

Exceptions taken by the Regy, to the report of Comt. Mowbray in the case of Mofart with next Mowbray jr.

1. The Comt, has allowed to Harris & Mowbray more than their claims secured in the deed of Trust, as due to them by Mowbray & if there is any more due to them, it must be due to them as general creditors & will not be covered by the deed of Trust.

<sup>12th</sup>
2. The next Mowbray purchased from his mother a mule at £50. for which he paid her, or some his lord, at the very time, that an Execution against his mother in the case of Dr. Allen was in the Kings hands & which as he says he paid & now charges to the fund in this case.

not a student of the University

Marbury to do

[Faint, illegible handwritten text, likely bleed-through from the reverse side of the page.]