

Homecoming

SPECIAL EDITION • SOCIETY OF THE ALUMNI, THE COLLEGE OF WILLIAM & MARY

Supplement

Dear Alumni
and Friends:

This year's Homecoming theme, "Raising the Roof," invites the image of a celebration that tops all others. In many ways, William and Mary Homecoming fits that description. Homecoming annually attracts thousands as it is the premier festivity on campus. Although social events and reunion activities afford opportunities for "Raising the Roof," there are literally hundreds of reasons to return to Williamsburg October 26-29.

From the football game to the Homecoming Run; from the Academic Festival to a performance of the William and Mary Choir; from Luncheon on the Lawn to the Homecoming Golf Tournament; and from the Homecoming Ball to the Homecoming Parade, the motives for returning are abundantly clear! On behalf of the Society of the Alumni, I want to extend you a special invitation to plan on attending one of the most exciting university celebrations anywhere in the U.S. Regardless of what activities and events you attend, the Society welcomes your participation and appreciates your support. But please register soon, this year's Homecoming will be one of the best ever.

Sincerely,

Rebecca Beach Smith

Rebecca Beach Smith '71, JD '79
President, Society of the Alumni

P.S.

This is a special invitation to attend the Ground Breaking for the William and Mary Alumni Center following the Homecoming Parade and just prior to the Luncheon on the Lawn. Thanks to assistance and support from many of you, this project will soon be underway. We would like you to be there as the first shovel fulls of dirt are turned and "Raising the Roof" becomes a reality.

Academic Festival Classes

Academic Festival

Returning for its third year, the 1995 Homecoming Academic Festival features exciting presentations by familiar and new faculty from across William and Mary's curricular spectrum. You are invited to join students, fellow alumni and friends of the College in William and Mary classrooms to learn something new, review or discuss a familiar subject or visit with a favorite professor.

All sessions will be held on Friday, October 27, 1995, primarily on main campus. Please register for as many sessions as you wish, but we caution you to allow at least one hour per session. Intriguing questions, conversations with familiar professors and a growing campus may prohibit you from attending back-to-back sessions. To select a session on the registration form, indicate your selection by using the letter and number designation preceding each selection (e.g. F1, F2,...). The locations for each session will be announced in the official Homecoming Weekend Schedule, available in the Homecoming Tent directly in front of the Alumni House. Reserved tickets will also be available in the Homecoming Tent. Admission to all sessions is free.
