave the Gobblers two trips across the goal marker and both were converted to hand the Gobblers fourteen points and the game. The Braves showed the need of a good running attack and a lack of coordination. Johnny Trueheart, playing his last year of football, stood out the best defense man of the game.

The COLONIAL ECHO calls time out to give a farewell salute to a distinguished group of Tribesmen, the seniors, who have put away their uniforms for the last time.

CAPTAIN JOE MARINO came to William and Mary with an unusually fine athletic record from John Adams High School in New York. During his freshman year he distinguished himself with the Paposes by being a tower of strength in the line. In his sophomore year he rapidly secured a berth with the varsity as a regular guard, turning in an enviable record for his first year of varsity competition. His junior year he continued his good work, turning in excellent performances against such foes as Navy, Army Dartmouth, and W. and L. Probably the best performance of the year was against Dartmouth College, which honored him by choosing him as all-opponent guard. At the end of the season he was elected captain, and in his senior year continued the good work, proving a capable leader for the Tri-color.

JOHN TRUEHEART, a product of Petersburg High School, fulfilled the promise of a brilliant future in athletics. His freshman year he was a first-string halfback on the frosh eleven, and served on the basketball and baseball teams. His second year he moved up to a regular position on the varsity, being especially adept as a defensive back. His junior year he gained a reputation as an "Iron Man," playing almost all the time, while weighing only 150 pounds. Johnny saw much service his final year, being one of the main cogs in the Indian machine, and rounding out a bright career.

WALTER HADTKE, Captain Marino's running mate at guard, is another northern boy who came south and made a name for himself. Not confining his activities to the gridiron, he made himself at home in the pool, churning his way to aquatic stardom for three years. He proved himself an able linesman, at home with the best of them.

BILL DAVIES, of Arlington, Virginia, came to us from Washington and Lee High School, and exceeded his fine reputation as a capable and scrapping guard. An able performer, he secured a regular position on the varsity with comparative ease. His graduation leaves a vacancy in the line that will be hard to fill.

FRANK LIVESAY, another product of Petersburg High School, has been a reliable performer both on the line and in the backfield. He played back in his freshman year and for the next two years he went up into the line to take a guard position. His senior year again found him in the backfield. For four years Spring has found him on the cinder paths where, under the tutelage of Coach Chandler, he has been a consistent performer.

KELLISON

ARTHUR WOODWARD, the red-headed back from St. Albans, West Virginia, has been followed by an injury jinx throughout his college career. Despite his injuries, however, he has turned in a brilliant record as a backfield star. He gained a name as one of the speediest and hardest-hitting backs the Tribe has had in years.

WALTER ZABLE, the other half of the passing combination, Bunch to Zable, will be long remembered for his ability to snare a pass from the midst of a group of opposing backs. Using his track speed to advantage, he was especially effective in covering punts. Besides his football ability the boy from Boston Trade was a well-known figure on the diamond and the cinder path. He played the shortstop position on the varsity baseball team and specialized in the 100-yard dash.

JOE FLICKENGER, the mighty mite, turned in an unusually fine record for his first year of varsity competition on the gridiron. He was the first man to score for the Indians this past season when he dashed over fifty yards to tally against the Middies of the Naval Academy. Not allowing his size to handicap him, he was a stand-out in every branch of athletics in which he participated. In track he equalled the Southern Conference record, in the polevault and in basketball he was one of the speediest and most accurate forwards in the state.

DICK DOZIER, a newcomer from Norfolk Division of William and Mary, immediately gained a place in the line-up as a hard-hitting back. His experience under Coach Tommy Scott stood him in good stead when he came to Williamsburg and he quickly adapted himself to his new surroundings. He furnished one of the high-lights of the season when he passed to Fred Kyle for a score in the Washington and Lee game. Besides football, he is an able performer on the basketball court and on the diamond.

AL DeGUTIS, a running mate of Walt Zable's from Boston Trade played the opposite end in his sophomore and junior years, but due to a scarcity of backs in his senior year, he was converted from an end into a back, where he excelled in backing up the line. In other fields he has done equally well, having annexed for himself a place on the varsity swimming team and the captaincy of the 1937 track team. He is a dominating figure in the field events and a consistent point-gainer.

FRED KYLE, another newcomer from Norfolk Division, where he played three years under the guidance of Tommy Scott, saw quite a bit of service with the Tribe. He topped his year with a score against Washington and Lee on a pass from his fellow Divisioner, Dozier.

EVERETT BLAKE, who prepped at Christ Church, is another of the Virginia boys to play for the Tricolor. He showed his heart and fortitude when he would not allow a broken ankle to keep him from practices in his junior year.

AL BRUNO, from Pittston, Pennsylvania, was one of the steadiest and most dependable of the varsity squad. Al was a linesman and a hard worker, and his loss will be keenly felt by coaches and players alike.

We salute these men who have given their time and loyalty so unstintingly for four years that William and Mary could hold up its standard in the annals of the sports history of the Old Dominion. The College will always be grateful to them for what they have done.

Coach Bill Scott's freshmen eleven turned in a record of three wins, two ties, and one loss when the final whistle blew on their 1936 season. Victories over the N. C. State frosh and the Norfolk Division of William and Mary and a tie with their ancient enemies, the Baby Spiders of Richmond, were the highlights of the Papooses' tough schedule.

Opening against Fork Union Military Academy, the frosh showed a good fighting team but they lacked the necessary scoring punch. Their defense was good, however, and they clicked like veterans to keep the visitors from a score. Offensive teamwork was the only element missing to start the Scottmen off as a good ball club. The game ended in a scoreless tie.

The Papooses invaded Lexington for their second game and played the V. M. I. freshmen to a 6-6 deadlock for three periods. The last stanza told on the little Indians' reserve power, however, and the baby Keydets, led by Paul Shu, trained their heavy guns on the tired invaders and piled up a final score of 25-6. Twiddy and Phillips were the mainstays of the freshmen.

After a two weeks layoff, the yearlings faced a highly touted Raymond Riordan team, but braced by the feel of home territory under them and fresh from a two weeks rest they proceeded to break down the invaders' reputation. Legg broke the ice by blocking a punt and recovering it over the line for a safety, and Barry completed the job when he snared a pass and raced twenty yards for a tally. The frosh romped home with an 8-0 victory.

Coach Scott's charges next travelled to North Carolina where they met the Tarheel frosh, confident on their home ground, and left them on the tail-end of a 6-0 score. The youngsters played a flashy game of ball and set the defenders rocking. The stage was set for a score when Lusardi, freshman end, blocked a kick; and the frosh took advantage of the break to convert it into a marker.

The Richmond Baby Spiders were the next on the schedule and the yearlings were anxious to down their traditional rivals, but a wet field, a slippery ball, overanxiety on the part of both teams caused too many fumbles. Twiddy, Phillips, and Fowler scored for W.-M. on a pass and a lateral but the conversion was wide. The little Indians let up after the score and the Spiders tallied to deadlock the game at 6-6.

For a fitting wind-up of their season the frosh journeyed to Foreman Field to play Tommy Scott's Norfolk Division eleven under lights. Not bothered by the glare, the boys from Williamsburg turned the heat on their Norfolk brethren and rolled up a 15-0 score, closing their season in a blaze of lights and a blaze of glory.

COACH DOWLER

Coach Tommy Dowler's Indian quintet closed their 1936-37 season with the poorest record a Tri-Color squad has handed in for the last decade. When the final whistle blew the total stood at eighteen losses and no victories.

Handicapped by a too-small squad and the loss of all but one of the little giants who played a swell brand of ball last year, Coach Dowler had a hard time in whipping together a team to face the big-time competition which the other Old Dominion teams offered this season. George Bunch, the tall center who held down big Bob Spessard of W.-L. last season, did not have the same speedy bunch of passers behind him this season that he had last year and the entire squad seemed bogged down with but one or two exceptions. However, Bunch dropped in enough baskets to place himself among the high scorers in the state.

The final game against the Virginia team brought out the inadequacy of the squad when the final quarter was played with only four men to a team due to the lack of W.-M. substitutes.

One of the greatest obstacles to the team was their unfamiliarity with the wide-open style of play which Coach Dowler adapted from the Pitt system.

Although the record is not one to which the college may point with pride, the students may still feel that the men who played all season fought and played as best they could.

The outlook for next year is considerably brighter. Zable, Hall, and Dozier were the only seniors on the squad, and with six men returning for next year and the men coming up from the frosh squad the 1937-38 varsity should be able to put out a team that will measure up to the usual William and Mary standards. The COLONIAL ECHO expects to see the Indian basketekers return to form next year and make us prouder than ever.

COACH SCOTT

The William and Mary freshman basketball squad, under the tutelage of Coach Bill Scott, closed their season with a record of five victories and seven losses. The early part of the season found the frosh disorganized and unable to cooperate in team play, and they dropped their first four contests to Raymond Rordan School from New York, the Richmond Baby Spiders, Hopewell High School, and the John Marshall Cadets.

From here on the Papooses took a turn for the better and won five of their remaining eight games, polishing off South Norfolk High, Benedictine High, William and Mary Norfolk Division, Woodrow Wilson High, and Fork Union M. A. with ease.

The defeat of the Benedictine team was a feather in the yearlings' caps, for the Saints were later chosen to travel to Chicago to participate in a nation-wide tournament. The Fork Union game was another triumph for the frosh for the Keydets came to town with an enviable reputation and record.

Dropping two games to their arch rival, the Baby Spiders from the University of Richmond, was one of the main disappointments of the season, but the Richmond frosh had one of the strongest yearling teams in the South.

Vance Fowler and Vinnie Lusardi two of the high point men were awarded places on the All-State second team and Howard Heinz was a close second to them. With these boys going up, the varsity should have a wealth of material next year.

COACH SCOTT

Varsity Baseball

The '36 varsity nine ended the season with a stirring 5-4 victory over the University of Richmond to win the co-championship of the state. Captain-elect Edmonson provided one of the major thrills of the season when he drove in the winning run to give the Indians their victory.

The Tribe's record for the season totaled 14 wins and 9 losses. Coach Bill Scott's charges owed their success largely to the able hurling of Bob Adams and "Lefty" Harvell, and the brilliant hitting of Captain Moore, Matheny, Marable, and Harper.

The infield was dominated by the work of Edmonson at first, Marable at second, and Benedetto at third, ably assisted by Zable at short and Redford as utility man. The outer garden was well patrolled by the fleet Moore and the slugging Matheny and Savedge.

The battery side of the question was competently handled by pitcher Adams who turned in a record of ten wins and no losses, with Harvell and Oliver sharing the honors. Harper did a fine job of receiving and more than held his own at the plate. The Braves hope to replace Moore, Marable, Harvell and Savedge this year and repeat last season's performance.

The William and Mary frosh nine, coached by Tommy Dowler, wound up their 1936 season with a record of eight victories and three losses. The highlight of the season was a no-hit, no-run game against Woodrow Wilson High School with Franklin "Rosy" Waugh on the mound for the Papooses. Waugh was the standout for the little Indians last year and is expected to receive a starting assignment with this year's varsity.

Yeager, Hern, and Koss were a trio of ball hawks who dominated the infield play and held up the team average in the batter's box and Coach Scott is depending on them to fill the vacancies in his varsity infield.

Among the Papooses' victims were Crewe High, Maury High, Petersburg High, Norfolk Division of W. M., and the Richmond Baby Spiders. However, the Richmond team and the Scottmen of Norfolk came back to avenge their first defeats and register wins to even up their records.

The 1936 edition of William and Mary's varsity track team was coached by Joseph C. (Scrap) Chandler and captained by the brilliant miler, Platt Bullard. The Chandlermen succeeded in bettering their 1935 record of two wins and four losses by adding two more tallies to the win column. Despite the loss of the sensational "Monk" Little, the Indians were a better balanced team than has been seen here in the last few years.

The Indian trackmen swept aside all state competition, gaining decisions over the Apprentice School, Randolph-Macon, V. M. I., and Richmond. Outside of the state, however, the Chandlermen did not fare so well, being defeated by Duke, the University of North Carolina, and the big Green Team from Dartmouth in the annual intersectional meet. The team from

JOSEPH C. CHANDLER
Coach

Hanover offered too much for the Braves to conquer.

Among the outstanding performers of the season were Paul Mingee, the Hampton Flash, Captain Bullard, and "Jumping Joe" Flickenger. Mingee and Flickenger were the team's representatives at the annual I. C. A. A. meet in New York, where Flickenger equalled the conference pole vault record and Mingee captured a fourth place in the 100-meter dash.

As a grand finale to the season and a fitting climax to a brilliant career on the cinder path, Captain Bullard led the Tribe to a 75-51 victory over the Richmond Spiders, defeating Bill Lumpkin in a 4:24 mile. Bullard, Smeltzer, and Crutchfield were standouts in the running events while Captain-elect DeGutis and Lang dominated the field events.

CAPTAIN DEGUTIS

Freshman Track, 1936

Coach "Scrap" Chandler's frosh cindermen showed a complete reversal of form in their 1936 season over their past five undefeated years. Five meets were scheduled for the Papooses but only one scalp was hung from their belts. The W.-M. Norfolk Division was the only team the little Indians were able to take into camp, which, however, they did to the convincing score of 79-37.

The most consistent point winners of the season were Duke, Peterson, and Ward, and they were closely followed by Matson, Walker, and Rowland. Duke and Ward showed up well in the dashes, and Ward demonstrated his versatility by placing well up in the hurdles. Matson and Rowland are both distance men and a great deal is expected of them in the coming season. Coach Chandler believes that with a year of experience behind them all of these men will bolster his 1937 varsity squad and turn in good steady performances to pile up points for the Tribe this coming season.

Varsity Tennis

The William and Mary tennis team, handicapped by a lack of adequate practice courts, won only one meet out of the eleven scheduled for their 1936 season. This victory, however, over Boston College, was an indication of the potential strength of the team when it hit its stride.

Under the able coaching of John Lewis and the leadership of Captain Mitson, who dominated in the singles matches, the team was strong but not quite experienced enough to win out. With few veterans to help him, Coach Lewis concentrated on drilling his new men and pointing for the coming 1937 season.

The matches which filled out the 1936 schedule were with Richmond University, Maryland, V. P. I., Duke, Washington and Lee, Lynchburg Teachers, N. C. State, U. of Virginia, Haverford, Johns Hopkins, and Boston College.

The mainstays of the team last year were Captain Mitson in the singles matches, and the doubles team of Mitson and Reynolds, Monohan, James, Mason, Daniels, Thomas, and Downing were consistent performers on the courts.

Coach Lewis is more than confident over the coming 1937 season, for all his letter men are returning as seasoned veterans and the sophomores whom he groomed for varsity competition are now ready to compete. These new men, Walker, Jaffe, Ryder, Teal, and Wheeler, gave the varsity stiff competition last spring and should build the team to where it will be a formidable factor in intercollegiate tennis.

It is expected that new assignments will be given at the start of the season and Captain Mitson at the No. 1 position is the only man who is sure of his ranking. As for the rest of the assignments, the squad is so well rounded that nothing definite will be announced until the spring practice is well under way.

The 1937 schedule includes all of last year's opponents and in addition has added the teams of Davidson, Wake Forest, and of the Norfolk Division of William and Mary. A southern trip has been arranged to take in Duke, Wake Forest, and N. C. State.

Varsity Fencing

The William and Mary varsity fencers, coached by L. Tucker Jones, completed their 1936-37 season by winning eight out of their nine scheduled meets. Despite a small squad the Indian pin-pushers more than held their own against some of the best competition in the east.

Stangarone and Kibel headed the foils division, ably assisted by Ed Ware. Kibel and Woodward held down the Epee division with Woodbridge and Captain Anner doing the sabre slashing. Makler, a freshman showed promise of becoming a serious competitor for an Epee position next year.

In their home meets the team defeated St. Johns, Richmond, and Langley Field. On their northern trip Stevens, Rutgers, Delaware, and Maryland fell before the Indian tribe, leaving Haverford to register William and Mary's only defeat.

Varsity Swimming

WALT HADTKE

The William and Mary tankmen, coached by "Scrap" Chandler, concluded their 1937 season with a record of six victories and one defeat. This past season was one of the best the team has had in years and Coach Chandler and his squad are deserving of a great deal of praise for their performance.

With most of last year's letter men, led by Co-Captains Hadtke and Daniel, back from last year, and such men as Moore, Goldberg, and Adams up from the frosh squad, the mermen were a well-rounded group and in fit condition to sweep most of the competition from their path. The Washington and Lee Generals were the only team to down the Tribesmen.

Opening with Randolph-Macon, the Indians plowed their way to a decisive 54-20 victory, with Bunch, Moore, and Goldberg showing the way to annex the first victory of the season.

The next invaders were the Wolf-pack from N. C. State, but the Braves sent them packing to the tune of a 47-37 score to make it two straight. Johnny Adams and Jumping Joe Flickenger paced the Tri-color squad by taking a one-two in the diving event.

The Duke Blue Devils showed plenty of fight and power in the next meet but the superior strength of the Indians brought them out on the long end of a hard-fought 44-40 score.

The Braves increased their record to four straight victories at the expense of the Cavaliers from the U. of Va. when they drowned them in the spray of a 48-36 win. The visitors did not show all that was expected of them and the Indians won easily.

The W.-L. Generals came down from Lexington to spoil the Braves record by a 46-38 score, but from here the Indians went on to defeat V. P. I. and register a fourth place in the Southern Conference meet.

Among the outstanding men of the year were George Bunch, Jimmy Moore, Hadtke, Goldberg, Adams and Shuler.

MISS MARTHA BARKSDALE

The Women's Physical Education Department, under the guidance of Mr. Jones, Miss Martha Barksdale, Miss Virginia Dix Sterling, and Miss Elizabeth Burger, conducts the most all-inclusive program in the college.

Over four hundred freshmen and sophomore women are taking part in the required courses, in addition to the outside activity, which each one selects from the various games.

The extensive intramural program offers an opportunity for every woman in the school to participate in athletics. Women majoring in this department have excellent facilities for training and experience.

Varsity competition held in field hockey, basketball, tennis, and fencing has proved so successful that the co-eds rank high in intercollegiate athletics.

Try-outs for the Eastern Virginia Hockey team opened the girls' season. Nine William and Mary players were named on the Eastern Virginia squad. Elliott, Miller, and Smoot were placed on the first team. Layton, Brubaker, King, Edgerton, Carl and Sale were also named for the squad.

The Eastern Virginia team met the English team at Westhampton on October 14th. Although both teams played hard the English team won the game as has been their custom in the United States. The English team was entertained at William and Mary that night and the following day.

The trip north was taken during the last part of October. A game played in Baltimore with Notre Dame of Maryland resulted in a victory for the William and Mary Indianettes. The team went on up to Philadelphia for the weekend to witness the last few games of the International Hockey Tournament.

The meet with the Richmond Club was an evenly matched one and resulted in a scoreless game. An exciting match with the Baltimore Club closed the hockey season. The Baltimore Club lost to the English team by only nine points, so the William and Mary hockey team's loss to the Baltimore Club was more than justified. Since this game was considered a club game, the Misses Burger, Sterling, and Sinclair were able to play.

The Reserves lost two games to Richmond. Miss Sterling and Miss Burger, both alumnae and now instructors here, were sent to Baltimore for the Southeastern Tournament. They played on the All-Virginia team. Miss Burger was one of fifteen to receive honorable mention.

WOMEN'S VARSITY BASKETBALL 1937

The basketball season opened with six William and Mary teams competing. The strong freshman team made their debut by defeating the group from the Norfolk Division. The reserve team defeated the Richmond Division. Then the varsity climaxed the day with an amusing game with the alumnae who had returned from New York and other distant points. The result of two hard fighting teams was a close score in favor of the alumnae.

The first intercollegiate game was with Notre Dame of Baltimore, a new name in our list of competitors. It was taken by the home team with a score of 12-16. Jane Hutchinson played an excellent game. Her shooting and passing were unbeatable.

Probably the most exciting game of the season was the Farmville tilt. The visitors won by one point, which was scored just as the final whistle blew. The next day Sweet Briar bowed to William and Mary, with freshman Ann Layton rolling up a beautiful score for the local six.

The team broke even on the New York trip, easily repeating the win over Notre Dame, 37-14, and taking a bad trouncing from the Manhattanville team, undefeated for several years.

After the team returned from New York, it ended the season with a full week-end. On Friday the sextet played New College of Columbia University in a fast two division game. The local lassies met defeat but although the two division type of game was a new one for them, they made a fine showing. They met defeat in the hands of the fast-passing and shooting Beaver team the following day, but showed excellent team work and more familiarity with the two division play than before.

The Freshman squad completed its season by winning for the second time from Norfolk and losing to St. Catherines's.

1938 looks like a promising season with this year's team practically intact and profiting from this past season's experience of hard-played games.

The Freshman Team

LACROSS

The lacrosse season got under way with a rather late start in the middle of April. The team first used the gymnasium for its practices and then the hockey field assumed the role of a lacrosse field.

May Cox, Annabelle Brubaker, Beale Sale, Ruth Trimble, Tudor Trotter, and Josephine Burpeau are the remaining members of last year's squad. Though no intercollegiate games are scheduled, it is hoped that we may sponsor an exhibition match with Sweet Briar College.

Plans are now being made to have a William and Mary representative at the "Lacrosse Week-end" for coaches and players at Garrison Forest, Garrison, Maryland.

TENNIS

In the five varsity tennis meets the William and Mary women enjoyed a fairly successful season, having won two matches, lost two matches, and tied one.

A team composed of Lisa Bloede, Phyllis King, Claudia Torrence, Jean Remaley, Rebecca Timberlake and Maxine Herzberg defeated Manhattanville and Hilton Village, tied New York University, and lost to Swarthmore and Beaver Colleges.

FENCING

The first fencing group at William and Mary was organized in 1924. Mr. Jones finds himself confronted with the task of re-organization since the whole of last year's team was graduated. The new material seems promising but they must have at least a year of coaching before we can expect them to "bring home the bacon." Even with so little experience they are prepared to make at least a fair showing in the Women's Intercollegiate Foil Fencer's Association Tournament, meeting Cornell, New York University, Brooklyn, and Hunter.

GIRLS' FENCING SQUAD

ARCHERY

On November 30th the William and Mary Archery team lost a telegraphic meet to Sweet Briar College by three hundred and sixty-six points.

Helen Bennett, Lorraine Blanchard, Eva Colby, Wilson, Mildred Coe, Annie Crafford, Jane Scribins, and Elouise Rucker were selected to represent the college in its first intercollegiate archery match. It is hoped that with additional experience, the future seasons will be more successful, and that the enthusiastic interest manifested in its trial will be continued.

Helen Bennett was the manager of the archery team and was largely responsible for its success.

Intramural Sports

INTRAMURALS

Intramural sports, started last year, attained even greater heights this year under the competent guidance of Manager Maxine Herzberg, in co-operation with the Physical Education Department.

The sororities and dormitories have representative teams participating in the several sports, and a great amount of enthusiasm has been shown this year. Among the activities included in the intramural program are hockey, badminton, ping-pong, basketball, bridge, swimming, canoeing, tennis, and bowling, this last being a new-comer to the schedule. At the halfway mark in the year these sports have been actively supported by over three hundred and twenty-five women, not to mention the large galleries which followed the progress of the groups with eager interest.

Last year, at the end of the season, the number of participants was just over three hundred; so a veritable doubling of the number of enthusiasts for intramurals is apparent this season.

The spirit of the rival teams has been excellent, and a great forward step has been taken in women's athletics by the institution of intramurals. The time may come when complete emphasis will be placed on this phase of athletic activity, rather than on intercollegiate games.

ATTIVITA

Le attività qui enumerate non devono essere interpretate soltanto come modi di passare il tempo fra le classi; anzi, attestano che l'educazione collegiale non è una linea sola di azione limitata nè agli sport nè agli studi, ma che è la somma totale di tutte le occupazioni, di tutte le raccolte e di tutte le amicizie che provengono da una sana divisione d'interessi.

Errata and Apologia

The staff of the 1937 COLONIAL ECHO has finished its work and submits this book to the student body with the hope that it will preserve for each possessor a reasonably accurate record of events and vital data of this college year. The staff has endeavored to create an attractive and interesting book, and if this has been accomplished, the star that watches over editors and publication staffs will have done its work well. If, by any possible chance, something has been left out that should have been in, it is to be hoped that the material here included will serve as some compensation; and if misspellings lurk in the printed matter of the book, the reader is enjoined to remember that such factors as skill and organization also have their limits, and that such items as names and home addresses are, after all, based on the holographic representations of each individual student.

Book I

THE COLLEGE

This College Section with its officers of administration and its faculty roll, though compiled with a strict regard of precedence and seniority, bespeaks more than a fine array of degrees and professorships; it represents an aggregation that has tasted accomplishment, and which is actively engaged in preparing others for attainment in a multiplicity of fields, not the least of which is independent and constructive thinking.

Book II

THE CLASSES

Herein are represented the individual efforts of students of many different backgrounds who have succeeded, with varying degrees of achievement, in attaining a definite goal. And with them are the larger numbers of those who have just begun, and those who are in the various stages of an accomplishment that is in itself no little test of individual endeavor and purpose.

Book III

FRATERNITIES

Fraternity, in its larger sense, represents the concerted efforts of several groups in developing the potentialities of the individuals composing them for finer manhood and womanhood, rather than a jealously guarded caste system of mutual jealousies and pretensions of petty aristocracy. It is to this end that fraternities must apply themselves in view of justifying their existence.

Book IV

ATHLETICS

MENS SANA IN CORPORE SANO is no less a warning to those who are primarily athletes, than to those who are primarily students, inasmuch as the final result, be it the object of physical or intellectual endeavor, invariably attests the applicability of this truism.

Book V

PHOTOGRAPHY

This section has an importance of its own that has not hitherto been fully realized. It must be remembered that the formal photography of the rest of the book represents the student under a few set conditions and circumstances, whereas the pictorial items of this section are the reverse of the process, taking as it does, its subjects under informal and more natural conditions in which constraint is lacking and a good cross section of student life is portrayed.

Book VI

ACTIVITIES

The activities herein listed are not to be construed as mere agencies for passing the time between classes; rather, they emphasize the fact that a college education is not one line of endeavor limited to either athletics or books, but is the sum total of all contacts, pursuits, gleanings, and friendships that accrue from a healthy division of interests.

The Williamsburg Inn

Williamsburg, Virginia

THE WILLIAMSBURG INN, recently opened, invites all alumni and friends of the College of William and Mary to make it their headquarters during their visits to Williamsburg. Furnished in the Regency manner, its spacious rooms have all the charm of a small country inn. If you wish, a cheerful fire will greet you on the hearth in your room. Yet so modern is the new Inn in every detail, that all public rooms are air-conditioned. And while located just outside the area that has been restored, the Inn is only a few minutes' walk from all the inviting points of interest. Reservations in advance will be given prompt attention. College societies will find unusual facilities for entertainment of all types at the new Inn, and full information can be secured at the Desk.

OPPORTUNITY FOR YOUNG MEN

A distinguished American financier says that, were he a young man today, he would become a salesman of life insurance.

No longer a "last resort" for failures in other lines of business, life insurance salesmanship is now distinctly a profession and offers exceptional opportunity to industrious, ambitious young men with sound educational background.
