Dearest Betty

I received a couple of letters from you when I got in this trip and was I glad to get them? In case you don't know it I was.

How is the cold getting along now? I hope you are completely well, even though I know it will mean that you will be going out wolfing at night. By the way, that Johnny Marine is the guy that used to stay with Anne isn't he? you know, I don't think he liked me very much, do you? All I can say about him is, I hope he doesn't get mad with me when I am within reach of him. He is too large for me to pick on.

I don't know wheather I am going to disappoint you or not but I hope so. you see, I won't be able to come up to see you before the fourth or fifth instead of the first. I'm terribly sorry I couldn't make it but they changed our schedule again. Some times I think this navy has no mind or can't make up the one they have. If nothing else happens I'll be up your way on the fourth.

Take good care of the sweetest girl I have ever known and don't drink too many Sloe Gin Fizzes when I'm not there to look after you + Write real soon yours always Dallar
