Dear Bertie

I just received your letter today, and I was very glad to hear from you again. I was disappointed when I didn't find a picture of yourself in your letter. I guess I'll just have to wait, but I hope it's soon. I hope you are well as can be.

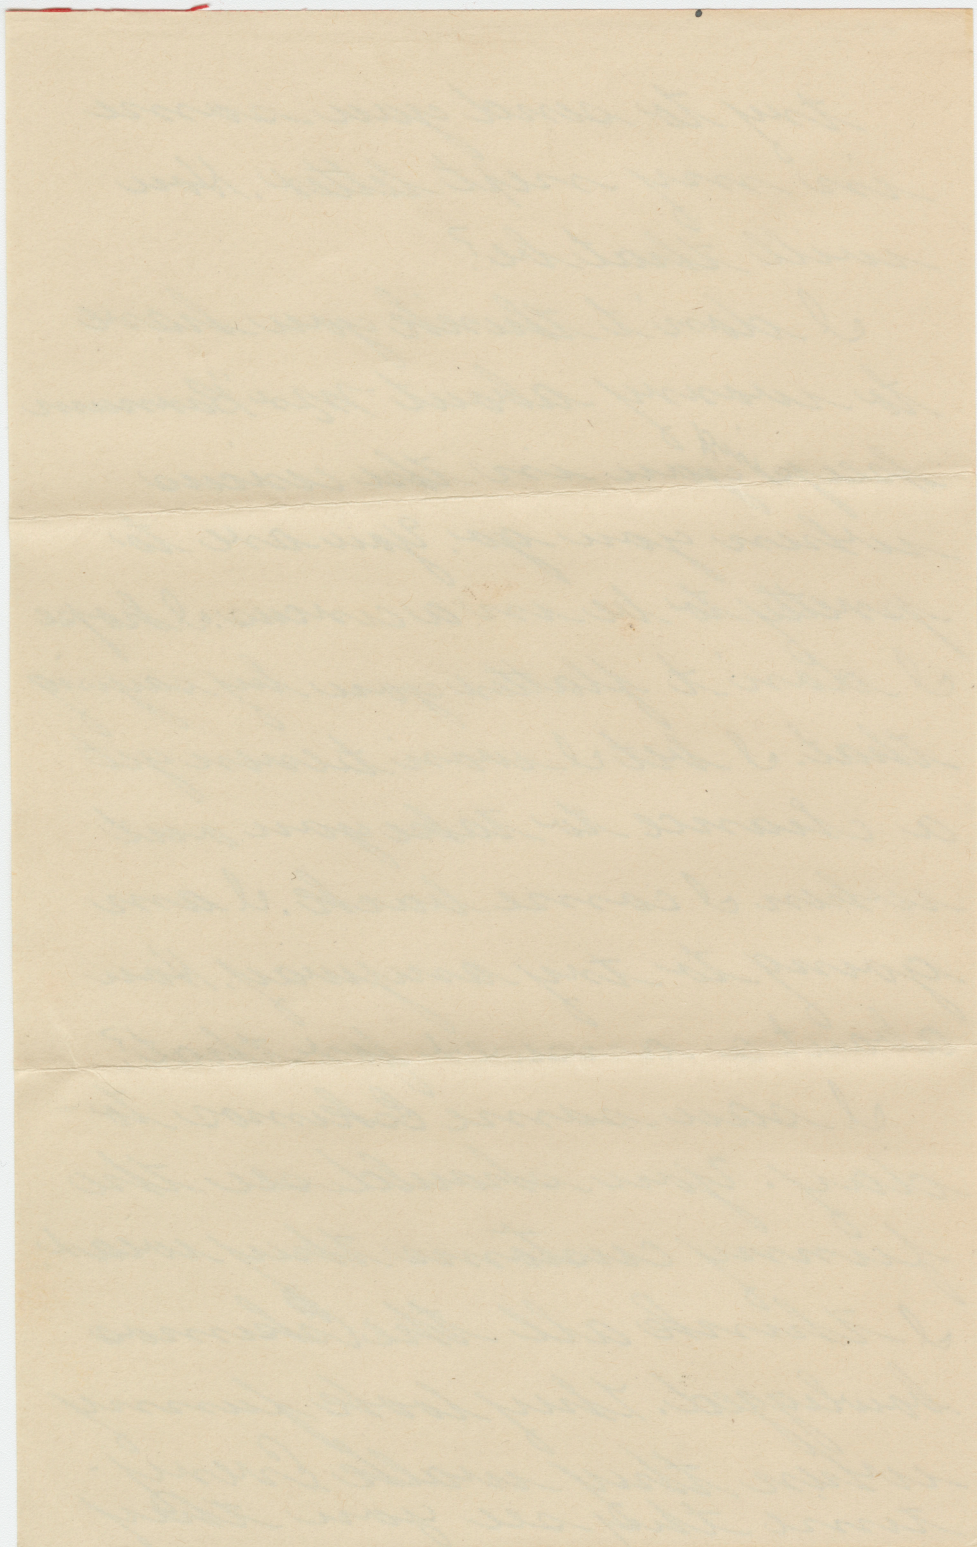

The weather here has been pretty nice, at least the sun has been shining. I suppose all the flowers at home are full in bloom. I haven't had a chance to press any flowers lately, but I'll try to send you some in my next letter. How will that be?

I don't think you have to worry about Mr. Barnum keeping you in the circus when you go. You are too pretty to be in a circus. I hope I don't flatter you by saying that. I bet I won't even get a chance to take you out when I come back. I am going to try anyway. How about a answer for that?

I saw some Eskimos today. You should see the funny customs they wear.
I think all the Eskimos bowlegged. They look funny when they walk. Everytime they see you they ask for gum.

I saw a good morning picture the other nite. It was called "Lost Angel" It is one of the best serious pictures I have seen for a long time. If you have not seen it yet, I would advise you do, because I know you would like the picture very much.

I hope you'll have a nice time at the shore. You better watch that sunburn. How about sending a picture of yourself in a bathing suit. I would like that very much. I guess my mother will be going to the shore soon Bertie I have a serious question to ask you, and I want you to answer it in your next letter. The question is, are you engaged to anybody. Please don't forget to answer the question. As far as I am not even close of getting married. I am still full of h---, will you know what I mean.

Well Hon I guess I better close because it's time for me to eat chow. Behave yourself

This picture was taken while I was standing on a iceberg I hope you like it

Love
Whitney
