every thing was ready to receive you and your Lady, Dear Sir, I'm very much disappointed to see my hope differ'd and to hear of the cause, which is your worthy friend I think has been seen M. Sabatier the celebrated Surgeon in Paris. — I intended to procure very pleasant walks to M<sup>rs</sup> Mousier to lead her to a party of quadrance which may be she never saw before I hope yet she will come, and M<sup>rs</sup> Legrand will be soon better. — I send you my receipt of the two pounds I crossed Gizee works pretty, she cried the first day she came back, saying she had lost of her writing since her absence from school, her poor little innocent tears are indeed a proof of a very touching excitation, in all the child is full of sense and with good nature & and of an agreeable society, her lesity is her only defect. yours for life

Yours
Yves Courpan
