Army Specialized Training Unit at William and Mary

Khaki-clad Youths Join Navy Chaplains

With the inauguration of classes on August 9, the 3321st Army Specialized Training Unit has taken its place on the campus of the College of William and Mary alongside the Naval Training School (chaplains). The college is one of 190 institutions participating in the program announced by the Army last summer, and about 500 men are now taking their specialized training at William and Mary.

The Army Specialized Training program has been devised to provide trained men for specific Army needs and utilizes the facilities and faculties of selected colleges and universities for this purpose. Selection of the trainees are made by field selection boards from the men who have scored 115 or more in the Army General Classification Test. With few exceptions, the trainees are in the 18 to 22 age group.

At the College of William and Mary, the unit is housed on several parts of the campus. Brown Hall, formerly a women's dormitory, houses many of the

The summer of 1943 has been one of the busiest in the annals of the College. In addition to a summer school enrolment of nearly 500 and The Navy Chaplains School of 300 officers, the College received during July a Specialized Army Training Corps of 500 cadets. During one brief period in the summer the College population totaled 1,300.

It is not possible to predict with accuracy the registration of the Fall term. The numbers in The Navy Chaplains School and the Army Corps unit will not vary, but the civilian enrolment will have undergone radical change. Owing to the transfer of Brown Hall to the Army the number of women students will decrease slightly. Instead of 700 women students there will be approximately 650. The civilian men's enrolment, however, will decline to about 250. Thus the total population of the College will stand at about 1,800, an all-time record.

Williamsburg is even more congested than a year ago. In fact, its population increase is larger than that of any community in Virginia, over 100 per cent. Consequently the College must depend entirely upon its own resources in caring for its students. Since the fraternities and sororities have abandoned eating tables for the duration, the dining hall is being converted into a cafeteria in order to service the anticipated congestion. Tyler Hall, the Morris House, and the Old Infirmary are being entirely renovated. The Morris House will be used to house new Faculty members since it is impossible to rent houses or apartments in Williamsburg.

In spite of all the confusion and turmoil of the past academic year the College finished the fiscal year with a modest surplus and was able to make slight reductions upon its indebtedness. If the College is able to avoid increased indebtedness during this difficult period it will be in an enviable position.

In spite of the War the College has been active in its devotion to a number of educational enterprises. The Faculty began an extensive survey of its library resources, and from this effort there will emerge a plan of library development that should serve the College for many years to come. In addition, through a grant from the General Education Board, the Library has been enabled to go forward rapidly with its new catalogue.

The Friends of the College, an organization whose members contribute annually one hundred dollars to the College, have set up a Memorial Book Shelf in honor of those whose lives have been lost in the present war. The funds thus made available will be used in the purchase of recently-published significant books. Other donors have contributed individually to this fund. The Friends of the College have also undertaken to support financially the entire lecture and musical programs of the College, as well as the art exhibits.

Another valuable innovation has been the establishment of a library of musical records. These may be borrowed from the Library in the same manner as books by any undergraduate. Many of these records were given by students and faculty members in memory of two beloved teachers, Prentice Hill and Murray Borish. The College has also secured a large collection of high grade silent and sound films covering almost every educational field. These films will be used to supplement class-room instruction.

The College is most anxious during the war period to enlist the interest of as many Alumni as possible. Circumstances are such that many of the younger men have been forced to drop their memberships temporarily. This situation is inevitable in wartime and is common to all alumni societies. At this time, therefore, I am making a special appeal to the alumni not to allow their memberships to lapse, and furthermore I am asking each active member to recruit an additional member for the Society. There are many former students who need only to be reminded of their tie to the College. It would be noteworthy in the finest sense if the membership of the Society were to increase during these troublesome times.

ALUMNI DAY AND FINALS

June 5-6

Alumni who found it possible to return to the campus for the 1943 Alumni Day and Finals program, June 5 and 6, were approximately one tenth the usual number.

Responsible for this decline in attendance is World War II—the fault of Adolph Schickelgruber, Hirohito, et al—with attending difficulties and inconveniences, among which are included more than a thousand alumni in the armed forces and others in defense jobs plus food, tire and gas rationing, etcetera.

Reunion of classes was not emphasized this year. Only one member of the class of '93, Everett Edwards of Sweet Hall, registered for the fiftieth anniversary. Magruder Powell, '81x, came from Baltimore. Although 81 years of age and nearly blind, Mr. Powell claims to have had the "grandest time" of anyone present.

Magruder Powell

The Finals program, abbreviated for obvious reasons, began with the senior class luncheon on Friday, June 4. The class gift to the College, a new Virginia-State flag, was presented at this time and Walter Finnall Cross Ferguson, '19, President of the Society of the Alumni, formally inducted the class of 1943 into the alumni body.

Friday evening the Board of Directors of the Society held its annual meeting. The annual meeting of the Society was held on Saturday, June 5, in the auditorium, Phi Beta Kappa Memorial Building, with President

Ferguson presiding. Reports of the work of the Alumni Office and the Board of Directors, together with statements of financial condition of the Society and the Endowment Fund were presented and approved. The following amendments to the By-Laws of the Society were recommended by the Board and unanimously adopted:

RESOLVED: That the by-laws of the Society of the Alumni of the College of William and Mary in Virginia be amended so that ARTICLE I, Section 2 will include:

(e) Any Director, except those in military service, who shall, without valid excuse, fail to attend two successive meetings of the Board, shall be removed from office, and the president of the Society shall thereupon declare a vacancy to exist on the Board, and the Board shall then proceed to elect a member of the Society to serve until the next annual meeting of the Society."

RESOLVED: That the by-laws of the Society of the Alumni of the College of William and Mary in Virginia be amended so that ARTICLE III, Section 7, shall read as follows:

"The President of the Society, not later than the first of February each year, shall appoint a nominating committee, consisting of five members of the Society, to nominate candidates for the vacancies occurring on the Board of Directors of the Society to be filled at the annual June meeting. Three of the members of the committee shall have served on the committee the preceding year and two shall not have served the preceding year.

No member of the committee shall serve more than three successive years. The committee shall meet not later than April 15th following their appointment. The Executive Secretary shall attend this meeting and assist the committee in such manner as may be requested. If the list of nominees is not completed at the first meeting, a subsequent meeting or meetings shall be held as soon as possible thereafter, in order to complete the list."

President Ferguson presented the following resolution; also unanimously adopted:

RESOLVED: That the Board of Directors of the Society of the College of William and Mary in Virginia commend Miss Alyse F. Tyler and Mrs. Olive Nestor Major for the very splendid, capable and efficient manner in which they have carried on the duties of the Alumni Office in the absence of the Executive Secretary, Charles P. McCurdy, Jr., now serving as a Lieutenant in the United States Naval Reserve.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that as an additional recognition of the splendid service of Miss Tyler and Mrs. Major this resolution be read at the annual meeting of the Society of the Alumni of the College of William and Mary in Virginia to be held at the College on June 5, 1943.

Vernon Meredith Geddy, '17Ba, of Williamsburg and Robert Morton Hughes, Jr., '99Ba of Norfolk were re-elected to three year terms on the Board of Directors. Robert Edward Henley, '06Ba, was elected to the Board for a three year term succeeding Catherine Teackle Dennis. Catherine Teackle Dennis, '21Ba, was elected to fill the unexpired term of Amos Ralph Koontz.

Catherine Teackle Dennis

Robert Edward Henley

Mr. Henley, a native of James City County, and member of the Spencer family which has sent more men and women to the College in the last hundred years than any other single family, studied law at the University of Virginia and is Vice President and General Counsel of the Life Insurance Company of Virginia at Richmond. He is a member of the Kappa Sigma and Phi Beta Kappa.

Miss Dennis, formerly of Suffolk, is State Supervisor of Home Economics in North Carolina. She was awarded the Alumni Medallion on June 3, 1939.

Dr. Koontz, whose term of office would have expired in June, 1944, resigned because of undetermined absence from this country. He is serving as Lieutenant Colonel in the Medical Corps of the American Expeditionary Forces in the Pacific area. Dr. Koontz became a member of the Board in June, 1930 and served as President of the Association from 1932 to 1934.

President Ferguson introduced the twenty-first president of the College, John Edwin Pomfret, who, among other things observed:

"This College should be a democratic institution open to all classes of worthy boys and girls regardless of the economic status of their parents. The College should emphasize all educational possibilities. There should be an electric current of intellectual life here combined with physical fitness. . . ."

Mr. Pomfret presented alumni medallions to John Lesslie Hall, Jr., and Carl Miner Andrews, in absentia due to naval service, citing them as follows:

- To JOHN LESSLIE HALL, JR., '29, Williamsburg.
 B. S. College of William and Mary.
 Graduated United States Naval Academy, 1913.
 Chief of Staff, Commander Battleships Atlantic Fleet,

 Sigma Upsilon.

By resolution of the Board of Directors of the Society of the Alumni of the College of William and Mary in Virginia, I have the honor to present to you alumni medallions in public recognition of your loyalty to your Alma Mater and your devoted interest and continued service in her behalf.

Following the business meeting of the Society the annual memorial service was held at Colonel Benjamin Stoddert Ewell's grave on the campus. Vernon Leslie Nunn, '25, read the tribute and Reverend Alfred Leneir Alley, '41, offered prayer and pronounced the benediction. Because of food rationing, the shortage of labor and the travel difficulties the annual alumni luncheon was eliminated. Robert DeBlois Calkins, '25, who had been selected to give the alumni oration consented to defer his address until the first alumni day celebration after the war.

At the first meeting of the new Board of Directors of the Society the following officers were elected for the year 1943-44:

- President, Walter Finnall Cross Ferguson, '19Ba.
 Vice President, Lizinka Ewell Crawford (Ramsey), '33Ba.
 Secretary-Treasurer, Vernon Meredith Geddy, '17Ba.
 Executive Secretary, Charles Post McCurdy, Jr., '33Bs (in Naval Service).
 Acting Executive Secretary, Alyse F. Tyler.

Alvan Herbert Foreman, '99Ba, was reelected to a four year term on the Alumni Board of Trustees of the Endowment Fund.

Baccalaureate exercises were held at 11 a.m. on Sunday, June 6, and commencement at 6 p.m. at which time 147 degrees were awarded; both ceremonies taking place at the West front of the Sir Christopher Wren

War Prisoner, Writes Home

For the first time since he was taken prisoner by the Japanese at the fall of Corregidor, word has been received from Stuart Hopkins Hall, '37Bs, Ensign USNR. Two postcards, in his own handwriting, were received by his mother on Labor Day. The cards reveal that he is in Prison Camp 2 in the Philippines, and that he is in good health.

Ensign Hall first was reported missing by the Navy Department on May 10, 1942. His gunboat, the U.S.S. Mindanao, was reported sunk somewhere in the Eastern Pacific. Later reports indicated that all members of the crew were rescued and removed to Corregidor. In March of this year the Navy Department announced that the Ensign was a prisoner of war.

OUR EIGHTH WAR

CITATIONS

Distinguished Flying Cross to Ernest C. Wooten, Jr., '34x, Sergeant, United States Army Air Force, "for extraordinary achievement while participating in 50 operational flight missions in the Southwest Pacific area, during which hostile contact was probable and expected. These operations included missions for dropping supplies to advanced outposts, and transporting troops and equipment to forward areas. The flights were made in transport airplanes, flying at extremely low altitudes over mountainous terrain under adverse weather conditions, and often necessitated landing within a few miles of enemy bases. Throughout these flights, outstanding ability and devotion to duty were demonstrated."

Silver Star Medal, April 15, to *Clarence Augustus Twiddy, Jr., '40Ba, Lieutenant (jg) United States Naval Reserve. Accompanying his decoration was a citation describing his participation in a dive bombing attack on a battleship in Casablanca harbor in spite of heavy anti-aircraft fire. "On other flights," the citation continued, "he participated in attacks on heavy gun emplacements and hostile vessels."

Airmen's Medal to James Hepburn Hargis, Jr., '41Ba, First Lieutenant, United States Army Air Force, for courage and devotion to duty in ferrying paratroops from North Africa to Sicily at the time of the invasion.

COMMENDATION

Harmond Montgomery Purviance, '44x, Private first class, United States Army Signal Corps, received commendation in April for marked success of an important task.

AWARD

The Purple Heart to Herbert Armstrong Krueger, '39Ba.

NEW MEMBERS OF THE FACULTY

Dean Announces Sixteen Appointments

The appointment of seventeen new members of the faculty of the College of William and Mary for the 1943-44 session, has been announced by Dr. J. W. Miller, dean of the faculty.

Douglas G. Adair, assistant professor has been added to the department of history. Adair is a graduate of the University of the South, holds an M.A. from Harvard University and has done graduate work at Yale University. He held the position of social science analyst for the social security board in Washington from 1936-38. Since that time he has been an instructor in history at Yale University and at Princeton. Adair is a member of the American Historical Association and the author of several articles for historical publications.

Roderick Firth, who holds an A.B. from Haverford College and a Ph.D. from Harvard will become active instructor in psychology and philosophy. Firth was a graduate assistant at the College of William and Mary during the 1940-41 session.

The physical education department will have two new members on its staff: Miss Marion Dale Reeder, as assistant professor and Miss Arlene Jackman as acting instructor. Miss Reeder attended Lindenwood College and Stetson University and was graduated from the University of Illinois. She acted as assistant in physical education at the University of Illinois, and has had experience in recreational work and physical therapy. Miss Jackman is a graduate of Tufts College.

As active instructor, Mrs. John M. Phillips has been appointed to the physics department. Mrs. Phillips holds degrees from Marshall College and Duke University. Her bachelor's degree was in music, and she has had considerable experience in working with musical groups.

Harold L. Jones comes to the department of chemistry from Oglethorpe University where he received his training and later served as professor of chemistry.

To the department of mathematics four new members have been added: Mrs. Ione D. V. Berkley, Miss Mary E. Meade, Glenn L. Burrows and Edward B. Temple II. Mrs. Berkley was graduated from University of Sheffield, England and has taught at Havergal College, Toronto, Canada. Miss Meade, who holds degrees from Randolph-Macon Woman's College and the University of Virginia, was formerly instructor in mathematics at New York University. Burrows held the position of instructor at the University of Michigan, from which institution he was graduated. Temple received his degree from Lafayette College. Oliver Freud, son of the late Prof. Sigmund Freud of Vienna, who holds the degree of Diplom-Ingenieur from the Technological Institute in Vienna, will become acting assistant professor of mathematics and physics.

Appointed to the department of English are Stephen E. Merton, former professor at Mary Baldwin College and a graduate of Columbia University; and Lawrence G. Nelson who holds a Ph.D. degree from the University of Virginia.

John T. Bout, A.B., University of Iowa, who comes to William and Mary from the staff of the theater of Northwestern University, will be acting instructor in the department of fine arts.

Mrs. Nellie Hurt, A. B., Bowling Green, has been appointed instructor of secretarial science.

As high school counselor and assistant professor of education, Douglas C. Berry comes to the college from the Madison elementary school in Richmond. Berry received his A.B. degree from Emory and Henry College and his M.A. from Emory University. His work will be mostly among the high schools of the Tidewater.

COLLEGE SUSPENDS VARSITY FOOTBALL FOR 1943

Will Organize 150-Pound Team On Campus

For the first time in a quarter of a century, the College of William and Mary will not place a varsity football team on the gridiron this fall. In making the announcement, Carl M. Voyles, director of the physical education department at the college, said that William and Mary would place a 150-pound team on the field.

Voyles stated that since the members of the army unit at the college are not allowed to participate in intercollegiate athletics, this would leave only 16 and 17 year old boys and probably three or four boys above the age of 18 and that none of last year's freshmen and varsity squads were expected to return, giving the college too small a group from which to pick a team.

Football will not be absent from the campus, for if plans materialize, Voyles hopes to have a game in the stadium each Saturday. In addition to the 150-pound team, he plans to organize four intramural teams, a civilian team, a team from the chaplains' school and two or three army teams. The 150-pound team will play

JOHN DURHAM WING, '10

An Alumnus You Should Know

• By OTIS CROZIER SOUTHERN, '34

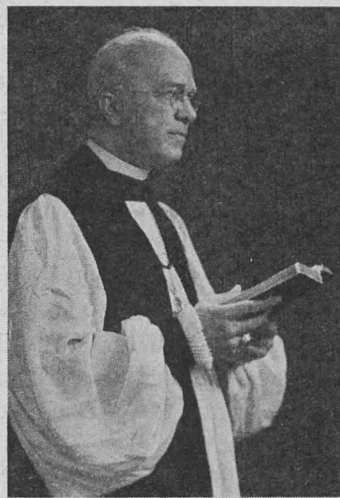

Like many another layman I have always held in great awe all men who bear the title of bishop and have wondered at times if these venerable gentlemen were at heart truly human. Now I know that my feelings were incorrect and that the answer to my question is a decided YES. These facts I discovered recently when it was my pleasure and privilege to meet the Right Reverend John Durham Wing, D.D., Bishop of the South Florida Diocese of the Episcopal Church.

I do not believe that I have ever talked with a man more understanding of human nature and possessed of a broader or more practical knowledge of current events than is Bishop Wing. Our conversation started out to be an interview from which was to come this article, but before its conclusion I was far from sure as to just who was being interviewed by whom. I did know, however, just why Bishop Wing is so beloved to the thousands of people in the Peninsula over whose spiritual lives he holds jurisdiction.

John Durham Wing was born in Atlanta, Georgia, in the year of our Lord 1882. After attending the public and high schools of that city he matriculated at the University of Georgia in the fall of 1899. Having spent two years at the Athens institution Bishop Wing decided that the paint business was to his liking and became connected with the cold water paint division of the Pittsburg Plate Glass Company in whose employ he remained for five years. The first three of these were spent in Atlanta, and the last two in his company's office in London, England.

In 1906 having decided to prepare himself for the ministry and needing additional college credits he enrolled at the College of William and Mary. Just why Bishop Wing decided upon the College of William and Mary is not known for certain. His decision may have been influenced by the fact that one of his school teachers was a graduate of the college, or because at the time the college was under the control of the Episcopal Church and offered certain financial advantages to young men preparing themselves for this ministry. Having been a paint salesman myself I am inclined to believe that the latter was the deciding factor.

Unfortunately for the college Bishop Wing only remained on its premises during the academic year of 1906-1907. Fortunately for him though, he chose the year in which was observed the 300th anniversary of the founding of the Virginia Colony with all its attendant festivities at Jamestown and Williamsburg. This year also marked the first remodeling of Bruton Parish Church at which time the Lectern was presented to the church by President Theodore Roosevelt and the Bible by King Edward VII of England, who sent the Bishop of London to Williamsburg to make the presentation.

Having witnessed all of these memorable events and having received intensive tutoring in Greek from James Southall Wilson, '04, of whom he holds the fondest memories, the Bishop left William and Mary to enter the Virginia Theological Seminary at Alexandria, where he spent the next three years, being ordained into the Episcopal ministry in 1910.

The next fifteen years were busy ones for the Reverend Wing. During them he served parishes in Atlanta, Anniston, Alabama, Savannah, Georgia, and Chattanooga, Tennessee, and in addition found time to court and marry the former Mary Ammons of Atlanta, whose step-father, Cary Breckinridge Wilmer, '75, was the son of an early Rector of Bruton Parish Church, the late Dr. George B. Wilmer.

It was while serving the parish in Chattanooga in 1925 that Dr. Wing was elected Bishop of the Diocese of South Florida, which most important post he has held ever since.

It was comparatively easy to elicit the preceding information from Bishop Wing, but when I attempted to draw from him information concerning further honors I found myself confronted by a veritable clam or sphinx. I did ascertain that his work and popularity have won for him Doctor of Divinity degrees from the University of Georgia, The Virginia Theological Seminary, and the University of the South (Sewanee), as well as a Doctor of Law degree from Rollins College at Winter Park, Florida.

As Bishop of the South Florida Diocese Dr. Wing is responsible for the spiritual guidance of all of the peomen while, on completion of alterations to Tyler Hall (also a former women's dormitory), many others will reside in that building. Blow Gymnasium has been turned over to the Army Unit, housing many men on the basketball floor and in other parts of the building, and the headquarters of the unit are also located in Blow.

The personnel of the group may change during the course of the specialized training; at the end of every twelve-weeks' period some men may be sent directly to officers' candidate schools and others, for various reasons, may be assigned to other military duties. Some continue their training.

The basic specialized program consists of terms of twelve weeks each. The William and Mary unit will follow the pre-engineering curriculum. This curriculum includes mathematics, physics, chemistry, English, history, geography, and in the third term mechanical drawing.

All classes are taught by members of the regular college faculty, according to general specifications of study content as outlined by the Army. Every trainee will receive a minimum of twenty-four hours of classroom instruction per week, and the program calls for a minimum of twenty-four hours each week of supervised study. The academic program is under the direction of Dr. James W. Miller, dean of the faculty. The college library is used by the cadets during their study hall periods.

In addition to the strenuous study plan, the trainees receive a minimum of five hours a week of military training, plus six hours per week of physical conditioning comprising calisthenics, long-distance running and obstacle course training of various types. The military training is under the direction of army officers while the physical education work is supervised by Carl M. Voyles, director of physical education at the college, and his regular staff. The trainees are not permitted to participate in college athletics, though an intramural program is planned.

The ASTU schedule at William and Mary corresponds to that at other institutions. A cadet rises at 6 a.m., appears for formation at 6:30, eats breakfast at 7 and attends classes from 8-12. After dinner at noon, the cadet returns to classes at 1:30 where he remains until 5:35. Supper call is at 6. Study hall begins at 8:15 and continues until 10:30 p.m. Taps are sounded at 11.

Mess is held in the college dining hall and the cadets, singing as they march to the dining hall, have become a familiar sight in Williamsburg. The groups also march to classes.

Eight army officers are in charge of the unit which is commanded by Major George F. McGinn. Major McGinn began his army career in 1909 in the Infantry. During World War I, he served as first lieutenant and later captain of the First Anti-Aircraft machine gun battalion, seeing overseas service. He was recalled from civilian life to active duty in December, 1941, to command a battalion at the reception center at Fort Meade, Maryland, where he served 19 months. Prior to coming to William and Mary, Major McGinn was in command of the First regiment at the Shenango Personnel Replacement Depot.

With both Army and Navy units on the campus, William and Mary is again taking an active part in the defense of the principles for which this nation stands. The 500-odd cadets in the Army Specialized Training Unit, the 300 members of the chaplains' school, coupled with a capacity enrollment of women students and upwards of 200 men students, will give the college more than 1,500 students this fall.

Board of Visitors Names Committee on Athletics—

At the June meeting of the board of visitors of the college, a committee on athletics was appointed with Dr. Claude C. Coleman, '98x, as chairman. Other members of the committee are Oscar L. Shewmake, '03, and Channing Moore Hall, '08.

Liberty Ships Named for College Presidents—

The S.S. James Blair, honoring the founder and first president of the College (1656-1743), was launched August 27th by the Bethlehem Fairfield Shipyards. The ship was twenty-nine days under construction.

According to a recent announcement, another liberty ship will be named for Lyon Gardiner Tyler, son of President John Tyler (1806) and eighteenth president of the College (1888-1919).

Fraternities Suspended Until the War Ends—

At a meeting of the Intra-fraternity council a momentous step was taken. Fraternities were suspended for the duration of the war.

Fraternities have had a long and honorable record at William and Mary for the years of their presence, and feelings in regard to them are deep and lasting, so much so that those present at the meeting were reluctant to suspend their operation. However, the spirit of fraternalism will be kept alive until such time as conditions seem to warrant a return to active operation.

Building. The baccalaureate sermon was delivered by Dean Alexander Zabriskie of the Virginia Theological Seminary. Associate Justice William O. Douglas of the United States Supreme Court made the commencement address. Under the accelerated program of the College 45 degrees were awarded last January at the first winter commencement ever held at the College.

The Navy V-7 group of seniors who entered Columbia University in April were permitted to return to the campus to receive their degrees.

Concluding the exercises the College conferred the honorary degree of doctor of laws upon Justice Douglas.

ple of the Episcopalian faith residing in the peninsula section of Florida. A look at a map will show that this is no small task, as his territory extends from a point thirty-five miles south of Jacksonville to the city of Key West at the very tip of the string of keys extending southwestward from the Florida mainland, and from the Atlantic Ocean to the Gulf of Mexico. In this vast area there are nearly one hundred churches each of which he must visit at least once each year for Confirmation Services. When I asked him if this wasn't a very difficult task, especially during these times of rationing and crowded traveling conditions, the Bishop passed the difficulties off with the remark that when he left the paint business he thought that he had left his traveling days behind, only to find that in entering the ministry he had sentenced himself to them for life.

Bishop and Mrs. Wing reside in Orlando, Florida, and have four children, two daughters and two sons, the elder of whom is preparing to follow in his father's footsteps at the General Theological Seminary in New York, while the other is a student at the University of Pennsylvania Medical School, and as such is a member of the Medical Reserve of the United States Army.

Possibly no finer tribute may be paid to Bishop Wing's unceasing efforts in behalf of his people than the statement of the rector of one of the largest churches in his Diocese: "He works harder than any of us under him."

Thus I give you alumni the Rt. Rev. John Durham Wing, a faithful servant of Our Savior, and a fellow alumnus of whom we all may well be proud.

at least two games, one with Navy at Annapolis, October 16, and one with the Apprentice School at Newport News, November 13.

Should enough boys report, a freshman team will be organized and will play preparatory and high schools. Under the plans as outlined, the college will have a full program for those boys in school and when varsity material is again available, William and Mary will resume varsity athletics.

A number of players on William and Mary's freshman and varsity teams of 1942, the Southern Conference champions, will see action on the gridirons of other institutions. A number of William and Mary students are in V-12 programs in the University of Pennsylvania, Richmond, Duke, North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia Tech, Hampden-Sydney and the University of Richmond. About 95 William and Mary boys are at the University of Richmond, including 14 members from last year's freshman and varsity football teams. Among this group are Marvin Bass, captain of last year's championship team, Bob Longacre, Jackie Freeman, Herbert Poplinger, Henry Schutz, Edward Rhodes, Don Ream, Surry Harrison, Louis Hoitsma and others. Longacre was the captain-elect of William and Mary for this fall. Bass has been chosen to lead the Richmond Spiders in their opening game.

A number of other boys are scheduled to play on the physical training school team at Bainbridge, Maryland, including such stars as Harvey Johnson, All-American Garrard Ramsey, Albert Vandeweghe, and Herbert Miller. Ramsey played in the All-Star game at Chicago, August 25 and is the first football player from any Virginia school to start the game since its inception. He played longer than any lineman in the game for the All-Stars and his playing was described by coaches as being very outstanding. His down-the-field blocking was sensational and he blocked two men on the 95-yard run for a touchdown made by Otto Graham for the All-Stars.

Voyles stated that it is with regret that William and Mary announces that it will be impossible to have a varsity team this fall but that the college hopes to begin where it left off when the war is over.

Laura Jeter Parker, '32Ba, is teaching English at the Robert E. Lee High School, Lynchburg.

Irma Fay Raita, '32Bs, is teaching Physical Education in the High School at Port Jervis, New York.

Frank Mozeleski, '32Bs, is in the Athletic Department of the Glen Rock, New Jersey, public schools.

1933—

Mary Virginia Rigg, '33Ba, is a Red Cross Recreation Director at the Station Hospital, Camp Campbell, Kentucky.

1934—

Robert Carrington Vaden, Jr., '34Ba, is director of instruction for the public schools at Fredericksburg. He received his M.A. degree from the University of Virginia.

1935—

Dorothy Chamings, '35Bs, is teaching Physical Education at Winthrop College, Rock Hill, South Carolina.

Maurice Herndon, '35x, is secretary to Winder R. Harris, member of the Virginia House of Representatives for the Second District.

Helen Virginia Marston, '35x, has entered the Oliver General Hospital at Augusta, Georgia, as Second Lieutenant (staff dietitian) in the United States Army. She received her B.S. degree from Madison College and is a graduate dietitian from Watts Hospital, Durham, North Carolina.

Margaret M. Sheahan, '36Bs, is a member of the Executive Board of the American Woman's Volunteer Service. She received her M.A. degree from Columbia University.

1938—

Shirley Othello Batten, '38x, is with the Newport News Shipbuilding and Drydock Company.

Eleanor Elizabeth Gentry, '38Ba, is with the American Red Cross in New Guinea.

Robert Lee Simpson, '38Ba-'40L, is law secretary to Luther B. Way and Robert N. Pollard, of Norfolk and Richmond, respectively, Judges of the United States District Courts for the Eastern District of Virginia. His address is 316 Federal Building, Norfolk.

What has happened to the class of '39? During the last few months mail from its members has been really scarce, and so here I am trying to compose a class letter which will consist of a few items, not a lot. A post card from each one of you would help no end—so how about dropping a line to your poor old neglected class secretary?

Mary Elizabeth Richardson (Popoff) '39Ba, has extended an invitation to all '39ers to visit her and her husband at 1640 Cambridge Street, Cambridge, Massachusetts. She writes that they've had some grand reunions with Robert Cutchin Rowland, '39Bs, and Dorothy Helen Sease (Rowland). Vincent Byard Burgess, surprised them by turning up at their housewarming.

Dorothy Hosford, '39Bs, PBK, is Chairman of the Committee on Admissions to the College while Dean Lambert is in the Navy.

Joyce Tucker Jackson, '39Bs, is now a member of the William and Mary faculty.

Kate Waller Barrett Alfriend, '39Ba, is with the National Congress Industrial Organizations War Relief Committee in Washington.

Frances Eells (Martin), '39Ba, has a new address—Tilden Gardens, Connecticut Avenue and Tilden Streets, N.W., Washington, D. C.

Ernestine Virginia Hinkins, '39Bs, is a mathematician for the Air Corps at Langley Field. Her address: 136 Hampton Roads Avenue, Hampton.

Edward Newton Motley, '39Bs, has been signed by the Petersburg High School as assistant coach. Ed served in the army a year and a half but recently was given an honorable discharge because of physical disability.

So, my dear readers, that is all for now—but I hope there will be more next time.

FRANCES GRODECOUER, '39,
Permanent Secretary,

Monongahela, Pennsylvania.

Taking the letters from the top of the pile that has accumulated throughout the summer:

SMITH'S LIVERY SERVICE

"At your Service"

Phone: Fort Eustis	315	H. T. SMITH,
Williamsburg:		Owner and
Garage	606	Operator
Office	404

From somewhere in the Pacific, Lieut. Paul J. Post, '40Ba, wrote that the action he is seeing in his flying trips with the Aviation Corps has convinced him that we Americans will mop up in the Orient and show the world what we are made of. Like other fighting men on the fronts, he is burned up over the strikes and slow-downs here at home, and he is not in favor of letting up one iota until the mess is cleaned up for good. Paul says he hears from Lucille Harder (Langbauer), '40Ba, who lives in Detroit and keeps him posted on the activities of Eldon Neal Langbauer, '37Ba, now an Ensign at the Naval Operating Base at Guantanamo Bay, Cuba. Paul's address is: Hdqtrs. Sqdn., Fleet Air Wing Two, c/o Postmaster, San Francisco.

Ensign Elmo Turton Legg, '40Ba, writes that he is attending Supply Corps school at the Naval Section Base in Bar Harbor, Maine, and should finish this month.

Austin Miller Lee, '40Ba, is in line for congratulations. He passed the Pennsylvania State Bar Examination last May and was serving his law clerkship in the office of his father in Philadelphia this summer. "Bones" graduated from the Law School at the University of Pennsylvania in February and then was sworn in as an Ensign in the U.S.N.R., in April. His orders to active duty which he wrote he was anxiously awaiting have no doubt arrived by now, but the details have not reached us yet. His address is: No. 1 Lothian Place, Roxborough, Philadelphia.

From Boston last May, Stanley Jack Ebb, '40Ba, wrote that he was working for the Treasury Department in the Internal Revenue branch. He also sent news of Lieut. Norman Sumner Weinberg, who had just graduated from the Flight Administration School at Miami and was stationed at a flying field in New Mexico where he is affiliated with the flying fortresses. Lieutenant Edward I. Shifman, graduated from O.C.S. of the Quartermaster Corps and is stationed in Indiana.

The latest news, today's in fact, is of our Class President, now a Lieutenant (jg), John Henry Garrett, '40Ba. Jack has been in Alaska for a year and has watched the entire process of driving the Japanese out of the Aleutians. He was in the occupation of Attu and reports that the fall of Kiska was really gratifying. Reaching the Japs' backdoor has made all the wading in mud seem worthwhile. He was surprised and pleased to meet John Scott Coiner up there when Johnny's boat docked near his base. John brought word of Nick Woodbridge, Paul Post, and Maxie Davis, whom he had seen in Pearl Harbor. Picture that W. & M. reunion!

Mary Augusta Holmes, '40Ba, flew to Dallas, Texas, to visit her twin, Willetha Emma Holmes (Slaughter), '40Ba. Billie and Mary planned to trip to Monterey, Mexico, this summer.

Harry Lockwood Gebauer, '40Ba, was in the Army Air Corps in April as a flying cadet and expected to be commissioned in May. His address is: A.A.F., Dickinson College, Conway Hall, Carlisle, Pennsylvania.

Again, Elsie Wilde (Eckhardt), '40Ba, has been moved. This time from Rome, New York, to 149 Fountain Street, Bangor, Maine.

Ensign Marjorie Barnes, '40Ba, is stationed at Pascagoula, Mississippi, with the Women's Reserve. Marjie writes that she likes her work tremendously. Address her No. 352, Pascagoula.

Constance Stratton Crabtree (Jones), '40Ba, and Lieut. Rodney Jones, are living in Boston, Mass., where Rod is stationed at the Port Director's Office in Supply. They have run across several W. & M. people in that city. Dan H. Edmondson and Bob Adams were there at the Armed Guard School, and Pat Lyons was at the Dartmouth Naval Training School. Captain John Stuart Hudson, '40Ba, PBK, has written them from Londonderry, North Ireland, and told about his ten-day leave in London. Jack sees "Milky" Lesner and Lenny Goldberg once in a while. Connie also said that Ruth Virginia Keat (Fay), '40Ba, is now in Monroe, Louisiana. Virginia Lee Coulbourn (Lee), '40Ba, is living in Hopewell.

Helen Elizabeth Jones (Baker), '40Ba, has been councillor-ing at Camp Farewell, Wells River, Vermont, this summer. She tells us that her husband, Chester S. Baker, Jr., is now a Lieutenant in the Engineering Corps serving in Africa. Chester writes that he has met Dean Cox and Phill Chess over there and they have a big evening rehashing College.

Lillian Davis Waymack, '40Ba, has been having the time of her life clerking at the Avamere at Virginia Beach and checking on the comings and goings of the alumni who have vacationed there. Nancy Chisholm was next door clerking at the Dundee.

Marva Lillian Blair (Riefma), '40Bs, is with the British Supply Mission, Washington, D. C.

Elizabeth Anne Knoll, '40Ba, for the past year with the College Publicity department, has returned to her home in Dayton, Ohio, to accept a position with the publicity department of the National Cash Register Company.

Harriet Alice Ricketson, '40Bs, is with the Ralph L. Evans Company, doing chemical research on cosmetics, and studying in the night course at Columbia University to become a chemical purchaser for the same company.

With an eye to getting in the Civil Air Patrol, I have been learning to fly. Joyriding with the instructor doing the piloting made flying seem very easy, but since he has turned the controls over to me we don't have such a smooth ride, and the landings and take-offs are positively hair-raising. Another source of excitement is riding the City Ambulance as a member of the Red Cross Motor Corps.

Sorry that this news is not more recent. Drop the Class a card the first chance you get and help straighten the record.

ROSA L'ENGLE ELLIS, '40Bs,
Permanent Secretary,
c/o E. C. Hudgins,
2416 Bryan Park Ave., Richmond 22, Va.

This time news is from a spot far from home, for as usual I've been traveling again. This moment I'm in California, where it is actually sunny all the time, but only the Army knows where I'll follow my husband next, and that, at present, is quite a military secret.

News from the class at this moment is exceedingly scarce, as you all will note after it has been related. Hope you all will do better within the next two months.

Sometime in May I had a note from Harry Blackburn Dilworth, '41Ba, who is now a Lieutenant in the Army Air Force. He was at that time in New Guinea with seven months in combat zone and nine months foreign service to his credit. Censorship prevented his giving out any more information, except for some wishful thinking about being home again.

Ralph Arnold Taylor, '41Ba, writes he is now a Second Lieutenant in Field Artillery. That was in June, from Fort Sill, Oklahoma. He was expecting foreign duty to be assigned to him rather soon. He had just finished his OCS training at Fort Still, receiving his commission on May 20th.

Ellen Frances Lindsay (Miller), '41Bs, seems my most faithful news gatherer. She writes that Alphonse Chestnut, '41Bs, received his Master's degree in Biology from Rutgers University on May 23. He is to be associate biologist of the State of New Jersey.

Mary Kay Edinger (Wallace), '41Ba, is now a commissioned officer in the WAC and is head of recruiting at Keene, New Hampshire.

Frances Olivia Paul, '41Ba, was leaving her position with the Sperry Company to become Assistant Librarian at Mitchell Field, Long Island, New York.

I spent a very short week end with June Elizabeth Lucas (Clancy), '41Bs, at her home in Branford. June was quite busy with her baby and victory garden, but we had a good chance to catch up on bits of news we both had.

Elizabeth Jane Gettins, '41x, is now living in Wilmington, Delaware, with her family, and is working for a publishing house in Philadelphia.

Mary-Nelson Williams Hiden (Gibson), '41Bs, has come out to California, but as yet I have not been able to get in touch with her.

Armand Wilfred Harkless, '41x, portrayed the rôle of Alexius in "The Chocolate Soldier" presented by the Montclair Operetta Club. In 1941 Armand won a fellowship at the Julliard Graduate School, where he is still studying. He has sung leading rôles in "Solomon and Bachus" and "Devil Take Her" at Columbia University. He has also sung in opera at Chataqua, New York, and appeared at the Brooklyn Academy in "Chimes of Normandy."

Shirley Hobbs (Shiebla), '41x, is the Washington correspondent for the Wall Street Journal in the departments of commerce and agriculture. Shirley majored in journalism at the University of North Carolina and has the distinction of being the only woman on the Journal's staff.

Jane Schofield (Middleton), '41x, graduated in June, 1942, from the New York Hospital, and was on the staff until June, 1943. She is now connected with the Lawrence Technical Hospital, New London, Connecticut.

Mary Rebecca Spitzer, '41M, is music supervisor in the Waterman School, Harrisonburg.

And that about ends the news I have. Do so hope you will write me just a line. If you could read the notes I have received from our '41 boys who are overseas, I'm sure you'd appreciate the fact that all are eager for news of one another. Good luck to all of you, wherever you are, and for the time being, Cheerio.

MARJORIE GILDNER (COALE), '41Ba,
Permanent Secretary,
33 Forest Road,
Springfield, Delaware County, Penna.

After three long months it certainly is grand to get in touch with you all again—to know where you are and what you're doing.

I find that many of the boys are overseas, and many of the girls are married. (See marriage column.) Incidentally, I didn't mean to get you all so confused by signing my new name to the post cards!

Let's hope that this column makes sense this time, for I'm writing it and getting packed for California at the same time!

Mary Ruth Black, '42Ba, PBK, wrote a "post-card letter" telling me that she had attended the commencement exercises, but saw only a few members of our class there. She said that she had given up teaching and would be working as a District Secretary for the Girl Scouts of Pittsburgh. During the summer she helped run a girl scout day camp.

Myrtle Elsanna Biele, '42Bs, has been giving her services to the Pennsylvania Railroad Company in New York, but writes that she soon wants to get into something where she can apply her major more profitably.

Marjorie Eleanor Hopkins, '42Ba, is working at the Red Cross Office in Fredericksburg.

I'm happy to report that I have finally caught up with Caroline Cook (Ball), '42Ba. The U. S. Navy had been benefiting by receiving Cookie's services, it seems, until she had turned over to keeping house. She tells me that Joan Lehman (Buxton), '42x, is in Miami. Also that Jane Alden (Malinsky), '42Ba, and young son are living in Boston with her family.

Emily Harrell (Lynch), '42Bs, is in San Marcos, Texas. Virginia Sterne (Herndon), '42Ba, wrote early this summer to tell me that she was traveling from pillar to post with her army husband. "Ginger" was last in Pennsylvania.

Lucy McClure (Joshua), '42Ba, PBK, was working at the Aviation Supply Annex at the Naval Base in Norfolk before she stopped to marry the boss! Lucy saw a lot of Jeanne Reindollar (Boertzel), '42Ba, while in Philadelphia with her husband. She also writes that Annette Jane Carter, '42Ba, is working for an advertising firm and has a secretary, and that Eleanor Robinson Graham, '42Bs, is working for an insurance firm.

Natalie Jane Rogers, '42Ba, is now secretary to a Captain in the Material Command of the Army Air Forces in Rochester.

Arlie Virginia Alexander, '42Ba, writes that she'll be librarian at Pulaski High School again this year, and that Margaret Lee Alexander, '42Ba, will be a librarian at Waynesboro.

Edith Rathbun (Bell), '42Ba, PBK, writes that she and her young son, Loyd, Jr., are living in Washington with her family.

Cleo Elizabeth Tweedy, '42Bs, sounds like she's enjoying herself in her new work. Cleo is at Walter Reed Hospital taking a physio-therapist course.

Jane Fergusson (Perkins), '42Ba, tells me that she has been working in the Navy Yard in Norfolk all summer, but that she plans to teach again in the fall.

Catherine Victoria Abernathy, '42Ba, writes that she worked as an under library assistant at BTC x 10, Greensboro, N. C. during the summer. Before she reports to High Point High School as librarian in the fall, Catherine is taking her vacation as a "farmerette." (Good for you!)

Where should Natalie Nichols (Pearson), '42Ba, PBK, turn up but in Athens, Georgia! Nat is touring the country with her Navy husband and next expects to land in New Orleans. Nat said that she had seen Theodosia Saxe Kelcey, '42Ba, who was still with Standard Oil of N. J.; that Eleanor Ely (Mackey) '42Ba, is now living in Topeka, Kansas; and that Sena Lucile Jennings, '42Ba, is doing work for the Selective Service in Kingsport, Tennessee. Thanks Nat for all the information!

Jean Esther Outland, '42Bs, has been teaching swimming at the Norfolk Division of the College and on the side running a Day Camp for children this summer.

Shirley Rea Hoffmann, '42Bs, tells me that in June she was sworn in office as a "Personnel Aide" in the Department of Personnel in the city of St. Louis. Shirley is still working part time for her M.A. in Psychology.

Eleanor Davis, '42x, comes through again with flying colors to tell me the news. Eleanor is still working in Washington as are Mary Turner Morgan, '42Bs, and Virginia Lee Markle, '42Bs, PBK. She tells me that Joyce Bonyng (Carroll), '42Ba, PBK, is living in Cranford, N. J., and that Belle De Cormis, '42x, and Claude Kelso Kelly, '42Bs, are studying at the Medical College of Virginia. Jane Ross (Buck), '42x, is living in Richmond.

Mildred Anne Hill, '42Ba, is busy with her social work in Richmond and seems to have many interesting clients.

Janet Campbell, '42Ba, proves her word is good and does send me some news this time! Janet was burning the candle at both ends by going to law school at night and working in a defense plant in the daytime, but now she's down to one good job as a secretary and law clerk for a New York lawyer. Jan tells me that she bumped into Virginia Smith (Strange), '42Ba, who was on her way to Georgia, and that Muriel Morris (Healy), '42x, and son Micheal, are still living in California. Jan also ran across Iva Geohring (Remington), '42x, who is working in Philadelphia while her husband is in Alaska.

Claire Louise Hulcher, '42Bs, is working away as hard as ever at her laboratory technician's degree.

Thanks Emalee Isola Ewing, '42Ba, for all your news. Emalee will be librarian at Oceana High School at Oceana, this fall. Emalee says that when she last heard, Margaret Elliot Everhart, '42Ba, was a novitiate at Putnam, Connecticut. Virginia Welch, '42x, works for the Appalachian Power Company. Emalee says that she would be glad to hear from any of her classmates and promises to answer their letters. Her address is 525 W. Washington St., Suffolk, Virginia.

From a newspaper clipping I find that Ethel Virginia Teal, '42Ba, is making quite a name for herself! Terry earned her radio technician's license, and aside from operating at the control board on regular shifts at WRNL she also has charge of the music department. Not satisfied, however, Terry now is taking flying lessons with the hopes of someday joining the WAFS.

Kitty Trudell Green, '42Ba, tells me, "life goes on and I keep going to Penn law school!" (Trudi, however, only has a year to go before she'll become a full fledged lawyer!) Mary Tyler Chadwick, '42Ba, is working as a censor in Seattle. Thanks Trudi!

Constance Curtis, '42Ba, was seen helping out at Norfolk Red Cross Headquarters between school teaching terms.

If I ever take a vacation, I think I'll turn this column over to Donald Gordon Griffin, '42Ba, as he really seems to know the whereabouts of people! Don is still juggling books in a defense industry, Norfolk Dredging Company. He tells me that William Diehl, '42x, is now Sports Editor of the Norfolk Ledger Dispatch.

Constance Elizabeth Reed, '42Ba, writes that she is now secretary to the Director of Civilian Defense Volunteer Office in Norfolk.

Margaret Odell (Thayer), '42Ba, lets me know that she is still living in Washington.

Audrey Lee Wallace, '42Ba, tells me that she is employed at the Horace E. Dodge Boat and Plane Corporation where she is learning a liberal education—doing everything from a bit of drafting to bookkeeping and general office work. Betsy Lee Hooper (Ramsey), '42x, visited "Wiggles" and Betsy said that she and "Buster" would be living in Arlington with her parents until the Navy called him.

Virginia Ann Longino, '42Ba, dropped me a note saying that she was biding her time until she was called into active duty with the Waves.

Elizabeth Craighead (Stousland), '42Ba, is working in a bank in Pawtucket, Rhode Island. B.-C. says that it's fun and that she's learning a lot of math.

Elizabeth Louise Bull, '42Bs, writes from far off Nebraska to say that she's still holding down the same job and in her spare time entering all the tennis tournaments. Betty tells me that Elizabeth Irene Beck, '42Bs, is working in a hospital in Bethlehem, Pennsylvania.

Jean Dorothy Reiff, '42Ba, seems to be going places these days. Jean is a reporter on the Washington Post on general assignment in the City Room. Her biggest thrill was covering an accident and having her story make front page with pictures! !

I hear that Marjorie Van Auken, '42Ba, is in Washington working for the Foreign Service of the State Department.

Phyllis Hile (McCarthy), '42Ba, writes from Texas, where she's with her husband, that she's been traveling all around. Phyl visited Betty Douglas (Conway), '42x, in New Jersey. She tells me that Anne Bradshaw (Milner), '42x, is living in Charleston, Mississippi.

Emma Elizabeth Bourquin, '42Bs, says that she has just completed her training in medical technology in Cleveland, and that she is off to work in a Los Angeles hospital.

Charlotte Elise Steitz, '42Ba, writes that she has entered the Boston School of Occupational Therapy. Charl ran into Charles Robert Butler, '42Ba, at Massachusetts Institute of Technology.

Annette Gautier Warren, '42Ba, has completed one year toward her M.A. in social work at the Richmond Professional Institute, and is doing work with the Roanoke Public Welfare Department for awhile. Annette came out first in the state social work exam given in May!

Elizabeth Latane Stiff, '42Ba, writes that she will return to Washington-Lee High School in Arlington County as assistant librarian.

Etta Louise Wallace, '42Bs, is still a chemist in the Eastman Kodak Company in Rochester. Louise is also taking a course in advanced photography, and has done some work as a hospital aide.

Patricia Nichols, '42Bs, PBK, worked in a bank all summer and now is back at Syracuse University as a student dean. Patty tells me that Barbara Jane Anderson, '42Bs, is still in Dunkirk, New York working for the Chamber of Commerce; that Alice Ruth Black, '42Bs, PBK, is with Standard Oil in New Jersey, and that William Leon Slater, Jr., is still with Texaco in Beacon, New York.

Dorothy Jean Ross, '42Ba, (still running the Rockefeller Foundation) has been flitting about the country to weddings, going to all the musical comedies, and being a hostess at the Officer's Club. (Jean must work in her off moments!)

Annie Bruce (Irwin), '42Ba, is with her Navy husband in Columbus, Ohio.

Mary Darragh (Allerton), '42Ba, wrote a nice letter to let me know that she is now living in Newport News.

Ann Hicks Seward, '42Ba, has a civil service job and is employed in the Station Hospital, Camp Pickett.

Sally Bet Walker (Lawson), '42Ba, tells me that she has just returned from a month's visit in New York with her husband and is now living in Mobjack.

Three cheers for our boys and also girls in the service, and here's what I've been able to pick up about them. 'Scuse this if old by time you read it.

Girls first: Jean Rhodes Edwards, '42Ba, was commissioned an Ensign in the Waves, April 6, at Mt. Holyoke. From there she went to the Navy Supply Corps School at Harvard where she learned to be a Disbursing Officer. Now she has the super position (you'll all agree) of being the only Wave at the Submarine Base in New London, Connecticut! Thanks for all the news, Jean.

Ensign Margaret Marie Lucas, '42Ba, writes that she is on duty at the Norfolk Naval Base and loves the work.

Had a nice letter from Anthony Belmont Manzi, '42Ba, (our inimitable Tony), who has been at Drew Field, Tampa, Florida with a radar outfit. Tony is now stationed at the Citadel in Charleston, South Carolina.

Benjamin Smith Read, '42Ba, was commissioned a second lieutenant in the Marine Corps in July, and is now stationed at San Diego, California.

When last heard from 2nd Lt. Belvin Herman Robin, '42Ba, received his bombardier wings, and was in Carlsbad, New Mexico taking a course in navigation.

Heard that Ensign Thomas Frederick Crane, '42Ba, is now out at sea; Montie Somerville Meeks, '42Ba, is now in North Africa; Francis Joseph Brichter, '42Ba, helped fight the raging floods early this summer while at Camp Tobinson, Arkansas, and is now at Camp Maxey, Texas; Charles Herbert Moore, Jr., '42Ba, is a sergeant in the Air Corps and latest reports had him ready to move to parts unknown; Delmar John Dee, Jr., '42Ba, a second lieutenant in the Marine Air Corps, is an instructor at Pensacola, Florida; Lt. Richard Joseph Davis, '42Ba, is now serving overseas in the Marine Corps in the Pacific Area; Lt. (jg) Willard A. Bergwall, '42Ba, is stationed at the Navy Yard at Norfolk, Va; Brendan Austin Burns, Jr., '42Ba, according to rumor is somewhere in Florida in the ground crew of the air corps; Walter Leslie Devany, III, '42Ba, is on foreign duty in the army; Ensign James Benton Hickey, '42Ba, is on duty somewhere in the Pacific; Louis Asbury Simonson, '42Bs, alias "Dick," is a lieutenant in the Army Air Corps at Elon College, North Carolina; Ewing Thomas Boles, Jr. '42Bs, is now finishing his third semester at Harvard Medical College and is in the army reserves; Richard McMath Mears, '42Ba, is with the medical corps and has been in North Africa since the middle of May; news of the Robbins twins, Douglas Robert, '42Ba, and Samuel Burt, Jr., '42Ba, is that Bob has recently returned from the second front and is now a Lt. (jg), and Sam also a Lt. (jg) is at the Naval hospital in Asheville buying all the food and supplies for it; Edward Cook, '42x, has been going to air corps school in England; Ensign Gordon Elliot Hanson, '42Ba, when last heard from was somewhere in North Africa; William George Brown, '42Ba, is a corporal technician in the 57th Finance Disbursing Section at Fort Benjamin Harrison, Indiana; Guy Earlescout Horsley, Jr., '42Ba, PBK, is a staff sergeant in the Signal Corps Radio Department at Drew Field in Tampa, Florida; Ensign Hunter Booker Andrews, '42Ba, attended the Submarine Chaser and Gunnery Schools at Miami before joining his ship where his duty is now somewhere on the west coast; Robert Stephen Knight, '42Ba, PBK, graduated in a course in Meteorology and was commissioned a second lieutenant in May. Bob is at present stationed at an air base in Miami; Laurie Reid Burgess, '42Bs, is now commissioned a weather officer with the rank of second lieutenant in the Army Air Forces; Lawrence Leshan, '42Bs, received his M.A. in Psychology in June, and was offered an assistantship at the University of Iowa to qualify for his Ph.D. which he could not accept as he was called into the armed forces. Larry is now at Fort Leavenworth, Kansas in the Department of Psychology Personnel; Bernard Itzkowitz, '42Ba, is in the medical corps at Camp Lee, Va.; George Busey Farish, '42Ba, received his wings in June at the Pensacola Naval Air Station and was transferred into the Marine Air Corps as a second lieutenant; 2nd Lt. William Mackenzie Clinton, '42Ba, is in the Army Air Corps, now stationed at the air base in Salina, Kansas; Corporal Stanley Archer Thompson, '42Ba, is in the radio division of the Army Air Corps at Truax Field, Madison, Wisconsin; Charles Malcolm Sullivan, '42Ba, is an

Ensign in the Amphibious Forces and is now at sea. "Sully" was recently appointed executive officer of his ship; Edgar Evert Trout, '42Ba, is still somewhere in North Africa; Vincent Alfred Lascara, '42Ba, reports that Africa is "quite a place."

(Let's have a paragraph here for clarity of reading!) Received a nice looking picture of Ensign John George Rinklin, Jr., '42Ba. John has recently attended the Recognition School at Ohio State University, and is now in Boston awaiting active duty; Edward Robert Svetkey, '42Bs, writes from Oglethorpe University in Georgia. Ed will be a junior in medical school in November; Walter Kaylin, '42Ba, has been sent back to college by the army to study engineering. He is stationed at Ripon College in Wisconsin; 2nd Lt. Darrell Arthur Watson, '42Ba, is stationed at the Marine Barracks, Naval Supply Depot, Scotia, New York; Ensign Edgar Jacob Fisher, Jr., '42Bs, is now studying at Cornell University. Ed had a letter from Sgt. Frank Acosta, '42x, who said that he was returning from Iceland very soon, and while up there who should he run into but Lt. Howard Rogon, '42x, on the streets of Reykjavik!; Robert Tepper, '42x, is a lieutenant in the Navy; Cpl. John Duvall May, '42Ba, received his diploma as a radio mechanic, and also as a radar technician. Now John is in London attending classes. John says that England is a grand place and that the boys are a swell bunch; Thomas Gardiner Paynter, '42Ba, is at Bronson Field, Pensacola, completing training bomber flying in the Navy; Ensign William Fleming Way, '42Ba, recently attended a school of Salvage Operations in New York and now is aboard his ship; Wallace Stephen Sanderlin, Jr., '42Ba, PBK, is an instructor in mathematics and physics at the Norfolk Naval Air Station; Ensign Warren Jerome Schneider, '42Ba, is now at Banana River, Florida flying a Naval Patrol Bomber; 2nd Lt. Huntington Woodman Curtis, '42Bs, PBK, is doing laboratory work in Radar at General Electric in Schenectady; Robert Allison Taylor, Jr., '42Ba, was graduated from Officer's Candidate School at Camp Barkeley, Texas, August 18 with the rank of a second lieutenant. After that Bob reported to an air base in New York City; Richard Emory Cline, '42Bs, when last heard from, was in the Army Air Corps Ground Service in chemical warfare, and was ready to be sent overseas; Gerald Jacob Rose, '42Bs, is a sophomore at the University of Maryland School of Dentistry, and is an apprentice seaman under the Navy V. 12 (S) program; Joseph Howard Summerell, '42Ba, received his commission as an Ensign in March from Northwestern University, and after training in the Radar School at Pearl Harbor, is stationed with the Pacific fleet. Howard recently received two stripes for foreign service.

For the past three months I've been in St. Petersburg, Florida with my husband. I'm afraid this fishing, swimming and boating life has been too easy. Now we're off to California where you shall hear from me next. It's been surprising the number of W. & M. people I've run across down here.

Thanks again for your grand cards and letters. I can't tell you how much your cooperation means to me. And again let me say I wish it were possible to answer each one of you personally.

Keep writing to my old address for awhile, or else to the Alumni Office.

Best of luck,

MARY MARGARET FIGLEY (WILLOUGHBY), '42Bs,
Permanent Secretary,
3901 North Market Road, Canton 7, Ohio.

And so the class of '43 joins the ranks of Alumni. We have certainly started out ambitiously too. First let me explain, though, that my information herewith is largely second, third, and fourth hand. Hereafter I will have a name and address list of our class members and my little bits of chatter can be quoted from the subjects in question themselves. In short, I will be expecting to hear from you rather than having to plague the life out of the few members of the class whom I have cornered here in Washington; it was like an ideal hold-up, the way I forced them to read over all the letters they had received during the summer! By the time I have compiled all these little bits gathered from hither and yon, by word-of-mouth, phone, wire, special messenger, and the rest, the facts will no doubt have become somewhat distorted; please bear with me this time and I will do my best to make up for it as I grow older!

Because we were so proud of our Midshipmen at finals, let's account for them. Of the V-7 group who were called in March to start their training, we now have fourteen Ensigns in the United States Naval Reserve. They received their commissions on July 28 having completed the course at the Midshipmen's School, Columbia University. The rest of us say "hats off" to Richard J. Alfriend, III, '43Ba, Owen Lee Bradford, '43Ba, Lloyd Austin Clarke, Jr., '43Ba, Sidney Grayson Clary, '43Ba, Albert George Doumar, '43Ba, Cecil Linwood Griffin, Jr., '43Bs, Mervin Mitchell Hoffman, '43Ba, Robert Stanley Hudgins, '43Ba, Newell Sanders Irwin, '43Ba, John Frank Korczowski, '43Bs, Harvey Frederick Marriner, '43Ba, Howard Marston Smith, Jr., '43Bs, Norman Tavss, '43Ba, and James Joseph Ward, Jr., '43Ba. Harvey Paul Johnson, '43Bs, and Alfred Bernard Vandeweghe, '43Bs, who were in the V-7 group originally, transferred to the physical fitness program. I had a grand letter from "Buck," our "Mr. President," saying that their first orders scattered them from "Maine to California and then some." Buck is stationed in Norfolk, and in spite of all we hear about Norfolk, I think he is fortunate to be close to Williamsburg; no doubt he likes it too. The other V-7's from our class, who had to complete a math course before going in, trained at Northwestern. I hope we'll be hearing from them soon.

Others in the service, we find are Thomas W. Miller, Jr., '43Ba, at Quantico, Virginia, having completed his Marine "boot" training at Parris Island, South Carolina. Corporal William Huett Hollings, Jr., '43Ba, is stationed at Barksdale Field, Louisiana. When someone reported to me during the summer on Dyckman Ware Vermilye, '43Ba, he had just been promoted to a Sergeant.

Joseph Herman Solomon, '43Ba, wrote me about graduation time that he was a Corporal in the Signal Corps. I had hoped to get off a letter to you Joe, but I've found that with such long working hours as the War Department requires, I'll have to write all of you largely through the GAZETTE. I understand the Signal Corps has a way of moving its men around quite rapidly, so Joe, keep me posted. You will no doubt run into some old William and Mary friends before long.* Really, the Signal Corps is deluged with W. and M. people, both in the Civilian and military branches. Of the February graduates, Dorothy Hollingsworth Rickes, '43Ba, chose to join the civilian ranks of the Army Service Forces in the Signal Corps. Hensley Charles Woodbridge, '43Ba, joined up too about spring vacation time. In July others to become "War Department Government Girls" were Helen Hunter Black, '43Bs, Virginia Lee Curtis, '43Ba, Helen Louise Holbrook, '43Ba, Helen Barbara Kilmon, '43Ba, Wilma Jay Lambert, '43Ba, Jean Amelia Norris, '43Ba, Patricia Kathryn O'Shea, '43Ba, Natalie Ann Sanford, '43Ba, Caroline Virginia Wiley, '43Ba, Priscilla Janet Wilson, '43Ba, and your truly. All of us are located at the Arlington Hall Station, Arlington, Virginia, just outside of Washington.

These aren't all we have in the vicinity of the capitol city either. Jane R. Christiansen, '43Ba, was working for the British Army Staff. She has left there now, however, and after vacationing a while, will assume duties with the United States Army War College. Impartial, isn't she? Elizabeth Jane Costenbader, '43Ba, is here too, but I forget just which agency she is with; it has three initials like the rest of them anyway, so must be all right.

At the time Barbara Haynes Cooper (Cameron), '43Ba, wrote me back in July, she was making a noble attempt to get on the good side of cooking and housekeeping.

Emilia Maria Garcia (Carlson), '43Ba, another of our Army wives, seems to be leading an ideal life of sunshine and swimming down in Petersburg, Virginia. We've heard about that beautiful Officer's Club at Camp Lee, "Emie." A combination of housekeeping for the family with sun, tennis, and fun has kept Aline Fay Mims, '43Ba, busy all summer. She is now training for a position with Altman's Store in New York. Elizabeth Irma Lyons, '43Bs, is doing that too, I believe.

Evelyn LaVerne Cosby, '43Ba, and Mary Castleton Hamner, '43Ba, are living together in Richmond, and have become working girls, too. Mary is typist in one of the State Government offices. Evelyn is with the Federal Works Agency.

Glenn Charles Knox, '43Bs, is teaching physical education to the boys at Matthew Whaley School, Williamsburg. Glenn entered the Air Corps last spring but was released because of a physical condition.

Granino Korn, '43x, who received his B.A. degree from Brown University in 1942 and his M.A. in Physics at Columbia University in May, 1943, is now attending Brown University where he has a fellowship for advanced instruction and research in mechanics.

Virginia Frances Partrea, '43Ba, is teaching at the Matthew Whaley High School, Williamsburg.

Way out in Chicago we find Elizabeth Alden Jones, '43Bs, working for a radio corporation. That's o.k., "B.J." you aren't the only Psych. major who is pursuing a task very definitely not in line with her training.

Elizabeth Anne Douglass, '43Bs, was selected for one of the eight appointments offered by the Peter Bent Brigham Hospital in Boston as a dietician. Dish up lots of vitamins, Bets. I didn't hear from Margaret Ann Webb, '43Bs, during the summer, but I have heard she is teaching home economics in Salisbury, Maryland.

*EDITOR'S NOTE: Cpl. Solomon and Pfc. Ira B. Dworkin, '42Ba, spent Labor Day week end together in Austin, Texas.

Pursuing the teaching profession is Jean Elizabeth Parker, '43Ba, in the High School at Emporia, and among those receiving librarian's appointments are Mavis Mercer Bunch, '43Ba, a Librarian's assistant at Langley Field, Frances Lucinda Jarvis, '43Ba, and Ella Waldron Allen, '43Ba, in Norfolk Schools. Anne Elizabeth Lassiter, '43Ba, is doing secretarial work at the Norfolk Army Base.

For the summer, Jane Thompson Craig, '43Bs, had a temporary job as technician for three doctors. What are you doing now, Jane?

Lulu Anne Nottingham, '43x, has a government position in Cape Charles, and Mary Louise Morton, '43Ba, is working for the City Manager in the metropolis of Williamsburg. I don't blame her for sticking close to home. You see, as I sit here writing, in Washington, simply broiling in this August heat, I find myself yearning for a visit down to the peninsula and James City County. Won't we miss Orientation, Registration, rushing, football, and all the rest? Students and alumni regret that there won't be a football team for us to follow this year, but we understand why it had to be discontinued. And speaking of football, did you hear about our All American, Garrard Slinger Ramsey, '43Bs. "Buster" played in the College All-Stars Game in Chicago in August. I guess that was carrying the colors for us as well as for Uncle Sam; he's in the Navy, you know.

John Pipkin Feaster, '43Ba, is studying at the Long Island College of Medicine, Brooklyn, New York, as a Private first class United States Army.

Isabel Holladay Miller, '43Ba, is working at the Library of the College of William and Mary.

That is the end of my line for now. As you see, it is very scanty. We don't want the other classes to get ahead of us, so please do make a point of writing to me. You men particularly were called out before we knew it almost, but you're the ones we particularly want to keep tab on. Because our last year was a little choppy is only reason enough for us to be determined to stay close together. I am counting on you to help me, so don't forget to notify me of changes in addresses, and please write.

Luck to each one of you,

Are You Pestered by Life Insurance Agents?

A certain man of affairs complained that he was "pestered by life insurance agents."

To this a friend replied, "You should feel flattered. Their 'pestering' you indicates that you are regarded as prosperous, in sound health, and disposed to respect your responsibilities. Don't start worrying until the life insurance boys begin to pass you by."
