Thirty-eight feet.

S a new academic year began last fall, A William and Mary was riding on a crest of favorable publicity throughout the nation. The Marshall-Wythe-Blackstone celebration in September enhanced the prestige of the College to a level which had not been attained for many years. All members of the College community seemed satisfied that William and Mary had established an enviable goal in the minds of the nation—a goal which was worthy of her efforts and worthy of her energies. The nation's press played no small part in helping to establish this goal. It announced to the world that William and Mary was once again accepting her responsibility to Virginia and the nation as a leader in higher education.

More recent publicity, however, has done much to shake the favorable reactions generated by mass media last September. This recent bit of publicity concerning Virginia's mother of higher education resulted from student disagreement with administrative policies, and it might be well to review the pertinent facts. These are stated on page 9.

The majority of the local papers reporting the facts confined their coverage to several inches of column copy over a period of three or four days. However, one newspaper, from January 7 to January 24, devoted 457½ inches of column copy to the situation at William and Mary. Approximately one-fourth of this appeared on the front page. (These statistics include pictures and letters to the editor.) The international crises in the China area and President Eisenhower's request that we war if we must against Communist China, ran second, during the same period, with 349¼ inches. The Costa Rican war, breathing hard, placed third with 283 inches.

No one is questioning the right of the newspapers to print any news. It is recognized that this is their duty. However, we cannot help but wonder if the amount of space devoted to the subject was not misleading to the general public. What happened at William and Mary in January is nothing new. In fact, it was considerably milder than similar disputes which have appeared in every college generation. However, the publicity was new. The sensational approach pushed the situation into national prominence leaving a portion of the country with the opinion that the students of our alma mater were on the verge of mutiny because the administration had said that minors could not drink beer on College property.

Actually, the students have made very little of the administration's decision concerning alcoholic beverages. Most of them accepted it as being inevitable. Signs did appear on campus, and the engineering achievement of those who erected them will be as immortal as that of former students who positioned President Tyler's cow to graze on the third floor of the Wren Building, or more recently, the removal of the clapper from the College bell. These occurrences are not standard, but they certainly do not merit the type of reporting that would move one newspaper reader in a letter to the editor to describe our college population as a "bunch of immature hoodlums."

It is not our intention here to suggest that what the students have had to say to the administration is insignificant. On the contrary, any question asked by any student concerning any phase of college activity is important. One of the principal reasons the college exists is in order that they might ask questions. This was demonstrated not only by the administration but also by the Board of Visitors.

There may be some critics who have no patience with this idea of a college administration working with the students. However, they cannot know how eloquent modern college students can be and should be on the subject of their problems. When compared with some of the adult leaders of this land, college students can be judged the most reasonable of beings. From the proper handling of their questions the students can learn some of the greatest lessons college can teach.

When we consider the attention given the student-administration controversy we realize that there are few subjects discussed in any institution of higher learning in this country that would not at one time or another lend themselves to some pretty sensational reporting. A front page story with devastating headlines could be written from most any sociology or philosophy lecture using "selected facts." For that matter we might consider how last Sunday's sermon might look were it reported in the same fashion. Education by its very definition, if it is worth it's salt, will be controversial and sensational. It must be, for educators today are dealing with the brightest generation in the history of mankind. This is most fortunate, for it is going to take very clever people to survive in the world which their elders are leaving them. The education of these young men and women represents the most challenging assignment of our time. It is one which college faculties and college administrations cannot meet alone.

The Frenchman's Map

Deep in the recesses of the library's archives lies the mysterious Frenchman's Map, not the pointer to Captain Kidd's buried treasure, but nevertheless a key to great wealth.

Entitling his work "Plan de la ville et environs de Williamsburg en Virginie," an unknown French cartographer drew up a map of the Colonial City on May 11, 1781 or 1782. The information passed on by the foreign engineer, via the Frenchman's Map, revealed extensive information later substantiated by documental and archaeological research.

Indicative of the map's value is the $100,000 insurance policy, taken out when the College loaned it to Colonial Williamsburg. According to one observer the map rates the title, "The Williamsburg Bible."

The last number of the date, as recorded on the map, proves difficult to read. A tentative date has been established to concur with the time French troops under Lafayette were quartered in Williamsburg. Although marked "levé au pas," indicating paced off on foot, the map is reasonably accurate. At this time there were no American engineers, all such work was done by foreign technicians.

The Frenchman's layout shows roads, streets, about 500 buildings, fenced enclosures, ravines and even trees. Half of the approximately 40 words written in longhand on the map are in French, the commoner names in English.

An aura of mystery hovers over the map's history. Disappearing after construction by an unknown engineer, the map turned up at an antique dealer's in Norfolk. John D. Crimmins of New York City, discoverer of the map, sent it to William and Mary as a gift in 1909.

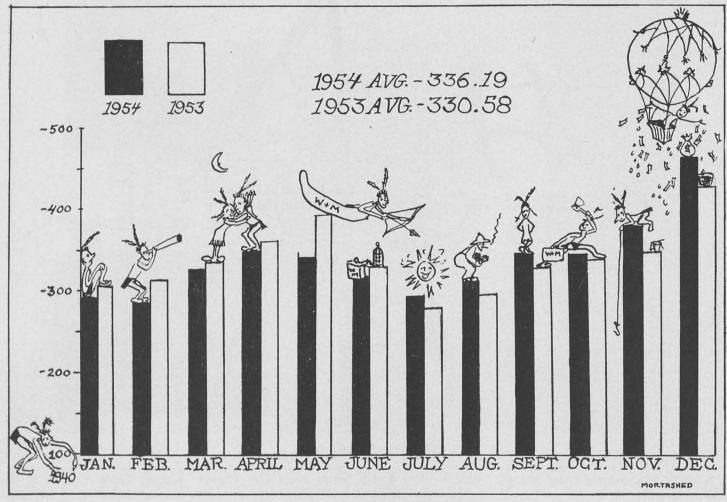

One theory places credit for the work-manship on a dashing Frenchman, Joseph Louis, Count D'Anterrouches. The English speaking Count, said to be a volunteer aide of General Lafayette, was a paroled officer of the British Army and therefore an "idler." Rather than study for the priesthood Joseph Louis had run away from home to join the British Army.

Many pamphlets and letters indicate that the young officer was fond of writing. The handwriting on the map, however, does not check with his handwriting samples. Conjectionists overlook this discrepancy by referring to his status in the British ranks. Louis may have preferred not to risk identifying himself as an aide to his cousin, General Lafayette, by signing the map.

Despite theories as to its origin the anonymous character of the map remains. Too bad the unknown artist, failing to realize the impending importance of it, neglected to sign his work and receive credit—but, C'est la vie!

Facts and figures

William and Mary view of Williamsburg business

Service to a community often evolves as a by-product of a college in unexpected ways; the most evident service is the education of the community's youth, while a second service is the availability of able minds on the faculty, and that certain amount of local cultural and intellectual growth concomitant with their presence.

Many educational institutions offer opportunities for members of a community to pursue studies of their choice in offhours; others undertake valuable surveys of forces having impact on various segments or the community as a whole. The several departments of the College of William and Mary have conducted a number of such surveys, some of them shortterm, and others of a continuing nature.

Perhaps the best known has been the Williamsburg Business Index, which has been compiled each month for over ten years. The story of this survey is one of the growth of a small idea into a tremendous mushrooming of services, still holding to the original purpose, but adding side studies of considerable magnitude and number as the result of this initial move.

In the fall of 1942, Williamsburg's City Council established the Williamsburg War Board, a group of five citizens representing the town's varied interests, who would conduct a survey of the effect of wartime conditions on the community. Military installations were springing up on all sides, population was experiencing a corresponding increase, and there was a myriad of other accompanying factors.

Out of this first study grew the need for a person who would serve as research or "facts-and-figures" man. Dr. Charles F. Marsh, now Dean of the Faculty, but then head of the department of business administration, became director of research for the study committee. He was made available by the College, which sufficiently lightened his teaching load to allow his active work with this group. Dr. Marsh conducted studies of housing, food sales, shortages, population estimates and other investigations which eventually brought to light the need for a number of sociological and economic studies. Out of this came the Williamsburg Studies Committee, which in December, 1943, expanded to become the Hampton Roads-Peninsula War Studies Committee. Dr. Marsh served as chairman, while Dr. James E. Pate and Dean Sharvey G. Umbeck completed the committee.

Efforts then turned to the raising of funds necessary to the conducting of the proposed studies; after lengthy negotiations, a three-year grant from the Rockefeller Foundation, totalling $31,500, was made available in February, 1945.

The Williamsburg Business Index was started by the War Board in 1944, and then switched to the Hampton Roads-Peninsula War Studies Committee when the War Board disbanded late that same year. The formula for the index was worked out by the first group. Dr. Marsh then undertook the monthly computation of the index.

Originally in the index were six components, gathered each month through the cooperation of certain Williamsburg business organizations. Included were the total dollars of postage stamp sales; average daily demand deposits at the bank; total dollars of bus ticket sales; number of local and long distance telephone calls; total dollar sales of a large department store, and total kilowatt hours of electricity delivered.

These components were measured and compared with similar figures for the year 1940, which was used as the base and given a value of 100. The unweighted arithmetic mean of these six relatives became the index for the month. No breakdown of the contributing figures has ever been made public, thus keeping the confidence of the participating organizations.

In 1945, it was discovered that an expansion of Virginia Electric and Power Company services elsewhere on the Peninsula had resulted in the loss of a separate figure for Williamsburg services. The study committee reluctantly dropped the electricity factor from their index, and went back and re-averaged the composite in order to insure the comparability of future indices as based on only five components.

Parallel activities of Dr. Marsh during this period were many. The Hampton Roads-Peninsula War Studies Committee prepared a book, edited by him and entitled The Hampton Roads Communities in World War II; he served with the Committee on Taxation and Government for the Virginia State Chamber of Commerce, acting as research adviser for their book, Opportunities for Improvement of the Virginia State Tax Structure; he and Dr. Pate served on a subcommittee on consolidation, operating under the Lower Peninsula Planning Commission; he served as coordinator and consultant of seventeen study committees on the Governor's Advisory Committee for Virginia Economy. In addition, he found time to serve on Williamsburg's Post-War Planning Commission, plus a four-year term on the City Council.

"It was an interesting period," says Dr.

Marsh; "... a very satisfying experience, enhanced by the cooperative ventures of the division of social sciences, numerous other professors, businessmen and political figures."

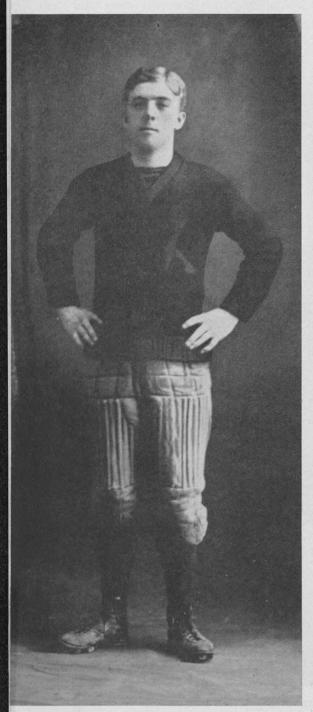

The business index, now firmly established in Williamsburg, is currently supervised by Dr. Thomas J. Luck, who succeeded Dr. Marsh, becoming acting head of the department of business administration last fall. Dr. Luck has in mind a possible expansion of the index to include other communities in the area, pointing out that it is comparable to other studies in the State, such as one conducted by the Federal Reserve System.

One small study begat many services to the community; this is representative of only one of the College's endeavors proof-positive of William and Mary's continuing contributions to the welfare and advancement of its environs.

A knot on his nose

Jimmy Driver 45 years ago

Painted on the door of a small, second-floor office in Williamsburg's main business block is the name, James G. Driver. Known across the country for fine Virginia foods, this name has become almost legendary in the annals of amateur athletics.

Boxing judge at the 1936 Olympic Games in Berlin; member of the Olympic Boxing Committee for 12 years; builder of athletic fields and stadia at two universities; organizer of sports teams at those universities; organizer of a Veterans' Hospital athletic program for the entire South after World War II; one of the greatest William and Mary all-time athletes—these are only a few of his many achievements.

James Glenn Driver arrived on the scene at William and Mary in the fall of 1906, as an energetic, blue-eyed youngster from Harrisonburg, Va. When he graduated four years later, he had compiled an enviable record on the athletic fields of the Tri-Color. A four-sport athlete, he captained the football, basketball, baseball, and track teams as a senior, an honor of unquestionable distinction.

As a halfback on the Tribe grid team, he aided in the beginning of a five-game winning streak over arch-rival Richmond College, at a time when the Spiders were regularly trouncing the Indians. Richmond took 21-18 and 18-6 beatings in 1908, and lost 15-0 in 1909; after Jim left, the Tribe went out to win again in 1910 and 1911. The Spiders then broke the streak, dominating William and Mary until 1919, when the Tribe edged out a 7-0 win. Coaching the Tribe that year was Jim Driver.

Much had happened to Jim between 1910 and 1919. After his spectacular career at W&M, he was offered a number of scholarships to other colleges, W&M being considered a prep school in collegiate athletic circles at that time. Jim turned them all down and enrolled at the University of Virginia, where he experienced one of his greatest athletic thrills.

The Cavaliers scheduled the mighty Carlisle Indians for a game in Washington, D. C., during the 1910 season. Behind the momentum of the unparalleled Jim Thorpe, the Carlisle team had run roughshod over their opposition; the Virginia team was expected to provide little more than a workout for the Pennsylvanians. But the Cavaliers played inspired ball, and Jim played the greatest game of his career, recalling that "they had difficulty in beating us."

Commenting upon the play of Thorpe, Jim agreed that the big Indian was everything that had been said about him. "He was not only the fastest man in the world, but he carried his knees high, and being hit by him was like being hit by a train." Jim noted that he hadn't really ever been hit by a train, but figured that's how it would feel.

He recalled one collision with Thorpe. "I was playing safety, and late in the game, Thorpe broke through and had only me between himself and a touchdown. I managed to tackle him, but received a fractured nose for my efforts and was unconscious for awhile." Jim can still show that knot on his nose—memento of a collision with one of the greatest athletes of all time.

In 1912, Jim became athletic director, backfield coach and head coach in three other sports at the University of South Carolina. He remained there for two years, then entered private business. He couldn't stay away, however, and in 1916 took over as head coach at Newberry College.

World War I found Jim entering the Army as an athletic officer. He rose to the rank of captain before he was mustered out. He then returned to William and Mary as director of athletics and head football coach. Poor equipment, scarcity

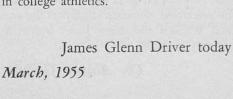

by Hugh DeSamper

of material and little money to spend were the marks of W&M athletics at that time, and the grid teams had 2-5 and 4-5 records during his two seasons at the helm. Jim remained for two more years as athletic director and coach of basketball and football before he headed back to South Carolina as director of student activities.

In 1927, Jim left South Carolina to become athletic director at the University of Virginia, remaining until 1937, when he re-entered private business. World War II found Jim answering the call, this time as a lieutenant commander in the Navy.

Monuments to Jim Driver stand in many places. Some are in the record books and others are material examples of his leadership. He built the University of South Carolina's stadium and supervised the construction of Virginia's Scott Stadium; South Carolina's field house was originally named in his honor; intramural fields and additional sports teams sprang up at both South Carolina and Virginia under his guidance.

Things aren't as strenuous now for Jim as during his active coaching days; he doesn't have the pressures that plague the modern coach, when everything is geared to win, and amateurism and scholastic standards often get a bit scratched up in the scuffle. But Jim Driver occasionally takes a walk to the William and Mary athletic fields, and then he thinks about the days when he was coaching. To one seeing him on the sidelines, he appears much younger than the man of 65 who stands there straight as a stone monument, gazing intently. His eyes are steady and clear, and there isn't an ounce of fat on him, for Jim Driver still practices the athletic creed that was his when he was a champion of amateurism and scholarship above all else in college athletics.

Awards to George & Nunn

E Alumni Medallion Awards to alumni who have a record of service and devotion to the College of William and Mary. This year President Chandler presented one award to a man who had earned distinction through his accomplishments since leaving William and Mary, and one to a man who had gained recognition while remaining at his alma mater.

One of the winners this year was W. Brooks George who began his career as an accountant for the T. C. Andrews Company of Richmond and is now Executive Vice-President of Larus and Brother Company, Inc., of Richmond.

A native of Stuart, Virginia, George was graduated from William and Mary in 1932 after being elected to Phi Beta Kappa, Omicron Delta Kappa, serving as vice-president of the senior class and receiving the Carr Memorial Cup.

Since leaving Williamsburg, George has had an amazing record of service to his community, state and nation. In 1946 he received the Distinguished Service Award from the Richmond and Virginia State Jaycees. He is now a member of the Board of Directors of the Richmond Chamber of Commerce and a member of the Advisory Committee of the Banking and Currency Committee of the U. S. Senate.

Vernon Leslie Nunn is the alumnus who stayed at William and Mary. A native of Norge, near Williamsburg, Nunn attended grammar school at Toano and came to Williamsburg during the Fall of 1921 to receive his higher education.

In 1930 Nunn was named assistant treasurer of the College. In 1934 he was advanced to auditor of the College, a position he still holds. As an alumnus, for several years he has been a member and president of the Alumni Endowment Fund's Board of Directors.

In his undergraduate days he is remembered as a quiet, hard-working student, who was elected to Phi Beta Kappa and Phi Kappa Phi. The College took official notice of Nunn in 1951 when he was presented with the Algernon Sydney Sullivan Medallion.

President Chandler said in presenting the Medallion to Nunn, "When called on by his community or his church, he has served with equal sincerity and in many responsible positions has done his duty in such a manner as to reflect much honor on all members of the William and Mary family."

DELAWARE'S CHAPTER elected Max J. Staszesky, '49, president to succeed Robert S. Downs. Richard H. Tallant, '48, was elected vice-president, and James R. Stewart, '51, was named secretary-treasurer.

THE Organization Committee of the Lower Peninsula chapter has mailed letters to all alumni of the Newport News, Warwick, Hampton area. This letter invites alumni interested in a chapter to return an enclosed postal card. Chairman Allan C. Tanner of Newport News, reports that there is a keen interest in a chapter and that organization plans are proceeding nicely.

Other members of the Organization Committee are: Thomas W. Athey, Edward N. Islin, Harry F. Marrow, Susanne G. Montague, William H. Neale, Dr. A. G. Russell, Harry Shawen, Susie S. Sheild, John K. Shields, Robert J. Watkins, Fairmount R. White, and Jack Willis, Jr.

WASHINGTON'S CHAPTER held an election at its annual business meeting. The new officers are: Paul H. Gantt, president; Richard E. King, 1st vice-president; Carey P. Modlin, 2nd vice-president; Raymond H. O'Connor, treasurer; Nancy Catherine Ruth, secretary.

Again this year the Washington chapter shall sponsor the William and Mary Choir. The concert will be held on April 16th, in the auditorium of the Washington and Lee High School in Arlington, Virginia.

THE RICHMOND Alumni Chapter has elected the following officers for the coming year: President, Norbert T. Greer, Jr.; Vice-Presidents, E. Harold Roche, Ray E. Reid and Wallace T. Smith; Secretary, Mrs. Edward R. Boisseau (Eleanor Hooker); Treasurer, G. Ruffin Winfree.

Boston's alumni chapter elected Fred A. Howard president at their annual business meeting in November. Robert B. Merritt was elected vice-president, Ralph Levine, treasurer, and Mary E. Merritt, secretary.

The chapter met in Cambridge's Smith House for its annual dinner meeting. The dinner was preceded by the traditional social hour. It was announced at this meeting that a book had been sent to the College Library in memory of Charles Dunker, deceased member of the chapter. The final point of business was a pledge from the assembled members to support the annual William and Mary Fund Drive in any way possible.

Fifty-fifty

PRIOR TO THE OPENING of basketball season, Coach Baird predicted his squad should win 50 per cent of its games. When examinations halted the season, the Tribe had won eight and lost an equal number, however, seven of the losses were to teams that were ranked with the top 20 teams of the nation.

Captain John Mahoney has been the big man in the Tribe attack as he established a new individual scoring mark of 47 points against Furman and contributed still another record for the books when he connected on 20 of 22 foul shots against Virginia Tech in the Richmond Christmas Holiday Tournament. In the 109-89 loss to Seton Hall, he established a record for the number of points scored by a Seton Hall opponent—37 points. The most impressive win scored by the Indians in early season play was over North Carolina, 79-76 in Blow Gymnasium, however, their best game was the 97-111 loss to North Carolina State in the season's opener.

In the game at Raleigh, the Tribe hit on slightly better than 50 per cent of its shots and the 97 points scored against the Wolfpack was a record for the number of opponent points scored in the Colosseum.

The Indians have been greatly strengthened from the service of Hubert Klapp and Warren Rutledge, plus the return to school of Guard Joe Hume. Transfer students Bill Person and Charles Carter also have added bench strength to the Tribe.

The pre-examination basketball record showed losses to N. C. State, Tennessee, Seton Hall, George Washington (twice), Vanderbilt, Navy and Richmond, and wins over Furman, Hampden-Sydney, Boston University, North Carolina, Virginia Polytechnic Institute (twice), Washington and Lee, and Virginia Military Institute.

Students

Of meetings, letters and reports

In January, the College received a great deal of publicity from a series of discussions that arose between the student body and the officials of the College. The grounds for these discussions are best expressed in a series of letters which were exchanged between the President and the Student Senate.

A brief review of the main points of these letters and accompanying events are presented in an effort to help the alumni understand the situation.

On January 5, 1955, following discussions among administrative officials, fraternity leaders and student body officers, the students were informed that the College intended to conform with a state regulation which prohibits the sale or consumption of alcoholic beverages by minors on College property.

A meeting of all students was called by the student leaders on January 7, to discuss the situation and answer questions. The meeting was orderly and from it came a three-point letter to the President:

1. A request that the President meet monthly with the Student Senate, and that student representation on the disciplinary committee be more proportional.

2. A request that fraternities be housed off campus, pointing out here that the school housing problem would be improved and that all fraternity functions could be chaperoned.

3. A request that the long-standing rule against husband and wife teams serving on the faculty be waived in the case of Dr. and Mrs. Sidney Rome. Also requested were certain changes to be made in existing social rules.

President Chandler answered the letter from the Student Senate on January 8, saying: he would meet with them monthly, and would seek their opinions when possible before making policy decisions public; the composition of the disciplinary committee would be reviewed; the questions concerning Dr. and Mrs. Rome and the fraternity house move were matters for the Board of Visitors. The President said that, if requested by the students, he would forward these questions to the Board

The student body met again on January 9, and heard President Chandler's answers to their questions. At this mass meeting the students accepted a portion of what the President said to them, but indicated that certain of their questions had not been fully answered. This meeting resulted in a second letter to the President asking that the Board of Visitors be asked to change the policy regarding husbands and wives on the faculty, and that no regulations concerning the students be made without first being referred to the Student Assembly.

The President answered this second letter on the same day saying that he would abide by his statement of January 8, concerning the established policy of man and wife serving on the faculty, while stating that he would transmit the students' communications to the Board.

The student leaders later secured permission from the President to speak with the Board of Visitors and to submit to the Board a written report of their grievances. On January 29, student officials delivered this document to the Board. The Rector of the Board turned it over to a special committee. The contents of this report have not been made public by the Board or the students.

LUNCHEONETTE, COSMETICS STATIONERY

Invitation

AT ITS DECEMBER meeting, the Board of Directors of the Society of the Alumni adopted a resolution whereby the ALUMNI GAZETTE would be sent to all alumni of the College. Incorporated into this resolution was a provision to eliminate the costly Fund Brochure, which has been mailed out in recent years, and to include in one issue of the GAZETTE an appendix announcing the beginning of the Fund Drive and last year's honor roll.

In adopting this plan, the Board felt that it was the responsibility of the Society to give all alumni an opportunity to know about their alma mater and they felt that the GAZETTE was the answer.

The William and Mary Fund is now in its sixth year. The annual giving approach, now used by over 300 leading American colleges and universities, was adopted by the Society of the Alumni as a means of eliminating all special-purpose drives and requests and substituting a single annual campaign for these troublesome and costly appeals.

The $68,526.00 collected in the last six years is a heartening figure, but heartening only as a beginning. There are approximately 14,000 located living alumni. The difference between the 14,000 and the 1,809 contributors to the 1954 Fund represents the area of opportunity for the 1955 Fund.

President Chandler put it this way: "The William and Mary Fund campaign is one of the most important undertakings of the William and Mary year. It is important basically because it is the one means by which alumni become participating members of the Society of the Alumni. As I have stated before, I covet for the College above everything else, an organized alumni body which is sufficiently large and sufficiently informed to represent the College effectively in all of its many phases. The only way in which these twin hopes can be achieved is through your annual contribution to the William and Mary Fund.

"As one of those who have known and loved the way of life which William and Mary provides for her sons and daughters, you will, I am sure, feel a sense of privilege and responsibility in helping to pass this on to a new generation of students, of thus preserving for future generations those values and ideas which have become traditional William and Mary values and ideas. I should like to hope that each of you will think of your contribution to the William and Mary Fund, whether it be large or small, as an investment of faith in a truly great institution, as a share in the creation of that indestructible asset to the nation and to the world which is a William and Mary trained citizen."

Fund contributions have been small in the past, but they have been stretched to go a long way in accomplishing much good.

They have made possible the maintenance of the Alumni Office, the servicing of the alumni chapters, modest alumni entertainment at Homecoming and Finals, and the publication of the ALUMNI GAZETTE, the one continuing link between the College and the alumni. They have made possible the Society's annual gift to the College, needed equipment in the College Infirmary, additions to the Library's book collection and to its evolving microfilm project. The largest portion, however, has been used for scholarship aid to worthy students, students who would have been denied the privilege of a William and Mary education but for that aid. The 1955 Fund is again dedicated to this increasingly important purpose.

A contribution of $5.00 or more will entitle you to a voting membership in the Society; and will say to the Legislature and to all from whom we seek aid that the William and Mary family is doing all they can to help themselves. This is your invitation to contribute to the William and Mary Fund this year and every year. A contribution will be evidence of your faith in the great William and Mary which is, and the greater William and Mary which is to be.

On this and the following pages are listed those who contributed to the William and Mary Fund last year

Dr. Walter Edward Vest of Huntington, former chairman of the West Virginia Medical Licensing Board was recently honored by the Board. He received a bronze plaque in grateful appreciation of his twenty years of service on the Board. Doctor Vest continues in the active practice of his specialty of internal medicine. He served as president of the West Virginia State Medical Association in 1930 and as president of the Southern Medical Association, 1938-39. He has been a member of the publication committee of the State Medical Association since 1923 and has served as editor of the West Virginia Medical Journal since 1937. Dr. Vest has been one of the two American Medical Association delegates from West Virginia since 1934.

Eleven

Blake T. Newton, recently retired superintendent of schools for Richmond and Westmoreland Counties, was honored with the gift of a gold watch by the Westmoreland County School Board for his forty-one years of public service. He shall continue to serve as president of the State Board of Education.

Fifteen

Dr. Ernest Linwood Wright, Headmaster and Head of the English Department at Darlinton School, Rome, Georgia since 1920, has been elected president of that school. He is a member of Phi Beta Kappa and has served as chairman of the Georgia State Commission of Southern Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools and as president of the Southern Association of Independent Schools. At present he is president of the Mid-South Prep School Association and representative from the Southern Association to the College Entrance Examination Board. While attending William and Mary he was a member of Phi Kappa Alpha, president of the German Club, manager of the football team, and president of the Junior Class. The 1915 Colonial Echo said: "... his chief hold on our affections rests upon his unfailing goodhumor and his readiness to lend a helping hand. He is a gentleman and a scholar, safe, sane, energetic and progressive, loved and respected by all who know him."

Nineteen

C. Leslie Major has been promoted to assistant to the president for development at Denison University, where he has been on the faculty since 1931. He is a resident of Granville, Ohio where he is a member of the village council.

Now that things have gotten back to normal, somewhat, it is time again to bring you up to date on some more of your classmates. Suffice it to say that your agent has held back some news for this column, because not a single one of you has written me a line!! After all you did promise to do just that last June when we had our anniversary.

Agnes Brittingham (Willard-1929X) is teaching at Pocomoke City, Md. Agnes completed her college education at the University of Maryland. Her daughter, Marjorie, is a graduate of William & Mary in the class of February, 1955.

Genevieve Hoffman (Mrs. Robert S. Sherlock) was one of those attending the alumni luncheon which preceded the William & Mary-Rutgers game. Genevieve is living at #4 Wallace Place, White Plains, N.Y.

While following the Indians last fall, I saw five of the ten games, whom should I see but Julian Chase? "Judy" is an Accountant with an insurance company and lives at 279 Brighton Ave., East Orange, New Jersey.

The "Mac" O'Ferralls together with their two sons were among the spectators at the George Washington-W&M game in Washington. Thought that voice behind me was familiar. Needless to say it was the same one that used to yell, "No, No, 'Dutchy' (Krueger)" during the baseball season of '29.

Virginia Alexander (Mrs. Garnet MacMillan, Jr.) is working in the national headquarters of Kappa Kappa Gamma in Columbus, Ohio. She is the second one from Gamma Kappa chapter who has worked there, the first was Virginia Harper (Meeks). Incidentally, that was "Jinks" first job.

Oscar E. Cordle is an attorney in Norfolk with offices in the Royster building. His residence address is 407 Redgate Avenue.

Do YOU know that:

Your agent is trying to make the '29 letter the best in the Gazette!!

He would welcome any news concerning you or your classmates.

Your assessment of $1.00 is due and payable to Ed. Justis at 1540 Ashland Ave., Norfolk, Va.

That's all for this time. Before the May issue comes out I hope to hear from some of you and that you will be "loaded with news."

Reverend H. L. Doll, rector of St. Paul's Episcopal Church in Baltimore, has accepted the post of suffragan bishop of Maryland. A native of Martinsburg, West Virginia, he was ordained in 1933 and served churches in Washington, Alexandria, Virginia and Houston, Texas before going to Baltimore in 1942.

John W. Tuthill has been appointed director of the Foreign Operations Administration's Mission to Germany and director of the HICOG Office of Economic Affairs. The combined office which he heads has responsibility for the various United States aid programs in Germany, including aid to Berlin, the East German food program, and refugee housing and productivity. During the war he was on the staff of the U.S. Political Adviser on German Affairs, attached to SHAEF, serving in London, Versailles and Berlin. Before his present assignment in Germany, he was special assistant to the U.S. Ambassador for the Mutual Defense Assistance Program in the United Kingdom. He has served with the Foreign Service in Sweden, Canada, Mexico and Indonesia.

Dr. Osborne D. Christensen of Salisbury, Maryland, director of the Department of Obstetrics and Gynecology of Peninsula General Hospital of that city, was recently elected a senior fellow in the Southeastern Surgical Congress. In addition, Dr. Christensen is a fellow of the American College of Surgeons, and clinical teacher of obstetrics and gynecology at the University of Maryland Hospital and Medical School.

Mrs. R. L. Mitchell, Jr. (Annabel Hopkins) 4 South Rogers St. Aberdeen, Md.

Spring will be just about here when you read this so let's all get it off to a good start by sending in our 1955 contribution to the Fund Drive. Read the 1954 Report and bring up the average for our class.

Now for some quick news—more in the May issue, I hope.

Harold Potts is practicing law in Berryville, Va., and is trial Justice for Clarke County.

Joan Thompson Hicks keeps busy in Urbana, Ill. with church and children's activities. That town is expanding in all directions—must be as bad as Aberdeen when you left here, Joan.

Jane Speakman MacPherson is National Committee Chairman on Academic Standards for Alpha Chi Omega—means a lot of desk work. She is much better now after being quite ill last fall.

Mildred Albee Babb is in Florida again. Bob is in the construction business, so they are continually on the move.

Dottie Kincaid Portz kindly sent me the following after my plea for news:

May Fielder Haven now lives at 1828 Laird Ave., Salt Lake City, Utah. A fourth Haven, Ricky, arrived Feb. 2, 1954. Girard is heading up the Community Chest and will organize a United Fund. Sorry to hear that Kenny had rheumatic fever last year—hope he is lots better now. The Havens will be in Utah about $1\frac{1}{2}$ years.

Beth Bowden Couper now lives at 734 Locust Ave., Waynesboro, Va. The Coupers have 4 children—Betty, Charles, Mary B., and Monroe, Jr.

Thanks so much, Dottie. I hope before this is published I will have gotten to Wilmington for a visit. (You'd think Aberdeen was 1000 miles away instead of just one hour.)

So long for now and write!!

Frances L. Grodecoeur 810 Howard St. Monongabela, Pennsylvania

Apologies are certainly in order after such a lengthly silence and I do regret that I have not written the required number of letters each year for the Gazette—but (just to pass the buck a little) I can't write up the local news or the lengthly department store strike in Pittsburgh to an alumni publication. So please, don't wait for next Christmas to drop a line about yourselves.

Mickey Lyons sailed for England, January 27th. Charlie has an intriguing new job (she didn't say what) and they will probably be living in Wimbledon—do hope you're brushing up your tennis, Mickey. She expects to see Jane Lewis Kruse now in London with her husband who is a naval attaché with the U. S. Embassy.

Bernie Erb Kohlemainen ('39x) and her family are now acclimated to California living although they missed Provo, Utah, where they had lived for several years. She sent Ruth Lyon Elwell's ('39x) address: 34 Porter Avenue, Seneca Falls, New York.

Gwen Evans Wood noted on her Christmas Greeting that she had recently come across cards designed by Dave Forer, recognizing his style from several former works in William and Mary publications. I had seen some of his cards about a year ago and was most impressed. Wouldn't an article about Dave's career be an interesting one for the Gazette?

Barbara Wastcoat Carter, Charles and young David spent three weeks last summer in Vermont and Cape Cod.

Polly (Spinney) Marks, David and the six children are most enthusiastic about Westport, Conn. They're are located only forty minutes from Ginny (Claudon) Allen in Katonah, New York.

Pearl (Brueger) and Joe Reid adopted two little girls in July, Pat and Debbie. They are now living in Kansas. She writes that Margileth (Meyer) Anderson had her fourth boy in September and that Mary Alice Barnes has a new house right on the beach at Honolulu.

Edna (Klinge) and Paul Ketchum are now at 1016—49th St., Los Alamos, New Mexico. Can furnish no details since the gauchos just never write.

Peggy Prickett Miller is now stationed in Panama. She writes that all the Millers are enjoying being in the Canal Zone. Four of her six children are in school and all four are taking Spanish. The address: Quarters 4, USARCA-RIB, Ft. Amador, C.Z.

Dorothy Hosford Smith and Herb have moved into their own home at 414 Elder Dr., Claremont, Cal. Dot is slowly recovering from an infection which plagued her last year.

Happy New Year to all of you and I shall look forward to hearing from you.

Forty

Mrs. John H. Garrett, Jr. (Frances Ann Terrell) 307 Sedgefield Drive Norfolk 13, Va.

Greetings, and thanks for all the letters and cards. Hearing from old friends makes this job well worth the time and effort that it takes.

Jack Hudson, a Lt. Col. in the Marine corps is living at Arlington and is attached to HQMC. He has one daughter and is in the process of adopting a son. He is married to Caldwell Cason's sister. Caldwell and his family (five children) are stationed at Port Lyautey, French Morocco. The Hudsons would like news from Connie and Rodney Jones. Emma Dalton Ball, who has been living in Dallas, Texas for five years, wrote that the Jones are in the Navy and have just had three years in Hawaii.

Dorothy Sease Rowland called to say that she had heard from Frances Jane Wolf McCabe who lives in York, Pa. Frances Jane has four children, but even so, she and her husband were able to get away for an extensive European trip last spring. Dot had also heard from Gerry Gordon Grandy. The Grandys plan to return to the states this summer after a tour of duty in Bordeaux, France.

A note from Merritt Foster, M.D. says he completed his second tour of duty with the Navy in May and is now in the practice of Psychiatry in Richmond.

Charlie Roberts is a C.P.A. in Westfield, N. J. He has bought a big old house in Cranford, ideal for his big family, four children, a duck and a dog. The Roberts are active in alumni functions and usually see many old stand-bys at them, John and Marian Barba, Carroll Quaintance, Charlie Pollard, Charlie Frey, "Barney" Oldfield, Otto Boyson, and Bob Klein. Occasionally, they see Clark Presbrey, Bob Kern, and Tom and John Brennan. Charlie's brother, Austin, is practicing law in Bethesda, Md. He has three children.

Three years ago Frank and Bobby Clawson Henderson and Bob and Kay Hoover Dew migrated from Plainfield, N. J. to Irvington, where they have a hardware business. Bobby wrote that country living is delightful, and they and their three children are thriving on it.

Lee Phillips Teasenfitz had news from several alumni. She had heard from Berdyne Swisher Heet. Swish lives in Richmond, Ind. and has three children. She had seen Betty Hammond and her little daughter who were on their way to Kansas. Florence Merryman has two sons and lives at Menasha, Wis. Marguerite Hill Locker has two children and lives at Akron, Ohio. Ruth Ann Holzmueller Chancellor has just spent five weeks in the hospital with a ruptured disc. She is now in a body cast at her home at 201 Alexandria Dr., Alexandria, Va. Here's wishing you a complete and rapid recovery, Ruth Ann.

Fran Garrett Williams wrote that Rosie Elizabeth Jordon Bugby and her husband have just adopted a baby boy. They live in Danville, Va. Frank and Betty Acosta are in Falls Church. They have two boys and two girls.

Jayne Magee Lillicrapp wrote that they have finally found a house big enough for their brood, four children. After the first of March they will be at 833 Paxinosa Ave., Easton, Penn.

A note from Virginia MacDonald Baxter says they have four children and are living at Montgomery, Ala.

We had wonderful family picture cards from the Nuernbergers (Louise Eppinger) and the Ed Longs (Rosa Ellis). We would like to see more of those. Rosa wrote that Charles Quittmeyer is teaching at the Univ. of Buffalo.

That takes care of the mail. Now for the reunion, it's our fifteenth, and it should be a good one. Since this copy of the Gazette is going to all alumni, it won't be necessary for us to get out letters right away, so let us hear of your wishes for our reunion. Frances Wagener Read is with her family in Williamsburg while Ben is in the Pacific, and she has offered to handle local arrangements for us, a most generous offer. The sooner we can give word to Fran about the type of get-together that we would like the easier it will be for her to line up accommodations for us. We hope that we shall need a big room for a big party on Saturday, June 11. Meanwhile it would be a good idea for all of you to write to old friends and talk up the reunion. There is nothing like personal contact to make folks want to come back. We hope to see you all in June.

Forty-one

Mrs. Wallace F. Andrew (Lillian Douglas) Lynch Station, Va.

It's a great feeling to know that this letter will be read by the large majority of the class of '41, for even though you don't subscribe to the Gazette I'm sure you can't resist reading '41 news once you get it. If only there were news of more of you. Seriously, you will find the Alumni Gazette well worth your time and that contribution to the Fund will give you a real lift. Our school needs our loyalty and that is one way we can show it. I still think the class of '41 is the best class dear old W&M ever graduated—don't you agree?

Harold E. Tower represented the College of William and Mary at the formal inauguration of Dr. Miller Upton as sixth president of Beloit College, Beloit, Wis. on October 29, 1954. Mike Stousland's wife, Betty, represented W&M at the inauguration of the new president of Western College for Women. The University of Edinburgh was represented, so W&M took third place in the procession. Mike had a one man show of serigraphs and sculpture at the Art Institute in Lubbock, Texas. He is still teaching architecture but finds time for limited practice. Their new son and new house keep Mike and Betty very busy.

Ann Mitchell Reeves and Jim were transferred to Dothan, Ala. from Atlanta last January. Jim is a District Manager for DeSoto-Chrysler Corp. Their third child, Bill, was born last May.

Faithful Kay Hoover Dew reports a grand week-end in Williamsburg for Homecoming and a particularly big reunion with Jean Cox Phillips and Bill and Gervais Wallace Brekke and Nils. Kay and Bob have had a busy year building a house. The hardware business is doing fine.

We can be particularly proud of having both Mickey Mitchell Mollenkopf and Jim Davis on the Alumni Board. Mickey keeps busy with P.T.A., church and hospital work plus a Cub Scout Den. She reports that Jane Scofield Middleton has moved from Williamsburg to Brookfield Center, Conn. where her husband is Rector. No news but a fine picture of the five Davises. Also a delightful picture of Janet and Al Chesnut's three boys. Wouldn't it be nice if some of these pictures could be published for all of us?

Christmas greetings from Marie Cole Tettle-back and Jack who enjoy their get-togethers with Phyllis and Jack McCarthy so much. Margaret Richards Snyder and family plus a new dog and cat are still getting settled in the new apartment in Alexandria, Va. A card, too, from the five Dick Earles in Milwaukee.

Jean Crist Schutt and Paul send greetings and by now they, too, are five. Peg Averill and Paul Sterregaard and their two children are now in Naugatuck, Conn. Cards from Jane Jackson Miller and Howard in Wilbraham, Mass. and from Douglas Finklestone in Stamford, Conn. Wish you'd write a note sometimes, Douglas.

Kitty Koontz Epperson and Arthur are at Stuarts Draft, Va. where he is supervising several jobs, while Kitty lives on "a small oasis of gravel surrounded by a sea of red mud." She'll be glad to get back to town again with her two boys. Her home base is Altavista and we see each other occasionally.

Fran Reeder Burnett, who knows what this business is like, since her husband was once his class secretary, wrote that Bob Greene stopped by Bethlehem recently to say that he, Louise and the two boys have moved to Lancaster, Pa. He is a salesman for the American Thread Co. Thanks, Fran.

The two following communications were written to Jim Davis when he did such a grand job of writing the class letter, which I so greatly appreciated. Norris Lineweaver, wife, Loleta and sons, David and Stephen left Springfield College, where he had worked on his Master's Degree in Education, in 1950 and spent four years in San Angelo, Texas where son John was born. Norris was Boy's Work Secretary for the YMCA there. Now he is Youth Director for the YMCA in Midland, Texas. Formerly, Norris was a U. S. Marine Recruiter and then served in China. They have a dog, "Chippy," drive an English Austin and belong to the First Methodist Church.

Bob Kern wrote Jim from Chile while he was on his annual auditing trip for the Anaconda Copper Mining Co. Bob left for this trip just after his third child, Michael Paul, was born on July 31. Congratulations.

Did anyone see Bill Edwards' picture in the Richmond Times-Dispatch getting his exercise at the YMCA? Nancy Chisholm Akers, Connie and the three children have been transferred back to Richmond. The youngest Andrew keeps all four of us hopping all the time and we think he is perfectly wonderful.

This is too good an opportunity to pass up to beg you to please write to me. If you've enjoyed reading about your classmates, they'd love to read about you. I'll contact each of you individually sometime soon, but don't wait for me to write. It just takes a few lines on a postcard to let so many people know that you're still interested in W&M and the friends you made there.

Mrs. Edgar J. Fisher, Jr. (Mildred Anne Hill) Box 200 Bon Air, Va.

Edgar, Betty and I spent a very happy Christmas at "Rutledge", in Amherst, Virginia with the Fisher Sr's. We appreciated so much the Christmas cards and notes from each of you who remembered to write.

Theo Kelcey Dean wrote that her son, Bruce, is almost three now and very lively. He stayed with her sister, Jinny, while Theo and husband Ray took a trip through New England last fall.

Mary Ruth Black Dowling sent a photograph of her lovely new home on the Severn River. They moved in last March and are still busy with the finishing touches. She had talked with Claire Hulcher McMullan on the phone. Claire is living in Baltimore with her two little girls while her physician husband, Frank, is taking further medical work at Johns Hopkins. Mary Ruth had also heard from Prudence White Quarles who has a son, Christopher, born in February 1954.

H. Oliver Foster and his wife, Jan, live in Kentucky and sent us a snapshot of their two little girls, Christie and Sharon.

Joyce Mathes Malcolm wrote from Michigan that her three girls keep her quite busy. She has found time, however to join a ceramics class and a tailoring class, both of which are interesting hobbies, says Joyce.

Sally Bet Walker Lawson, Dunbar and their two children went to Mathews, Virginia from their home in Durham, N. C. to be with her family for the Christmas holidays. They drove to Williamsburg one day to see Fran Wagener Read. Ben is in Korea. Sally Bet had received a note from Betty Bull Blohm who is in Germany. She expects to return to the U. S. in July, however. Betty has three boys.

Jean Ross O'Brien wrote from Festus, Missouri that she and her lawyer husband, Stewart, are now enjoying small town life being only about 35 miles from St. Louis. They have a son 9 and Kathy, 3½. Stewart is the Prosecuting Attorney in their county, having been elected after a hot political campaign last summer.

Margaret Lucas vacationed in Europe for nearly 3 months last year and had a wonderful trip. She flew from New York to Paris and then visited France, Italy, Switzerland, Germany, Belgium, Holland, Denmark, England and Scotland. Margaret sees Virginia Longino frequently as they live only a few blocks from each other in San Francisco.

Patty Nichols Curcuru and husband Ed expected to get to New York to see Ezio Pinza in "Fanny" during the holidays. They hoped to have Barbara Anderson Cook and family come from Albany to visit them in January. Patty heard from Bill Slater who had travelled to Oklahoma for Texaco last summer and before Christmas had just returned from Memphis. Bill and Pat have 3 children, Cathy, Susan and Christopher. Huntington Curtis and his family continue to enjoy faculty life at Dartmouth. Alice Black Patterson wrote Patty from Downers Grove, Illinois that she had been east to Cranford, N. J. to see her parents. Alice said Margaret Robinson is now in El Paso.

Terry Teal Crutchfield sent an interesting card from Cairo, Egypt. Terry, Jack and their 3 children are enjoying their "penthouse apartment" life there. Last May Jack was elected to the Board of Directors of ESSO Near East. Terry wrote that ESSO in Cairo has an active dramatic group. She played a leading role in one of the productions last year and is directing the present one. "This fills in any spare time she has left over from the 3 youngsters, running the house, playing a little golf, taking Arabic lessons and trying to keep track of a husband."

Louise Wallace Richards sent news from Los Angeles that husband Bob has been appointed clinical instructor in Psychiatry at U.C.L.A. Medical School and is still on the staff at the V.A. Center. Louise has been attending some of the interesting programs sponsored by the faculty wives group on the U.C.-L.A. campus. Donnie keeps Louise very busy with his "unlimited energy."

Fred Gage has been assigned as ET National Accounts Representative with headquarters in the New York Downtown office of IBM. He will center his activities on the coordination of ET sales for the American Telephone and Telegraph Co., the Bell Telephone System and the Western Electric Co. Fred joined IBM in 1946 in Trenton and has served as an ET Sales Representative in Newark, Jersey City and New York before receiving his present appointment.

Bill Diehl is sports editor of the Norfolk LEDGER-DISPATCH and has a daily sports show on radio station WGH. Bill has received several State awards for writing and broadcasting. He headed the Norfolk March of Dimes campaign last year and twice served as chairman of Brotherhood Week in Norfolk. He helped organize the Norfolk Sports Club and is a charter member of Sertoma (civic) club. Bill and his wife have 5 children (3 boys and 2 girls).

I talked with Marion Pate Macon in November after her return to Richmond from Homecoming weekend in Williamsburg. Marion had consented to get the class news for me but she found that only a few members of our class were on hand. She caught a glimpse of Eleanor Nottingham Dudley, Foster Jennings, Jimmy Howard and Bob Aldrich. Marion chatted with Chester and Helen Baker. Chester is law librarian and is teaching Legal Bibliography at the college.

Edgar Fisher had breakfast in Washington in November with Charlotte Mooers Stevens and her husband, Ed. They were all attending the Medical Society of Virginia Convention at the Shoreham Hotel. Charlotte's husband is a specialist in Internal Medicine and practices in Richmond. Charlotte is quite busy planning to move soon to a new home.

The 1955 drive for annual contributions to the William and Mary Fund is now underway. If you haven't been contributing each year, won't you start now?

News seems ample as far as old W-M friends go, but not so ample as far as the class of '43 is concerned. Shall I just write a line or two about any and all and hope not to infringe too much on other letters?

Thanks to Jacque Fowlkes (Herod) for all the news. We really enjoyed the lengthy letters to Jacque from Terry Teal (Crutchfield) in Cairo and Jeanne Forrestal (Schneider) in Honolulu. Terry and Jack have three children, a houseful of servants and a long line of interesting experiences. Jeanne and Freddie and two sons keep busy. Jeanne's outside activities includes community chest, church work, and Jr. League work.

Sally Kyger (Richardson) and Tony sent a snapshot of their family, four children and two proud parents. Tony is pastor of the new Northwood Presbyterian Church in San Antonio, Texas.

Bunny and Bob Faulconer have a new daughter, new practice in pathology, and new address in Norfolk. What a way to start the new *vear!

A correction on Betsy Douglass (Munves)! She teaches at N.Y.U. and not at Columbia. Our '43 brainchild has a pocketbook edition on nutrition coming out in June, title unknown as yet. Betsy spent a day with Jean Caldwell (Mosgrave) and daughters not too long ago.

Jane Craig (Beaver) sent a picture of her charming son and daughter. She and Bob (now a Commander stationed at Johnsville Naval Air Development Center) bought a home in Philadelphia a year ago. They plan to be there for two more years. Janey mentioned having seen Patty Wattles (Spiegel) and Bill at an Annapolis reunion in October. The Spiegels live in Arlington, Va. We loved the picture of their son and daughter, too.

Mary Hamner (Burton) and J. W. plan to move to Va. sometime this year.

Hal, Kathy, and I spent a wonderful Christmas day with Lois Rea (Gits) and family in La Grange. Lois had heard from Skippy Myers (Sturgeon) and Bill, who are living in Meadville, Pa. Both of their children are in school now.

A while ago we saw the W-M—U. of Richmond basketball game in Richmond. Lester Hooker is having a most successful year as basketball coach at the University.

According to the register, there were only a few '43 classmates present at homecoming. Those present for certain were Jacque Fowlkes (Herod), Jimmy Macon, Buck Bradford, and Scotty Cunningham. Course, Scotty didn't have far to go since he is Dean of Admissions of the College now.

Please let us hear from you! But better still let us see you at our reunion in June. It would be wonderful to see dozens of familiar faces from the Class of '43. Can't you possibly make it? TRY!

Many thanks for all the Christmas cards and notes. Since this issue of the GAZETTE will be sent to all alumni, I'll repeat my big request from the last issue. Please get your Christmas card list and make a copy of the names and addresses of ALL William and Mary alumni and send it to me. We have valid addresses for only 60% of our class—graduates and 44x. We'll get duplications but hope to find some of our "unclaimed", "left no address" classmates from the lists you send. Thanks again and now for the news—

Prickett Carter (Saunders) wrote that they plan to move to West Virginia next summer. Jim is now working for Mobay Chemical Co., a newly formed subsidiary of Monsanto. She says they are growing a tribe of cowboys. Lebe Seay (Grey) and Bill are moving to 213 Virginia Ave., Staunton, February 1.

I'm sorry I missed Lillian Roush (Urquhart) and Dave's phone call when they were in Virginia last summer. They're living in Cochran, Ga., now and Dave is teaching. Gene Hutton (Lentz) and Jay are returning from an assignment in Germany to Langley Field. They have two boys, Johnny and Bobby. Grace Peachy (Funke) and Warren live in Williamsburg. They have two daughters and a son. Warren works at the Bank.

Marion Commery (Boyce) and family are still in Sao Paulo, Brazil. They expect to return to Cleveland in the spring. Com said they have a car and have been to Rio and go to Santos weekends for swimming and boating. Nan Morrow (Mangin) is working at the Boulder City Hospital and Joe is with Titanium Metals.

Mary Dilts (Dixon) had seen several alumni at a dinner Fritz Zepht gave during the holidays and at the Virginia Cotillion in Cleveland. A grand time was had by all. Mary and Bob went with Pat Meckes and date. Dot De-Vaughn (Dent) and Sid live near Chicago but get to Cleveland occasionally. Mary showed me the Christmas card picture of Fay Beeks (Hayes) and Clyde's two year old Robby. They're living in Richmond.

Fran Pendleton (Elliott) sent a photo card of Bill 5½ and Dorothy ½ playing the piano. They're both redheads and keep her active and amused. John is with Inland Steel in East Chicago. She regrets that trips to Virginia are infrequent and then only to her family in Warrenton.

Marilyn Miller (Entwisle) sent me Martha Eddy (Hassell)'s address. Thanks—do hope others will follow your good example!!

Deedee Armor (Cochrane) is travelling again. Ted was selected for Lieut. Commander and has received orders to the USS O'Bannon as Executive Officer. It is based at Pearl Harbor so they plan to drive to San Diego for a visit with Ted's brother's family and then to San Francisco for their ship which will take them out to the Islands. Aloha!

I see Anne Zepht (Stone), '43, every other Wednesday at bridge club. She and Ralph live in Warwick and have three daughters, Pam, Ree and Kim. Mary Raney (Begor), '45, and Roland have been to Baquis and Manila for weekends and enjoyed their trip to Hong Kong. They expect to return to the States in July. Jane Thomas (Folk), '45, and Ted are stationed in Montgomery, Ala. They have two sons and Susan Elizabeth was born in July. Sally Bourne (Mullane), '41, and Bud are in Great Falls, Mont. but expect an overseas assignment soon.

All for now—Please write soon and don't forget those addresses. We hope you will all contribute to the 1955 Fund Drive and JOIN

Good news comes from the Alumni Office that this Gazette is going out to all alumni of the College. So, greetings to you far-flung and long-silent ones who have not been keeping in touch with the class, and we hope that this will inspire you to send us word of your latest doings.

Starting with the most recent tidings of Forty-fivers, let us say that we would have liked having all of you present last week to hear Edie McChesney tell of her travels in the Holy Land and to see her very expertly photographed slides. Edie spoke before the University Women's Club, and Honora Thompson, Katie Pond, and your secretary were among her happy audience. Edie will have another showing of her scenic shots of the Near East next month for the Washington Gamma Phi Betas. Honora is now working for the National Science Foundation, where she has interesting work connected with scholarships and fellowships. She had a fine trip abroad recently, too. Katie does editorial work in the State Department, having transferred to Stateside service after several years in the Foreign Service, which took her to Algiers, Geneva, China, Japan, and the Philippines.

Edie occasionally sees Janet Miller Condon at the Chevy Chase Junior Women's Club. Lately she has visited various classmates, Rachel Lyne Jorgensen and Mary Ellen MacLean Hall most recently. Mary Ellen and Bob have finished building their gem of a house in Nassau, New York.

There was a nice reunion of old friends at Sheila Keane's wedding, with Beth McCelland and John McCorkle, Scarlett Pettigrew, and Gary Garrison, according to Carolyn Hughes Opitz. Cary furnishes Sheila's new address: Mrs. Walter Gibbonsfly, 13 Christopher Street, New York, New York; and her own: 4427 Strathmore Avenue, Garrett Park, Maryland.

Dot Hoadley Burnett is busy getting settled in St. Louis and being astonished at being the only easterner her new friends know.

247 East Sixteenth Street, San Bernardino, Calif., is Judy Sullivan Murray's new address.

Marion Lang Van Dam writes that Betsy Yow Pearce expects to be home from Germany in July, after two years abroad. Wille Anne Boschen Wright and Jack are pleased that they will be bringing their three children and their worldly goods back "home" to Richmond to live, after having spent the past year in Florida. Mary Raney Begor had a visit to Hong Kong last summer; she and Roland are delighted with their post at Clark Field in the Philippines. They will be in Washington for a couple of months when they return to the States.

Ruth Schmitz Kerns and Jim will soon be living in Denver. Jerry, their little Cub Scout, is as excited about the prospect of snow as his parents are over Jim's fine promotion with his airline. In California Ruth was substitute teaching at the elementary school. The Kernses have two children Dinny Lee McAlinden and Joe saw Muriel Koch Ernstmeyer in California while on their six weeks' honeymoon trip. They have a pretty little stone house in Hopewell, New Jersey now.

A Vermont Thanksgiving with the paternal grandparents was enjoyed by Jeanie Boyle Herbert, Tom, and their son John.

Mrs. Lambeth called on Marion Lang Van Dam in October. Mrs. L. enjoys her retirement and keeps up wonderfully with her Chi O. girls. At the W & M-Rutgers game Marion and Ted saw Daphne and John Crum, who reported that they have three children now.

Ginger Prickett Cage's husband Lee is in Formosa, and the last we heard she was planning to take the four children and join him for Christmas.

Betty Aurell Schutz's quartet has been doing fine work entertaining in hospitals and institutional homes.

4936 Twenty-Fourth Road, North, Arlington, Virginia, is the address of Phyllis Ebling Tavel's new beautiful home.

Marion, who supplied most of the above information, writes that, besides all her homemaking activities and church work, she occasionally does some advertising copywriting just to keep her hand in, and that, besides his expanding business (with a big new office), Ted does Boy Scout work and church work. They plan to repeat their camping outings with their two boys and say it's the most fun possible.

Kay Tomlinson Bartlett writes that her daughter is in the first grade and that Bart, her husband, has been doing quite a bit of traveling in connection with his job, going as far as Texas once in a while. Kay lives not far from Ginny Baureithel Leopold and hopes to see something of her and Bill.

In October Peg Johnson Smart moved to 1 Wampatuck Road, Quincy 69, Mass.

Last August, on his annual tour of Texas to meet students before school starts, Jack Carter met some 500 students in 20 cities. Jack has been busy with conferences, retreats, and preaching engagements in various parts of Texas. He and Joan and the three children went to Norman, Oklahoma, for Jack's brother Jim's wedding in December. Next summer Jack will direct the first Work Camp ever conducted by the Episcopal Church in a foreign country. He and his helper will go to the little village of Alejandra, south of Cuernavaca, Mexico, for two months to lead a group of students from all over the country in working on a dormitory for grade school children there. The group will live in tents, prepare their own meals, and spend free time in religious discussion. There will be a grand chance to brush up on Spanish and see some places of interest, too. Jack will take young Steve with him, and hopes that Joan and Chris will go, too. Jack writes that there are 1603 Episcopal students enrolled at the University this year and that he and his staff are very busy but love their work. There will be a fine new parish house and student center next fall.

We are glad to hear that Bill Reynolds, Jean Ferebee's husband, is recovering well and getting back after his long illness.

Betty Bradley participated in St. John's College's "Seminar in Europe" last summer. It sounds like a remarkably good way to travel. Now Betty is secretary to the public relations and promotion director of Norfolk Newspapers and teaches English at Norfolk Division at night.

Please, everyone, notice the section in this issue on the 1955 Fund Drive and let it show that 1945 is a grateful, loving class to our very favorite college!

Mrs. H. W. Cunningham (Cecil Cary Waddell) 707 Monumental Ave. Williamsburg, Va.

It was good news to hear from the Alumni Office that all alumni will receive this issue of the Gazette. Maybe the mail will pick up and we will hear from classmates long silent. The notes on Christmas cards make up most of this letter. I got behind on my cards this year due to a trip to New York in the middle of December. Please accept this as a personal card.

Joyce Remsberg Shank and Tim are in D.C. but expect overseas orders this Spring. She wrote that Jacy Borman Stroup's husband has received another promotion with the C&P telephone company and they are moving to Annapolis. They have moved three time within a year.

Sally-Lou Smith Nelson sent an announcement of the arrival of second son, Stephen, in August, 1953. Brother Johnnie is three. Sally-Lou said Carol Sterner is married and living in Amarillo, Texas.

Ben Read sent a card from Japan. It's pretty enough to frame. Fran and their two girls are here with the Wageners. Fran had supper with me recently and said Ben has sent her lovely gifts.

Monie Price Burbank and Ken have a new home in Richmond—8514 Holly Hill Rd. Pam Pauly Chinnis and Carter have bought a three story, restored, Georgetown-style house on Capitol Hill. Pam is working for Congressman Davis and says house, job and learning to cook keep her busy.

Patty Wattles Spiegel said they had seen Hunky and Suzy Henderson who are living in Arlington near the Spiegels. Fran Tompkins Fletcher and Felix are settled in Chapel Hill, N. C. He is with the Atlantic Insurance Co. Judy Tompkins and husband Gene are in Brevard, N. C., where he has his law practice.

Bob and Louise Henderson own their home in Norfolk and have two boys and a girl. Pat and Warren Smith are in their new home in York, Pa. She says there is much more to do, but they love the house.

I know you will all join me in extending sympathy to Jackie Sanne Cox and John. They lost their little girl who was only a week old on December 23. Audrey Bass says Randy is in first grade now and keeps her on the go, and Julie Rowan Murray and John added Dean Rowan to their family on August 7.

The Murrays are in Houston where John is a lawyer.

Jane and Bob Gleason wrote from the French border in Germany. They were in Frankfurt for 4½ months. Jane ended her card—come to see us soon—I think it was an oversight!

Herb Young and Jane are in California with the Marine Corps. Herb had to come East in the Fall and we enjoyed a brief visit. They made the trip to the burg for last Christmas, but that's some ordeal with two youngsters. Polly Krotts Wright wrote in October that she and Mel have seen Charlie Grether and his wife in Fresno. The Grethers have twins and added another boy last June. The Wrights now tally in at four . . . two of each. Pat and Bill Slater visited the Wrights last summer en route to Los Angeles from a trip to Yosemite.

Mary Baker Flynn and Fahey sent a picture of son Jamie who is one year old. Mary says they are looking for larger quarters as Jamie is getting quite active. Incidentally, Mary, you had no return address on your card. You people, try to remember how important addresses are.

The Virginia papers are a wonderful source of news about alumni. Recently, Allen Tanner was featured receiving a citation for "humanitarian service in cerebral palsy work." He is chairman of the Board of Governors of UCP—sponsored Peninsula Cerebral Palsy Training Center. Also saw that Dan Goldman of the Cavalier Advertising Agency was elected President of the Advertising Club of Norfolk.

Betty Evans McIntosh says her 10th reunion is coming up, but that she still feels she's a '46er. Anyway, Jim has never been to Williamsburg—so what more excuse do you need? Brooksie Harper Kopp and John have recently built a home in Waycross, Georgia. We missed them last summer when they visited here and saw the Common Glory.

Irene Wentz Patton wrote from Missouri. She and Glenn have a son who was two in February.

It was not possible to get the Game Room for the Homecoming party this year, but I understand it is all lined up for next Fall so begin to make your plans. Nancy Grube, Dotty Hammer, Wally and Lois Heatwole, Fritz Zepht and Pete Quynn were among those present in the Fall. Scott and I had dinner with Buck and Lila Bradford and heard about their new home in Lynchburg. We caught a glimpse of Jene Carr Dent and Jerrie Healy Clay.

Dotty Hammer was en route to Virginia Beach to visit Martha Mills Webster. So we have found one of the lost—now here are some more: Jacqueline Adams, Frances Buttler Parsons, Sally Reik Despard and Beth Long Beals. Just put the address on a postcard and send it along

Mrs. Stringfellow told me that Barbara Gray has left Richmond and is in California with one of the large department stores. Jill and Owen Elliott are out that way . . . in Denver, Colorado. They came East this summer and are in process of moving at present.

Norma Tucker Katz and Eddie are building a home in Williamsburg. (This is beginning to sound like a real estate report.)

Sue, please send me the postcard machine so I can worry the class. Thank all of you for your cards and notes and a belated wish for a Happy New Year. When the postcard apparatus arrives—watch out—I plan to swamp you.

Hi! Here's the Christmas report:

Carolyn Thomas (McGregor): ". . . hello from the McGregors-all half-dozen of us! Texas is quite dry and dusty but we love it here." The signature is too Irish to miss, to wit: "Jack, Carolyn, Tom, Frances, Bob and Kathleen.'

Connie Conway (Godwin): "Mark . three, and marvelous-still want 10 like him." To judge from the picture of marvelous Mark, what Connie once described as her "early attic" furniture decor has been replaced by more swish stuff. She and Stu are still in Silver Spring, Md.

Barbara Davidson (Winston): ". here in Northern, Pa. Ralph finished his residency in '53 and is now on the staff at the Robert Packer Hospital-in Internal Medicine. We are buying a house (ugh)—not new but nice and roomy with lots of yard . . . Saw Pat Curran in August. She is living and working in Washington, D. C. . . . Janet Campbell (Alley) . . . is in Colonial Heights (Va.)."

Jerry Willyard (Hunter): ". . . have had a busy year with our son arriving in February to start things off. He has been a child who is easily reared—thank goodness. For during the past few months he has suffered greatly. It all started on September 19th, when he fell from his bathinette and received a severe skull concussion and brain fracture. He was in the hospital five days, then home for seven when we had to return him to the hospital for his fracture had widened. The brain specialist had feared an operation but . . . our son recovered amazingly well and today has no ill effects . . . (he) always comes up smiling. He's such a satisfaction to us. We're expecting our second this coming February, so anticipate another busy but rewarding year."

Jackie Armour (Barnes): "Right now we are anxiously waiting to see what the March wind is going to blow our way!! We are expecting our first baby and you can imagine how happy

Lois Willis (Vorhis): "We moved to Tokyo this fall and it is certainly a fascinating city! We'll really be sorry to leave in March, but the U. S. will look grand to us just the same! We're hoping to live around Washington." On the Christmas-card picture son Dave in a Japanesescript-printed shirt looked a lot like his mother.

Ruth Thistle (Sultzbach): "Karen is almost three now, and little Janet arrived in Septem-Fran Brown (White): (Deidre and Emily) "are aged 41/2 and 2 . . . chilluns just grow up too fast.'

Tina Jones (Carr): "Had a note from Thelma (Scottie) Murray (Smith.) She has a boy 11/2 and is expecting another right away. She lives in Hyannis, Mass. and her husband does something in banking. She said Marge Williams (Walters), Hohokus, New Jersey, had her first child, a boy, last Feb. 22.

Ran into Barbara Mitchell at the last W & M Alum meeting. She lives here (in Arlington) with Fran Fleming and works for American Express, a travel agency.

Barbara Duborg is married to a lawyer and lives here in the village. She has a girl about three and a baby boy.

"Ann Anderson was married Labor Day weekend and lives outside Hampton. Sally Phillips (Milleur) is married to a lawyer and lives over in Washington. She works for Blue Cross. Saw Edie Horne just before Ann was married. She lives in Washington with her

'India Boozer (Harrison) lives in Louisville, Kentucky. Don is teaching at the U. of Ditto. They have two boys, three and two, I think. Don got his Ph. D. at Yale in '52.'

Laurie Pritchard (Andrews): "Patty Wattles (Spiegel) and Bill are in Washington . . . or more precisely Arlington. They have two youngsters, Billy and Joannie. Last summer they were visited by BeeGee Grant and two offspring (names and ages and sex of which I do not know.) Elaine Ott (Moore) and husband live in High Point, North Carolina; have produced a second child this year, a girl. Miss B. (Beatrice Beveridge, beloved housemother to Chandler and the Pi Phis) is of course still in England, Mrs. John Mosely-Williams, 63 Wembly Park Drive, Wembly, Middlesex, England. She would love news of the old school and her former charges. I correspond with her sporadically and we always enjoy her very newsy and very British accounts of things from the coronation to world trade. She saw Miss Barksdale in England last summer. .

'As for ourselves. John is a general foreman at General Electric (small integral Motor Dept.) (in Fort Wayne, Indiana.) He works six days a week and often nights and is generally a busy boy. We both teach Sunday school at the First Presbyterian Church, 5th and 6th grade. Johnny is approaching five and Martha almost three. No prospects for others at the moment. We live in a six-room colonial (stretching the meaning of the word a bit) house which we own, or as John says, in which we have a small equity in the front porch. We have progressed to a two-car family, having acquired a station wagon to pile children in. We enjoy cocktail parties, bridge, dances and then family parties and picnics during the summer. Have not written a word on the great American novel, not even a short story. Let out my writer's frustrations being publicity chairman for Pi Phi Alumnae, public relations chairman for the League of Women Voters and doing an occasional bit for the Junior League local sheet.'

Then there were the cards without notes, but they did have return addresses, some photographs and multiple signatures, from which the following items have been deduced:

Betty Borenstein (Scher) has a charming small daughter, Linda, with a smile full of teeth. They live in Baltimore, where husband Sid is presumably still with the Calvert people.

Marcia, sent a card from Springfield, Penna, postmarked Media, Penna. May we assume that Dick mailed it on his way to work in Media from their cottage in Springfield?

Marge Oak (Jolly) and Bill declare anew their intention of making the long haul from Petersburg to Richmond to visit us Coxes. I visited Marge in a hospital here last Spring just after she'd produced a daughter to go with young Bill, III, and she reported that Bill, Jr., is a terrific father—goes for the youthful fun and games.

Pat and Jane, three and one-year-olds, respectively, shared a large ball before the fireplace on Millie Draper (Lipps)'s card. Husband Al is a pharmacist and they live in Luray, Va.

Dan Wilson has moved from Allport, Penna., and is now director of the research laboratory at Cities Service Plant at Maplewood, Louisiana.

Pat Jones is still in Boston, working as an engineer part time and painting happily the rest, according to brother Bud, who is a reporter for the Richmond Times-Dispatch. Bud married a vivacious Greek professor named Paula, whom he met while he was working for a Lynchburg paper.

My spouse covers the Federal beat for Bud's competition, the Richmond News-Leader, among other duties, such as building furniture, mechanicking the family car, and being the "bad guy" for sheriffs Fletcher III (aged 6) and Jim (aged 4). I'm housekeeping an apartment, teaching a small, moribund kindergarten and gasping at the brilliance of the youngsters, who are teaching me a thing or two.

And there you are!

Mrs. Paul T. Eitel (Mary Minton Cregor) 1970 Deer Park Avenue Louisville, Ky.

I guess I have Santa Claus to thank for this letter since the only news received this time came via the Christmas Card route. Since this issue of the Gazette is going out to all Alumni, maybe a few of you will be spurred on to greater things—such as dropping me a line as to your whereabouts and what you are doing.

The following item deserves much credit so I shall quote (sort of): "Since I keep up with the news of the classmates ('48) of my daughter, nee Kay Larson, in your column in the Gazette, I feel I should contribute an item. Kay should, and would, write you were I nearer her to do a bit of grandfatherly babysitting. After living in Boston and Annapolis, Kay, her husband Casper Neer, and three children, Michael, Sally Brooke, and Thomas, are back on Virginia soil and are living in Hollin Hills, near Alexandria. Cas is a Washington architect, a student of Gropius. He won the 1954 first prize in a national competition for modern church design. Their new home has been featured in Better Homes & Gardens (June '54), New York Times Magazine (twice), Architectural Forum, House & Home, and the Washington Post. Kay said the house doesn't even have a leak in the roof to make for conversation." Mr. Larson, I thank you from the bottom of my heart for writing to us. Wish we had a few more fathers like you—to say nothing of a few sons and daughters!

Jane Seaton (Harrell) wrote that their new addition is Peter Kirby, as of November 12.

Jane wrote "I just somehow didn't think we'd ever have a BOY and I still am taken aback when people ask me how my SON is doing!"

Speaking of sons, Betty Littlefield (Dallet) and Danny have a new one—Richie—the image of his father, she says. Betty Ellen said she thought we'd better start working on our 10th-year reunion right now so we'll all be sure to get together. Then I started counting. It's hard to believe we've been out of school seven years this June. Our next reunion isn't as far off as we would probably like to think it is!

Nancy Holland (Blanford) wrote of having a nice surprise right before Christmas. Opened her front door and there stood Ginger O'Hare (West). She and her husband had just moved to Jacksonville. Nancy had also seen Dotsy Thiedick (Miles) and Ruth Maroney (Isaacs) and Duke.

Helen Thomson (Stafford) wrote that she and Paul were still in Rye and that their big news was the arrival of Paul Tutt Stafford, Jr. on September 18th. She said they used to see Jane Spencer (Smith) and Bill when they lived in Harrison but in August they moved to Grosse Pointe. Bill changed jobs and accepted a position with one of the Detroit advertising agencies. Helen also said that Audre Barthold (Vogler) is back in Bethelem, Pa., where her husband is interning.

Anne Andrews (Snead) sent pictures of her two children, Lin and George. As I have said before, I do love to get pictures.

Also heard from were Ed Griffin, Nora Spann (Chandler) and Bob, Rock Palese, Bonnie Wolfgram (Ware) and Frank, Harriet Hinman (Eubank) and Hal, Jean Bevans, Weezie McMabb (Doermer) and Dick, Barbara Hughes (Henritze) and Dave, Jack Fritz and Mary Belford (Engler) and Marty. I thank you, one and

Right now, we're in the middle of the March of Dimes and Mother's March on Polio Campaigns. Each one of these letters seems to catch me in the middle of something.

As you see, in another part of the Gazette, this is the beginning of the 1955 FUND. Let's try and better our position. I don't know the figures at this point but it seems to me we could do lots better than what we do.

Forty-nine

Mrs. Lawrence E. Barron (Eva Kafka) 6170 Carvel Ave. Indianapolis, Ind.

Christmastime brought a most gratifying number of letters and cards, and to all of you who wrote, many thanks for helping make this my longest column to date—especially appreciated because this issue of the Gazette will be reaching all the alumni of the College.

First, news of two recent arrivals: a girl, Helen Diana born to Diana Wedel (Riley) and Jack in October; and a second boy, Lloyd Bennett, for Babs Griffin (Whitaker) and Sam.

From former class secretary, Barbara Seifert, came a note to say she is currently interning in pedodontia at Eastman Dental Dispensary, Rochester, New York, and hopes eventually to have a dental practice exclusively for children.

Mary Lou Hostetter, who became Mrs. Augustus M. Winder on New Year's Day, sent a wonderful, long letter. She and her husband are now living in Haddonfield, New Jersey, and Gus (W. & M. '42) works for RCA in Camden. Before the flurry of wedding preparations overtook her, Lou found time to visit Teddy Baker (Clark) '48, and Phil in Roanoke. She hears, occasionally, from Anne Beekley (Waldo) and Mark, currently living in Douglas, Georgia where Mark is an Episcopalian rector. Two sons, Sam and Andy, also manage to keep the Waldo household busy!

Trevor Collman, the '48-'49 Exeter exchange student, is now Dr. Collman, teaching American history at Penn State. Lou sees him and his wife Beryl occasionally. She also hears from Helen Dean (Bennett) and Ken, now living in Falls Church, Virginia, and Mary Wilcox (Rietman) in Arlington. Both the Bennetts, and Rietmans have added young sons to the family, Marianna Merner (49x) teaches Kindergarten in St. Louis, and Marty Adams teaches at Penn State.

Little Rock, Arkansas now numbers Jane Rogers (Murgatroyd) with her three children, and Jo Wattles (Ash) and Dusty among its William and Mary population. Our thanks to Lou for all the news-as well as the account of a 10,000 mile auto trip she had this past summer, covering the U.S. from Pennsylvania to California.

Shirley Major (Wartel) '48, and Bill are waiting to move into their new home in Wilmington, Delaware where Dr. Wartel is now working in the duPont research laboratories. Their first baby is due in March.

Mary Allen Phillips (Indence) and Pat sent a Christmas card with a picture of their darling children Jeff and Pattie. Pat is the Eastern divisional manager for Mystik Tape. They have been in their new home since last March.

Claire Brinley (Berner), Bill, and daughter Lynn are still at SMU, Dallas. Claire is the alumna adviser for the big Tri Delt chapter at the University. She managed to attend Gene Griffin's wedding in Fort Worth last November, and often sees Ruth Volkert (Randle) and John in Houston, Texas.

Another fine, long letter from Audrey Allein (Hoitsma) tells of how much she and Lou like Andover, Massachusetts where Lou coaches and teaches math. Audrey's current role is mainly domestic, but she manages to work for the Phillips Academy psychologist and psychiatrist several mornings a week. She saw Penny Allenbaugh (Goodsill) in November for their first reunion since Graduation. Penny, her husband Stan (who is a CPA in Honolulu), and new daughter were visiting the States for several months. Beverly Horner (Bigelow) also has a new family addition, a boy, and a new address-47 Norfolk Road, Chestnut Hills, Massachusetts. Carol Achenbach (Taylor) and Warren have moved to 90 Park Circle in Atlanta, Pennsylvania.

summer while Lou finished his masters degree requirements. Of course they saw lots of old friends-especially Pat Arnold (Adams) and Bob who has been practicing dentistry in Portsmouth for over a year. The Adams have a two year old girl and a little boy born last Easter.

Marie Blair, now Mrs. Robert C. Daly, was married last summer and is living at Fort Myer, Virginia where her husband is an Army captain. Henry Blanc (proud father of another daughter born November 24, 1954) has taken over his father's lumberyard in Jefferson City, Ten-

Our final bit of news concerns John W. Mc-Crary, Jr. who has just been appointed an instructor in the Department of Psychology at Dartmouth College.

To everyone of you we wish a successful and happy 1955-remember the William and Mary Fund Drive now under way, and give generously. Remember, also, your class secretary who hopes to hear from many more of you for the next issue of the Gazette.

Recently discharged from the service is Franklin Rosenfeld.

Dick Scofield, star string correspondent of the class, sends the following. The Scofields are now three; Sharon Elizabeth arrived in September.

Dick saw Bob Rawlings in Las Vegas after Bob had just become engaged to a young lady from the same city. He expected to be separated from the service in the fall and was considering settling in Las Vegas.

Phil DuLaney is just back from his second tour in Japan and again stationed at Great Falls, Mont.

Tom Hill is now working on a newspaper in Tampa, Florida.

Bill Burnett is "enjoying married life" in Newport News and "still prospering in the investment racket.'

Les Olson visited the Scofields in Phoenix while there for the Southwest tennis matches.

Steve Drazan writes that he was married in 1952 after receiving his M.S. in marketing from Columbia Business School and a year later went into the service. He and Carol Lynne have been in Petersburg since last June. Steve is with the Quartermaster Research and Development Field Evaluation Agency at Fort Lee. When this sees print he will be both father and once again

In January Dr. Robert Greenfield and wife Sandra became parents of a son, Lawrence. Bob

Via grapevine we hear that Wirt Grubbs is a tobacconist in Richmond, that Rod La-Montagne is in Los Gatos, Calif., that Jim Davidson, special agent, F.B.I., is married, living in Pittsburgh, and father of Jim, Jr., and Jeanne Anne.

We are delighted that all alumni are to receive the GAZETTE. We hope that this will stimulate more widespread interest in the college—and that some lost alumni will return to the fold and write to us.

Mrs. Allan S. Wagner (Betty Hicks) 1436 Randolph Road Plainfield, N. J.

I'll see if I can collect my wits and my Christmas cards between feedings and write a few lines. Someone is always hungry around here—mostly our little one.

Next summer when you plan your weekends at Virginia Beach stop in at the Waverly Hotel and visit with Robert Strohkorb. He, along with his parents, is part owner and says W & M alums are especially welcome. Robert spent three and a half years in the Navy, getting out last April. He's teaching now at Princess Anne H. S.

Couldn't quite make Homecoming myself so I asked George Ritzel to let me in on "who was there." Abner Huffman is still teaching out near Roanoke. Martha Wood was in town and is still with Street and Smith. Did you see the four page spread on Marci in August's Mademoiselle?

Bitsy Lewis is coaching in Portsmouth and Ralph Hart is working at Langley Field. Marvin West and Bobby Barlow are in dental school in Richmond. Also still in Richmond are Bob and Jessie Parker and Jim and Elaine Baker.

Jim and Yvette (Hickey) Anthony had their second daughter in December.

George and two friends have rented a furnished house on Chamberlayne Ave. He sure is happy to be back in the Old Dominion.

Betty Cox (Scott) is just down from us in Princeton. She's been living there for two and a half years now, while John has been working on his PhD in Aeronautical Engineering. They'll be at the University at least another year because John has accepted a job as assistant director of a Naval research project.

Joan Meadows (Hawkins) has a new daughter and is living in Falls Church. Virginia Gallaher (Sharp) is living in the Baltimore area while Edward is interning at Johns Hopkins.

Anne Dunn (Nock) and Claude are in Ashland, Ky. where Claude is doing rehabilitation work in the correctional institution.

Sarah Enos and Sidna Chockley (both teaching in Martinsville, Va.) took a long trip to the west coast last summer. Phoebe Martin (Harcum) and Rae are in Ann Arbor, Mich. where he is working on an advanced degree.

Received a picture of the Colosseum from Peggy Harmon. From France she had traveled to Geneva, Milan, Venice, Florence, and Rome. Thence she was to be on her way to Naples, Sorrento, Capri, Pompeii, and over to Athens. Now Peg has settled down in Marrakech, French Morocco and is working with the American Red Cross.

Jan Noyes received her MA from Northwestern and went on to work for the Showcase Theatre in Chicago, the Evanston Children's Theatre, and the Old Log Theatre. Now she's in charge of scenic design of the Star Theatre in Minneapolis.

Sally Shick is a converted westerner. She went out to Denver a year ago to teach kindergarten and liked it so much she decided to stay another year.

Sarah Anne Dozier (Morehead) is a muchon-the-move Navy wife. She married an Academy man three years ago and has done nothing but travel. They lived in Boston and Newport, R. I. for several months. One summer she followed Ralph to Europe and spent a couple of months traveling by train up and down the Italian coast meeting him at each port he visited. While over she also visited Malta, Switzerland, France, and England. Last winter they were stationed in San Francisco and in June they journeyed back across the country to Norfolk.

Learned that Helen Grisaffi (Wilmoth) has a daughter and Katie Olinger (MacMillan) has two little boys.

Virginia Cottrell (Linkenauger) and Mont are living in Hyattesville, Md. while Mont is stationed at Walter Reed Hospital as a physical therapist. Their son is a year old now.

Teddy Nicas is still helping her folks at the Crater Restaurant. She says she sees many of the old gang who drop in. Who, Teddy?

Ann Lewis (Laughlin) and Chuck are still in Charlottesville, though Chuck is through law school. He's Judge Armistead Dobie's law clerk for a year and in September will look for something permanent. Ann and Chuck made their annual visit to the Burg for the Wake Forest weekend and saw Betsy Graves (Hornesby) and Norm, Rocky Mayo, Dick Clarke, and Jim Campbell. Jim is teaching in Norfolk.

Ann hears from Jan Summers from Sea Island and Pittsburgh, mostly from the Island. Jean Folk (Steiglitz) and Betty Walsh (Washington) visited Jan in November.

Marge Brown was promoted with her class and is the senior sponsor this year. It entails much outside work, such as directing the class play. Bill Davies is the coach at the school where Marge teaches.

Marge was back for Homecoming and saw Anne Staples, who is a lab technician in Charlottesville. Janice Quick (Pickrell) and Jim were up from Portsmouth. Hank Kashouty and Keecha (Costas) were up from Hampton. Hank is practicing law and Keecha is teaching in the grade school.

After Betty Swecker left Mexico she had four months in the States before reporting to the American Embassy in El Salvador last April. She's still with the Army Attache and has a two year tour of duty. Betty doesn't find El Salvador as glamorous, colorful, or historically interesting as Mexico, but the current events in Central America have provided some excitement.

One of the high lights of her stay so far was a motor trip to Guatemala via the Inter-American Highway, which in Guatemala is no more than a mule path. She found Antigua so picturesque that she spent her entire visit there.

Had a great long letter from Mary Anne Woodhouse (Waugh). She parked the boys with her mother for five days this summer and flew down to Havana to meet Ron. They had a glorious time—typical tourists with camera and band aids on their heels. They took in everything from the Morro Castle to a "Jai-Lai" game.

Janie Copland is back in this country again—way out in California. She has two little girls.

Jane Waters was married to Raymond (Bud) Nielsen last February and they have an almost grown-up family already, namely Bud's son, Geoffrey, aged eight. She's a full-fledged mother, well versed in all the first aid, back yard diplomacy, and nerves-of-steel that mothers of eight-year-olds must have. They're living in an apartment now, but are looking for a decrepit old farm house that will metamorphose into a House Beautiful cover.

Bev McAnally (Boyce) and Jim are in the Hartford area and get together with Jane and Bud often.

Peggy Wayne (McReynolds), Arnie, and their two boys are in Chilhowie, Va. where Arnie is high school coach.

Anne Reese (Carson) is teaching in Rolla, Missouri, as Bev is stationed near there.

Jane Dill (Gleason) is over in Germany with Bob now. Her only remark—"It's cold!"

Lloyd Adams is still with GE in Schenectady. He has a daughter, three, and a son, eighteen months.

Tita Cecil (Myers) had a two weeks voyage aboard a transport to Yokohama to join Clark and arrived just a day after he sailed away on a two month's cruise! Tita followed the fleet for several weeks to Formosa and Hong Kong, but now they've settled down for eighteen months together while Clark is stationed at a small communications base. During the months Tita was awaiting passage to Japan she led the life of a nomad up and down the coast of Calif. She worked as a councellor at a children's camp in the mountains and also at I. Magnin's in San Francisco for a while. Before she left she visited Martha Belford, teaching in San Diego; Phoebe Holmes, living in Los Angeles and working at the Phone Co.; Nan Ellis in Berkeley; and Tuga Wilson in Santa Barbara.

The transport stopped in Honolulu and Tita met Anne Brower (Turner) for lunch on Waikiki. Anne is a Marine wife and is expecting her third.

Wish I could relate all of the travelogue I received from Delores Klak. She's living in Brooklyn now after two years in PaloAlto. This past spring and summer were spent traveling in Europe. She stayed in France over a month and then went on to Switzerland. Her next stop was Copenhagen, and from there she journeyed to the Netherlands and Belgium. Then she covered the British Isles and blew home through the hurricane that hit us the end of August.

Another country is being heard from and I'll have to sign off. No, I didn't write all this between one feeding and the next. Al helped out by poking food in Allan about mid-way through. Fathers are a wonderful help.

Send a check off to the Society right now and now that all of you are receiving the Gazette I'll expect my mail to be delivered by truck!

Mrs. Wendel W. Smith (Doris Ann Hasemeyer) 39 Prospect Street Trenton, New Jersey

Well, Spring is almost here, but we still have a few notes of interest to tell you all what some of us have been doing during the Fall and

For one thing, Cadsie Forman (Moe) and Chris have been busy taking care of Eric Henry Moe since October 24th. They sent a cute papoose-type announcement from down Chapel Hill, N. C. way.

Had a real nice letter from Ronnie Barnes and his "blushing bride" Betsy (Skinker). They're living at 10361/2 University in Boulder, Colorado (hint to passing travelers) while Ron is studying for his Masters in P. E. at the U. of Colorado. Their wedding must have been like a homecoming, Harry Wirth was Ronnie's best man, with pre-wedding parties attended by Bernie Wittcamp, "Bullet" Lawson, Tina Bass, Mardie Pontius, Mary Knabb, "Tanky" Fichtenger, Ann Ingoe (Miller), Judy Bell and Madge Cushing. Ron also mentioned 'couple of wonderful parties" at Bev and Bill Luther's house (class of 47 or 48, Ron thought). Ronnie's news of others read as follows: Harry just received his wings from Pensacola and has recently been stationed at the Norfolk Naval Air Station to patrol the tideland waters for subs. "Bullet" recently got married, Ron reports, while Bernie is still at the Richmond Med Center. Ron said he saw Bebe Fisher (Arbuckle) at the last football game. News from Ralph Francis was that he's at the U. of Indiana working for his Masters in Bus. Ad. George Emerson is at Purdue and was scheduled to be married to Peggy Ives '54 in November (Flash! Nov. 27th was the date via the grapevine), while Bob and Peggy Hackler are at Anderson, Indiana where Bob is working for G. E. Ron's last bit of news was about Charlie Somervell who was married to a gal from Kilmarnock (found out later her name is Maxine) and is serving with the regional office of the Army Audit Agency in Kansas City, Mo., Ronnie's home town. (A news bulletin from the Army Home Town News Center tells us that Charlie was with Reynolds Metals Co. in Richmond before "joining up" in October of '53.)

Had a real chatty Xams card from Katie Byers in Arlington. Katie's future plans include a June 11th wedding to Bob Hoffman-a former W & Mite who is now in med school at State U. of Iowa. She reports seeing Audrey Dixon (Fawcett), hubby Kenny and 1 year old Kenny Jr. quite often. Another news note from her was that Genevra Gaskins (Burgess) is living in Blacksburg while her husband is finishing school. Katie added that Frank Franklin (Batchelder) and Bob are stationed in Georgia, and that Mollie Murphy (Daniel) who's hubby is stationed at Norfolk was headed toward Arlington to show off her "recent addition" to the in-laws. Still more news-Nancy Yowell and Connie Carhart are still in Schenectady working with G. E.; Pat Roland (Matthews) had a '54 Valentine wedding; Ann Mason left her job in Richmond to teach school near her home in Lynchburg; and lastly, that Katie herself is teaching 6th grade and will continue out in Iowa City next year after her Another Xmas greeting came from Rufus Van Zandt in Palo Alto, California. Ruf just got back from Korea and is presently enrolled at Stanford Grad School of Business.

Ruf isn't the only one way out thar in California. Bob Rehlaender is now working for Brush, Slocumb & Co., Inc., an investment firm in 'Frisco. Bob says he likes the securities business "so far." He also mentioned brother Jim being in Cincinnati and that he and wife "Tink" (Bell) were expecting a brother or sister for Jim Jr. in April.

Way out in Minneapolis, Andy Anderson writes that her job at Mt. Olivet Church and the young people of the congregation are being written up for "Look" magazine to appear in a late Spring issue. Andy was home at Christmastime and while there stopped off in Middletown, Ohio to see Maribe Chandler (Hill), husband "Tip" and daughter Mary Ellen. Just as she was there, Bernie Nolan dropped in to join the "do you remember?" session. Andy told of Jeanne Vester (Olsen) and Ray's new baby boy, and of Pat Hitchcock (Broadfoot)'s January 8th wedding. We'll be LOOK-ing at you this Spring, Andy.

The Alumni Office forwards us these tidbits of news: Marshall White is taking up engineering at Maryland after being an A. F. 2nd Lt.; and Bob Landen is serving with the Army in the Pentagon and expects to be released in June after which he will continue his grad work.

Local news has it that Mr. and Mrs. Jay Sawyer (Janet McGowan) are dating the stork for this spring.

And that's about it for now. Please don't forget to send a card or letter to catch us up on the doings of those of you who aren't spoken for in this column. See you all next issue.

Mrs. Harold J. Woolston, Jr. (Barbara Jo Mott) 2049 North 62nd St. Philadelphia 31, Pa.

Since you new readers are anxious, I hope, to read about the '53 alums, I'll skip any introduction and start right in with my bits of news for this issue.

Carmen Romeo and Jim Shatynski stopped by for lunch way back on December 4th. During a meeting we decided to send each of you Christmas cards which we hope reached the proper destinations. If you did not receive a card it means only that I do not have each new address. Please keep in touch with the Alumni Office so I in turn can reach you. Carmen, "Shag" and I are working on a system whereby certain class members will keep in touch with a specified number of '53 graduates and send along the news about them to me. The work would be voluntary. Our treasury funds are low, so we hope to get this plan underway soon. We also talked of having informal gettogethers or reunions on Homecoming weekends instead of waiting for each five year reunion. Enough for the business angle.

Homecoming in November sounded so terrific—it really made me want to be there. "Shag" and Carmen brought me up-to-date on everyone there and their whereabouts, so here goes: Gerry and Ann Allred Atwater attended; they now have a third member in their family. Jack and Helen Barber Stabill are expectant parents. Jack is still in law school in Pittsburgh. Ken and Julie St. John Hackler were there. Ken's Marine duty places him in Havelock, North Carolina, where "Boots" Crovo Wickham, '54 and Marine husband, Howard, are living. Bob Barrett is in MCV Medical School. "Buddy" Barker is at Ft. Meade, Maryland, where Carmen is until the end of his Army duty. Jane Hale is employed by the National Geographic Society in Washington, D. C. Dave Wakefield, '52 is working in D. C. for Procter and Gamble. Dave and Lee Bradly Wakefield live in nearby College Park. "Randy" Hoes is an Ensign in the Navy and at present is stationed on the battleship Mississippi in Norfolk, which makes possible frequent trips to W. & M. George Walter is with the Army in Norfolk. "Rich" Gonier is still in the 75th AAA Battalion at D. C. Jim and Bev Kelly were there and are expecting their new "addition" this spring. Joe Burke is working in North Carolina. Bob Cattell and Bob Turvene are with the Army in the Pentagon. Bob Cattell expects to be released in June and to continue graduate work in government. Jim Seu is assistant manager at Howard Johnsons in Williamsburg. Dave Belew and his wife are way out in Ohio. "Wally" Wilsey is still at Fort Bragg. Carolyn Raymond works in Philadelphia; also here is second Lt. John Wilkinson with the 506th AAA Battalion at Camp Logan. Page Beck is now Mrs. Russ Gills, '54. Bob and Nancy Carden Hedelt are in Kentucky, I believe. Marty Irons went from Fort Bragg to Korea for Army duty. Don Layne likes Marine life so well-it is rumored-that he is thinking of renewing his category. Jack Maness recently passed the bar exam in Virginia. Huntington Brown is now married. Fred Bell, Jim Apostolou and Tony Vujevich are stationed in Germany. Tony among other things is athletic director of a battalion. Jerry and Dot Bailey Sazio are awaiting a new "arrival." John Flannegan married a girl from his home town, Pittston, Pa. His words upon traveling to Alaska via the Alaskan Highway are, "Be sure your car is in good condition!" Mary Ellen Mc-Closkey is undertaking nurses' training. "Mo" Maddox is now in Hawaii. "Sonny" Cowling is taking paratrooper training at Fort Campbell. Johnny Krog is in Korea. At one time he taught guerrilla tactics in California. Others at Homecoming were: Ed Aubin, Barbara Brown, Joe and Carolyn Burt Hume, John Dalton, Ed and Ginnie Gary Lupton, Pete Giblin, Anna Inge, Kenneth Hogge, "Monty" Smith, Patty Smith, Gale Carrithers, Shirley Lyons, Jim and "Barbie" Schwartz Smith, George Vakos, George Ritzel, Jim Lawrence, Nancy Clexton, Ed Novak and wife, "M. A." Poindexter, and Jean Madsen.

Barry Wilson wrote a welcome newsy letter from Cornell University where he will complete his MA this February. He has retained his graduate assistantship with the University Theatre and is busy acting and directing, not to mention thesis-writing

Anne Helms had been working for a detective agency but now is considering Chicago for job opportunities. Barbara Marsland who had roomed with Anne, is a secretary in New York.

Jess Miller is now in his second year of med school at the University of Virginia. Last year he was second in his class, but provided time to act in Virginia Players' Productions.

No need to speak of Anna Inge and her grand job of entertaining with USO Camp Shows; her next tour is to Alaska.

George Ritzel's letter arrived with the following news: as of November first, George became special agent for North Carolina and Virginia for his insurance company. He extends an invitation to all to stop in at his new address—2715½ Chamberlayne Avenue, Richmond. The phone is 5-3841! Seems several including George had a summer house on Fir Island, New York, and there partied with Jack Timmis now in the Far East and Pete Giblin stationed with the Navy in New London, Conn. George mentioned a party at Tommy Boys' house with John Kris and Joan Payez, '55 among those present. Joann and Al Kersey who live in Arlington, stopped by George's in Richmond, also Shirley Smith Whitehurst and husband visited.

"Bobbie" Bowman is working in Williams-

George Vakos is a naval Ensign and supply officer at Chincoteague, Virginia.

Swanson Hornsby and George Ritzel were at the W. & M.—Richmond game at Thanks-

"Howie" McCallen is still with the Army in the Canal Zone, but hopes to be out by June.

From Virginia: Joan Thompson is teaching second grade in Norfolk; Carol Kavanagh is teaching in Richmond. "Connie" Cox Smith and husband, Fred, are living in Petersburg.

Janice Kenaston recently obtained her degree from the University of Florida.

George Martin has been selected to receive a French Government Assistantship Award. He was one of forty American students chosen in a nation-wide competition. He will teach classes in English conversation at a French secondary school in Bourges, France. Also, he will work on a degree equivalent to our Ph.D. at the University of Poitiers.

Tyler Deierhoi has been with the Army Intelligence since April of '52, and at present is stationed in Germany.

Dan and Emmy Ketterson Smith sent a very welcome Hawaiian Christmas card; they will be there at least one more year. Emmy is substitute teaching. Also from Hawaii, Pete Hino sent an unexpected and pleasant letter. He is stationed with B Battery of the 64th Field Artillery Battalion, which by the way was the same division of the Army to which Jay belonged. Pete is enjoying his duty in Hawaii which must be quite a marked change from Korea. At the present, he is serving as Executive Officer of a firing battery; his Assistant Executive is Lt. Gale Carrithers! As Pete says, "Small world." "Mo" Maddox's outfit is also in Hawaii across the quadrangle from Pete's. Both met in an officers' club in Korea. Pete previously had been with the Submarine Service in the Islands. Peggy and Bob Mitchell also are there.

Bonnie Towner Klinefelter wrote a nice note on the back of her Christmas card. Since her marriage in '51, she and Bill have been living in Baltimore. They now have bought a new home and have a daughter, Bonnie Elizabeth. She writes that in August Margery Lloyd, Nancy Waggoner Roeder, and Audrey Wright Gantl, '54 stopped for a visit.

David Potts sent a New Year's card to say that he is courier transfer officer at Haneda Airport in Tokyo. Handling top secret material makes his work both interesting and important. Dave saw Ed Weber and Pete Klinger in Tokyo in December.

Dan Brown is with the Navy's 6th Fleet in the Mediterranean Sea.

Rumor: Betsy Booth and Jim Devitt were married on Christmas Day—Bruce and Madge Noffsinger Lester are living in Kentucky.

Joanne Stengel is a secretary at an airplane manufacturing concern.

Ginny Campbell Furst and husband, Bill, by now are in Cleveland at Nela Park where Bill has accepted a position with General Electric's Lamp Division. After three months of training in Cleveland they will back track to G. E.'s Chicago office, to stay for a while they hope.

Wayne Boyle Palumbo and Joe have recently moved into their new home in California. With a cat, spaniel, and a new "addition" to arrive in June, they'll have a full house. "Bebe" Fisher Arbuckle and Bob have the same happiness ahead: a newly built home and "expectations!"

"Bumpsy" Bozarth and "Rite" Oldfield are working in Washington, D. C.

"Bobbie" Castle called me one afternoon while visiting Sally and Mickey Poole in Wayne. Bobbie and Al Richardson both have Research Assistantships in Molecular Physics at the University of Maryland.

Marguerite Huff 2158 N. Brandywine Street Arlington 7, Virginia

At last, we're getting some news to you. Much of it is likely to be stale by now. Thanks so much for your cards and letters. I do hope we'll hear from the rest of you very soon. If anyone would still like a copy of the Class History, I shall be glad to send one to you; I have ten copies left. Please let me know your correct address, if you have not; your rank, if you're in the service; and your name, if it's been changed.

News comes from Bette (Bodley) Dunker who is living in Lexington, Virginia, at 15B Hillside Terrace. She extends a warm welcome to anyone who might be living in that area to drop in for a visit.

Brenda Kane was living a life of ease until February, she has begun working in the Social Service Bureau in Newport News.

Jeff Heath wrote that he is in the Seminary in Richmond and would like to hear from Mac McCurry and Monk Knight. Jim Heatherington tells me he is going to graduate school at G-W and living in Washington, D. C.

Sue Joerndt writes that she has been living in Williamsburg, but she has decided to look for better opportunities in another place—at home in New Jersey or maybe in New York.

Chick Cornell is a private at Fort Lee, Virginia. He makes no comment as to his like or dislike of Army life.

Libby Lewis is working for IBM in Washington and living at home. Boots (Crovo) Wickham is now living in North Carolina. She was hoping to teach there. Tanky Fichtenger is teaching in Roanoke as is Sarah Ann Wright.

Ann Howard and Lulu McDow are both doing graduate work in New York City. Ann is attending the New York School of Social Work and Lulu is at Columbia.

Not long ago I saw Jay (Baker) Lewis and Tommy, who were being sent by Uncle Sam to Germany. They didn't seem too unhappy about it. I've decided since my trip to Europe last summer that any excuse to get back there is a good one.

Barbie and Bill Brink are living in Triangle, Virginia while Bill is stationed at Quantico. Jim Cockerille and his wife are there too.

Bud Jay and Stubby Staubs were married at Christmastime in Wren Chapel. Now that Stubby has graduated, she will be able to accompany Bud in his army travels.

Bob Lawrence wrote that he is in the Air Force, stationed at Mitchel AFB on Long Island.

Kay Gilman, Pearle Ray Key, Carol Ann Myers, and I are in the "noble profession" of teaching. Carol Ann became engaged at Christmas.

Charlotte Henderson is working in Washington for Acacia Life Insurance and living at home.

Sue (Johnson) Sommers is living in Charlottesville and working while her husband finishes school. Charlottesville is also Ann LeHew's home at present, while she is in graduate school at the University of Virginia.

Mary Knabb is living at home in Swarthmore, Pennsylvania and working for a magazine publishing firm.

Betsy (Skinker) Barnes is with Ronnie out in Boulder, Colorado while Ronnie is going to school.

Do write and tell us what's going on and whom you've seen.

Until the next issue, thanks again.

Honorary

Everett Victor Meeks, Honorary Doctor of Fine Arts, '40 died in New York on October 27, 1954 at the age of 75.

Mr. Meeks, retired Dean of the Yale University School of Fine Arts, made an outstanding contribution to his field. Under his leadership "the school expanded from one of the university's smallest departments into one of the nation's leading centers of fine arts, with art, drama and architecture divisions." The French Government made him a Chevalier of the Legion of Honor for his work as assistant director of fine arts of the Army Overseas Educational Commission in World War I.
