Handwritten text in a vertical column, likely a list or account, written in a cursive script on aged, yellowed paper. The text is arranged in two main sections, separated by a horizontal fold. The right side of the page contains a vertical column of characters, possibly a date or a specific identifier, written in a larger, more distinct hand. The left side contains several columns of smaller, more densely packed characters, which appear to be a list of items or a detailed account. The paper shows signs of wear, including discoloration and a prominent horizontal crease across the middle.
