

Bizarre April the 4th 1805

When my heart is tenderly attached I am sometimes obtrusive, and venture on many unanswered addresses —

Dearest Jack has probably informed you of the fever which prevailed here in March — the patients are regaining strength rapidly — he is gone to the lower country on business — God bless him — and perfectly remove his health! he is, indeed, precisely what my beloved Dick, was — more, I could not say for him, possibly —

Should you again gratify me, with one of your ever welcome letters, it will find me at Sandy Ford —

My sincere love awaits your husband, mother, and sister — Miss sweet Frances for me — tall her I have given her uncle a highly coloured description of her charms — he expects to behold them, ere long — Yours, Fanny, with cordial and uniform affection
