My Dear Sister
Received your kind and Brief and welcome letter and was very happy to hear you are well as I am well and hearty myself, you say the Rebels will soon have to give up, I think they will for they are near starved out and played out to nothing let our Fleet think my her boy is soon after it will be all right till May I pray I am getting along first rate hoping to see her soon give my respects to all the boys and girls around hoping to see them soon

that is my weight now 16 I found as we had a great fight here June last.
I wrote to you, I was taken prisoner and made my escape, we captured the rebels and killed a good many of them. The weather is very warm here
something like summer give my love to all around, I will soon
send you my letters so now I will enclose in sending you my love Remain your fond brother
