Sarah George Tucker

I lament extremely that a day should pass without my seeing you now we are so near - Believe me I cannot easily relinquish the long indulged hope of passing one more winter with you, and I shall, very certainly, never be as low down the country, as this, again, during my life - With the company expected at your house I shall be perfectly satisfied, whoever they may happen to be - In March I return to Prince Edward -

God bless you my dear M<sup>r</sup> Tucker -
I am truly your most cordially affectionate A. C. K.
