To My Sweet Sugar Plum -

Words fail me as I take your pen in hand. I think you are a swell kid, but I can say things like that better than I can write them - scandal:-

1. Did you know H.L. caught me up tonight
2. Also caught Rosie out of bed?
3. And worst of all found Miss Robinson in Noe's Room.

I heard your Dad is in Tampa, that is a wonderful place to be.

Could F-interest you in listening to "Jimmy Dorsey" with me at 11⁰⁰ PM?

What hours do you have tonight honey? You should get three, because you are not busy.

Drop in when you are not busy. I get 12hesome.

Just a

Measley
patient,
Patches

Dearest girlie in the world,

Do you know I believe I'll go stark raving mad if I have to stay in this place one more single day! I want to come home + be with you + love you + sleep + you + live + you + just everything.

How so glad you got to call your mother today its helps a lot just talking to her + hearing her voice doesn't it?

May it didn't anything happen today 'cept I slept all day + missed you until my heart ached + ached till I couldn't hardly stand
