My Dear Sir

Melancholy I this moment received the Account of the Death of my beloved Brother on the 26th of last month. I know well you must feel with me on the loss of so good a man, and a most sincere friend.

I hope to hear that good M<sup>r</sup> Monroe has got better and you & your Daughter are quite well, My Lady writes with me in our Cordial good wishes for you all with the return of many happy Years, & I ever remain My Dear friend -

Yours truly & Sincerely
J. Monroe
