

Bizarrre September 4th 1833.

I intended writing to my kind and ever beloved friend several weeks ago - indeed I was once seated for the purpose of expressing my grateful acknowledgments. but necessity compelled me to lay aside my pen - Some person informed Tach of our dear Fanny's departure for the Warm Springs. may heaven grant her perfect health! -

Believe me dearest Sir, I would not on any consideration whatever leave Bizarrre now that there is a prospect of seeing Mr<sup>s</sup> Tachman. I shall most anxiously await her arrival - Alas! that you do not accompany her - my disappointment is ~~inexpressible~~ - indeed my dear friend it is impossible for me to endure so tedious a separation from one who possesses my unbounded gratitude and affection - Present my cordial love to Mr<sup>s</sup> Tachman, Polly, and Beverley, tell the latter I wish he would write to me -

I do truly long to see all your family including dear Henry - Tady is not well. we have had the influenza here, violently - not a

My dear Sir
I am
Yours affly
Wm. B. B.

creature escaped = Your friend passes her life in uniform industry, and finds refuge from every evil, in a proper regulation of herself -

This pen is abominable - Adieu - On your well known clemency I always rely - or I should never impose my insipid scrawls on you - Offering my respects to Mrs. Davenport - we were formerly acquainted and I esteem her highly - Your fondly attached A. C. B.

Mrs. A. C. B. Davenport

Sept. 4. 1803

Ms. A. C. B. 39.