Darling.

I guess you know what today is. Just three months ago I took unto myself a bride, and what a girl she is. To me she is, with out a doubt, the nicest person in the world. In fact any one that says she is not the most wonderful girl ever, I'll personally whip him to with an inch of his life, and Honey, I'm not just whisteling Dixie either. Maybe I'm prejudiced due to my love for you, 'cause I do that. Some day I'm going to get a chance to prove that I love you but for the present I'll just have to let these letters do my talking. I can't even get you an anniversary present, as much as I would like to.

Did I tell you about the

Darling,
I guess you know what today is. Just three months ago I took out myself a kick, and what a girl she is. To me she is, with out a doubt, the most person in the world. In fact my one that says she is not the most wonderful girl ever, she generally ship him to with an inch of his life, and happy. In fact watching live either. What I'm proposing but to my love for you, cause I do that. Some day I'm going to get a chance to prove that I love you but for the present I'll just have to let three letters be my talking. I can't even get you an anniversary present.
So much as I would like to bid I tell you she at the letter I got ^{II} from Mina? She was telling me that she was going to be mad with me if I started running around with the native girls so, to get even with her I sent her a picture of some of the native women.

The photo is pretty raw and the people I've seen around here don't look like that either.
They wear clothes just like american women and some of them can speak English even better than I can (which isn't saying much). You can walk down the street and see so many american people that the natives seem to be out of place instead of yourself. I am enclosing some of the photos in this letter. I think they (the photos) are made just for the tourist to buy and not of the ~~native~~ people as they are today.
Tomorrow is going to be a very busy day so I'll sign off shortly and go to bed and get my beauty sleep. No cracks now you, sweet little bunch of onion tops, you know I don't need any such thing to aid my appearance. What I need is a plastic surgeon.

I guess I took the words right out of your mouth.

Oh yes: I just gave Myers that four-leaf clover you sent and do you know what he said? He told his wife that you ~~are~~ are a very nice girl and I got the best of the deal when we were married.
I told him he wasn't telling anything. He also said tell you thanks a million but you had better stay out of the grass or you would get red bugs on you. If you don't know what one is - its a very small parasite colored red.

They live in the woods, grass ect. When they get on you they go under the skin and cause a small bump that itches very much. Heres Myers discription The more you scratch the more agitated it becomes and the more it itches. The more it itches the more you scratch This goes on untill you are a candidate for the nut-house.

Bone pulled a fast one on Myers and me. We had enough marks in our little black book to keep him second class for ~~the~~ the rest of the war but he ~~stuffed~~ swiped the book from us so he is getting first the first of the month. I guess that will teach us. The only way we can get even is for us to give him all our work and we will spend the rest of this

that he is first class he should be able to take over all of our work. He doesn't know it but he is in for a rough time.

about three pages ago I said I was going to go to bed so now I'll live up to my promise and end this letter and take a shower and hit the sack.
