

Society of the Army and Navy of the Confederate States in Md.
Baltimore Jan'y. 19 1877

Resolved, That the death of General Samuel Cooper, late Adjutant and Inspector General of the Confederate States Army, which has occurred since the last Anniversary meeting of the Society, was learned with deep regret by all of its members in common with the people of the Southern States, and this Association desires to record its grateful recognition of his eminent services, sacrifices, and devotion to the Confederate cause, and the dignity and purity of his
