

"WITH THE COLORS"

Maisie Dear:

June 25 1918.

Just a line tonight, to let you know that I am well and happy. Last week I received four letters from home and one from Pat M. I've been awfully busy, so have done practically no writing. I did however, get one letter started to George M. In my letter from Neil, I received a snapshot of him, he did not have a must, nor a bald head. It must be much warmer where he is, ~~that~~ than it is here. You would be surprised to hear how cold it is here at 4 P.M. I'll look at the thermometer soon and let you know. It is very damp, also. But with the aid of a sweater, I get along. Yesterday, I went out on a wreck at 6 P.M. and came back at 1 P.M. I like that sort of work. We found the buss, straddling on its nose in the middle of a ploughed field, but after securing a few new parts, and adjusting others, we had the bus is condition to fly back to camp.

Last Sunday I walked ten miles, to get to Mass, but didn't seem to mind it much, had ham and eggs for dinner, at a local tearoom, and a real supper at the new American Y. Listen: Baked beans, creamed peas and carrots, bread butter and coffee milk and sugar, <sup>Cucumber, tomato and lettuce salad + dressing.</sup> and strawberry short cake. Of course the butter was very short and rather steep, but we don't get meals like that every day. Best meal I've had since I landed here. It was cooked by American women, too, and tasted so much different from the Army chow.

Our latest is, gas mask instruction, so you see Sunday, you'll get a letter from France.

At present, I am enjoying the best of health and am in good spirits. The news is good

Love to all, from.

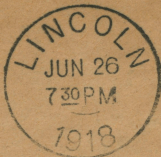

Richard.

Richard McElligott
152nd Aero Sq. I. O.
of American Exp. Forces
35 Eaton Place
London S.W.1
England.

Censored by 15/11/18
Lieut. S. R. A. S.

Soldier's Letter.

C.A.

7

3840

Miss Mary E. McEllyott
91 Fenwood Road
Boston
Massachusetts
U. S. A.

OPENED BY CENSOR.