Dear Dad:

To begin with, I'll tell you that I am well, for I shall not have time to write much, as it is after nine o'clock now, and I have just returned from the hangar, where I have been busy since 7³⁰ this morning. Oh they keep us going alright. The "chow" here is fair, along with the buns and cocoa, which are able to procure at the "Y" and at the "Canteen" we get along.

Received a letter from Essie the day before yesterday, in which she stated that May had joined the "army." Gee but I'm glad she passed the Federal examis. Tell her I wish her all the luck in the world. I hope that she will like her work, and have a pleasant office. She deserves it, I'll say.

Cassie want to know how long we shall be here? Well you just tell her that we are here in this vicinity long enough to get anything which may be sent over.

Now Dad, don't worry about me. I am fine, working hard and growing up. If mail is scarce, it is because I am rushed. My love to mother, the girls & yourself, Wish you luck on the "farm" this summer. Pil.

GOOD NIGHT.

STE. HALLMAN
