

Apr. 1806

I feel too much to admit of many professions - yet, permit me to say you have healed the broken heart of one whose most cordial affection you will ever possess -

I endeavor to amuse myself from morn till night, and always bear in mind the fond anticipation of seeing you next month - Offer my love to the two sweet

M^{rs} Tuckers - Tell "cousin George" I long to hear him laugh again =

God bless you my dearest, best of fathers - continue to love your own A: C: B - 1806

Apr 18
Tuckers

