

Sarah George Tucker

Williamsburg -

Received
February 29. 1795

Rocky Mills Feb^{ry} 23rd 95
1795

I rejoice to hear that my most beloved friend is in such perfect health - you cannot imagine how extremely anxious I am to hear very particularly from all your family, or you would certainly have written a few lines by Mr. Thompson - do my dear Mr. Tucker gratify me shortly with a letter if its were possible for me to amuse with my scraps I should never omit an opportunity of writing, either to you, or my charming friend Mr. Tucker you will be surprised when I inform you that Mr. Lee has extracted me, never more to think of his unwarrantable conduct (which I intimat'd to you, when we were both at your House,) he at first feign'd calise ignorance of the cause of my displeasure - but very soon recollected himself - and made a most ridiculous apology - however, thank Heaven! I can forgive - present my warmest regards to your good Lady, Aunt Betty, Fanny, and the Children. To sweet little Fanny I send a thousand kisses accept a trifling token of remembrance from one, whose heart must ever glow with grate-ful and affection for you -

Ann C. Randolph

[Vertical handwriting]
Recd
Nov 18
1842