My dear Sister

I have heard of a circumstance at Saratoga Springs which finding by Mrs. Maxwell's letter that Fanny has been in town; I am determined to communicate <sup>as</sup> she may have met Wm. Van Zandt but I cannot do it now as I wish to save the Post. but you may prepare Fanny for leaving town as I think it will induce you to send her here.

Of course I get by many you will not say anything about this to Fanny or any one but her father but it is the greatest proof I can give you of the affection of your Brother & Uncle - Wm Douglass
