WILLIAMSBURG INN WILLIAMSBURG LODGE

A cordial welcome and the true traditions of Virginia hospitality await students and alumni of William and Mary at both Williamsburg Inn and Williamsburg Lodge. You will find the wide variety of accommodations and facilities consistently reasonable and comfortable. Guest accommodations are also maintained at Market Square Tavern and Brick House Tavern as well as at the several colonial guest houses. Dining rooms at the Inn and Lodge offer distinctive cuisine. Coffee Shop at Williamsburg Lodge.

CHOWNING'S TAVERN

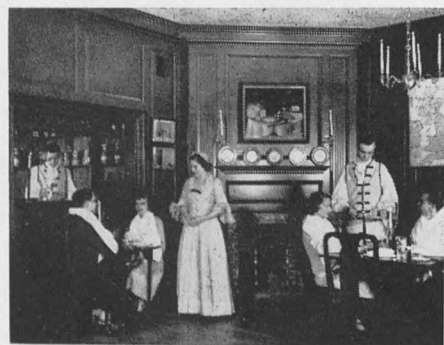

A reconstructed eighteenth century alehouse operated in the manner of colonial times. Beverages and light refreshments are featured on the old-style menu and served by waiters in colonial dress. On Duke of Gloucester Street, east of the Court House of 1770.

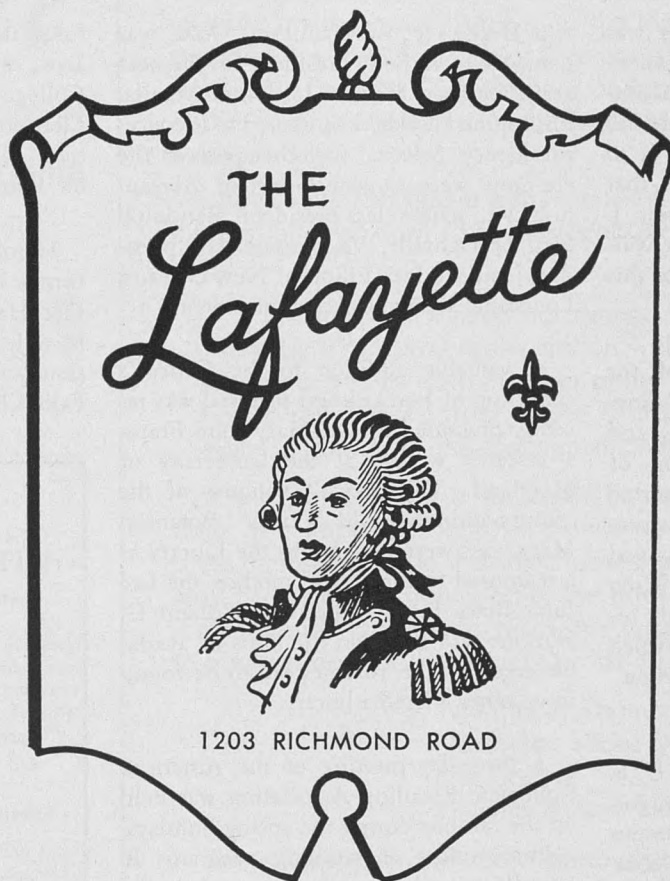

KING'S ARMS TAVERN

A reconstructed colonial tavern, called The King's Arms, on the Duke of Gloucester Street, opposite Raleigh Tavern, is the successor to the famous Travis House. Food is prepared from colonial recipes here and served by waiters in Eighteenth Century costumes.

Midday and evening dinner . . . also light refreshments at noontime.

All income derived from Williamsburg Inn and Lodge and its associated units is used to maintain and develop Colonial Williamsburg and to carry forward its educational program.

THE COLLEGE IN BRIEF

A total of $8400 in scholarships was awarded to talented young Virginia scientists in the College's annual science contest. Purpose of the contest, which has been held each spring since 1949, is to find and promote scientific ability that might otherwise lie dormant. Robert J. Hart, assistant professor of physics at William and Mary, served as chairman of this year's contest.

The College has been accepted for membership in the Association of Governing Boards of State Universities and Allied Institutions, an organization of some 160 state or municipally supported colleges. A joint meeting of the association's executive committee and regional directors was held recently in the Wren Building. The association is primarily interested in the problems of the laymen who "serve the cause of higher education" as board members.

Chief Justice Earl Warren of the U. S. Supreme Court heads a long list of dignitaries who will converge on the campus next fall for the Marshall-Wythe Celebration. Elaborate ceremonies on September 25 will serve not only to rededicate the Marshall-Wythe School of Law as the first law school in the country, but will also serve to rededicate the entire legal profession of the country. Busts of Marshall, Wythe, and Blackstone will be unveiled at the celebration. Details of the celebration are planned for publication in the next issue of the GAZETTE.

In recent student elections, Ronald Irwin Drake, Jr., of Hamilton, Ohio, was named student body president for the next academic year. Michael Jordon of Manila, Philippine Islands, was elected to the vice-presidency. Selected for other posts in the elections were Eugene Guess of Alexandria, Va., senior class president; Randolph Hall of Danville, Va., junior class president; and Rodney Elliott of New Orleans, Louisiana, sophomore class president.

Tomorrow Morning:

A valuable addition to the College's collection of horticultural material was recently presented by Dr. Mary Juhn Fraps, a research worker at the University of Maryland. The first 37 volumes of the century-and-a-half-old Curtis' Botanical Magazines were donated to the Library as a memorial to Dr. Fraps' mother, the late Julia Butts Juhn. Librarian William G. Harkins said that "on the basis of available records" the volumes are to be found in no other Virginia library.

A three-day meeting of the American Collegiate Retailing Association was held on the campus during the spring holidays. Administrators of retailing programs in 12 colleges and universities throughout the country are represented in the association.

Dr. Charles P. Sherman, professor of law at Boston University and visiting lecturer to the Marshall-Wythe School of Law, recently delivered a lecture at the College on "Membership, Meetings, and Elections in Churches or Religious Societies." Dr. Sherman is a noted authority on Roman, Civil and Ecclesiastical Law.

Harold J. Todhunter of Ojai, California was recently named editor of the Flat Hat. Other staff members include: Miss Jean Andrews of Detroit, Michigan, associate editor, and Miss Alice Knight of Falls Church, Virginia, managing editor.

Thomas Thorne, associate professor of fine arts, and Carl Roseberg, assistant professor of fine arts, unknowingly revived a colonial custom in sprucing up Lord Botetourt, the College's "patron saint." It was only after the GAZETTE'S photographer snapped this picture that a somewhat obscure historical fact turned up. In colonial times the statue was cleaned twice a year "by order of the Assembly." The protective iron railing was added this year.

A WORD IN EDGEWISE . . .

This last "Word in Edgewise" for this writer is a most difficult one to write for the reason that it is "the last!" As many of you know I resigned the "two-hat" job of Director of Alumni and Information on April 13 to become Commissioner of Public Relations and Advertising of the Virginia Department of Conservation and Development, effective June 15.

I have failed to find a better way of saying it to you than I said it in my letter of April 13 to President Chandler and President Thompson:

"I am sure that I need not remind you that what has turned out to be a too-brief reassociation with the College has brought joy to me and to each member of my family. It is no exaggeration to say that a portion of the hearts of each one of us will remain at and with the College of William and Mary always."

It is important that a successor be found at the earliest possible date. It is important that the alumni be given an opportunity to express themselves as to this selection. In order that alumni suggestions may be properly channeled to the Board of Directors of the Society it is requested that you forward any suggestions which you may have to the President of the Society of the Alumni. The address:

William G. Thompson, Jr.
North Bay Shore Drive
Bay Colony
Virginia Beach, Virginia

The newspaper and radio announcements of the resignation referred to above have resulted in literally hundreds of letters. Each mail brings additions. Every letter contains heart-warming expressions of good wishes. This has been and is an experience which has made me at once proud and humble. I shall not be able to answer these letters for a while. I shall take this means, therefore, of saying a deeply sincere "Thank You" until such time as I can "make my manners" properly. In the meantime I venture the following observation, a sort of valedictory statement, if you please:

I believe that every graduating alumnus leaves a bit of his heart behind when he graduates. I believe that a good alumnus returns to the campus, as to a shrine, to put the pieces of his heart together on every possible occasion. I left behind a piece of my heart when I graduated in 1927. I was privileged to return to the College in 1952 as a member of the staff.

Now, in 1954, I am leaving again. This time, I shall leave behind an even larger portion of my heart. But I shall return on every possible occasion to put the pieces together. In addition, I shall contribute financially; I shall undertake to direct worthy students to the College; and I shall, by every possible means, defend and promote the College and its purposes on every occasion. In short, I shall try to be a really good alumnus.

I am grateful to every one of you. You've been the grandest bunch of folks in the world to work for. As for that 1954 William and Mary Fund—Let's Make It More in '54! Mail your check today. Will you?

THE SOCIETY

FUND

Let's Make It More In '54!

As has been previously stated the 1953 William and Mary Fund may be written off as a success in every respect. It topped previous funds both in number of contributors and in the amount contributed. Every class except two shared in this result by increasing their number of contributors and the amount contributed. This made it possible for the Society to make a gift to the College of just short of nine thousand dollars.

With the hope of conveniencing the alumni the 1954 Fund Campaign was set for May and June, the two months in the year when there are said to be fewer solicitations for other causes—and no taxes! An additional factor was the desire to steer clear of the emergency requests for assistance in rebuilding Phi Beta Kappa Auditorium which went out to the alumni and friends of the College after that building was burned in December.

An increasing number. As we go to press, the records indicate that 334 alumni have already made unsolicited contributions in the amount of $2,478.70. Advance contributions from the soon-to-be alumni, members of the Class of 1954, are coming in gratifying numbers. All of this taken together indicates the wisdom of the abandonment of the outmoded alumni dues system five years ago and the adoption of the now almost universally used fund system.

In colleges everywhere, annual giving—unrestricted annual giving—has proved to be the best system for continued alumni participation in College affairs. A gradually increasing number of William and Mary men and women have demonstrated their belief in this procedure through their William and Mary Fund contributions.

Right to designate. For the reason that the need in this area has been so very really urgent, the Board of Directors of the Society has, from the beginning, suggested to the President of the College that the annual Society of the Alumni gift, made possible by William and Mary Fund contributions, be devoted primarily to scholarships for worthy students. That has been done. But it is also a fact that every contributor has a right to earmark his or her contribution for his or her own special college interest whether that be the Library, the Law School, the Infirmary, the Choir, the Band, or otherwise. All such requests have been complied with and will be complied with in the 1954 Fund.

So long as there is a single alumnus who is not actively tied into the affairs of the College through voting participation in the Society of the Alumni and receipt of the ALUMNI GAZETTE, both of which stem from contributions to the William and Mary Fund; so long as it is necessary for the College, from its too meagre funds, to provide one thin dime for the operation of the Alumni Office, there is a job to be done.

The unsung heroes in the progress of the Fund to date have been and are the ever-faithful Class Agents. They can't do the job alone. There is evidence that the staff of the Alumni Office has done its part of the job effectively during each of the years since the Fund system was adopted. However effective, the Alumni Office can't do the job alone. The Board of Directors of the Society, however dedicated, can't do the job alone.

Personal responsibility. The job can be done only when each alumnus determines to take a full share of responsibility by contributing personally and by soliciting the interest and, therefore, the contributions of fellow alumni. It's that simple.

How much should you give? Only you can determine that.

Here are some answers which have been given to that question. You could double your last year's contribution, as several have already done. You could start with the minimum $5.00 contribution and add a dollar for each year which you have been out of school. Many make that a regular practice.

How much you give is your business. That you become an active participating member of the Society of the Alumni and a regular recipient of the ALUMNI GAZETTE, the one continuing link with the College, may not be the "business," of any of your fellow alumni but it certainly is the concern of every one of us who loves the College.

THE COLLEGE

SUMMER SESSION

It Started in Dublin

Caps and gowns will scarcely be set aside when the class bell rings in a new summer session.

One of the largest enrollments in recent years is anticipated for the summertime courses which get under way on June 15.

During recent months more than 10,000 bulletins outlining the summer program have been sent to prospective students throughout the country. In addition, nationwide publicity has been gained through numerous national educational magazines.

As a result of the extensive publicity campaign, requests for catalogues have come from 34 states, Canada and Switzerland.

From Greek to law. More than 150 courses ranging from Greek and Latin to law, philosophy, and secretarial science will be offered in the summer session.

Particular emphasis is being placed this year on the various summer workshops, institutes, and conferences. Featured in the workshops are such diverse subjects as early American life and culture, the problems of elementary education, and ceramics and sculpture.

It will mark the sixteenth summer that the noted "Latin Institute" has been offered in the curriculum. Consisting of a three-week session, it will again be under the direction of its founder, Dr. Anthony Pelzer Wagener.

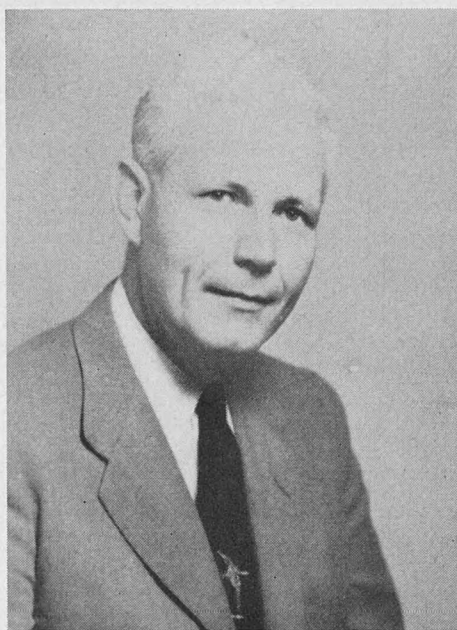

Serving his second year as director of the summer session is Dr. Kenneth H. Cleeton, B.S. and M.A., University of Missouri, and Ed.D., University of Colorado.

A native of Columbia, Missouri, Cleeton joined the faculty in 1946 after serving four years as school administrator at Boulder, Colorado.

For three years he was associate director of the summer program under Dr. George J. Oliver. He became director when Oliver was named coordinator of branch activities and director of extension (See GAZETTE, December, 1952).

Retrospect. A look at the records shows that the College's summer session got its start 44 years ago in the rolling, bluegrass highlands of Southwest Virginia.

At Dublin in Pulaski County, Virginia, an industrious group of 50 students showed up in the summer of 1912. For seven years thereafter the College operated its summer session at Dublin where it was housed in the buildings of Dublin Institute.

Summer Session Director

Then, in 1919, the faculty and the Board of Visitors decided to open the eighth annual session on the College grounds in Williamsburg. The transfer was effected due to the difficulty of transporting the proper college equipment and "owing especially to the difficulty of transferring the atmosphere of the historic old college to another point."

Ever since the College has operated its summer session in Williamsburg.

MEMORABILIA

Medals Returned

In the spring of 1913 eight hopeful orators gathered on the campus of Hampden-Sydney College to vie in the annual state intercollegiate oratorical contest.

Leading off the rivalry was a 40-year-old minister representing the University of Richmond. His elocution was judged "superior" but his efforts proved futile when he was deemed "not a college boy in the true sense."

A similar fate then befell the Washington and Lee representative, an assistant professor studying law at the University.

Favored among the remaining six was the spokesman from the host school. As he stepped up to deliver his oration, however, fate stepped in. He brushed against a glass of water and ineptly tumbled it into the presiding officer's lap.

When the afternoon's competition drew to a close, Arthur W. James, '04 Ba, emerged the winner in what he has modestly referred to as "the number four spot."

Speaking on the subject, "The Scholarship of Service," James pointed out that careers in government, social services, politics, and business called for and held opportunities for scholarship equal to that of the older professions of ministry, medicine, and law.

Achievement of the year. As the state's top orator he accomplished what was hailed as the achievement of the year at the College and was awarded the Virginia State Oratorical Contest Medal.

After many years "on loan" to a member of his family, the medal was recently returned to the retired attorney and James has turned it over for the historical memorabilia collection of the College.

His efforts that year weren't confined to oratory. Applying his talents to the literary field, he walked off with the Robert Hughes Medal for the best prose of the year in the College's literary magazine.

According to James, "I wrote it at one sitting on the night of the dance which the Williamsburg girls used to give for the William and Mary men.

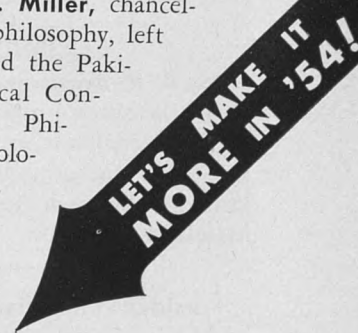

"The girl who had invited me became ill and couldn't attend and, of course, I didn't. About 10 o'clock I went to my room and wrote the story—once, last, and for all."

The literary medal, which was awarded at the 1913 commencement, has also been returned for placement in the College Archives.

throughout Pakistan are meeting at the Congress to discuss their problems and to read papers on subjects relating to their special interests. While in Pakistan, Dr. Miller will confer with his colleagues and will lecture before various groups under the auspices of the American Embassy at Karachi. He planned to return to William and Mary before the end of the semester.

During his absence, Dr. Dorion Cairns, a leading authority on Husserl's philosophy of phenomenology, is serving as a substitute professor. Dr. Cairns formerly held the chair of philosophy at Rockford College in Rockford, Illinois. In September he will become a member of the faculty at the New School for Social Research in New York City. A graduate of Harvard University, where he received both his A.B. and Ph.D. degrees, Dr. Cairns spent several years studying in Germany as a student of Edmund Husserl, founder of phenomenology. Husserl recognized Dr. Cairns as "the leading authority in the United States" on his philosophy.

Dr. William C. Grant, a Dartmouth College graduate who received his Ph.D. degree from Yale University last June, has been appointed an assistant professor of biology. Prior to joining the William and Mary faculty in February, he was a professor of zoology and biology at Gettysburg College.

John C. Bright, director of the work study plan and placement bureau, has been granted a leave of absence until next fall for additional graduate work. He is attending the Graduate School of the University of Virginia where he is concentrating on student personnel services. During his absence, the post is being filled by Albert Mims, Jr., who recently completed his work for a master's degree in industrial relations at the University of North Carolina. Mims attended Tulane University and Madison College prior to receiving an A.B. degree in industrial psychology from the University of North Carolina.

Dr. A. R. Armstrong, associate professor of chemistry, presented a paper on the chemical composition of some mollusk shells at a spring meeting of the Atlantic Estuarine Research Society in Solomons, Maryland.

President Chandler has been appointed by Virginia's Governor Stanley to a 17-member state commission which will take charge of the celebration of the 350th anniversary of the founding of Jamestown planned for 1957.

Dr. James E. Pate, professor of political science, has written a college textbook on municipal and county government. Entitled "Local Government and Administration," the book was recently published by the American Book Company for nationwide distribution. The basic material in the text has been used for a number of years in Dr. Pate's classes. He spent five years in compiling and writing the book.

Raymond L. Rawls, instructor in business administration, is one of five persons to receive an annual Samuel Bronfman Fellowship for a year's graduate study at Columbia University. The $2,500 fellowship will enable him to continue study for his doctoral degree at Columbia's Graduate School of Business next September.

Dr. Tibor Heda has been named college physician, succeeding Dr. Benjamin T. Painter. A native of Hungary, Dr. Heda spent many years in Switzerland where he obtained his medical degree at Lausanne. After interning in the United States at Crawford W. Long Hospital, Atlanta, Georgia, and Sheltering Arms Hospital, Richmond, Virginia, he practiced medicine in Dallas, Texas. He is also serving on the medical-surgery staff of Eastern State Hospital.

Dr. Fraser Neiman, associate professor of English, has been awarded a faculty fellowship by The Fund For the Advancement of Education. He will use his fellowship for a year's study in Cambridge, Massachusetts, where he proposes to explore problems that have arisen especially in connection with two courses he teaches—"Epic and Romance" and "Aspects of the European Novel and Drama."

Dr. Dudley W. Woodbridge, chancellor professor of jurisprudence and dean of the Marshall-Wythe School of Law, was the principal speaker at recent meetings of the Norfolk and Richmond Chapters of the Society of the Alumni.

Dr. Morton J. Frisch, acting assistant professor of government, is the author of an article entitled "Lincoln's Philosophy of Politics" which appeared in a recent issue of The Prairie Schooner, published by the University of Nebraska Press.

Dr. George Oliver, chairman of the department of education, presided over a panel discussion of "Meeting the School Needs of the Exceptional Child" during an educational meeting held recently in Roanoke, Va. More than 100 division school superintendents from all sections of Virginia were on hand for the annual conference.

Dr. Carl A. Fehr, associate professor of music, conducted a recent concert of the Virginia All-East Chorus in Highland Springs, Virginia. It was the first concert by the Chorus, which is composed of high school students from 37 Virginia high schools.

Dr. Frank B. Evans, III, associate professor of English, has been appointed an intern in general education at Yale University for the academic year of 1954-55. He is one of 12 visiting teachers selected from several hundred candidates nominated by colleges and universities throughout the United States. While at Yale, Dr. Evans will teach approximately one-third of his time and spend the rest of his internship studying the Yale program in general education. It is anticipated that his experience at Yale will make it possible for him to assist the College in its continuing study of various proposals for further improving the curriculum.

Dr. Kenneth H. Cleeton, professor of education and director of the summer session is serving as president of the Department of Teacher Education of the Virginia Education Association. He presided at a meeting of the group held in April at the University of Richmond.

Dr. Donald J. Herrmann, assistant professor of education, was elected a vice-president of the Virginia Association of Guidance and Personnel Workers during a meeting of the group April 2 on the campus. Dr. Herrmann served as program chairman for the meeting which attracted more than 200 personnel experts from throughout Virginia.

Dr. R. Wayne Kernodle, head of the Department of Sociology and Anthropology, has been elected vice-president of the Williamsburg, Mental Hygiene Society.

Dr. Charles F. Marsh, dean of the faculty, was elected vice-president of the Association of Virginia Colleges at a re-

THE ALUMNI

MEN OF THE YEAR

A Challenge

As the son of one of the College's more illustrious alumni, Otto Lowe, Jr., faced a challenging road when he enrolled at William and Mary three years ago.

Back in the '20's Otto Lowe, Sr., set an enviable record. By the time he was awarded his A.B. degree in 1923 and his law degree three years later, he had captained the baseball team, played on the football squad, had been president of Pi Kappa Alpha, and had served as president of the men's student body. He had also been selected for membership in Phi Beta Kappa, ODK, and the Flat Hat Club Society.

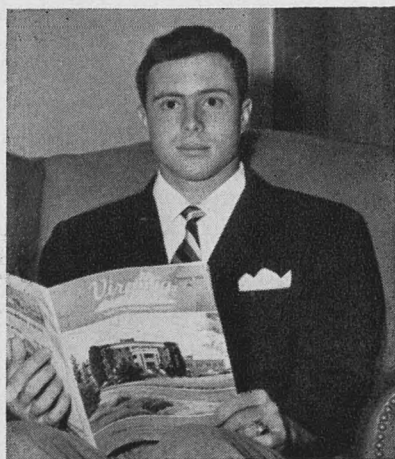

A demanding future. Thus Otto Lowe, Jr., had a demanding future cut out if he were to perpetuate his father's record. That he has thus far succeeded is a matter of record.

His first year he was elected president of the freshman class, was on the swimming team, and served on the Flat Hat staff.

The following year he was named sophomore representative to the men's honor council and was elected to the student assembly.

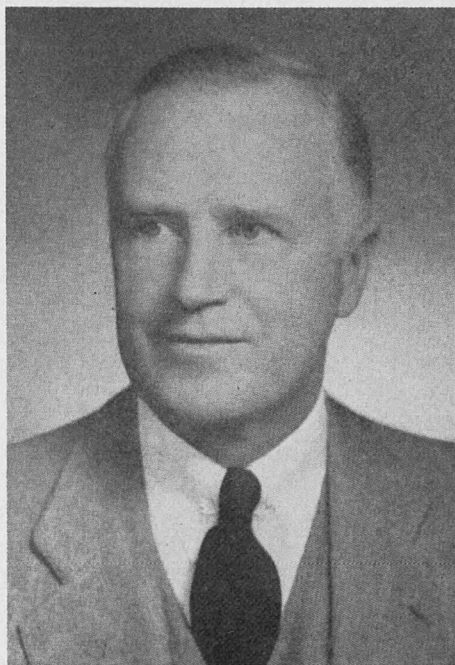

As a junior, he has been president of Theta Delta Chi, a representative to the interfraternity council and junior representative to the honor council. In recognition of his leadership, he was elected 1954 chairman of the honor council and tapped as a member of ODK.

Complementing his list of honors was the title accorded him last fall by the Virginia Manufacturers Association. From the thousands of students throughout the Old Dominion, he was designated as "the outstanding student in the State of Virginia."

Virginian of the Year

Unrelenting Efforts

The formidable task of engineering a truce in Korea last year required the tact and patience of a seasoned diplomat.

In an effort to untangle the scrambled situation, President Eisenhower dispatched Assistant Secretary of State Walter S. Robertson, '14X, to the Korean scene.

A long-time student of the Far East (See GAZETTE, May and October, 1953), Robertson was well-equipped for the task that confronted him. Within days his tact and persuasiveness had influenced obdurate Syngman Rhee to the Allied terms.

Host of honors. In the wake of his accomplishments Robertson was hailed as one of the greatest diplomats of recent times. His unrelenting efforts had earned for him the respect and admiration of political observers around the world.

A host of honors came Robertson's way from throughout the country. Symbolic of the recognition accorded him were the titles conferred by the Society of Virginians in Maryland and the Society of the Virginians in the City of New York.

Both organizations singled out the shrewd statesman as the "Virginian of the Year" for 1953.

Skill and Determination

Starting the season with a roster of but 24 players, Head Coach Jackie Freeman, '44Bs, molded the 1953 football team into one of the most powerful squads in William and Mary gridiron history. It was an uphill battle all the way for the "Iron Indians" who somehow were able to salvage a 5-4-1 record from a season plagued with injuries.

The skill and determination shown by Freeman in his second year at the helm earned him the plaudits of sportswriters throughout the state.

When it came time for them to decide on a recipient for the top honor of Virginia coachdom, they had but one choice. They studied the records, looked Freeman's way, and tapped him with the title of "Virginia's Coach of the Year."

The process nearly repeated itself in balloting for the Coach of the Year of the entire Southern Conference. In the final tally, however, Freeman lacked five votes for the title which went to Art Lewis of West Virginia.

Perseverance pays off. It was a well-deserved reward for Freeman's untiring patience in developing one of the smallest squads in Indian history into one of the state's most-feared football teams.

Freeman himself was quite unassuming about it all. He looked over his shoulder and gave most of the credit to his "worthy and capable associates": Backfield Coach

Eric Tipton, Line Coach Herb Miller, and Assistants Bob Tabor and Boyds Baird. Then he took a look at next year's schedule.

WOMAN OF THE YEAR

From Words to Policies

Representing the distaff side on the College's Hall of Fame last year was Rhoda Pratt (Hanson).

After graduating from William and Mary in 1933, she attended the Sorbonne in Paris and was later employed by the Berlitz School of Languages.

The Boston Globe employed her in 1934 to write articles on women's war work and in 1945 she became an editor for the Associated Press in her native New England.

Million dollar producer. Moving with her husband to Montana in 1946, she entered the insurance field in Miles City with the Western Life Insurance Company. She has since become a member of the company's Million Dollar Club and several other groups which signify outstanding performance and ability in life insurance sales and underwriting.

An active community leader, she is a member of the Business and Professional Women's Club, American Legion Auxiliary, charter member and former president of the Miles City American Association of University Women, Chamber of Commerce, Montana Amateur Athletic Union, Montana Institute of the Arts, Miles City Summer Theater, Parent-Teacher Association, Democratic Central Committee, and is chairman of the Unemployment Compensation Commission Advisory Council.

In addition, she has somehow found time to satisfy her writing urge as the Miles City correspondent for the Billings Gazette and Great Falls Tribune.

In recognition of her many achievements since going to Montana just seven years ago, the professional business fraternities of Montana State University's School of Business Administration named her the state's "outstanding business woman of the year."

EDUCATION

Important Post

One of the top honors in the field of education has been accorded H. I. Willett, '25Ab.

In nationwide balloting of nearly 9,000 members, Willett was chosen president-elect of the American Association of School Administrators. He will serve as president-elect for one year before taking over the presidency on March 15, 1955.

Willett, the first Virginian ever to hold the office, has been superintendent of Richmond (Va.) Public Schools since 1946.

Up the ladder. Before going to Richmond, he held various educational posts in the state. He was superintendent of schools in Norfolk County for four years, director of instruction and assistant superintendent of schools in Augusta County from 1939 until 1942, and principal of the Churchland and Cradock High and Elementary Schools from 1926 to 1939.

When Willett advances to the presidency next year he will offer the association a well-rounded background on educational matters. He was chairman of the AASA resolutions committee in 1951 and is currently chairman of the Association's 1955 yearbook commission on "The Superintendent Works With His Staff."

Two years ago he was a speaker on the association's general convention program and he has served as both chairman and participant in convention discussion groups.

A Top Honor

Active in state as well as national educational circles, Willett is a trustee and former district vice-president of the Virginia Education Association. He is also a past president of the Virginia Principals' Association.

Graduate work. After graduating from William and Mary, Willett went on to earn his master's degree from Columbia University and also did graduate work at Leland Stanford University.

Besides his membership in AASA he is a member of Kappa Phi Kappa, Phi Delta Kappa, Pi Gamma Nu, the Rotary Club, the (Richmond) Chamber of Commerce, the Sales Executives Club, the Commonwealth Club, and Phi Beta Kappa.

The organization which Willett will head is one of the four original departments of the American Education Association. Its members today include city, county and state school superintendents, college and university presidents and deans of colleges of education, administrative officers of state and national education associations, and heads of private schools who work directly with governing authorities.

THE PULLEY CHAIN

A Scholastic Habit

When Ragan Bradshaw Pulley enrolled at the College in 1934, he opened the door to a scholastic habit. It has been a matter of tradition ever since for Pulleys to spend four years at William and Mary.

For a period of 18 consecutive years at least one member of the family has been enrolled in the College.

Shortly after the first Pulley graduated in 1939, misfortune struck in the death of the father, Lloyd C. Pulley. His death spelled hardship for Mrs. Rose B. Pulley and her family of ten children but not defeat.

With pluck and perseverance Mrs. Pulley outmaneuvered adversity and the resolute family sent four more brothers and sisters down the commencement aisle.

In the footsteps of Brad came Franklin Pierce Pulley, III, who stepped up for his A.B. degree in 1941. Then came David Clarence Pulley who walked off with both his bachelor's and master's degrees.

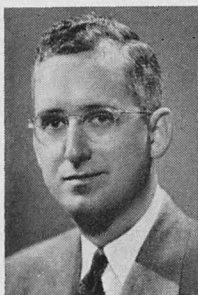

The Pulley chain continued unbroken until last June when the last of the current lot, Carolyn Patricia Pulley, received her degree.

Somewhere in the future must lie addition links.

Their record speaks for itself:

R. BRADSHAW PULLEY

R. Bradshaw Pulley enrolled at the College in 1935 after being valedictorian of his class in Ivor, Va. High School. At William and Mary he was a King Carter Scholar, was elected to Phi Beta Kappa and received the James Frederick Carr Memorial Cup. Among his extra-curricular college activities were memberships in Kappa Alpha Order, Euclid Club, and Baptist Student Union. While serving as a Lieutenant in the Navy, Brad married the former Louise J. Butt of Oceana, Virginia. They have two boys, Ragan Bradshaw, Jr., age 6, and Lawrence B., 2 years old. Since his graduation from College, Brad has been continuously associated with the Equitable Life Assurance Society. Present address: Box 85, Virginia Beach, Virginia.

FRANKLIN P. PULLEY

Franklin P. Pulley was a member of Sigma Pi fraternity, and the Euclid Club. While at William and Mary he served as President of the Baptist Student Union, and was a leader of the Color Guard. He graduated in 1941 with a major in Economics and Accounting. After four years in the Army, part of the time in the European Theatre, Frank attended Washington and Lee University Law School and Virginia College of Commerce and Law in Richmond where he received the degree of LL.G. summa cum laude in 1950. He is a member of the Virginia Bar Association. In 1950, he married Anne Potter Williams and they now reside in Roanoke, Virginia, where Frank is practicing law. His address is Box 2403, Roanoke, Virginia.

DAVID C. PULLEY

David C. Pulley was valedictorian of his high school class and entered William and Mary in 1942. He finished one year of College before entering the Army, and then returned to W. & M. in 1946. He was a member of the Kappa Alpha Order and Baptist Student Union, and received a B.A. degree in sociology in 1948. After graduation, Dave married Elizabeth (Tish) Richardson, also a member of the Class of '48. The following year Dave was graduate assistant in the Department of Education and received a Master of Arts degree in 1949. Subsequently he taught social studies for one year in Matthew Whaley School in Williamsburg. In 1953, he received the degree of Doctor of Philosophy from Yale University. Dave and Tish now live in Little Rock, Arkansas where he is associate professor in a graduate program in Teacher Training sponsored by the Ford Foundation's Fund for the Advancement of Education.

JAMES REID PULLEY

James Reid Pulley was valedictorian of his high school class, and then entered William and Mary in 1945. He was a member of the Kappa Alpha Order, Spanish Club, French Club, Baptist Student Union, and served as dormitory president in Monroe and Old Dominion Halls. He also worked frequently at the Travis House (Kings Arms). Reid majored in mathematics and received his B.S. degree in 1948. While working in naval research at the David Taylor Model Basin in Washington, D. C., he did some graduate study at the University of Maryland. He has been associated for several years with the Union Bag and Paper Corporation, first in Savannah, Georgia, and then at the home office in New York. He is now located in Louisville, Kentucky. Reid married Mary Louise McDonald of Savannah in June, 1951, and they have a son, James Reid Pulley, Jr., one year old. Their address in Louisville is 3830 Chenoweth Court.

CAROLYN PATRICIA PULLEY

Carolyn Patricia Pulley is the last of the ten children, and was the fifth of the family to be valedictorian of her high school class. She entered William and Mary in 1949 and was active in girls' basketball her freshman year. In her junior year she was elected to the presidency of Brown Hall and, in that office, served on the Judicial Committee of WSCGA through her senior year. She was also a member of Kappa Delta Pi and Eta Sigma Phi. Carolyn received her degree in June, 1953, and is now teaching Latin at Warwick High School, Warwick, Virginia.

THE INDIANS

SPRING SPORTS

Spring sports at William and Mary have been very much like the weather—very good and very bad.

Most disappointing was varsity baseball, where Coach Eric Tipton's nine, had a record of only four wins and a dozen losses. Both golf and tennis enjoyed better than average success and were runners-up in the Southern Conference tournaments.

Coach Bill Joyner's track team was overpowered in most meets finishing the season with a 2-3 mark and placed third in a triangular test with VPI and Washington and Lee.

The Freshman track team captured the hearts of William and Mary followers as they flashed to three wins and a loss to the Norfolk Division of William and Mary-VPI. The Papoose were easy winners in the Freshman Division of the Southern Conference meet and placed second to Virginia in the Big Six event.

Coach Bob Tabor's baseball Braves shared the same losing fate as their older teammates as they supported a record of three victories with five defeats. However, several outstanding prospects were produced by the yearlings.

BASEBALL

With three regulars returning from last year's squad, including Pitcher Bill Twomey, Coach Tipton had high hopes for a winning season when spring practice began. Twomey had showed promise in three previous years of varsity ball and was considered to be among the State's top professional baseball prospects.

Wayne Begor of Newport News and a transfer student from Randolph-Macon, became eligible after sitting out his year of residency. Begor, a seasoned baseballer, was regarded by Coach Tipton as the one man who could make his team a winner. The sure-fielding second baseman lived up to advance notices and was the team's leading hitter.

Bad luck began to appear just before the season opener against Hampden-Sydney when third baseman Eddie Watts was ruled ineligible by the Southern Conference. A one-game appearance in 1948 cost him a year's eligibility and left Tipton without a third baseman.

Monty Knight was moved from short to take over Watt's spot and Al Grieco became the regular shortstop.

Injuries in mid-season to Catcher Doug Henley forced the big Suffolk backstop to the bench and Knight again was shifted to shortstop, while Pitcher Dick Wall went to third and Grieco behind the plate. At one point Tipton was forced to use three pitchers in a game other than the one on the mound. Both Wall and Twomey occupied other positions when not on the mound and right-hander Eugene Hopkins took over at second on occasions.

A porous defense hurt the effectiveness of Twomey. The Indians played only two games without an error as they averaged six miscues a game. Though the Indians have lost regularly they have cost both West Virginia and Randolph-Macon the probable championships in the Southern Conference and State baseball races respectively. Wall pitched the Indians to their first victory of the season when he turned back the Mountaineers in the first game of a doubleheader in Williamsburg. Twomey then followed up with a victory. The Indians took two other games from the Ashland Yellow Jackets. The 6-3 win April 29 over Randolph-Macon was the first for the Indians in six years. Poor fielding also hurt the Freshmen, but in Junior Duff of Lynchburg, South Hill's Dean Jordan and Phil Secules proved that they will be a definite help to the varsity next spring.

TRACK

Varsity track suffered from the lack of material as Joyner, assisted by Coach Herb Miller, had less than 20 men out for the cinder sport.

The Tribe harriers lost to VMI, VPI, Richmond and Hampden-Sydney and managed to score wins over Randolph-Macon and George Washington.

Leo Schutte, Dick Blanchard, Lou Fisher, Shorty Herrman, George Karschner and Jim Singletary were the chief point producers.

A new school mile relay mark was set by a quartet of fast stepping freshmen. Richmond's Allen Stringer, Mike Miller, Bob McClintock and Jake Yohe established the new mark by running the distance in three and a half minutes.

Before leaving the Reservation, McClintock, a Dean's list student from Cranford, N. J. is expected to shatter a 19-year old record in the quarter mile. Monk Little, '35B.S., William and Mary's all-time track great, ran the distance in 49.8.

McClintock has come within two-tenths of a second of equalling the mark.

Probably the most outstanding individual performer has been Walt Fillman of Pottstown, Pa. His 21.8 performance in the 220 is the fastest mark recorded in Virginia this spring. He is undefeated in both sprints and has been threatening to break the 10-second mark all season. Fillman won the 100 and 220 in the conference meet at Blacksburg, while McClintock won the quarter mile.

Along with Yohe, Fillman gives the Braves a deadly one-two punch in the dashes. Another outstanding Frosh is Mike Miller of Williamsport, Pa. Miller won the high hurdle event in the freshman division of the conference meet.

GOLF

Runner-up in the Conference Golf Tournament May 7 over the James River course of the Country Club of Virginia, also placed second in the Big Six meet, placing second to Virginia at Hot Springs.

Paul Hickey led the golfers to wins over Boston University, Dartmouth, VPI, George Washington, Randolph-Macon and Washington and Lee, while losing unexpectedly to both Dartmouth and West Virginia. Only VMI remains to be played prior to the Big Six meet.

Only Fred Aucamp and Hickey will be lost to next year's golf squad. Hampton's Jim Mark, Bill Wray and lefty Bruce Rumage should give the 1955 edition of William and Mary golf three of the state's better college players.

Up from the Freshman team will be Sam Barrett, Tom Shaw and Barbara Limont, a two-time club champion, from the Berkshire Hills Country Club in New Hampshire. Miss Limont might easily be the first woman to win a varsity letter at William and Mary by earning a spot on the '55 squad.

TENNIS

The surprise team in the Conference Net Tournament at Davidson was the Williamsburg entry. Coached by Dr. Wayne Kernodle the racquet squad finished in the runner-up spot behind Davidson for the team title.

With a record of nine wins and five losses, the Tribe finished the season with

THE CLASSES

1904 Dr. James Southall Wilson has been honored with the establishment of a fellowship in his name at the University of Virginia Graduate School. He was chairman of the University's English department and dean of its graduate school before his retirement. The fellowship was provided by an anonymous alumnus who provided for an annual income of $1,000 a year.

1916 Dr. John M. Presson has been appointed head of the science department at Girard College in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. He was a member of Phi Beta Kappa and Theta Delta Chi at William and Mary.

1919 Albert P. Elliott of Lafayette, Louisiana, was recently visited in Lafayette by Leslie W. Simmons, whom he had not seen since September of 1923. Elliott roomed with Simmons for four of his six years at William and Mary and when he was married in 1923 Simmons served as his best man. Both are former faculty members at William and Mary. Simmons now resides in Norfolk, Va.

1920 John R. Chappell, Jr., is president of the newly-organized Richmond Agents' Association. One of Richmond's pioneers in agency mutual insurance companies, he was also the first president of both the National Association of Mutual Insurance Agents and the Virginia District of Columbia Mutual Agents' Association. In addition to Chappell, officers of the new association include Cecil C. Harper, '34Bs, who was elected to the board of directors.

1924 F. W. Cox is superintendent of the Princess Anne (Va.) County School System.

Elizabeth Mercer (Siersema) has been re-elected president of the May L. Keller Alumnae Club, Pi Beta Phi Sorority, in Richmond, Virginia.

1926 Herbert Lionel Alkire, a climatologist with the U. S. Weather Bureau in Baltimore, Maryland, was a recent visitor to the alumni office. He is the father of two sons, one of whom is a first year man at the U. S. Naval Academy. The other is in junior high school.

Lovie Corrine Clinard (Forrest) was elected senior president of the Lee District, Virginia Federation of Women's Clubs, at the group's spring meeting in Richmond. She and her husband, Dennis Driden, '24Ba are living in Mathews, Virginia.

C. F. Norsworthy has been elected vice-president of the Crowell-Collier Publishing Company, publishers of Collier's Woman's Home Companion, and American magazines. In his new position he will be in direct charge of the P. F. Collier & Son division, publishers of Collier's Encyclopedia, the Harvard Classics, Junior Classics and other titles. He joined Crowell-Collier in 1939, was elected treasurer in 1946, and became a director in 1949. After graduating from William and Mary, he went to New York and worked on Wall Street for a number of years before joining Crowell-Collier. In his undergraduate days, he was a member of Alpha Psi, Alpha Kappa Psi, the varsity track squad, and cross-country team. He lives in New Rochelle, N. Y., with his wife and two sons.

B. S. Hilton, superintendent of the Shenandoah County (Va.) School system, has brought the Shenandoah County schools to "their highest standard in history," according to a report recently released on his accomplishments as superintendent.

W. Stirling King, past president of the Society of the Alumni and former Mayor of Richmond, Virginia, has announced his candidacy for re-election to the Richmond City Council. A former member of Richmond's old Board of Aldermen, he was a member of the commission that wrote the City's new charter and a leader in the movement that brought about governmental reform. He is the current president of the League of Virginia Municipalities.

1927 Walter N. Chinn, Jr., of Fredericksburg, Virginia, is serving as vice-president of the Episcopal Churchmen of the Diocese of Virginia.

1929 W. Howard Mears has been named principal of the new Douglas Southall Freeman High School in Henrico County, Virginia. Until the school is opened next September, he will continue his duties at Varina (Va.) High School where he has been principal since 1940. After graduating from William and Mary, he received his M.A. degree at Columbia University. He is a past president of the Varina Ruritan Club, the Henrico Teachers' Association and the Henrico Principals' Association. He is married and has two sons, one a sixth grader and the other in the fourth grade.

Walter E. Hoffman, of Norfolk, Virginia, has been unanimously endorsed by the Hampton Bar Association for the newly created Federal judgeship in Eastern Virginia.

1930 Col. Paul W. Norton, USAF, director of civil law, office of the judge advocate general in the Pentagon Building, will have a youngster in college until 1970! Daughter Nancy will lead off for the four Nortons, entering College in September.

Harriet Darden Smith (Warren) and husband George are rounding out their first year as professional directors of the Rochester (N. Y.) Community Playhouse. For 16 seasons they directed the Little Theatre of Jamestown, N. Y., which, under their leadership, gained a national reputation for excellence.

Dr. Percy H. Warren has been appointed dean of Madison College in Harrisonburg, Virginia. Prior to his appointment, he served as dean of the summer school and head of the College's biology department. After graduating from William and Mary, he received his M.A. and Ed. D. degrees from Columbia University. In announcing his appointment, President G. Tyler Miller said: "While on our faculty, Dr. Warren has not only been an effective teacher, but has also demonstrated outstanding qualities as an administrator. His professional and community activities have been broad and varied . . . throughout the state. He is an able and effective public speaker who is much in demand, and he is truly a religious man, who holds the position of president of the Episcopal Churchmen of the Diocese of Virginia. Because of his outstanding qualifications and the high regard in which he is held by the students, faculty, administrative staff, alumnae and friends of Madison College, and by educators in other colleges throughout the Virginia public school system, in my opinion, Dr. Percy H. Warren is eminently qualified for the position of dean of Madison College."

Miss Alice Rae Tudor is the new director of the tourist placement bureau of the Williamsburg Chamber of Commerce. For the past nine years, she has been manager of the E. I. du Pont de Nemours factory cafeteria in Martinsville, Virginia.

1931 Marie Angela Vacarelli (LeCompte) has been re-elected treasurer of the Williamsburg Mental Hygiene Society.

1932 Roy R. Charles of Norfolk, Virginia, secretary of the Board of Visitors of the College, recently addressed campaign workers at the "kickoff" meeting of the Williamsburg-James City Red Cross. He also helped launch the Richmond (Va.) area fund drive.

Duncan M. Cocke has been re-elected president of the Williamsburg Chamber of Commerce.

W. Brooks George has been named executive vice-president of Larus and Brother Co., Inc. in Richmond (Va.). He has been serving as assistant to the president and comptroller of the firm.

1935 James Wilson Crump has been named principal of Thomas Dale School, Chester, Virginia, where he received his diploma 23 years ago. He has been assistant principal of the school for more than four years. Following his graduation from William and Mary, he was awarded his master of science degree from Kansas University. He also attended graduate school at the University of Virginia. He has served as principal of two smaller Chesterfield County high schools, as a school board supervisor, and as a mathematics teacher.

1936 Norman J. M. Murray is assistant superintendent of schools, Union County, New Jersey.

Warfield Winn and his wife, Lelia Frances Barnett (Winn), '38X, recently marked their fifteenth anniversaries with Colonial Williamsburg, Inc. He is comptroller in the hotel services' accounting office, while his wife is serving as administrative assistant to the visitor accommodations auditor. Winn was captain of the basketball team while at William and Mary, a member of F.H.C. Society, and a member of Pi Kappa Alpha fraternity.

Norma Elizabeth Waltrip (Matthews) is the first woman ever to seek a seat on Williamsburg's City Council. She is one of seven candidates for the five Council posts in the election scheduled for June 8. She is president of the Young Woman's Club of Williamsburg, a member and past president of the Girl Scout Council, a trustee of the Williamsburg Area Memorial Community Center, and a founder of the local youth center. Other candidates for the Council seats are Mayor H. M. Stryker, '18X, Lloyd H. Williams, '28Ba, both incumbents, and Yelverton O. Kent, '31Bs.

Dr. William L. Davidson has been appointed research director of the Westvaco Chlor-Alkali Division of Food Machinery and Chemical Corporation. Prior to his appointment, he was director of the Office of Industrial Development of the Atomic Energy Commission in Washington. He was previously associated with B. F. Goodrich Company and Monsanto Chemical Company. Following his graduation from William and Mary, he received his Ph. D. degree in physics in 1940 from Yale University.

Mills E. Godwin, Jr., of Suffolk, Virginia, served as chairman of the 1954 Jefferson-Jackson Day dinner, the fund-raising celebration staged annually by Virginia Democrats. One of the younger members of the Virginia State Senate, he was elected in 1952 to fill the vacancy created when A. E. S. Stephens, '22X, resigned to become Lieutenant-Governor. A lawyer and former FBI agent, he has served in Virginia's House of Delegates since 1948.

1937 Margaret Jane Lewis (Kruse)'s husband has been appointed an assistant naval attaché in London for two years. After April 30, her address will be Navy 100, Box 49, Fleet Post Office, New York, New York.

Margie Beggs (Brice) reports from Pittsburgh that Margaret Doran (Firth) has an exercise program on WDTV, Pittsburgh. Margie hopes to return to Williamsburg in June—first trip back since graduation. She has two small daughters—Candace, 7 and Mellisa, 5. Her husband is Publication Chief at Westinghouse.

John F. Townsend owns and operates the Queenfield Dairy Farm in King William County. He and his wife, the former Mary Helsobeck, have three boys and a girl.

From Charles Town, W. Va., Alma Lee Strider (Christian) reports she is busy with Red Cross, planning for a District Church meeting in May and a Conference in June. That plus being a Home Room Mother for her son's seventh grade will really have her ready to enjoy her month's visit to Ocean City, Md. in August.

Malcolm D. Wall is Air Force Historian for Arnold Engineering Development Center, Tullahoma, Tenn. He and Jane have three children Edward Stanley, 12, Barbara Jane, 10, and Anne Wilson, 5.

Are there any William and Mary Alumni in the vicinity of Lynchburg? Hester E. White is Medical Records Librarian at the Lynchburg General Hospital now and says that during the year she has been there Dr. Frank Buck, Class of 1937, is the only other W.&M. graduate she has been able to contact.

From Arlington comes word from Nancy Bastress (Zepul) that she has been married since 1942 and has two girls, Anita, 8, and Patricia, 6. So nice to hear from you, Nancy!

Can anyone tell me the address of Rebecca Williams?

After a seven-month absence Charles Troxell has returned as director of Music at Grace Baptist Church, Richmond, where he has served for twenty-three years.

Mildred Albee (Babb) is in the South again—Lake Park, Ga., enjoying the fishing and swimming in the lake in their own front yard. While in New York, Mildred talked to Carol McCoy (Auer), who said she often sees Jane Suderland and Doris Campbell.

Lieutenant Commander Cecil Clay Abbott, Jr., is with the Electrical Engineering Department at the U. S. Naval Academy in Annapolis, Maryland.

Gordon E. Morehouse is regional sales director for Television Station KHOL-TV in Holdrege, Nebraska. He obtained his law degree at William and Mary in 1938 after completing his undergraduate work at Nebraska Wesleyan University and the University of Wyoming. After seven years in the U. S. Army, he entered the Nebraska Reserves as a Major. He was graduated from Beck's School of Radio and the American Institute of the Air in Minneapolis prior to entering the radio field as newscaster and salesman for Radio Station KJKJ in Webster City, Iowa. He was also sales manager for Station KOIL in Omaha.

That is all the news for now—let me hear from the rest of you at your very first opportunity. One hundred post cards are drifting around the country somewhere—I'd like to see them answered soon.

We're all glad to hear Jim Barnes is better—stay that way!

And a welcome to Roger Dudley, our new Managing Editor.

J. Warren Littleton was recently named principal of the new Princess Anne, Virginia, High School. Serving his seventh year with the Princess Anne County School system, he was formerly principal of a Norfolk County school and before that a teacher in Nansemond County. After receiving his A.B. degree at William and Mary, he was awarded an M.A. degree from the University of Virginia.

The scarcity of news for this issue is my fault since I failed to get out the post-cards. However, there are a few odd bits of information picked up hither and yon. Gene Ellis sends his best regards to all from Hartford, Conn. He works at Pratt and Whitney Aircraft in East Hartford. Jack McCarthy and Jack Purtill also work there. Gene was married in June 1949. He imparted the sad news that Steve Smith, 40X, died of a heart attack last spring leaving a wife and two small children.

Jane Jackson (Miller) is busy in Springfield, Mass., with two enterprising youngsters and very much community work. She hopes someday to get back to a Homecoming—as don't we all?

Dick Earle ran into Jimmy Hargis briefly in N. Y. last May. Jimmy was about to ship out to Venezuela on some construction work. He's still single and travels all over the world for a construction contractor. No wonder my card was returned!

Christmas cards with no note from Art Kneip in Oak Park, Mich. and Douglas Finklestone in Stamford, Conn.

Kitty Koontz (Epperson), who moves around all over the state has returned to Altavista to live for a while. We had a nice chat on the phone last night. I've had exceptional luck in seeing W.&M. friends lately. Bill Edwards was in Altavista on business recently and stopped by for a visit and Louise Eppinger (Nuernberger) '40, and Eldon stayed with us for a very brief while on their way to South Carolina on a business trip. How delightful it is to reminisce!

recent illness of Jim Barnes, our Alumni Secretary. We're all wishing you renewed strength and good health in the months ahead, Jim.

Mildred Anne

Many thanks to those of you who sent Christmas greetings. The following are excerpts from your Christmas notes:

Patty Nichols (Curcuru) visited Barbara Anderson (Cook) last fall and saw her "nice new home" in Albany, N. Y. Patty and husband Ed have also moved into a new house in Highland Falls and are glad to have "a bit more room for our tribe of boys." Hunt Curtis and wife, Peg, stopped by to see Patty and Ed a few weeks before Christmas. Hunt has left his teaching position at West Point and is now at Dartmouth doing research work.

Cleo Tweedy (Stuart) left Columbus, Indiana last July when her husband received his overseas orders. Gil is now in Germany and Cleo hopes soon to join him with her infant son. She expects to be in Germany for the next three years.

Winifred Andrew (Yarger) is an elementary teacher in Norfolk. Her husband, Chuck, teaches school, too. They spend the vacation months in Charlottesville where Chuck has been doing graduate work. He expects to receive his masters' degree this summer.

Margaret Lucas often sees Virginia Longino who lives just around the corner from her. Virginia has become "almost as confirmed a San Franciscan" as Margaret.

Joyce Mathes (Malcolm) spent a month in California last summer and saw Betsy Wakeman (Serbell) and her two daughters. Joyce has three daughters herself, now 6½, 4½, and 2.

Louise Wallace (Richards) has moved to Los Angeles where husband Bob is a staff psychiatrist with the V.A. Hospital. They have a "roomy apartment" in Westwood Village near the U.C.L.A. campus. They flew east last August for visits with their families in New York and Richmond. Louise finds that Donnie, age 1, leaves her very little leisure but she has managed to give some time to her hobbies of refinishing furniture and developing her own pictures.

Irene Buchan (Thompson) sent a fascinating description of their new home in Springfield, Virginia, near Washington. She says, "We did a tremendous amount of research to find what we thought were just the right kinds of materials and fixtures, and feel that we have achieved exactly the result we wanted. The architect calls it a Southern plantation cottage and it does look exactly like the smaller buildings which were always clustered around the plantation mansion. It hugs the side of a hill which affords a magnificent view. We love living in the country. Many of the creatures of the woods come right to our door." Irene is still employed on Capitol Hill and husband Loren is in the real estate business. They both continue as active members of the Naval Reserve and Irene teaches one evening a week at the Washington School for Secretaries.

Theo Kelcey (Dean) has had a busy year keeping up with Bruce, her small son, and doing Service League work in Westfield, N. J. in her spare time. The Deans have exchanged visits with Margaret Mitchell Mollenkopf and family who live in Princeton.

Mary Ruth Black (Dowling) hoped to be in her new home on the Severn River by February 1st. Lynne, her little daughter, has "tried everything from eating the bait off a mouse trap to climbing in the kitchen cupboards and sitting on the shelves." I know what you mean, Mary Ruth. Last week Edgar and I found Betty sitting in the middle of a quart of white paint she had overturned on the kitchen floor! The Dowlings flew to Seattle and San Francisco last summer to visit husband Marshall's family.

Sally Bet Walker (Lawson) is enjoying being in the South again while her husband is a Naval instructor at Duke University. Sally and Dunbar live in Durham only a few blocks from Ben and Fran Read whom they see frequently.

Alice Walton (Swift) wrote a much appreciated letter from Irvington, N. Y. She often sees Mary Turner Morgan (Cokely) who also lives on the Hudson in Yonkers. Alice has two sons who keep her quite busy. She was in Williamsburg briefly last spring on her way home from a Florida vacation. Alice's note was a spontaneous one written in the fall. I wish more of you would follow her example!

Richard McMath Mears, who is associate professor of English at Catawba College, will receive the degree of doctor of philosophy in June from the University of North Carolina. He, and his wife, Harriett Elizabeth Murray (Mears), and family were recent visitors to the campus. They have a four-year-old son and one-year-old daughter.

Chester S. Baker, Jr., has been named registrar for the city of Williamsburg.

1943 George L. Sisson, Jr., is president and general manager of Radio Station WALE, Narragansett Broadcasting Company, in Fall River, Massachusetts. The company also publishes a weekly newspaper, The Fall River Transcript. He entered the radio broadcasting field after serving with the U. S. Navy.

Louis Butterworth was recently named Hopewell, Virginia's outstanding young man of 1953. He is connected with an auto sales business in Hopewell and is active in various civic activities.

Martha Newell has joined the staff of the Virginia Museum of Fine Arts in Richmond as public information officer. After graduating from William and Mary, she received her M. F. A. from Richmond Professional Institute where her play, "Angel From Hell," was written and produced. She spent a summer at Rice Playhouse, Martha's Vineyard, where she directed a season of classical comedies during the George Bernard Shaw Festival. Her play was produced a second time at the Green Mountain Playhouse, Middlebury, Vermont. Prior to returning to Richmond, she was a theatrical agent in New York.

Carolyn Marie Armitage, of Richmond, Virginia, has been elected to a top office among Virginia junior clubwomen. She was named secretary of the Lee District, Virginia Federation of Women's Clubs at the group's annual spring meeting held at the Hotel Jefferson in Richmond.

J. E. Sandlin is assistant comptroller of Robbins Mills, Inc., in Clarksville, Virginia.

Jacqueline Fowlkes (Herod) (former class secretary) has been elected first vice-president of the Junior League of Richmond. As reported in the December issue of the GAZETTE, she is also serving as vice-president of the Society of the Alumni.

James Edgar Pointer, Jr., has recently been named Commonwealth's Attorney for Gloucester County, Virginia, after serving as acting Commonwealth's Attorney for more than a year. A practicing attorney in Gloucester County for five years, he received his law degree from William and Mary in 1949. During World War II, he served with the U. S. Navy as a Lieutenant (jg) in the Pacific theater. He is married and has two sons, ages five and three.

Marge

Let's all be in Williamsburg in June!! A letter from Class President Prickett Carter Saunders sounds an urgent request for volunteers to help on the committee. Please give her some support on this thing—it'll be more fun that way. Write her at: Lagarde Apts., G-1, Anniston, Alabama. Barbara Durling stopped to see Prickett before Christmas. Barbara still works in Hampton. She's chairman of the 10th Reunion and welcomes any suggestions from classmates. Contact her at 264 Regent Street, Hampton, Virginia.

Marge Lentz Plitt had a little boy last August—that makes two boys and a girl. Marge says Ed enjoys practicing law by himself and reports that Fran Pendleton Elliott also has a recent baby.

Gene Hutton Lentz has been in Germany, where her husband, an Air Force Major, was stationed. She has two boys.

Hallie Vaughan Rennie Martin has a son. They moved to Chatham, N. J., in February.

Nancy Throckmorton is secretary to the manager of the Cavalier Hotel at Virginia Beach.

Marian Ross Karrick's husband is in Korea and she and her two daughters are dividing their time between parents in St. Louis and California.

Jack and Liz Bellis have been in New Haven since July, '53, where he is finishing his last two years of psychiatric residency with the VA and Yale. After that he will continue with psychiatric training and some combination of private practice and research. Liz is doing research for Redlick and Hollingshead at Yale on "Mental Illness and Social Structure." They're living "on the third floor of one of those Chas. Adams houses New England is famous for—cold in winter, hot in summer, but plenty of space."

Hannah Leonard Merrick is back in their house in Norfolk. Jack has sea duty on the Valley Forge. Before that, he was in line school, and Hannah reports they had fun during that time.

Pris Schumacher Beringer is now at home at 800 Fenimore Road, Larchmont, N. Y., where she gets about very well in her wheel chair.

Midge Webster Hoffmeier and Hank came home from Europe in January, 1953. They made it to Spain and St. Moritz before leaving. They are now settled about 20 miles east of Cleveland in Fowler's Mill. They have a three-acre place with a 110-year-old farmhouse they're re-decorating and remodeling. Hank works in East Cleveland for Tow Motor. Midge visited Mary Wilson Carver Sale in Pittsburgh a while back. Midge's address: RD2, Chardon, Ohio.

Gloria Tyler Robertson and Clayton have a new home in Portsmouth—904 Sterling Point Drive.

Freddy Steely Woodward has a girl and a boy now—her husband works for General Motors Institute where he is an instructor in the Plant Management Dept., and they are located at 2921 Lawndale, Flint, Mich.

Peg Horn Booth and Lin finished remodeling their kitchen in 1953, and also had a very productive garden. Their three older children are all in school now. Youngest is 1½.

Maureen Gothlin now has her own apartment in downtown Washington—a 3rd floor walk-up with working fireplace. She's the first newspaperwoman labor reporter in existence and history!—works for UP.

Marge Talle Merriman reports that Jack is on the P.T.A. executive committee, and has also started taking piano lessons. Son, Jackie, is also taking piano lessons—he is in 3rd Grade. He has a sister, Jennifer, and brother, Dean. Marge is editor of the monthly newsletter for the Delta Delta Delta Alliance in Baltimore.

Jule Sadler is busy with architectural work in N. Y.—was planning a visit to Lil Bourne LeFevre in Bethesda when he wrote.

Babbie Sanford Lewis went to live in Germany last April—was meeting fascinating people and picking up the language. Took a 16-day trip to Switzerland in June. Went to Salzburg and Bayreuth music festivals. Planned to go to London after Christmas.

Bill Baumann is active in P.T.A. work—Vice-President and Program Chairman.

Heard from Jean Burnside Eisenbeis almost a year ago. Her husband, George, is Sales Manager for Kanthal Corp. in Stamford, Conn.—manufacturers of high-resistance wire. Jean would like Billie Snead's latest address. (So would I.) Jean and George have two lovely adopted children. Their address: R.D. No. 2, Mount Kisco, N. Y.

Lebe Seay Grey is busy with community activities—Nurses' Aide in Blood Bank, Program Chairman for District XI of the Va. Conference of Social Work.

And Anne Peebles' name appears frequently in Virginia newspapers in connection with her outstanding Womans Club work. She was recently elected treasurer of the Virginia Federation of Women's Clubs.

Other classmates heard from at Christmas: Dot Agurk Edmonds, Billy Davison Cantlay, Jean Boyd McIntyre, Jeanne Mencke McAfee, Marilyn Miller Entwisle and John, Sally Snyder Vermilye, Nancy Norris Foster and Dick, and Jane Rohn Tobish.

Other William and Mary-ites heard from: Jane Cummins Heidingsfield and Mike, Paul Gantt, Carol Sterner Perry, Harvey Pope (he stopped with his wife and son to see us), Nat Sanford Hill, Bill Harding, Merritt Foster, Nora Spann Chandler and Bob, Corky Wampler, Marnie Bevans Kent and Jeannie Bevans, the Jim Skipwiths, the Bill Lucases, the Frank Shieldses, Jean Schoenewulf Preston, the Jim Abernathys, Nancy Speaks Tibbetts, Ann McLean Fluharty, Barb Anderson Cook, Marge Kellogg O'Hara, the Ed Fishers, Don Hahne, B. J. Jones Morrow, Pat Nichols Curcuru, Ollie Foster, Aud Hudgins Thompson, Betty Harris Heath, Kitty Brown Harris, Ruth Weimer Tillar, Lois Rea Gits and R. C. Williamson. Thought maybe you'd be as glad to know some of these people are "alive" as I was!!

Don't forget—this is our Tenth Reunion Year! (—you're really getting old if you're not enthusiastic about it! Don't admit it!!) And give to the William and Mary Fund in honor of those 10 years gone by. And write to your Class Secretary (news from Wayne and me consists of the new son, Dave, and his two-year-old brother, Wayne III. Needless to say, we keep busy.)

Let's make our 10-year Reunion "the most" and "the greatest." See you in June!

While this reporter was stomping around the Orient (Hong Kong, the Philippines, Japan, and that exotic spot, San Francisco) on a few light-hearted, footloose visits from September to January, mail was stacking up at home. If yours was not acknowledged in last GAZETTE's column, written from Hong Kong, it should find its way into this greeting from ol' Virginy.

In October Dr. M. F. Torregrosa wrote a nice letter catching us up on a long-silent classmate, his son Manuel. In 1947 Manuel received his MA from Georgetown University and in 1951, also from G. U., his Ph.D. in political science and international relations. Congratulations, a bit late, Manuel! He is a research analyst for the Air Force in the Pentagon. The youngest Greenbrier Military School alumnus in Washington, he organized and is first president of the Washington alumni chapter of that school. He has also been elected to an honorary fraternity in history.

The class extends sympathy to Eddie McChesney in the sudden death of her mother in Washington last November. Eddie and her cousin traveled in Jordan, Lebanon, and Egypt last fall, and Eddie returned to Beirut to find a typical Lebanese fall season of heavy horizontal rain.

907 Crescent Drive, Alexandria, Virginia, is the exact address of Dot Raymond (Puchrik—Mrs. A. S.) which we mentioned more vaguely last fall.

A new address for Judy Sullivan (Murray—Mrs. W. J.) gives only one clue—that she's out of the country. Well, Judy, what does give? The address is 1604 Instl. Sqdn., APO 856, Postmaster, New York.

Here's good news to some long-waiting Gamma Phis. The "Que Pasa?" letter has caught its second wind, after a few years' moratorium, and is off on its appointed rounds. Kay Tomlinson (Bartlett) sends the news. On the way north from Charleston, where Bart had Navy duty, Kay and her family stopped in Roanoke in October to see Mary Jane Chamberlain (Howard). After short visits to both sets of parents, Bart is back on the job for the Sun Oil Company at Marcus Hook and Kay is making plans for their new house on Oriole Road in Broomall, Pennsylvania. They won't be far from Ginny Baureithel (Leopold), and Kay is also near her sister-in-law, Alice White (Tomlinson) and thus sees her frequently, too. Peg Johnson (Smart) had just written Kay of having a big Christmas family reunion at her and Bud's place for all grandparents to enjoy the holiday antics of two-year-old Anne.

Dinny Lee had a marvelous trip to Europe in September and did a bit of traveling through Ireland, along with other appealing spots. Dinny's now at 11 Greenview Avenue, Princeton, N. J.

Have we published this address before for Fran Loesch (Brunner)—and Bob and little Susan, of course—831 Willow Grove Road, Westfield, New Jersey?

4819 Flanders Avenue, Kensington, Maryland, is Cary Hughes (Opitz's) new address, and her letter heralds the fourth child in the Opitz family! Last summer Cary visited Getta Hirsch (Doyle) and Sheila Keane and also saw Beth McClelland McCorkle. Sheila was working with Crowell-Collier publications.

Marion Lang (Van Dam) has sent us several scoops. (It seems that the Chi O. Round Robin is thriving. More power to it!) She wrote that there was a testimonial luncheon attended by many alumnae for Mrs. Lambeth, who retired last June after twenty years as Chi Omega housemother. Mrs. Lambeth's address will be The Chesterfield, 900 West Franklin St., Richmond 20, Va. We know she'll be missed at school.

Last March the Begors (Mary Raney) visited the Van Dams, and, in May, Marion and her family came down to Alexandria to return the visit. Roland was studying Tagalog at Georgetown and in June received orders to go to Clark Field, where Mary and the boys planned to join him in December, passing Christmas on the high seas. While visiting down in these parts Marion reun-ed with Mary G. Jones (Vliet), Mary E. Jones (Prince)—Slizzie lives in Baltimore with husband and two lovely children—Phyllis Ebling (Tavel), Doris Brandt, Tina Jones (Cann), Lee Ann Avery (Merryfield), and Ann Anderson. Lee Ann's husband is working for his Ph.D. and doing research at the Library of Congress. Mary G. Jones's husband is a Falls Church high school teacher.

In May Marion and Ted went to Jeanie Boyle's wedding to Tom Herbert, with Betty Willcox (D'Agostino) and Doc, and Ginger Prickett (Cage) and Lee. It was a fine reunion, and the wedding was reported in glowing terms, too. The new couple have bought a home at: RD No. 1, Box 45 A, Welsh Road, Huntingdon Valley, Penna.

Betty and Doc now live at 80 Wilson Place, Irvington, New Jersey, because of a new transfer for Doc. Ginger and Lee and their four children have moved from West Point to Fort Sill, Oklahoma.

The Tavel had a Vermont vacation last summer, stopping on the way to visit the Van Dams.

Ruth Schmitz (Kern) and Jim are back in their home in La Mesa, California, with their two children, Jim having been released from active duty.

Kay Leavey (Hite) and her husband are probably by now living in the house they were building in Honolulu.

5 Ridge Drive, Chappaqua, N. Y., is Mal Mallory (Carroll's) address.

Martha Macklin (Smith) and her architect husband Herbert have drawn up plans for a new home. Last summer they, with the two sons, vacationed in Hot Springs.

Betty Aurell (Schutz) was in Virginia last summer, after the birth of her fifth child. Henry took courses at Quantico. They got together with the Begors.

Nancy Outland (Chandler's) new address is 1130 Bolling Avenue, Norfolk.

Willie Anne Boschen (Wright), Jack, and family transferred to Florida last spring.

With the news of the arrival of third child Margaret, Jean Taylor (Delahanty) wonders if the announcement of Terrence, first son, second child, was published. Taffy says the three take up her current activities. Small wonder!

Mary Margaret Alsop (Hubbard) has been elected vice-president of the May L. Kellar Alumnae Club of Pi Beta Phi Sorority in Richmond.

A traveling mutual friend, a Marine from our college days, brings news that Mary Jane Chamberlain (Howard) and Vaughan have a beautiful white Colonial home and three sweet boys in Roanoke, where Vaughan has a fine job wholesaling.

It's back to work for this one, having a job waiting for me on my return. It's administrative assistant to the manager of a national television audience and market research company, the American Research Bureau. One wonderful discovery during my trip I'd like to pass along to any potential gypsies; freighters are a fine and economical way to cross oceans—especially Filipino freighters!

Please don't forget the Fund. Seems that 17.8 per cent of us scraped up $536.50 last year, which wasn't the worst contribution—but let's better it this year! Write me every chance you get.

1946 Secretary,
SUZANNE FLORENCE MCGEACHIN
113 Delancey Avenue
Mamaroneck, New York

Once again we have started our way into a New Year, and at the risk of being repetitious, and trite, may I ask you to make a special resolution to drop me a line every so often, so that we may at least have a few words in each issue of the GAZETTE. Much to my dismay, as you no doubt noted, I had not a bit of news for the last issue, and we were therefore, conspicuously absent. Please keep in mind that we are all interested in each other, and want to keep up on your "comings and goings." No matter how dull you may think your activities are, you'd be surprised what good reading it makes compared to a blank page.

Christmas comes but once a year! As far as my pocketbook is concerned this is probably a good thing, but as far as letters from 46'ers—Christmas should happen more often. Thanks to all of you who sent cards—and a special thanks to you who had time to jot down a few words.

Bob and Shen Kressler (Henrichs) '47 have moved to Plainfield, N. J. Bob has been made Advertising manager of one of the department stores in Plainfield, and at the time of writing Shen was looking around for some freelance copy or promotion work. We are planning to get together soon.

Was so sorry to learn that Meg Megerle (Skidmore)'s, '47, husband, Steve, suffered a heart attack about three months ago. However Steve is up and about again now, and, I understand, has returned to work.

Jan Freer (Scantlebury) and Dick have moved to just outside Allentown, Penna., and have a new house. Dick is sales engineer for ALCOA in Allentown. Jan and Dick had a big get-together with Marcia Levering (Balzereit) over the holidays. Betty Lawson (Sallada) and Bud were there; also Dottie Hammer.

Polly Krotts (Wright) was very good to me as usual, and wrote that she and Mel got down to Homecoming this fall. Those two really got around. Amongst others they saw—Jacy Borman (Stroup), Joyce Remsberg (Shank), Dottie Hammer, Nancy Grube, Cecy Waddell (Cun-

Received a nice note from Janet Hilton (Antolick), and she brings us up to date as follows—Al, her husband, graduated from N.Y.U. last June, receiving his M.B.A. in Accounting and Finance. On October 6th, they added a new member to their family, Judy. Judy has a big brother, Arthur, who is almost three. Janet and Al just bought a seven-room house with two-car garage in Ridgewood, New Jersey, and they had planned to move around the middle of January. Their new address will be—332 Fairfield Avenue, Ridgewood, N. J. So glad to hear from you Janet.

Heard from Nancy Jackson (Gosselin), '48. She and Jack planned to have their new house ready by February 1st. Haven't gotten the address yet.

Eddie Harwood (Smith) enclosed a wonderful picture of Wendy, her little girl, with her note. She reports that she and Wendy spent some time in Charlottesville, last spring, visiting Jerrie Healy (Clay). Jerrie and her husband had just moved into a new house. Jerrie's husband is associated with General Electric. Edie also saw Lee Leidheiser (Gibbs) in Madison, N. J. Beebe Nelson (Judge), '45 and Ed were there too. Lee has two adopted sons.

Heard from our President, Nancy Grube, and first on her list was to announce to everyone that this spring will be our Reunion. Better start saving the pennies, and lining up the baby sitters for June. Do hope we can get a really good turnout. More of the details will follow, but just wanted you to keep it in mind. As usual Nancy gives little or no information as to herself, but does promise a long letter in the near future, so maybe we will get caught up on all of her Washington doings then.

Isabelle Clark (Borland), '47, and Nelson were in Norfolk for Christmas with Isabelle's family. They are now back in New York. Isabelle is working part time in a doctor's office, and we are able to get together every so often.

Sue Earls, '48, has just announced her engagement to George Grant Carr, of New York City, and they are planning a June wedding. I had dinner with Sue and Jean Mackay, '47, at their apartment in Gramercy Park the other night. The girls are really quite the chefs. Jean Mackay is now back in the "working fold," and is associated with NBC. Jean recently saw Pris Schumacher (Barranger), '44, at a party over the holidays.

Gene Hanofee, '44, is living in White Plains, N. Y. where he is associated with a law firm. Gene is active with the Community Theatre there.

For you that have not heard, it seems that Phi Beta Kappa Hall burned down to the ground recently, and plans are now being made for a new building.

Also we understand that Jim Barnes has not been too well, and I know I speak for everyone when wishing him a speedy recovery.

Don't forget the Reunion in June . . . and do WRITE.

Stanley H. Mervis is a patent attorney for the Polaroid Corporation. His current address is 36 Frederick Street, Newtonville 60, Massachusetts.

Benjamin L. Raimondi has been named official winner of Eversharp-Schick's 1953 distinguished salesman award. According to a communication from the company he performed "an exceptional selling job in all phases of his operation." The award was scheduled for presentation by James A. Farley, former United States postmaster general, during a special banquet at the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel in New York. His present address is 106A East 29th Street, Brooklyn 26, New York.

This letter is what you'd call being present in mind and absent in body. But at least it's a stab at keeping a column alive. You saw what happened in the last issue. At least we're present and voting in this one. Please let me have some news.

FUND ISSUE

Paul and I had a wonderful visit from Howard Hyle back in December just before we left Fort Monmouth. I wrote down items of interest with this letter in mind and proceeded to lose them somewhere between here and New Jersey. Anyway, Howard looked fine and is, I'm sure, Coca-Cola's most enthusiastic salesman.

Mary Stanton Willis (Doll) and Bobby have been living here in Louisville for over a year now. Bobby was sent here by the Bureau of Internal Revenue but as of January 1 has been associated with the law firm of Greenebaum, Barnett and Carroll doing tax work.

Took a quick trip up to Fort Wayne not long ago and had lunch with Weezie McNabb (Doermer). She was excited about moving into their new house that was to have been completed the following week.

Now for a review of Christmas cards—in May yet! Jo Wattles (Ash) and Dusty reported a wonderful time at Homecoming. Said the Alumni Dinner-Dance was a huge success and bears repeating next year.

Nora Spann (Chandler) wrote she and Bob were fine; however, to quote—"I find myself floating in diapers, picking up my feet to miss the little ones and their baggage, scrubbing crayon and pencil marks off walls, retrieving mysterious substances from Robbie's mouth, trying to keep Martha from choking him with one of her gentle caresses and in general running around like a chicken with her head cut off." Sound familiar?

Jack Fritz wrote that he was in and out of Princeton all last summer and is again teaching history at the University. In addition he is helping out the Phys. Ed. dept. by giving riding lessons to freshmen. He has a small apartment and was wondering how long it would be before he got ulcers from his own cooking. Fun!

Jane Coleman (Teach) and Charlie are still in Pittsburgh and have bought a house. Jane said Chet Giermak stopped by for an evening. He's in Summitt, Illinois, and has two children—William & Mary!

Tom Athey finishes law school in June. He took the December bar but said he wasn't optimistic.

Harriet Hinman (Eubank) and Hal just bought a house. World-rocking news, says Harriet. I believe it. I don't see how people ever manage these down-payments. The Eitels will still be in an apartment ten years from now at the rate we're going. Anyway, Harold has been offered an Assistant-Professorship as of July '54 so they will be at Brown for awhile longer. Their new address is 15 Florence St., Riverside, R. I. According to Harriet, for quite awhile they will be furnishing in "early attic and late hand-me-down periods." They've got lots of company there.

People are wonderful to send pictures of their children. I just love to get them. Mary Belford (Engler's) two boys look like a pair of live wires. They built a house out in the country (actually, just 1/2 hr. from downtown San Diego) and have been in it almost a year now. They have 2/3 acre and planted 70 trees last summer so spend most of the week end watering. In another three or four years they hope to have a little shade.

Barbara Hughes (Henritze) and Dave's two boys are leading them a merry chase. Says their apartment is getting smaller every day. Ralph Pasek was in Atlanta on business last October and came by for a visit. Fred Kovaleski was there early in January. He had been down in New Orleans for the Sugar Bowl tennis tournament. Barbie and Dave took a long week end not long ago down to Ponte Vedra and from there down to St. Augustine where they saw Ruth Maroney (Isaacs) and Duke, and Nancy and George Blanford. President Chandler wrote Dave to ask him to represent the College at the inauguration of the new President of Berry College at Rome, Ga. His cap, gown and hood had just arrived when Barbie wrote. That's a very nice honor and I know they were pleased.

Albert F. Lang has been appointed Northern Ohio automotive sales representative for the Berger Manufacturing Division of Republic Steel Corporation. He will handle the sale of all Berger Steel shelving units to automobile dealers throughout the northern half of Ohio. He and his wife are residing at 2274 Wooster Road in Cleveland.

Our only news is that we're civilians again—Pure Joy! And from the looks of things we'll be in Louisville for ever and ever which suits me just fine.

When you send in your check for the Fund this month, how about adding a line or two of news. The College will appreciate the check and I'll appreciate the news.

Part II

(With this issue, Eva takes over for Barbara E. Seifert. Keep her posted.—ED.)

At last I've collected all the implements necessary to the job and stand prepared (I sincerely hope) to serve as class secretary (Part II) for the class of 1949. All of your letters (though still not enough) have now come to me from the departing secretary, Barbara Seifert, who has done such a fine job, but has had to give up the privilege to finish her dental studies in a blaze of glory. Lots of luck to you, Seif!

From Jim Siske came a chatty and interesting letter. He is currently studying at the University of Virginia and sees the Bray twins who come up from Fork Union for night classes, as well as Johnny Copp who is doing graduate work in Charlottesville. Jim also tells us that Dennis Wine is now principal of the Buckroe Beach Junior High School.

Lois Settle (Kroehling) and husband are now settled in their new house in Haverton, Pennsylvania and have a son, Scott, born last May.

A Christmas card from Patty Wachtel (Fairlamb) in Pasadena, California tells of the fun they have with daughters Tricia, 15 months, and the latest addition, Priscilla.

A. Robert Doll is presently associated with the firm of Greenebaum, Barnett and Carroll with offices in Kentucky Home Life Building, Louisville 2, Kentucky. He was formerly a trial attorney, Appeals Division, and more recently acting attorney-in-charge, Louisville office, chief counsel's service, Internal Revenue Service.

Ash M. Wiley recently attended the American Institute of Insurance and Human Relations at the American First Casualty Home Office in Orlando, Florida. He was elected vice-president of a class consisting of 25 representatives from six southern states.

Knox Ramsey has been appointed a special agent with the New York Life Insurance Company, working from South Boston, Virginia. After making all-southern guard for three years at William and Mary and winning second team All-American honors, he played two years with the Los Angeles Dons, two years with the Chicago Cardinals, and two years with the Washington Redskins—building a great record in the National League. He married Betty Lu Brann, '50X, of South Boston and started in the baby business with the birth of a daughter in January of 1953. They followed through with twin sons last December. They bought a home some time ago in South Boston.

As for us, we're comfortably settled in Indianapolis, where Larry is enjoying his work as a biochemical engineer in the Eli Lilly antibiotics division, and I tend our home and very active 3½ year old son.

Do write to me often—just a card will do as long as we garner some news of your present location and activities. Also, if there are any alumni in the Indianapolis area I would enjoy having them contact us.

John W. Dayton, Jr., who is with the American Embassy at Amman, Jordan, was recently in Williamsburg during a two-month leave from the Arab state. He is assisting in press relations for the State Department, being one of two persons attached to the Amman embassy press section. Among the distinguished guests he has met during his two years there have been Adlai Stevenson, Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt, and Eric Johnson. He has visited Cairo, Damascus, Beirut, and Kabul, Afghanistan since leaving this country in 1948. Planning a career of State Department service, John is returning to Jordan for another two years. (Also see Transition.)

1951 Secretary,
BETTY LEE HICKS (WAGNER)
Until further notice:

Just two issues ago I gave you an address that I thought would be good for several years, but our stay in Kinston only lasted ten months. Allan has been transferred to a new duPont plant being constructed in Parlin, N.

Betty

J. which will produce X-ray and photographic film from a polyester base. We have a home in Plainfield, but no address as yet, because it's too new to have one. Until we can move in (probably the middle of May),

I can be reached at the temporary address above.

Many thanks for your Christmas greetings. Just wish Christmas came four times a year—just before each deadline.

Nancy Walton (Fricke) is teaching sixth grade this year. George will finish interning in June and that will mean the end of her teaching career. Then she'll be able to devote all her time to child care.

Charlotte Walker (Hill) has a job with the City Treasurer in Newport News.

Mike Warfield is still going to med school and says there's nothing like it. She worked as a junior interne in a hospital in Norfolk last summer.

Tita Cecil (Myers) and Clark have been in D. C. where Clark will soon graduate from the Naval Russian Language School as an Interpreter. Then they know not what. Clark still has two years to go in the Navy. They've had time for short trips to the Burg and Norfolk and Tita saw Jan Laskey (Smith) and Susan Rose (Pirkle).

Teddy Nicas gave up the job at Fort Lee last August and went up to VMI in the fall to help manage the Post Exchange. At the time of her note she said they were awaiting the opening of their new restaurant, "The Crater Restaurant" across from the Crater National Park on highway 460, east of Petersburg.

Jean Murphy (Meili) wrote that Pat Daversa (Landers) breezed in to her apartment one night for a looksee because one just like it was vacant upstairs. Pat moved into the vacancy and now they see right much of each other.

Charlie Jett went into the Air Force as a Lt. in Sept. '52 and has been at Mountain Home AFB in Idaho since last July.

After two wonderful years in Mexico with the Army Attaché System Betty Swecker came home for Christmas and a vacation. In April she expects to head down to El Salvador for two years, doing much the same type of work that she did in Mexico. Betty recommends Mexico to anyone who has three weeks and wants a nice vacation. She says the climate is perfect, the people are carefree, and life goes along at a slow and easy pace.

Pat Davis (Cabaniss) has moved around frequently, but is now living in LaJolla, Calif.

Much of this news dates back to Homecoming, but I decided if you hadn't heard it, you'd be glad for it—even though it has whiskers.

Joe Benedetti is back from Korea. A jeep turned over on him, but after some time in the hospital he was as good as new. He's out of the Army now and working for the Ford Co. in Richmond.

Marianna Brose returned from England in November.

Jim Carter is finishing law school this year.

Hugh deSamper is working with the Educational Foundation at the College while holding down his position with the Virginia Gazette.

Adelaide Jennings left her government job in Washington to work for the Life Insurance Company of Virginia in Richmond.

Rolfe Kennard is still working in Williamsburg.

Nick Laveris is out of the Army and is resting up from the ordeal. Bob McNamara is out of the Marines now too.

"J. P." Morgan is back from Korea, out of the Army, and down Knoxville way.

Bob Myers is planning to take the bar exam soon.

Tom Owens is working for Esso in NYC.

Charlie Poland got out of the service last May and has gone back to school.

Bill Schroeder is working for a paper container company in Richmond.

Bob Tiffany is out of the service and so is Stretch Vescovi. Stretch's last bit of duty was at Camp Pickett, so he visited school frequently. He says Cabby Miluskewicz is about to marry a little German gal.

Bob Zoll is teaching school and coaching in Norfolk.

B. J. Bennett (Stewart) and Jimmy are living in Wilmington while he is a ministerial student at Union Baptist Theological Seminary in Philadelphia.

Bernie Nolan is also in Wilmington. He's an up and coming young businessman with the Diamond Ice & Coal Co. On the side he does graduate work at Delaware in their school of business. He sees Dean Hocutt now and then.

M. A. Hogshire (Lex) and Buddy are in Norfolk now.

Jim Kelly joined the nylon sales division of the textile fibers department of the duPont Co. after his release from the Marines. He's in Wilmington now, gaining experience, but expects to go to a district office before too long.

Others seen at Homecoming were Betsy Graves (Hornesby), Stan Garrison, Katherine Bell (Martin), Joan Carpenter (Dollard), Tita Cecil (Myers), Charles Finn, Ralph Hart, Roy Jones, Walt Milkey, Janice Quick (Pickrell), and Jim Smith. It must have been a terrific Homecoming. It makes you wish our next reunion would come along real soon.

The grapevine tells me that Tip Hill is out of the Marines and working in Ohio.

Ina Saville (Pitts') new address is in care of Lt. J. R. Pitts, 064202, Hdqs. 43rd Div. Arty., APO 112, c/o Postmaster, New York, New York.

Robert W. McNamara, a first lieutenant in the United States Marine Corps Reserves, has been named executive officer of a new Virginia Peninsula Marine Corps Reserve unit. A rifle platoon leader with the First Marine Division in Korea, he later served on the staff of the Division Intelligence Office. He is working with the Associates Discount Corporation on the Virginia Peninsula. He's married to the former Martha Helmer of Newport News.

I was asked to control the length of this column, so I'd best hush up before someone trims a few inches with the scissors. Do want to add, though, that the 1954 Fund drive will be made in May and that the Class of '51 should really help out in a big way this year. Then too, if there are a few spare dollars floating around, your aid in the reconstruction of Phi Beta would be greatly appreciated.

Harris Verner received his master of business administration degree in finance and banking from the Wharton Graduate Division of the University of Pennsylvania in February. He visited William and Mary recently on his way to Florida. He was scheduled to report for service in the U. S. Army during the Spring. While at Penn, he saw Vince Romano, '51Ba, Phil Struthers, '54X, and Mary Wells Detwiler, '53X.

Ronald E. Barnes, a corporal with the U. S. Army in Korea, recently delivered hundreds of toys and games, donated by William and Mary co-eds, to a group of Korean orphans. He is assigned as an information specialist with the Korea Civil Assistance Command, the organization which annually handles millions of dollars worth of relief goods and equipment for the rehabilitation and reconstruction of war-torn South Korea.

Hi again. Hope you all enjoyed Homecoming Weekend with its festivities and get-togethers. I was sorry to have missed it and have been hoping for news on that subject—but no luck. Many thanks for your letters and post cards since then. Here's the class info contained in them.

Barbara

Helen Barber (Stabile) writes all the way from Pittsburgh where husband Jack is attending Law School at the University. Helen began work in October in the Orphans Court there. The "smoky city" holds no further news of our class, but the Stabiles did talk with "Hy" Wardwell, '51, during his stay in town and with "Bitsy" Lewis, '51, who at the time was on his way back to Fort Lee.

Jim Shatynski wrote a long and much welcomed letter of the W.&M. '53 graduates stationed at Fort Sill, Oklahoma. Graduation was November 6th which meant new appointments: Pete Hino to Camp Carlson, Colorado; "Marty" Irons to Fort Bragg, North Carolina; Jim Apostolou and Tony Vujevick to an overseas assignment; "Mo" Maddox to the Far East; and "Shag" (Jim) and John Wilkinson to Fort Bliss, Texas. Gale Carriethers remained at Fort Sill to attend an advanced school. Seems like W.&M. is represented everywhere!

Last reports gave Scott Petrequin's whereabouts as U. S. Army, Fort Knox, Kentucky. He and Caroline Young were married December 21st in Columbia, Connecticut. Speaking of Kentucky, Nan Evans is working on her Master's Degree in English at the University of Lexington and finds herself kept definitely occupied.

Iris Friedman sends a letter from Portsmouth where she is teaching second grade and loving every minute of learning how to cope with children's problems. She also finds time to take a night course in Religion at W.&M.'s Norfolk Division.

Jayne Baker (Lewis), '54, writes that husband Tommy is stationed with the Army at Aberdeen, Maryland but soon will leave for O.C.S. possibly at Fort Benning, Georgia. Meanwhile Jayne is living in Phoebe and anxiously awaits Tommy's discharge from the Army.

Alexandria is Lee Bradley's new home where the Atlantic Research Corporation claims her time. She likes very much her job in the purchasing department. February 6th was the date for announcing her engagement to Dave Wakefield, '52. They have no definite plans until Dave is discharged in May. Best of luck and congratulations!

Elaine Williams tells of life at Bryn Mawr's Graduate Center where she is working toward a Master's Degree in Philosophy. It is a very cosmopolitan group, she writes, of girls from about twenty different countries. What unforgettable experiences she must be having.

Received a Christmas card all the way from Honolulu where Emmy Ketterson (Smith) is living with husband-teacher Dan. He seems to be a busy man what with teaching five Math classes, coaching tennis, and directing the boy's glee club. Quite different from New Jersey living, Emmy!

Seen at "T" Marston's wedding in October were Peggy and Bob Mitchell.

News from Trenton, New Jersey, and the Hasemeyer household is that Ruth is now Mrs. Hardy Cofer. She and Hardy are living in Asheville, North Carolina, where he is selling insurance for the Reserve Life Insurance Company. Ruth also works and is employed by a bank there. Hardy previously was under contract to the Brooklyn Dodgers and played on the Asheville farm team last summer. They are waiting to see what spring will bring in the way of an offer to further Hardy's baseball career.

Heard much news from New York City again: Judy Robinson is working on the executive training squad at Bloomingdale's Department Store. She shares an apartment on West End Avenue with two friends from her hometown, Braintree, Massachusetts. Sounds as if Judy enjoyed her summer trip to the west coast and the stop-offs with Nan Ellis (Smith), "Bebe" Fisher, and Ginny Campbell. George Ritzel's letter tells of the W.&M. Alumni cocktail party at the Beekman Towers where he saw "Liz" Sacalis. It's a small world, for George writes of Dave Berend's, '52, applying for work with the same insurance company! Still, Williamsburg is not forgotten, for George, Ed Aubin, and George Vakos usually head that way for big week ends. George Vakos is stationed at nearby Bayonne, New Jersey; Ed is working toward his master's at N.Y.U.

Nona Schulse (Besse) says that Brad Besse is also at graduate school at N.Y.U., thanks to a commission in the Air Force. They were married last October.

Dot Hagberg (Bower) and Navy husband Dick have traveled from Norfolk to Palsboro, New Jersey, to New York. They now have an apartment on Long Island and will remain there until Dick's shore duty is completed.

Other last minute news from New York City: Ann Helms is working at Macy's Department Store. Carol James is hoping to find work in the city and meanwhile will share apartment living with Pat Hitchcock, '52, and Elaine Diehm, '52.

John Flanagan has moved from Fort Bliss to Fort Meyer, Virginia.

"Jan" McGowan (Sawyer) is living in Williamsburg until husband Jay finishes law school at W.&M.

From California comes the marriage announcement of Wayne Boyle to U. Va's Joe Palumbo. Joe's Army orders were for the Far East, but now he is out of the service. They're living in Santa Ana and are much in favor of the west coast.

Dave Potts sends a card from Fort Harrison, Indiana where he is stationed with the associate company officer's course.

From Fort Bragg, North Carolina, Ginnie Gary (Lupton) writes me that Ed had been temporarily in Georgia on maneuvers. During that time Ginnie went back to Richmond, her home, to work. Latest Army orders for them are at least one year's service at Bragg.

Augusta, Georgia was the southern scene for Julia Hagler's wedding to Paul Vase on June 13th. They are now in Fairbanks, Alaska where Paul will be stationed with the Army for two years.

Barry Wilson has an assistantship on the graduate staff at Cornell University where he hopes to obtain an M.A. Degree in Dramatic Production. In addition to his theatrical experience at W.&M., he acted in The Common Glory and other productions during the summer months spent in Williamsburg.

Another Master's Degree—in Philosophy—this time worked on by Bob Turvene at Yale Graduate School.

The last bit of news is from Richmond where Nance Carden is teaching first grade at Patrick Henry School.

Will close for now and hope to hear from everyone in time for the May issue. News about Jay and me is that we'll have a new addition to the family.

James C. Daniel, William T. W. Fennell, Robert H. Mahaffy, and Gerald R. Simpson recently received their commissions as Ensigns at the U. S. Naval Officer Candidate School in Newport, Rhode Island.

Elizabeth King (Hundley) and husband Posie James Hundley, Jr., '54Ba, are living at 1706 Sheridan Road, Lawton, Oklahoma. He is stationed at Fort Sill, Oklahoma. (Also see Transition.)

Elaine Williams of Bala-Cynwyd, Pa., has been awarded a resident graduate scholarship by Bryn Mawr College for the academic year beginning next September. She received one of 54 awards in the Graduate School which went to fellows and scholars from throughout the world.

1954 Thomas N. Hunnicutt, III, has been commissioned a second lieutenant in the Corps of Engineers, U. S. Army, at Fort Belvoir, Virginia. He entered the Army in March, 1953, and entered Officers' Candidate School last October. While a student in OCS, he was editor of his classbook and was selected as the student battalion commander at a retirement parade for Maj. Gen. Stanley L. Scott, Fort Belvoir commanding general.

"William and Mary"

William and Mary, they sat on one throne,
You can't think of one of the couple alone,
How seldom we've heard of
William the Third,
How rarely we've reckoned with
Mary the Second,
But William and Mary are known to many,
Like two indivisible sides of a penny,
And stick in the histories one by the other,
As close as a Siamese twin to his brother.

one of the best tennis records since the golden days of Tut Bartzon & Co.

Tom Reel supplied the best individual record of the netmen with an 10-3 record. Reel, along with Hovey Hearn, showed the most improvement during the year, according to Coach Kernodle.

In conference play at Davidson, Hearn and Captain Carl Spiers advanced to the semi-finals as did Reel and Joe Reynolds in doubles play. Reel was a quarter-finalist in singles adding three victories before being sidelined.

Returning for another year of court action will be Reel, Reynolds and Carl Gieg from the varsity lineup.

Most promising among the newcomers will be Freshman Ed Phillips from tennis-minded Thomas Jefferson High School in Richmond. Phillips is expected to battle Reel next Spring for the No. 1 position.
