

Oct. 1804

Every emotion of my heart toward you is so uniform and cordial that I must always seek some intercourse with you, my dearest Friend - Peyton R - informed me of your having gone down in the stage last week - Alas! to think how near I was to the best and kindest Friend I ever met with in my life - Had my Brother known you were in Osilton he would have called on you certainly - I am delighted to hear you were all renovated by the return of Frost - My dear Henry wrote me another long letter last month - God bless him! I am still in expectation of a return to Osizorro, and feel impatient for William to come for me - Judy's last favor breathes a degree of despair which terrifies me - she and Jack had both been ill - Heaven grant it were possible for me to minister with success, to her distress of mind, or her delicate health - experience too sadly proves my inability to do either - I dread the consequences of her separation from sweet Saint George - from all I can learn, her mind was never before in it's present state - Adieu my beloved Friend - Present me affectionately to good Mr Carrington and assure yourself of my utmost gratitude and most cordial attachments - A. C. R.

Miss A. C. Randall
 Oct: 1804.

Saint George Tucker
 in Richmond
 To the care of
 Thomas M. Randolph

