

Mr. John Austin,

Dear Sir,

Gabriel tells me that your teams have nothing they can do this weather if so I should be extremely obliged to you if you will loan me your wagon and mules for a day or two to haul ice. If they can come please start them as early as possible

Your friend

E. L. Sniff

February 2nd 1845