Class History

Their Royal Majesties College of William and Mary was exalted in September, 1928, by the triumphant enrollment of four hundred and fifty freshmen, thirsting for knowledge. After the desultory process of acclimation the class settled down to its four-year period of arduous study.

Jack Darden was chosen leader of the happy band of youthful scholars, and Tom Barkley and Polly Weihr were capable assistants. Dr. Pollard departed for Richmond to take over his duties as Governor during the year.

Summer came and departed and the class of '32, a trifle depleted because of rigid examinations, returned to the campus to glory in their newly acquired sophistication. George (Piggy) Diggs, Lawrence Shaffer, and Binford Sykes were elected class officers. The famous Kedroff Quartet vied with the lilting voices which serenaded the sorority houses and the campus was filled with music. The fighting Virginians, under Captain "Teddy" Bauserman, were victorious on home and foreign gridirons.

In the Fall of 1930 the class reassembled in Williamsburg, more serious than ever. The number had fallen off but the quality lingered on. The officers were Lawrence Shaffer, George McCrea, and Jack Tuthill. The class was instrumental in bringing to the campus the Virginia Conference Championship in football, basketball, baseball, and track. With Bill Scott as captain, the team journeyed to Cambridge, Mass., and tied Harvard, 13-13.

By September, 1931, the class had matured. Binford Sykes was chosen president of the sober group of scholars, and Brooks George and Josephine Habel were selected to assist him. The beauty of the campus was improved by the removal of Citizenship Hall and the restoration of the President's House and Brafferton. The Sesqui-Centennial celebration at Yorktown attracted a throng of admirers of the historic peninsula's past splendor. The College added another priority to its long list by the inauguration of a department of aeronautics. The Class of '32 instituted a Senior Frolic, which proved a great success.

At last, the sheepskin symbol of scholastic attainment was passed to the hands of the class and a new page was turned for those who in 1928 had been timid and not overly intelligent Freshmen.

Alma Mater

Hark! The students' voices swelling,
Strong and true and clear:
Alma Mater's love they're telling,
Ringing far and near.

*William and Mary, loved of old,
Hark upon the gale,
Hear the thunder of our chorus,
Alma Mater—hail!*

All thy sons are faithful to thee
Through their college days:
Singing loud from hearts that love thee,
Alma Mater's praise.

Iron shod or golden sandaled
Shall the years go by—
Still our hearts shall weave about thee
Love that cannot die.

God our Father, hear our voices,
Listen to our cry—
Bless the College of our boyhood,
Let her never die.

Otis DouglasCaptain Football*

"Doug" Douglas, William and Mary's Iron Man and veteran of three seasons' campaigns, will leave a position that will be hard to fill next year. "Doug" started out his freshman year playing guard but later saw service as tackle. He was the mainstay of the Indian line, was in practically every play on the defense and gave all he had, all of the time. In regards to his position as captain of the 1931 eleven, it will suffice to say that Coach Kellison remarked last fall that "Douglas is one of the best football captains I have ever seen on a football field."

Captain Douglas was an inspiration to his teammates this season and will be sorely missed in coming campaigns.

Football Summary

WILLIAM AND MARY, 32; GUILFORD 0

Playing the first game at home in a torrential downpour of rain, the Tri-Color squad easily ran through the Guilford line to accumulate five touchdowns and two extra points. "Red" Maxey, hitting his stride, early in the season, was outstanding, accounting for three of the five tallies.

WILLIAM AND MARY, 6; NAVY, 13

The Navy game provided the first disappointment to the Indian aggregation when the Middies sent the Warriors home on the small end of a 13-6 score. All the way through the game, the William and Mary team fought, never relenting a bit, with Douglas a veritable power of defense in the line while Chalko succeeded in pushing the ball over the Navy line for the lone tally.

WILLIAM AND MARY, 9; RANDOLPH-
MACON, 2

With Hess, Randolph-Macon speedy little quarterback, running and passing around the Indians, William and Mary was hard pushed to take a 9-2 victory from the smaller, but speedy Yellow Jacket team. Billy Palese bucked into action at the Jacket's expense, carrying the ball over for the winning touchdown.

WILLIAM AND MARY, 6. V. P. I. 6

At last the day for the V. P. I. game arrived and a determined band of Indians journeyed to Richmond to avenge last year's defeat, followed by one of the largest groups of students to attend an out of town game. Led by Captain Douglas and Happy Halligan the Indians checked the strong Gobbler team and tied the game 6-6. Halligan played his best game of the season punting the ball out of danger and snaring Palese's pass to account for the tying score. Henderson and Douglas teamed up with Halligan to present an impenetrable defense line.

WILLIAM AND MARY 95; BRIDGEWATER, 0

Following the V. P. I. scrap, the Indians returned to Williamsburg to run wild in a scoring orgy over the Bridgewater Eagles to win by the score of 95-0. Every available man in the squad saw action but not one of them saw half so much as little Billy Palese, who was gradually assuming Maxey's reputation as a "man-killer." Palese went over the chalk six times for touchdowns against the Eagles in playing little over half the game.

WILLIAM AND MARY, 0 WASHINGTON AND LEE, 0

Meeting the second of the Big Four opponents in two weeks, Coach Kellison's Indians held a strong General outfit to a 0-0 tie in Norfolk on October 31. Minus the services of Maxey and Constantino, the Indians relied on Billy Palese and Crawford Syer to check the General's on-rushes, which they did most effectively. Palese was a continual threat to the Generals while Syer was making half the tackles in the line.

WILLIAM AND MARY, 13; ROANOKE COLLEGE, 6

Playing before a large Homecoming Day attendance, the Indians scored a decisive victory over Roanoke College. This gave the Indians their third successive conference victory. From the time that a William and Mary airplane soared over the field to drop the ribbon-bedecked pig-skin into the arms of Captain Douglas, to the final whistle the Indians were never threatened. Billy Palese who was fast assuming an important place in state scorers, went through the line for two more touchdowns to run his scoring total to 54. Matthews, Maroon halfback, scored for the visitors.

WILLIAM AND MARY, 24; EMORY AND HENRY, 0

William and Mary took an easy victory over the Emory and Henry Wasps to remain unbeaten in the state with only one game to go. Billy Palese again led the scorers with two touchdowns while Happy Halligan and Butch Constantino both accounted for one each. For the first time the Indian passing game proved really formidable, with the Indians completing eight out of nine heaves. Captain Douglas and Henderson held the Wasp advances in check.

WILLIAM AND MARY, 2; RICHMOND, 6

The most unexpected and heartbreaking setback the Indians encountered throughout the whole season occurred Thanksgiving Day when Richmond upsetted their old rivals to eke out a 6-2 victory, the first in nine years. Vic Chaltain, Spider halfback, grabbed the ball late in the first period and dashed through a scattered Indian line to score the first and only touchdown of the game. Throughout the remainder of the contest the Indians attempted again and again to score but the Spider line held doggedly. Syer recovered the ball over the Spider line to account for a safety and two points. Red Maxey, who had been out of the game since Randolph-Macon fray, was sent in to encourage the players but the damage had been done. Although the Indians kept possession of the ball and jeopardized the Spider goal continually the last half, they were unable to score.

PALESE CLAIMS HIGH SCORE HONORS OF THE STATE

Billy Palese finished the season with 66 points to his credit, which gave him undisputed title of the state high scorer. The nearest rival to Palese was Hess of Randolph-Macon who followed with 41 points, some 25 points behind the flashy Indian halfback. This was the first year Palese has played varsity ball and with the experience gained this year should be able to add to his laurels next fall.

THREE WILLIAM AND MARY MEN PLACED ON ALL STATE TEAM

Three William and Mary men were given places on the All-State team. Happy Halligan, stellar end and captain-elect, was a unanimous choice of both selections. Halligan's performances as punter and in the line gained him an undisputable position on any team in the state. Captain Otis Douglas, stalwart Indian tackle who this year finished his third year of steady, consecutive playing for the varsity, was another William and Mary man to be selected for All-State honors. Red Maxey, brilliant back, that last year threw terror in all opposing teams, received appointment on the All-State team in spite of the fact that he was injured early in the season and was unable to play but a small part of the season. Syer, Ayers, Meade, Quirk and Palese were given honorable mention.

Captain Basketball

Captain of this year's quintette and one of the most versatile guards that has played on the Tri-Color five for many years, Captain Sundin will leave William and Mary with a very enviable record behind him. Basketball Summary

Under the expert leadership of Captain Carlton Sundin, John Kellison's basketball team enjoyed a highly successful season. Although the quint was a bit slow getting started they sailed through a long and tough nineteen game schedule with fourteen wins, taking the Virginia Conference Championship as usual.

Lester Litwin, playing his first year of varsity ball, distinguished himself in scoring honors and proved to be one of the main cogs in the Indian hardwood machine.

Four seniors filled varsity berths on this year's quint with wide abilities and their absence will probably cut down the team efficiency next season. "Slim" Shaffer, lanky center for the Indian outfit for three seasons and a freshman term, laid aside his togs with the realization of a job well done. Bin Sykes, with three years varsity experience as forward, hit his stride this season and presented basketball fans with some real goal tossing exhibitions. Frank Moze-leski early showed himself to be one of the most formidable guards of the state, joining clever floor work with speed and dexterity. Happy Halligan showed his versatility by donning basketball togs to relieve Shaffer at the toss-up ring when necessary. Milt Gallinant, playing his first year varsity game gave promise of providing plenty of action in campaigns to come, and caused many newspapers to carry the legend "Gallinant outstanding" during the season. Others on the squad that won the title of Virginia Conference Champions were: Lynn, Reid, Lemback, Whitehead, Palese, and Manager Lawson.

During this season William and Mary had the pleasure of twice defeating the University of Richmond by good margins. Probably the most spectacular game of the season was the last tilt with Randolph-Macon, which if lost would have cost the Indians the title. Throughout the whole fray the score seesawed from side to side. A last minute rally, favorite trick of the Indians, rang in several field goals and saved the day with a 31-28 score.

Baseball Summary

Winning thirteen out of eighteen games, the William and Mary baseball came through the season with flying colors and the best record it has boasted of for several years. With White, Sundin and Scott officiating on the mound for the Tri-Color team, supported by an airtight infield, few invaders could return victorious.

The first game of the season was on home soil with the Drexel nine from Philadelphia. Lefty White easily took their measure to the tune of 10-6, striking out 16 batters at the same time, while Ferrell's opportune three bagger cleaned up the bases. Princeton fell next under the Indian hatchet wielded by White, 11-1, and sending down 15 batters via the strikeout route. Right on top of this Sundin repeated the act the very next day with Princeton the victims, 5-1. Harvard journeyed to Williamsburg full of threats with the Ticknor-Wood combination, only to be pleasantly repulsed by Lefty White, 5-1.

Bridgewater presented the first real formidable opposition of the season, but with Scott's timely hitting and Sundin's slants, they were sent down, 2-1. Washington and Lee proved to be a real trouble-maker, defeating the Indian nine for the first time of the season, 5-6, at the expense of White. Monk Mattox, general keystone guardian, and Bill Scott succeeded in finding the range to the back fence and poled out the first home runs of the season. The next day, however, the Indians staged a comeback to beat a strong V. M. I. team, 11-7.

through the virtues of Bill Scott's brilliant hurling, coupled with a two-bagger and home run.

Bridgewater threw the next wrench in the Indian machinery to present them with a shutout, 7-0, but the Indians came back strong the next day to reverse Randolph-Macon, 13-0. The high spot of the season came when the Indians took the traditional rivals, the Spiders from the University of Richmond, into camp, 12-3, with White striking out ten of the foe and chalking up another victory for himself. Sundin, assisted by Harkins, trimmed the Hampden-Sidney outfit easily, 6-1.

The next conflict was a return engagement with V. M. I. with the same results as the previous game. The keydets went down on the little end of a 11-7 score with a good deal of respect for Lefty White. Bill Ferrell broke into action at Ashland in the second Randolph-Macon game to bang out two home runs, to support Scott in defeating the Hornets, 11-8. The northern trip proved to be a bit of a setback for the Indians, winning over Drexel but dropping a 7-0 game to Harvard and a 5-6 fray to Navy. Stopping by Farmville for a return game with Hampden-Sydney, proved a mistake, as the Tigers took Sundin over the bumps for a 5-1 victory, to avenge their defeat earlier in the season. The final game with Richmond climaxed the baseball season with a 6-2 victory for William and Mary, giving Lefty White his seventh win.

Rudy Zabel

Captain of Track

Rudy Zabel, captain of the Indian barriers, was not one of those track men who shine up brilliantly for a moment and then die down after breaking a record or two through accident. Zabel was a good, steady runner, with a good head, and a man who could be counted on for five points in any old track meet.

An ideal leader, he was also, as he was the kind of man whose exactness and steadiness put confidence in his men. There is no better record Rudy could leave behind him than the trophy of Virginia Conference Track Championship, which he led his teammates to win.

The William and Mary track team opened its season with an easy victory over Lynchburg College by a one-sided score of 101¹/₂-21¹/₂, while Johnson and Baggett both scored ten points. The lightclads next entertained the keydets from V. M. I. and proceeded to send them home in defeat, 95¹/₂-30¹/₂. Captain Hamilton Smith of the Cadets nosed out Wink Johnson in the mile for the second defeat in his college career. Stanley Doane ran the two mile jaunt in 10:9 3-5 to beat the old record by two seconds. The Navy trip provided a downfall for the Indian outfit, losing 71 2-3 to 51 1-3, but came back the following week to take the measure of the Washington and Lee tracksters 71-12, while Baggett lowered the high hurdle record: Smithers broke the 220, and Flickinger set a new pole vault mark.

every event but one out of fourteen, to win 109-17. This slaughter was followed by a trip to Pennsylvania, where Haverford suffered the same results, the Indian outfit taking the meet 82-43. Baggett, Johnson and Scott proved valuable scorers.

While four records were being broken, William and Mary triumphed over three opponents in the Conference meet in Williamsburg, to emerge Virginia Conference Champions. Meade and Johnson were high scorers of the meet, each taking a pair of first places. Bill Scott equalled the record of 9.9 for the 100. Wink Johnson broke the mile record of 1:31.6 set by Zabel in 1929 by three seconds. Zabel relinquished another record when Eckstein of Lynchburg set a two mile record of 10:26.6. Marshall Baggett, handicapped by a bad leg, completed the record breaking for the day by stepping over the high hurdles in 16 seconds flat.

Although losing some good men, the Indian team should experience little difficulty in presenting a formidable array of track stars. Marshall Baggett, former captain, will be lost but his records will stand for quite a while. Mozeleski will leave a hole to be filled as will also Paul Baldacci, veteran javelin heaver and broad jumper. Connie Quesenberry, one of the speediest runners William and Mary has boasted of, will be gone and his place left to Captain-elect Smithers who has a stout job on his hands. Bill Scott, dash man and premier of Indian athletes, leaves a gap that few men will try to fill. The Indians will have Douglas, Meade and Swentzel to hurl the weights next year, a trio hard to beat. Meade, Casey and Syer will handle the javelin in a way that will do honor to their heritage from Baldacci. Johnson, Roberts, Clark, Doane and Renn can burn up any cinder path in the state. With this material the Indians have the prospect of another bright year in track.

Minor Sports

BILLY GOOCH
DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

For the first time at William and Mary minor sports have assumed a prominent position in the college life. They have risen from a position of insignificance on the campus to the point where both from the standpoint of the college as a whole and from the standpoint of the students engaged they compare favorably with the major sports. At present there are four minor sports recognized on the campus, namely, Swimming, Fencing, Golf and Tennis. All four are under the supervision of the Athletic Association and engage in regular intercollegiate schedules. Varsity performance in each of these sports is recognized by the proper minor sports monogram.

Swimming Results and Summary

Working around a nucleus composed of Captain Casey, Meade, Flickinger, Cuddihy and Goldstein, the William and Mary swimming team managed to build up a rather formidable varsity in spite of a shortage of material. Captain Casey, stubby diving ace, a good first place in any meet, having the unique distinction of participating in every meet undefeated, was Indian high point man for the season. Jimmy Cuddihy, speedy little dash man, came second for high score honors.

Tennis Results and Summary

The tennis team started the season off slowly, dropping the first two games, Virginia 7-2 and Johns Hopkins 6-1, only to stage a comeback and trim the University of Maryland 7-2. The following week the team journeyed to Annapolis for the annual encounter with the Navy, to return on the small end of a 8-1 score. Vic LeBow turning in the only victory. Hampden-Sydney, the next foe, proved too strong as the Indians bowed to the Tigers in the last contest of the season. Carr, LeBow and Wiggins accumulating 2 points to the Tiger's 7.

Fencing Summary and Results

Led by Captain Ben Fowler, the William and Mary Fencing team ushered in a new sport that bids fair to assume a good bit of popularity on the campus. The high spot of the fencing season was the foil meet with Baltimore University, undoubtedly the best team in the East. Although the Indian foils-men lost this meet by the close score of 5-4 they showed remarkable skill and aptitude in handling the weapons and proved that there is plenty of good fencing material here.

The William and Mary fencing team placed fourth at the Southern Intercollegiate Meet, after taking first place with the epee and fourth with the sabre. The freshman fencers took second place in the freshman events by virtue of victories in individual foils.

Those outstanding on the team were Wheeler, Belanger, Nolan, and Captain Fowler.

Golf Results and Summary

The William and Mary golf team, playing through its most difficult campaign in years, captured seven out of eleven matches, and ended up the season in a blaze of glory by tying the undefeated University of North Carolina team. Included in its wins are victories over Swarthmore, Haverford, George Washington, Washington and Lee and Duke University. The only defeats registered against them were by Lafayette and Pennsylvania, while ties were played with Boston College and North Carolina.

Freshman Football

Going the entire season without a single defeat or having their line crossed, the freshmen closed the most successful season in many years. With such freshman luminaries as "Waddy" Stewart, Junie Smith, "Preacher" Franklin, Charlie Shade, "Preacher" Barnes, and Joe Bridges, in the line and backfield, the Little Indians presented an airtight combination.

Freshman Baseball

Losing only one game in the whole season, the William and Mary freshman baseball outfit closed a brilliant season with eight victories. The only game going down in the "red" was with Fork Union Military Academy. Joe Stankus, a promising freshman hurler, struck out no less than 56 men in three games. Gallinant, another southpaw, has shown ability to pitch good ball as well as hit well. Jerry Quirk was unexcelled behind the bat, but was forced to retire as the result of an injury. Marks proved a good substitute and played excellent ball throughout the season.

WOMEN'S MONOGRAM CLUB

Tennis

Tennis at William and Mary is a minor sport in which a considerable amount of interest is shown. The 1931 season did not include any intercollegiate matches. This was due to the illness of Corinne Hancock, manager and Frances Booth, captain. Two teams were chosen, however, one consisting of Junior-Frosh and the other of Senior-Sophs. Eight matches were played in all, four singles and four doubles. The Junior-Frosh were victorious, winning five matches to their opponents' three. The Junior-Frosh team was composed of: Dreyer (Captain), Hudak, Sargent, Holladay, Troupe, Mitchell and Sollenberger. Simes (Captain), Roberts, Beale, Bennett, Clobberly, and Dunleavy constituted the Senior-Soph. team.

The following Indianettes earned their varsity monograms: Roberts, Dreyer, Beale, Hudak, Simes, Holladay, and Dunleavy. In the college championship tournament, Elsie Hudak of Baltimore defeated Pat Beale, former champion.

Archery

Archery was revived at William and Mary in the spring of 1931. Under the able direction of Miss Roberts a number of upperclassmen received sufficient instruction so that they could teach the underclassmen this year. Although this sport is a comparatively new one at the college its popularity has grown so much during the past year that it promises to become one of the most popular sports among the women.

Omicron Delta Kappa was founded with the purpose of bringing together in one body, for the general good of the institution, all leaders in various forms of college activities. Membership is restricted to men. It recognizes eminence in scholarship, athletics, campus life, literary and forensic attainments, and college publications. Its ideals are: Recognition, inspiration, opportunity, character. It is recognized as one of the highest honors that can be given an undergraduate student.

Mortarboard is a national women's honor society, whose members are elected in their junior year on the three-fold basis of scholarship, leadership and personality. The local chapter, Alpha Club, was founded in 1918 when women students were first admitted to the college, and is the oldest co-ed organization at William and Mary. It was installed as a part of the national organization of Mortarboard in December, 1929. It endeavors to contribute some valuable service to the college each year, to foster and encourage scholarship and a wholesome college spirit. Mortarboard is the only women's senior honorary society in the United States.

Alpha Kappa Psi was the first professional commercial fraternity and the first national fraternity to admit students of evening colleges to active membership. Membership is limited to bonafide candidates for a degree in commerce or business administration. The ideals of the fraternity are to stimulate scientific research in business, to promote higher ideals in business, and to enlarge college courses leading to degrees in business.

Phi Kappa Phi is an organization which recognizes scholastic attainment. It selects its members from those students who have consistently maintained an excellent average on their studies during their four years at college. Nominations for membership are made by the heads of the various departments and elections are held once a year, during the spring term. Only seniors or graduate students are eligible at William and Mary.

◆ STUDENT GOVERNMENT ◆

At the College of William and Mary, the students are governed by Student Government, which is composed of two organizations, the Men's Student Body and the Women's Student Government Association.

The Men's Student Body is headed by the president, assisted by the vice-president, secretary, and treasurer. These officers are elected yearly in May, and are elected from the members of the senior class. They conduct the affairs pertaining to the Men's Student Body.

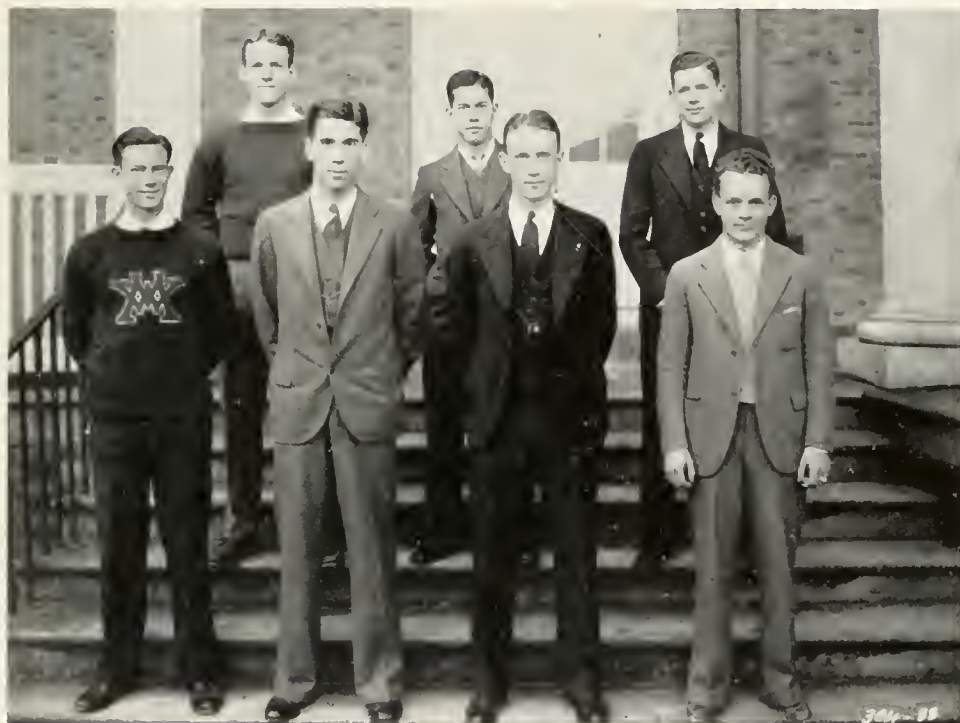

The Women's Student Government Association is divided into three committees, Executive, Judicial, and Honor. Each committee is headed by a chairman. The officers are elected in the spring of each year.

Men's Debate Team

Men's debate is sponsored by a Debate Council, which is responsible for the entire scope of men's debate, including the choosing of a coach.

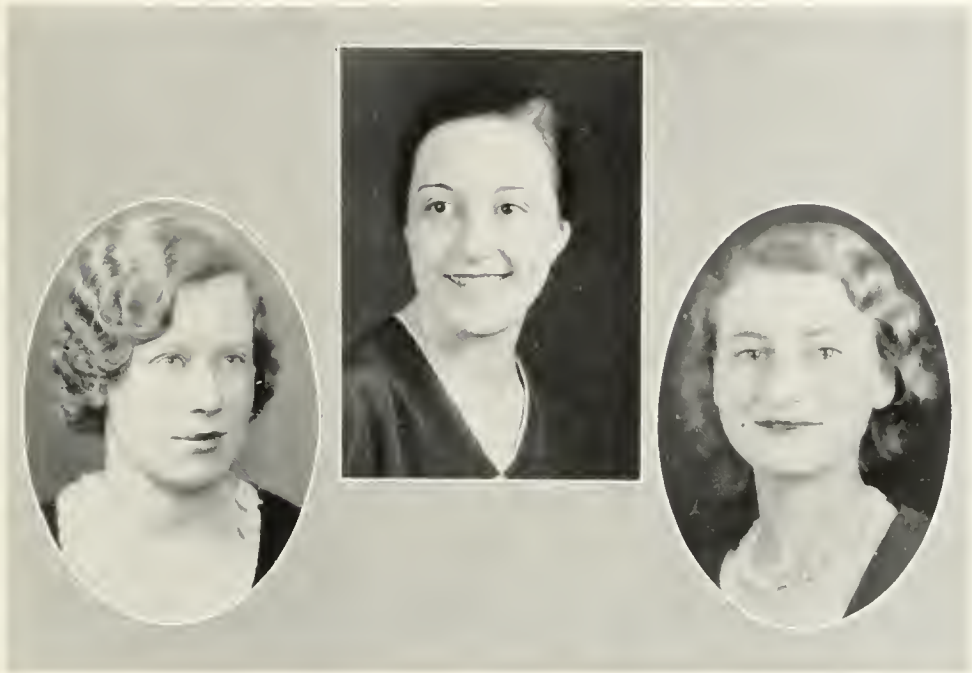

The men's debate squad, from which all Varsity debaters are selected, is known as the Wranglers Club. Opportunities are given twice a year for admission into this Club. Admission is based solely upon debating ability as demonstrated before the Club's Board of Membership.

The coaching staff consists of one active coach and several advisory coaches. The function of the active coach is to train the speakers while that of the advisory coaches is to help select the personnel of the teams and to criticize the speeches.

The Young Men's Christian Association at the college has for a long time done an important work in standing for a high spiritual life among its members and working throughout the college for the advancement of Christianity. The meetings of the association are often addressed by the ministers of the town, by members of the faculty, by student members of the association, and by visiting speakers. A feature of the work of the organization for the last two years has been the sponsoring of fitting programs that have been broadcast over WTAR at Norfolk, Va., and received with widespread enthusiasm.

The Y. W. C. A. at William and Mary was formed in the spring of 1920 and has been growing rapidly ever since. It has now become a strong influence on the campus. Under its auspices are held regular meetings, both secular and devotional, through which interest is aroused in affairs of importance in the world, in charities, and in missions. The association plans formal entertainments for the pleasure of the students and organizes trips to neighboring places of interest.

Historical Note

In 1926, Miss Althea Hunt came to the college to bring the dream of an experimental theatre into actuality. With The Goose Hangs High, as an innovation, the theatre came into being. You and I, The Taming of the Shrew, Anna Christie, The Enemy, and The Royal Family, and some of the outstanding successes that followed.

Probably more sustained time and effort is spent on dramatics than on any one other activity. From October to May, practically every afternoon and evening is taken up with productions in process or in realization. Entering dramatics means work, but this work becomes a pleasure. The lure of grease-paint, footlights, and "backstage" exert a call which cannot be resisted. As a result, an incomparable esprit de corps is built up among those who form the nucleus of the campus theatre.

Here's
A Real Job
For You!

The profession of life insurance presents uniquely favorable opportunities to the young man with a college background. It requires practically no capital. Remuneration is in direct proportion to the intelligence and effort applied.

If you are interested in a business that offers "guaranteed bonds" to a receptive public, write to our Agency Department.

THE NEW SUITS

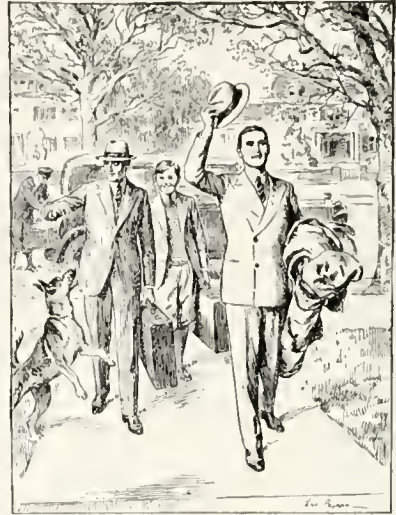

Three new styles of ready-made suits have been added to our stock for this Spring. The familiar Brooks Brothers' models are continued unchanged and are supplemented by these three new styles, which are both single and double-breasted—some with plaited trousers—the coats more closely fitted and with squarer shoulders.

Our traditional qualities of material and workmanship are maintained in the lowered prices for 1932.
