

Saint George Tucker

Understanding the party at Mr. Marshall's had not left the dining room, I hastened to Mr. L.'s for the purpose of seeing Peyton (who has long been indisposed) intending to return immediately for the gratification of being with my dearest friend - it rained, and I was compelled to wait until Mrs. Nicholas's carriage came for her at nearly nine o'clock - you were then at home - I thank heaven there is a prospect of my making you one more visit - otherwise, I could not sustain my present inability to meet with you - God bless you dearest Sir - with grateful affection I am ever yours A. C. D.
