"WITH THE COLORS"

January 1, 1918. ~~1917~~

Dear Essie:

Seeing that you wrote me, once or twice, I am going to ask you to continue the good work. Since I have been here, I have received two letters, two post cards, and one box, from home. I was glad to hear from you, and overjoyed at the rec't of the box. Everything was fine, and the cook said your cake was excellent. Tell May the candy is all gone, but it went big.

I had a letter from Uncle Henry containing a two spot, and it was a life saver. We have signed the payroll and stood muster, now all we have to do is wait, and some time we'll get some coin.

You might send me one of those sweaters and the helmet. I'll get them alright.

Remember me to the Wangles, Thank Mrs and Ruth, and tell John he is next on my list. I have already started letters to Gerry Cleary, and Vic Enright. When once I get through that list I'm done, and done for good. No seconds, either. Even now the boys call me the secretary, because I'm always writing. I wouldn't give a continental if I'd only get an answer.

I suppose you know that the "old guard," is no longer together. That is McCauley, Weldon, Lypher and Murphy are somewhere, and Tibbals and I are somewhere else. However, I've met a dandy chap here, named Skelton,
and he's o' all tha web fram Geojiah.

Perhaps my next letter will contain some news. Good news, maybe, as far as you folks are concerned, so cheer up and keep that candle going till further notice.

Love to all
Lick
