Dear Mother + Dad,

Well I guess you were quite anxious yesterday when the news was announced. It was quite a momentous occasion for everyone.

I do feel rather badly just sitting here doing nothing when there is so much to be done. Knowing how things are in battle + we just sitting here doing nothing + in a perfectly a momentous occasion for everyone.

saf place doing nothing.

I am sorry you aren't getting my letters but in everyone else's mail they say the same. I guess now & since the day has arrived you'll probably understand why they weren't coming through.

I am including 8 negatives. Will you have two prints made of each & send them to me. You can keep the negatives there. If Carolyn & Elyza want any let them have them. The Church in the picture is about 300 years old. It is behind our house

I have been doing nothing I have been very busy in the picture is a chimney sweep with all his brushes. Needless to say the picture was taken when we weren't looking. The other girl in Browne I have a red cross marker. One picture was made on the roof &

the window is the one in our room.

The other girl in Virginia Stokes - Jennie's Mother is the one that wrote to you.
Jennie said it made her feel a little better knowing our folks dropped each other a line now & then.

H Quite surprised at Carolyn escapade. It's bet her mother could have spanked her good.

Had a very nice letter from one of the girls & was in training with.
Her name was Margery Patch & we called her Patchie. If you remember I use to go down to Tampa to see her. Here is a paragraph from her letter - "What is your Orlando address. I might write your mother sometime.
I know she misses you but also know she is proud of you & I am too."
So don't be too surprised if you should hear from her.

I have a confession to make.
I got in a game of poker yesterday for very low stakes but I was just lucky. I also know when to quit.

Had a very nice card from Hats mother. Was very nice of

If you can find anything good to eat send

Dear Mother
I hope you are well and happy
as ever. I am writing you now
from the city of New York.
I have been very busy lately
but I thought I would write
you a few lines
to let you know I am still alive and well.
I love you and hope you
love me too.
I will write
you again soon.
Your affectionate
son,
John Doe
