

Cape May, N.J.
Sep. 3, 1942

Dearest One.

How are you getting along these fine sunny days? As for me, I couldn't be better.

We came in this noon
but our #8 was canceled.
we may have to go out
tomorrow morning early.
If we don't I'll be up Friday nite. If I do get to come up, I'll call you from Waddenfield.

I'm sending the ash tray
and ~~scarf~~ neckerchief

IDLE GOSSIP SINKS SHIPS

Cape May, N.J.
Sep. 3, 1942

Dear Mr. [Name]
I am so glad to hear
there for you and I would like to see you again.

We came in this morning
but our 48 was cancelled
I may have to go out
tomorrow morning early.
If we don't see you
I'll be out.

I'll be out. I'll be out
I'll be out. I'll be out
I'll be out. I'll be out
I'll be out. I'll be out
I'll be out. I'll be out

THE GOSPIP SINKS SHIP

you will have to put it together. The pins and screws are inside the
container wrapped in paper
so they won't rattle. Get you both to help you
put it together.

Please don't be mad at me
for not coming up this week but it couldn't be helped.

also excuse this scratching
you see, I'm trying to use a pen stuff and it scratches
Be real sweet and write soon.

Lots of love
Dallas.

P.S. We'll talk about the cake
when I see you.

IDLE GOSSIP SINKS SHIPS

you will have to put
 it together. The paper and revenue are in the
 container wrapped in paper
 so they won't rattle. Put your bottle to help you
 put it together.
 Clear has to be made at
 for not coming up the neck but it wouldn't be
 helped.
 we even the recording
 you can be done to
 a few days and it's the real next and write
 you.
 lots of love
 John
 P.S. Will talk about the color
 when I see you.

1952 SINKS SHIPS

FROM

Dell Franklin Fk

YP 412, Sec. Base.

Cape May, N. J.

IDLE GOSSIP SINKS SHIPS

Miss Elizabeth Osborn

8525 West Ave.

Elkins Park, Pa.

