

Nov 29 1805
For Mr. M.
2nd of the brothers

James Monroe

American Minister

to the U. S.

London Office

100. St.

Custom House November 29th 1805

It is with the utmost concern I have to inform you my dear Sir that the accounts I have of this date received of the situation of my beloved Brother is mortifying and alarming which I am persuaded will give you pain as it does to - Yours most truly
A. Murray

[Faint, illegible cursive handwriting, likely bleed-through from the reverse side of the paper.]

